I see people whom I don't know
But in those people I see you
You see me and u know me
But u pretend u never even knew me

Now all I do is walk
And between those talks suddenly I stop
Coz u just came in one of my thoughts
And in much anticipation I listen to hip hop

My life has never been at such a stop
Coz I always dreamt to be on top
F**k you hip hop
Now am gonna listen to rock

Millions of people around me
Running and striving for their dream
Sometimes I feel like going out and scream
And take out all the sadness u got into me
And console me with some s**t which helps me move on

Trying to run away from the truth
Seeing my helplessness, my friends say 'Teri maa ki choot'
They call me an emotional fool
But I don't think she understands me and realize what am going through

Totally devoted to you I've stayed
Paved for all the way
This is how I f**king get repaid
Down and died for you
I no longer cry for you

But that's ok baby
Coz in time u will find
What goes around, comes all the way back around

Behind These Hazel Eyes

I remember a voice that was calling my name
And I thought someday you would feel the same
But that someday never came Leaving me in much anticipation and pain.

Sometimes I feel like my soul has left my body
And I am floating high above me
Now I can trust nobody
Coz all I can trust is me, me and me.

And now I can't sleep
No I can't breath
I am barely hanging on.

Here I am once again
Trying to get you back while I try to hide my pain
Broken up deep inside
But deep inside my heart
I don't even know now
How I made it so far.

And now I can hardly see the truth from my sore eyes
No matter how much you try
You won't get to see the tears I cry
Behind these hazel eyes.

Far Away

When I tried to talk to you, u dint seem interested
And when I called you, you picked up and disconnected.

Sometimes I get scared that I won't see you again
And I really can't figure out how deep is my pain.

Sometimes I wonder whether I ll be able to tell you all this Or will I just keep writing stuff like this
But as an optimist I am I ll definitely gather the courage to show Show u the pain I have been through
And show you how it feels to be far away from you.

It's been almost three months now but to me it's like living in hell for more than three years.

So far away
Been far away for far too long
I keep dreaming u ll be wid me and u never go
Stop breathing if I don't see you anymore.

I miss you a lot and wonder whether u miss me or not Everytime u pass by me I wish u stop
Stop and say
"I love you
And I have missed you all along
And I forgive you for being away for far too long
Keep breathing coz I am not leaving u anymore
Believe it, hold on to me and never let me go"

Feels Like Defeat To Wretched Retreat

Humanity is the nicest thing in the world
Being human is like being nice to god
People come and people go
But in this world they leave a mark
A mark of their existence which we feel Even when we are apart.

People build houses, people build their workplace
They strive hard for a living, they strive hard for something
Which they can call their own place.

Nature has its own merits and demerits
And natural disasters are one of the biggest demerits.

There strikes an earthquake, people feel the tremors
And they try to find out what were their errors.
Thousands and lakhs of people die
And millions of dreams are destroyed.

And what we used to call our home is now lying in a heap of mess
A mess of broken dreams and money
A mess which cannot be brought back
Without much fear and worry.

All we can hear is moan and pain
Pain to see their loved ones die
And pain to see the left ones cry.

All they can do is pray to god
Pray for a better future and a better comeback
So that they can get their life back on track.

I pray to god that never let such a disastrous thing happen to anyone in this world
And ever if it happens then please give them strength to fight the fear
And build a new world.

EDedicated to all the people who lost their lives in earthquakes

And all those people who survived an earthquake and still struggling.

I Wanna Grow Old With You

I saw you once
And now I saw you twice
I just wish I see you all my life
Just can't express the feeling I get when you're around
But you really make my world go round.

I wanna grow old with you
I wanna be that sparkle in your eye
I wanna be there for you
I swear that this is not a lie.

Sometimes I get scared that you will reject me
But my heart says me 'Dear, you can't eject me.'
And if I stop for a minute I think about things I really don't wanna know
But I am the first to admit it
Without you I'm like a liner stranded in an ice floe.

