A Promise To You My Love

I am the one with whom you can share your pain
I am the one who'll see to it you never cry again
I'll give you my best in your distress
All the obstacles for you to face I shall suppress Don't feel sad someone's not there
Feel happy that I'm here to care
Don't lose hope just because things seem bleak
By doing that you are gonna make yourself weak
After all you are my love
You are my gift from the heaven above
Believe in yourself like I believe in you
With the two of us together let's make our dreams come true
Let's fight to the very end
Don't forget forever I'm your friend
Think not about the dead past
Think not about what the future may last
Think about what you can do today
For the future maybe beyond what you can pray
I'm there with you all the way

A Simple Wish

For the moments of time that we had to share
Filled with both joy and sorrow
For the time no one except each other would care
Made both our hearts shallow

Our common passion and common feelings brought us together
These things brought amongst us a bond
I wish we could always be together
I wish our life was like a closed pond

Where the trees of labour would bear sweet fruits and nuts
Where the stars always shined upon us with hope
Where we would stand beside each other and admire our guts
And we would Pull our destiny towards us with a common rope

I wish these things could last forever and not die
Because we've always been there for each other everytime
We've been there for each other not letting the other cry
We've pardoned each other and forgiven for all our crimes

I hope that this would somehow stay forever
I hope we will always be there for each other
I hope we always stand by and try to forget
The painful memories we shared and we always regret

And I Wandered Into A Dream

The smile on her face was too beautiful to see
I'm not sure whether it was meant for me
Those rosy red cheeks and strawberry coated lips
Ebony eyes on the ivory skin
All merged together in perfect symmetry with her smile

It fell down after a few minutes,
How I wish it lasted for a little while more
And I got down on my knees, pretending to tie my shoes
While probably she was deciding on what to choose

I had a glimpse of her face once again
Before she ran for shelter as it started to rain.
And I followed her and she probably noticed that I didn't want to get wet
I ensured that I stood next to her and boy was this a moment not to forget
The cold wind and the wetness of my clothes dried off with her smile
It melted my heart so much that I made my face like a hungry reptile

And then I heard the thunder strike so loud
I realized that it was too odd a sound for a thunderstorm
Another one and a bit too early from the usual rain
And a third one in succession and there was the weird sound once again.
And I felt a weird knock on my head
And then I saw my professor yelling at me for he thought I was dead.

Days Without You

Days without you seem like an endless fall
Without anyone to meet or to call
My cellphone's obsolete just like a PS2
I find it painful not to show you how much I love you

I miss you more than I miss joy
I miss you treating me like just another play toy
I miss you yelling at me just for me to leave
I miss you comforting me with whatever I underachieve

I cry alone because there is no one to care
I always try my best to remember how you might fare
I find it difficult to sleep at night without telling you
That with every passing day the more I love you

Fall

I wandered out and little did I know
That the breeze was strong and cold like snow
And for the first time in a while
I could not wait to see the sun gleam with a smile

For a tropic skin that could not stand rain,
Here I stood in blithering pain.
But the trees were warm and gentle still.
Aging gracefully and out of their own will.

Knowing that things will get better with time.
And so did the birds in synchrony did they chime
To let me know that there are many days ahead.
I'll be tossed and blown without sleep and rest to my head

Did not spring blossom after the terrible cold?
Did you not achieve more than what you were told?
Be it in a gentle breeze or rain
After the leave fell, did they not spring back to life again?

I will grow stronger and bolder and learn to gracefully lose
And learn that the key to success lies not in opportunities but the decisions you choose.
I walk now away from this confidently as a happy man.
The cold will go away and I will soon be able to do anything I can.

Feelings Of A Lonely Man

Morning skies greet me with the warmth of million suns
Come to think of it, What have I really done?
First steps seem so scary in the dark
Yet nature gives birth under the canopy bark
I feel so lost in this empty place
Ashamed, lonely and filled with disgrace
I cannot be who I really want to be
Is this really the place meant for me?

Friend Or Foe

When I am lost and am in despair
When I have no one to care
When there are things and no one to share
I feel alone

Tell me why do they desert me?
Why do they fail to see?
My misfortunes and my agony
I feel alone

I fight my battles with all my heart
When I lose I'm torn apart
I feel that every end is a new start
Yet I am alone

I guess I don't have any friends
I guess I don't have much trends
I guess I don't have things to apprehend
Why am I alone?

