Abdelmajid Seghir(02/04/1986)

Seghir Abdelmajid, was born in Rabat in April the 2nd,1986.

In 1994 his family moved to Laayoune in the south of Morocco, he has become interested in poetry in the high school, after getting his baccalaureat he went to Agadir to continue his studies but he had some tough situations which forced him to go back to Laayoune and change his path to hotel trade and tourism instead of er; he is still in love with English, and he is still trying to improve his writings, especially that he now is a member of a local music band called RECTOVERSO...

All My Amazing Life

Alone right now 'it's rough'
My day is my night
All my amazing life
Lost its charming light
When i made that mistake
That terribly destroyed me
I hope i still have a chance To make it up beautifully

So that's a song for you Because i owe you an apology
That's the least i can do
To bring you back to me
I'm sure you still love me too
I'm begging you to forgive me To forget the pain i caused to you Though it's not that easy

*Ref:

All my amazing life is you
And for it i am ready to do Everything you order me to Just give me my heart back and so my life that you own... my life that is YOU!

Amnesia

A man with no past is a couple made up of one To me yesterday's never existed Today, from here I need to run Nothing seems familiar
I can't remember what I've done Everything's peculiar even the rocks of here even its sun

REf

This is too much than I can handle
Inside my haunted head screaming laughs giggle X2

Jason's friend of misery refreshed it all renewed it all

And now I got back my memory (Remember me)
The past that crawls the couple's got back together in me
Now my friend let's leave the hope,
Don't wanna 'The Me'
All of All I need now is my AMNESIA

REf

This is too much than I can handle
Inside my haunted head screaming laughs giggle X2

Crownless King City

pieces have clashed down and the pictures become blur people's fronts frown in front of the closed door of crownless king city

ref:

welcome to my world Mr lugubrious stress, sadness street, loneliness block, apartment N°1 crownless king city is my address i've been guided by the light of darkness to crownless king city locked by my absolute absence of consciousness in crownless king city enjoying my tragic loneliness with the people of crownless king city

Dangerous Sweet Rotten Apple

I've never had the pleasure of meeting
A rotten apple
Until that day
When i opened my eyes
And now I hope I just had not
The day I saw you standing In front of my door
Asking me to let you in, and have a drink together
You looked good
But your eyes seemed strange
They were blur
And you smelled deception
And you smiled reflecting Your rotten reflection
But I was hypnotized
And could not chase you away
And decided to bite instead Kissing my love and life goodbye.

Her Whisper

Desperate cold sun passes by Crying over it's faded smile
That once used to satisfy Every helpless man and every child

She whispered: 'Just die'
She whispered: 'Come here'
She whispered: 'I love you'
She whispered: 'No fear'

' Lonliness has gone away I'll be your friend ever after I'll make you live an eternal day I'll satisfy your greed and hunger'

I Died The Day I Killed You (Truth)

Cold breezes sneak at night Surprise my laid body
Through the small curves of my blanket
They sting as the unhappy truth

Afraid to move and lose it all Afraid of keeping my place until tomorrow That may never come
And whose sun's color may change
Into an unseen glow
Into a deep sorrow
Into a deceiving fellow

And the sunlight becomes A scapgoat of humanity
A scapgoat of our brutality
A scapgoat of our mentality

Now that the sun's gone away
All that's left there for me
Are the elements of my tragedy:
Hollowness, anger, Pain...That is killing me.

In The Search Of Me...

Now i am looking for me

I am searching for me

I am ready to be□

I wanna be me

Why, can't you never see i wanna be set free

i wanna cross the deep sea

i wanna find me refrain and now, i've gone, there to get me out of your cell still, life kicks me so hard destroys me so bad

i can't understand why can't I be back to my land

Death is my happiest end cuz i've lost the will to stand please death, take me down now that i'm asking for your hand

Jerk Star! !

I tried to write a song yesterday
And i came up with some random lines
I thought they were some great stuff
Of which people won't get enough

I had fantasies as a rock star singing: 'so close no matter how far But daddy smiled, and said: 'NOWAY'
And mom turned and yield at me:

' You're a jerk star' they said to me (oh yeaaaaaaah)
' You're a jerk star' they yield at me (oh noooooooooo)

I didn't care and i carried on And showed the song to the guys in my zone Still don't know why they run away
And she broke with me right away

All i was trying to do
Was to write a song and to be 'cool'
But no one gave me a chance And they all agreed it was 'nonsense'

' You're a jerk star' they said to me (oh yeaaaaaaah)
' You're a jerk star' they yield at me (oh noooooooooo)

Men Of Fear

Frozen souls, burnt hearts
Make up bad men of evil
From eternity evil starts Stopping every star's twinkle

Closed doors is all you see Nothing in your life worths a fight And you just let it be Since you're looking for woods tonight

Then you wake up after the long obscurity Still there, still not secure Driven mad to insanity
Is a thing that you know for sure

Not Found Yet*

Closing down my tired eyes
To that old sickening world
My hope gets put and flies Away there is no word

To explain that pain that's suffocating me Failure is all I get Whenever I try to be

No one else but me
Nothing gets closer but darkness
And happiness becomes my myth

The sound inside of my head Won't let me go down
It urges me to react
This pain should be stopped

Of Light & Glow

When I was lost in the jungle
Of those never ending issues
Which I just couldn't handle, Got an offer I couldn't refuse

T'was a guiding light that twinkled Showing me the right way Leading me through my days that darkened
Because of my obscure sins sway

REF:

I had no doubt it was from above
From the Almighty Lover
So i didn't even bother
And followed Allah's light.

Out Of Here Out Of Fear

The fear inside me
Is driving me insane.
Please! Shelter.. hide me, Back me up against the pain.
Through the so long trail
Or through the so vast green
I don't wanna know
Because I don't even care
Just keep me out of here
Just keep me out of fear That's all to say I dare That's all to say I do freaking dare...

Phoenix

In this battle against life itry...
I try, try hard to say What's felt beneath in any way that may Show the right thing to do To those who're still looking for a clue
And in the end of it all, when there is no place to go And no one loks for me anywhere around When it seems i'm over With no crowd at all or a bunch sayin' their 'boo' i don't just freak out and let it go. NO!
I stare again at the sky Remembering the tough time Telling the world I'm tough enough this time
Able to come back with my rhyme
Which is for me a sublime Way of telling the world why You're up and down
Without being oused to a crime
To prove you're here!
That is not me and this thought has never been mine
One word ta say here: I'M HERE Got a mind and i ain't no blind

That's how it rocks
And that's how i come back Though this life sucks
And always stubs my back
I don't care of the bucks
That got you all stuck Or even drove you nuts
And made you blamers of luck

Spins And Swirls

It looks like, i've never had existed i don't know, why i can't stand still i can't see, how was i drifted always, downed by the damn chill life looks just like nothing and my heart; is just about stopping i can't see why you're laughing but nomatter, i'll just keep my banging

Rap:

Now this time i'm moving on alone don't care of what you do anymore that's why i've changed into a stone i'm tired, just wanna reach the core i'm not gonna stick to a damn bone and let my life down, for sure i just wanna have a life of my own don't want you though you swore!

REF:

Rap

Dont tell me you haven't got a clue cuz i was who didn't know what to do Now things are no longer up to you sorry to say so, but yeah, it's true your hangover takes a lot and to recover, you know you really need to go sorry again if i disappointed you but in my life, i just don't want you! ! !