How things happened is really very strange
But love is that network which is not hampered by any range
They say that love just happens by chance
And with this love I don't wanna take any chance.

Miss, I Really Miss!

I was stepping in to become young
I thought it is journey too long
I afraid I should never go wrong
I wish that time would never have gone

I am so much influenced by lady smile
She has entered in life just for a while'
Life seems to be so interesting and fine
I want to dance on floor with glass of wine

Miss, you can't be so rude,
For a word you have made prelude,
All warmth and affection you include,
Hate and distance you always exclude,

I never expected you to cast,
Showed your true colors when it was time to laugh
I wasn't the first to realize it fast
But I knew there was some contrast.

Your innocence and name infused,
Kind words for me but you never confused,
Time was for decision but you never refused
Always stood at right point and crisis defused,

Even amidst delicate moments,
You did not offer a word or comment, I was hurt most but I never showed
I couldn't sleep but I could hear you snore

I loved you most as your dearest friend
Still you didn't put any word to end,
Kept me at dark but did not ask for excuse
Used it as pretext but not denied or refused

'Miss' I miss you but you don't miss,
Not expected from you kind hug or simple kiss
Not even kind gesture or more to show,
Still I miss you but I think you'll never know.

Will this uncertainty remain or go?
Life will be full of highs and lows
I tried to enter your heart fast and slow
You always bear a "no entry" logo,

You called on me for good luck and best wishes
I was always there as water for fishes
May be it is very hard to swallow for some reasons
And I still wonder why people change with seasons.

I was quick to grasp situation,
Hurting me wasn't your intention
Shock was sudden and heavy but came very late,
I did accept it with grace as part of fate

She didn't become mine for any reason
I simply waited for spring season
Maybe we didn't share that bond
But I was inclined and very fond

She had nothing to loose
She just had options to choose
Why did she turn around halfway?
She always used to call me as sweet babe

It may be her way of thinking
It left me high and dry with almost blinking
What should I call her behavior?
A need to let go of her past or a need to have a fresh start.

Miss, I really miss but you don't miss
And now I know you don't give a shit!

Moment Of Truth

I have been waiting for you since a long time
And you came like a sushine so bright
And everything just felt so right.

My friends keep asking me 'Why don't you mingle? Why don't you date? '
But I always tell them 'I haven't met someone so special till date.'

And now since that I have met you
I don't wanna lose you
And grab this oppotunity to tell you
That you are very special and I really love you.

Your eyes have the power to make me go mad
And when you are not with me, I feel really sad.
I tried to explain my mind that this is just an infatuation
But my heart told me this is not just another situation.

I may flirt a lot
And u might think that I am such a dog
But trust me I am very serious this time
And I won't break your trust
If you'll be mine.

I don't know much about you
But I know that I love you and can't live without you.

I didn't know this thing would happen so suddenly
And now since it has happened
I want to make it special and last forever.

This one is for you
And I know these words aren't brand new though it's coming from my heart:

I used to know you
But i never knew I loved you
Till the day you laid your eyes on me
And now I am jumping up and down
You are the only one around
And you mean every little thing to me.

I close my eyes I see you, I open my eyes I wanna see you.
One thing I can promise 'I won't let a single tear fall from your hazel eyes and I'll always try to make you smile even if you are not mine.'

Monsoons

Rain rain rain
So unpredictable and yet so vain.

It starts with a thunder followed by a lightning
Then comes the rain and leaves the earth whitening.

Every time it thunder
It makes me wonder
Is it just a cloud crying out loud
Or is it expressing it's love with a bow.

Water flow on the streets
People wear raincoat
Children rejoice in this sweet retreat
And sail their boat.

People away from home cry out for help
But the pmc claim they made arrangements.
Heavy traffic jams and accidents are a common sight
So we can't blame rain for this one, right?

The trees, poles and wires fracture the streets
But I still can't figure out what the hell pmc did.