I realise now that I am not
I realise that that it was just a wicked thought
I realised that there is someone with me
That someone happens to be loneliness my best friend and foe

Friends Forever Again

I know there are answers not to be found
I too am tired of searching for it around
You are my last hope of finding it again
You are truly my best friend

The times good and bad we'd to share
Though we never forget the times we'd each other to care
Living so far by distance but yet close to our hearts
It never made us feel that we were far apart

For I see such a wonderful person in you
Such a friend could not be more true
Always helping me find something new
I wonder at times what I'd do without you

But whenever we'd to suffer in pain
And let the wounds unhealed and remained
You were there for me to ease my pain
Wish I'd be there for you once again

Friendship is like a rainbow with different colours of light
Each with its own significant and glowing bright
The joy, the sorrows, the good times and the fight
Will only seem beautiful if they are together and alike

I know there are so much left to say
I know there are things we can't do it our way
Buh one things is for certain if I wish to ease the pain
Between us then lets be friends forever and ever again!

How Do I Love You

I don't think there is much to say
Because you know how I feel everyday
The dawn illuminates the sky to shine just like you do to the world of mine

I shall compare thee not to any mortal but an angel
You are an epitome of sweetness and good will
I admire thee like the one you call 'god'
Not the one who people praise equivalent to a fraud

You are like a gentle breeze on a summer noon
You illuminate my dark life like the moon
You are indeed the best when it comes to being you
No wonder I've many reasons to love you

I shall be with you though we are far apart
This end might just be the start of something new
But you are the only one who can mend my broken heart
And my dearest I indeed truly do love you

How I Became A Kopite

I can never forget the day I first saw LFC play
I don't know the date but it was on a Sunday
At that time I didn't know much about football like I do today
At half time LFC were a goal down
On Houllier's face I cud see a frown
Then came a kid who was the talk of the town

He stepped in and changed the course of the match
Scoring 2 goals in 6 min. makin it tough for Seaman to catch
I learnt from him that day that LFC don't give up without a fight
That's what they've been doing for over a 100 years day and night
That itself convinced me enough to be a Kopite!

How It Is

Long ago I waited upon this day to come
I never lost hope because I never had anything to gain from
I long for you now as a plant longs for sunshine
Its time I understood that you will never be mine

I love you more the farther am apart from you
Its when I realized that my feelings are more than true
I miss whatever we shared together
It'll remain with me forever

I miss your smile which is like the cure to my tears
Your voice so beautiful like sweet music to my ears
Your thoughts so pure as milk can be Yet am too confused with my own to see

These days without you seem to be the harshest ever
Now I realize the truth that for me your too clever
You always wanted to leave me from the day I loved you
Not because of the hate but because of the bitter truth
Sweetheart forever will I truly love you

Akshay Basavaraj

I Killed Thy Saviour

Bleeding through pain and remorse in my life
Fighting with wounds during my strife
I bleed red and I leave my body cold
Pain inside my heart and never to be told

But I look out and see them cry
Questioning and wondering as to why
For no fault of mine I see them in pain
Tears fall from their eyes like monsoon rain

They beg you for in their hour of need
But you instill them with the greed
That made you a fool and a taker
And you call yourself their maker

You took my one love who filled my heart
You took her away and you tore her apart
For she was no sinner but an angel of Good
The reason you claimed her would be never understood

I saw you bring injustice to this world
You were to be our saviour but not this fool you've turned into You're the reason for pain and injustice of this world
This world I live and where I shall die
Before I surpass you I shall ask you why
Why won't you show up and face me
And I swear with thy blade I shall bring you to your knee
For you took what was left to be good of us
And you turned your back upon us
I shall cut you in half and make this world beautiful
For every drop of your blood shall turn to trees
Your carcass shall be made into a forest
Your spirits into rain that would fill the world with joy
And bring peace to what would be eternal chaos

And my love I avenge thy death for it wasn't deserved
I love you till my last breath and I shall always do
But I'd no choice but to kill thy saviour
So I killed thy saviour I killed thy saviour

I killed thy saviour for he wasn't one

I killed thy saviour I killed thy saviour
I killed thy saviour I killed thy saviour
for he wasn't one

Akshay Basavaraj

I Love You

I love you even if we are far apart
You have struck a deep impression upon my heart
I love you for who you are and I support you for who you wannabe
No matter where you are I just want you to be happy
I don't care if I'm cold and lonely
Anywhere in this world I feel homely
I'll never tell you what I've been through I'll see to that it will never happen to you
You see that's love and I love you

Akshay Basavaraj

I Walk Alone

As I walk in the rain to hide my tears
No one accompanies me to face my fears
I think about the painful past
I think about the suffering which forever lasts
I lose time and thoughts about my life
It feels as though someone was constantly threatening with a knife
I have no road in this journey to follow
The only one walking besides me is my shadow
The pain so evident that everyone can see
But no one understands it or tries to help me
For now I've to walk alone
I do that because I've no place called home

Akshay Basavaraj

I'M Sorry My Friend

My foolishness always makes you to cry
My curiosity makes you think of moments when you were about to die
My ignorance makes you feel low and breaks your heart
My unwanted intelligence drifts the two of us far apart

All I want to say right now is that
You are indeed one of my best friend
For all the warmth and love you gave me
My fidelity to u shall never end

At times I'm a fool who can never think
So insensitive that I make you low
I'm so dull headed that I forget the fact
That you are the true friend sent from the heaven above

Yet the painful past brings us as close as We can ever be Since we've each other we've someone to share our pain
Forever my true friend you shall always be
Though the painful scars of our past may remain

Akshay Basavaraj

In Faith

Tell me what is it that you've done today,
You will say, ' Nothing', much to my dismay.
If I were to be with you for the rest of the day
After a while, you will tell me to go away.

Yet you spend a lot of time with someone who didn't exist
One who promises you a life of love, care and eternal bliss.
Never seen and never spoken to you either by night or day
Always afraid to speak out fearing what others might say.

To such a fool you commit your life forever
Uncharacteristic of you but I thought you were clever
You do wrong thinking that you were doing right
But in reality you are just piling up your miserable plight

How I wish I could tell you before it was too late
Before I saw you and your fellow mates evaporate
Forever leaving the face of the earth without any trace
Without you, I feel so lonely in this empty place

Akshay Basavaraj

Its Still There

When you left me here all alone
When you took care of me when I'd no home
Now that you've left me fully grown
My love for you is still there

When one day you broke my heart
And we were separated far apart
Lost between lines of hope and failure
My love for you is still there

My life is so blissful under your care
You heal my wounds which are bare
You help me out of my despair
My love for you is still there

Sheltering me from all my pain
Seeing to it that it never happens again
All my problems which you try to slain
Forever will my love for you remain

Akshay Basavaraj

Lost At An Ocean Of Thoughts

Troubled by the pains of my past
Wounds never healed but forever to last
As I gaze to the heaven above
It shows no mercy or love

Thoughts maddening and making me cry
As I begin to wonder why?
Am I lost here so much in despair
Is my pain so hard for anyone to repair

As I spiral into the oblivion and beyond
I find only questions and no answers yet found
Cruelty, hatred, anguish and pain
Are the only thoughts in my head that remain

So as I wait here in this asylum of mine
Where I don't wish to cry and whine
If anyone out there do wish to see me happy
Come love me and heal me from my misery

Akshay Basavaraj

Lost Love

Scars they scream to make us feel their pain
Lost in wars and sworn to never to be seen again
Failure takes a deep toll on our hearts
And the bond between us tend to drift apart

Blissfulness so near is made far to reach
All because of mistakes I made with you
Now everytime I try to set it right
I just feel brand new

For I forgot what you meant to me
For you were the love meant to be
And I did things without having a clue
But now I realize how much I love you

You're the morning star in my dull life
Your voice, my savior during my strife
Your heart makes me feel shameful of my greed
But your always with me in my hour of need

I love you like how the sun loves the sky
No matter how much the distance you make me feel high
And make everyday of mine look brand new
Deep down in my heart I'll forever love you

Akshay Basavaraj

Missing You

I miss you so much, everyday in my dreams
But I cannot tell the value of how much you mean to me
It takes time for memories to heal
But after a while, everything on this planet seems pleasant to me

At times I frown over all the mistakes you make
I grow agitated, frustrated and irritated at the decisions you take
I feel like bashing my head with a leaf rake
But after a while it was worthy seeing what you could make

If I were to be mad at the mistakes you do
If I were to be happy for all the good that you do
I would be a complete fool so as not to feel
After a while as to how much I love you.

Akshay Basavaraj

My Just Rewards

For all the times I been with you whenever you cried
For all the times I revived you before you died
For all the times I loved you when no one cared
For all the times I gave you hope when no one dared
Are my rewards such that I was to be left alone
Now I am in pain and its making me groan
For the times I helped you face your fears
Is this how you reward me by bringing me to tears?
I wonder as why people leave me behind
After All my seeking the answer I find
Is because I'm nothing more than a fool
I'm not one of those who are cool
Love, friendship, joy was not meant for me
Pain, agony, suffering are the only things that I can see.