I see outside my window and see a motorist
He struggles to start his Bike
As everyone passes by.

I see people walking with umbrellas
Struggle to walk on the side of the road
Coz the sidewalk is currently on water mode.

Finally when the water in the clouds is empty
It's time for us to pay the penalty.
A strange silence and calmness prevails
Life comes back on track and so do trains.

At the end of the day it is the farmers who are rejoiced
The seeds that they had sown
Finally turns out into crops that have grown.

No hard feelings for rain
Just wish there was something more than water that we could gain.

Soundtrack To My Life

I've got some issues that nobody can see and all of these emotions are pourin' outta me
I bring them to the light for you it's only right
this is the soundtrack to my life

Four years down the line
I had a friend whom I called mine
Things changed and only misunderstandings prevailed
She went her way and never gave me a chance to explain.

I was so crazy all the time I thought about her
Never gave myself a chance to make new friends
But in this process I couldn't forget her
Till the tears in my eyes were drained.

Got over her after my boards
New college, made new friends and went onboard.
Again made a friend whom I could call mine
And this time I don't even know any fault of mine
That made her so angry
And now she even refuse to ignore me.

Now leaving me alone in this broken zone
No one knows how it feels to be alone
In a crowd of hundreds of my own.
Am writing sad stuff to stop the pain and the hurt
But everytime I write a tear drops on my shirt.

Now all that I am after, is a life full of laughter
As long as I am laughing with you
I am thinking that all that still matters is love ever after Coz after all that we've been through
I know there's no life after you.

Stay With Me Baby When The Lights Go Down

Another day without you and this is another night
Without you in my life there is no light
Darkness and sadness has since prevailed
I wish I could hold our train from getting derailed.

There are some moments when I don't feel sad
But I don't know why you think that I am so bad.
I was so crazy for all the times I tried to make you laugh
You walked away and left our love in half.

I look at the moon and the million stars
Speak with them bout my scars
Scars on my half-healed heart
Which still aches now coz we'r apart.

I don't know how to end this thing up
But thats all I got in my mind there up
I was so crazy for all the times I tried to make you smile
You walked away and never said goodbye
I pray that you realize even if it takes a while
That I love you and want you back in my life.
On and on... On and on...
I guess I lost you now you're gone.

Why You Are Gone?

Every night I think about you
I think about the time we spent together
And every time I miss you
I just wish we were together.

I told u sorry though it wasn't my fault
And every time you ignore me
I wish I had done something wrong.

I have no idea what went wrong
And now all I can think about is
WHY YOU ARE GONE?

I listen to certain songs which remind me of you
And then tears roll down to not be around you.

Sometimes when it hurts too much to not have you here with me
I just look up to the stars and talk about you and me
Talk about the moments we spent together
And ask questions about why aren't we together
But the stars act just like you
Far away from me and never reply too.

But I'll keep trying to get you back in my life
Cause without you girl I just can't survive
How this will happen I don't have a clue
But I hope this happens in days very few.

You Were My Everything

Today there ain't any stars in the sky
And all of the tears come running in my eyes
Everythings been said and done
And from the pain I try to run

If you loved me as much as you said you did
Then you wouldn't't have hurt me like I ain't shit
Now you pushed me away like you never even knew me
I loved you with my heart, really and truly

I guess you forgot about the times that we shared
In the car listening to music and changing the gears

Musics on, headphones on
And on the pillow my tears fall
I sing songs but there's no one with me to sing along
I see you smile I see you laugh
And that's enough for me to move on

I am 99% sure that u ain't gonna come back around
But that 1% is enough for me to hold on

And now when i look up to the sky
The pain and tears come running in my eyes

Waiting for the day I ll be free and when I'll fly
Because now my eyes even refuse to cry

What is it that is holding me on to you
And may be it's true that I can't live without you
Waiting for the day I meet you and open up my heart
And I just can't believe that our loves torn apart