Akshay Basavaraj

My Sweet Angel

Last night as I walked down the empty lane in the moonlight
I gazed up to the skies and I saw the stars glowing bright
I began to wonder why was I all alone in this venture of mine
Why is it that people would treat me as a treacherous swine?
Then something happened and something fell out from the sky
It was so peculiar that I began to ask myself the question why?
It was an angel whose eyes were filled with innocence of a child
The way she spoke to me indeed proved to me that she was mild
Her beauty could not be described in words to say
She promised me that she would stand beside me every day
Aye she walked beside me and made my journey so short
She kissed me and blessed me and treated me in ways others never thought
She said she loved me for the person I am and made me believe
I promised her that I would help her when ever she needed to achieve
I walked on my path from there on and I realised something else
That she was not an angel but a mere mortal itself
Am I fool such that I could not make out the difference
Was she so amazing that I mistook her for an angel itself?
Where ever you might me I'll always be there for you!
And these are the words which can not be more true
Thank you for the times we shared
Thank you for the times you even cared
Thank you for the company you gave me in my lonely life
Aye I wish some how you could be my wife
Nevertheless I promise that when ever you need me I'll be there for you
And I'll forever and always till the end of time I'll always love you

Akshay Basavaraj

My True Love

The warmth that I feel in your presence easing my pain
The beauty you possess is so hard for me to explain
The kind heartedness which is in your nature is so amazing
You have the power to shelter the one's you love even when the sun's blazing
You have been there for me in those worst of times
You have forgiven me for all my crimes
You are the angel I always wanted to see
You are the perfect companion to be with me
You are the auora I wish I could be
You are the love of my life Honey

Akshay Basavaraj

The Good Times

The sweet times and the joy that we shared
I still wonder when no one did why did you care
I loved every moment of it filled with love
Did you ascend down just for me from the heaven above?
The moments were too good with love and bliss
I guess I couldn't ask anything more than this
You changed the cold nature of mine and made me humane
Thanks for caring about me when my nature's insane
Thanks for cheering me up and easing my pain
Thanks for healing my wounds though the scars may remain

Akshay Basavaraj

The Sin Of Love

I see you from the distance far apart
You look so beautiful that you lighten my heart
Your smiles so sweet that it would shine the brightest star
Your voice so meek that it would soften the hardest bar
But I shall say that its tough to speak with you
I hope that with time you shall see this through

I confess that I truly do love you
And my feelings can't be more true
For every second I spend time with you
I shall feel myself brand new
I see heaven in your eyes
You take me off my feet and to paradise

But now I shall feel pain for your with a man
I shall respect your choice and not ask as to why
For I guess this was how it was meant to be Maybe this thing called love was not my cup of tea

But wait for your man betrayed you of your trust
For him love was nothing more than a thing of lust
He held you responsible for all his crimes
He worsened the best of you in your bad times
And now while your screaming in pain
He would leave you alone never to return again

And now you feel that I was the one who loved you
Truly and deeply as to see you happy
But now I guess time has passed with my life
I shall love you but not have you as my beloved wife
While you were in glee with thy man of honour
I was hiding and crying in shame
But now you find me to be true
But its not so because I think you never knew

All this time maybe my feelings were fake
No wonder you chose him and things went ahead
But now I shall reveal the truth to you
All this time you saw my spirits when I was dead

The sin of love it brings only pain and no one would care to know how the other feels
The sin of love brings only remorse
But you feel that its the right thing when it isn't Such is the mystery of the sin of love

Akshay Basavaraj

The Strange Quest In Life

On a quest to a land at yonder point
There might be no return or turning back
Yet so lost at the middle of the lane
I feel fear creeping upon me in the dark

It makes me scared as it reminds of the past
Wounds that will never heal and forever last
Hard to forget of what was to be Written clearly in heaven as my destiny

Yet the treachery of the people may come
In the way of this quest in its never ending way
Not to feel fear is something I must follow
Because all I can do now is listen to what my heart must say

Longing for peace and happiness but not yet found
For there are some things my destiny's not bound
Yet there are times when I thought it was mine
What a fool was I then when it was not meant to be mine

Now I walk alone along this empty road
Cold and dark and filled with fear
Not knowing what lies ahead
Nor do I know what lies near

For the times my heart was broken beyond repair
And made me weep alone in despair
Not having a single for me who would care
Whether I existed or was not there

These things have made me strong
Maybe I mistook them for my enemies
Now I realized that I was wrong
They're indeed my friends and my staunch allies

Akshay Basavaraj

The Truth

Maybe there is nothing in life worth to me
Except my dreams, ambitions and what ever I aspire to be
There has been no one for to care
I'm crazy enough to do things which no one would dare
And now I look upto you and your nowhere to be found
I don't see you in my dreams or anywhere around
Where are you right now as I wonder where?
Why do people leave me here alone without any care?
There is no one in my life I guess is meant to be
To live, walk and always be beside me
So don't try to hide the truth when its put before me
I always am and always am meant to be lonely

Akshay Basavaraj

The Value Of A Friend

A friend like you who is worth the miles
So charming and elegant with a smile
So caring, gentle and tender needless to say
The one who helps me out in every way

Though at times you fail to cope
You still inspire me and give me hope
With words that can change the course of the game
Just to see me victorious over and over again!

Yet you trust me with all your heart
And wish we were closer and not so far apart
Your trust and love for me is not selfish
Its so selfless that anyone can feel it

You always made me face my fears
Always beside me to wipe my tears
At times you held me so close and dear
Though we were far u made me feel near

When no one came forward for to care
In my times of suffering and despair
You did and helped me to go ahead
Made be brave to believe and aim further

Wow such a friend is worth a lifetime
Such a friend who pardons me of my crimes
I found a really wonderful and true friend in you
Come whatever I will always be with you

Akshay Basavaraj

Those Last Words

And then again, he was to hear
Not something that he would fear
But was coming from someone whom he held dear
Every time he got near.

For he smiled at her the very last time
Not having a big mountain to climb
Though well past his prime
Treated like being accused of a very large crime.

She was angry with him for he seldom spoke
She'd always been with him ever since his heart broke
And stood crying behind her own cloak
Silence so frightening, only to be disturbed by a frog's croak.

The next day, he refused to go to work
She left him and walked elsewhere, very disturbed.
Little did she know what danger ahead lurked.
She went to work so that her anger could curb

And when she returned, in the bed he lay,
Not moving, undisturbed, silent, much not to her dismay
Next to him, lied a note which had to say.
'I love you even more from today'

Akshay Basavaraj

What I Love About You

You look so beautiful in the sunlight
You make the moon feel shy with your smile
Though I know its something not right
I've been thinking as to how much I love you since a while

Tho I know am unnoticed in your life and am so bad
Yet every moment u spent with me for that am glad
And I regret for the times that I made u feel sad
I'm so sorry I didn't know anything then

But now every second without you the time seems to fly low
I cannot walk any further without you any more
But still life goes on like an endless quest
I know that there can be no1 as good as u

But I want to be with you hold your hand and ease your pain
Hold u in ma arms when your sad just to see u happy again
I know that its nothing more than a simple wish because my life ain't so blissful as u can see

Though if u ever feel lost and scared
You can always come to me and I'll help you with all my heart
Just to keep u near not far apart

For all the wrong that I did to you
Let eternity end but still I'll love you

Akshay Basavaraj

What You Mean To Me

All this time I thought I was alone
Troubled, cheated and the pain made me groan
All this time there was no one there
When I was down, out and was in despair
When I thought that almost all was lost
You came into my life and changed everything
Maybe you were the answer I was looking for Maybe you were the thing I was looking for Aye how is it you made my life so bliss
I admire your bravery to even give me a kiss
I never thought there was anyone made for me
Maybe it was because the world is too big for me to see I'll always love you for who you are and who you wish to be
I love you more than words can say Honey

Akshay Basavaraj

Who I Am! !

I'm know I'm bad I'm NOT CLEAN
I'm just a lean mean fighting machine! !
I just look in one way and that is forward
I don't quail over challenges like a coward
I'm strange and I get crazier
I'm the last guy you'll see before you go to Amnesia
Cos I'm two boxers in one Ali and Joe Frazier

Akshay Basavaraj

With You Its Like Heaven

Though we are far yet we are close
You always had an answer to all ma doubts arouse
And u were gentle to me in my worst of times
You didn't deserve to be punished for all my crimes

Now I feel so guilty and you were so right
On a cloudy day or a dark night u'll always make it bright
For me to walk safe down the lane
Never letting me to get lost ever again

Tho ur angry and tempers may rise and fall
And at times the things u say are the best I've heard of all
And now I feel so much love for you
Yet there are so many things we've to go through

Promise me or not I know you'll always be there
To love me to guide me and besides me to care
Through the best of times and through times of despair
Whenever ma heart breaks am sure you'll repair

I love you so much and more than words can say
Wish I could be with you everyday
And spend my life knowing that your with me
And be with each other and make each other happy

You Will Be Mine

My heart is filled with love for you dear
For the times you held me close and near
Made me brave to face my fear
And was always here

I miss your tender loving care
I missed you when you're not there
When ever I need someone to heal my wounds bare
I need you to get me out of my despair

For all the times filled with love and bliss
Every warm hug and beautiful kiss
Are surely things I'm bound to miss
In this spiralling lost abyss

I'll wait for you till the end of time
Love you more even after your prime
Waiting for the wedding bells to chime
Because I know You'll be mine
