A Blame For All: Alexis Karpouzos

To dream with the black man in one eye and the white in the other, a blame for all, we are human beings and ought to be herefor each other, as revercently, as lovingly, by teachingthe language of tolerance, of justice, as we would before the entrance to immortality.
Be boundless, feel the earth recieve you as you are,
be conscious and the infinite expanse of heaven will grow even wider.
I know that underneath the mess of our differences everything is common. Just think about it.

Above Us - Alexis Karpouzos

At least, above us, stars shine, tiny pieces of heaven that overflowing with generosity and absorb our tiredness.
Every heart's a star within, that echoing the bliss of eternity. every star's a aflame heart that holds our hand.

Be There- Alexis Karpouzos

I will find you in the shadow of words, in the hidden signs of silent moments, in the eloquence of your eyes, in a tingling in the spine, in a trembling in the voice, in a distant memory be there....

Beggars: Alexis Karpouzos

Beggars,
our place is placeless, traces of the traceless, beggars, made of immortal light, we search the lyric grace of silent music, the hidden harmony of stars, we come on life to signal the end of darkness, love, this great pull in us to connect

Beyond The Heaven - Alexis Karpouzos

Beyond the heaven there is the country of heart, here dwell the deepest secret nobody knows, here the bud see the bud, the mind can't hide its darkness and the shadow of the soul is illuminated, and this is the miracle that's keeping the stars in harmony orbit.

Don't Say I'm Alone - Alexis Karpouzos

Don't say i'm insignificant in the infinite, don't say i'm alone in life, you are a cosmic collection that dances harmoniously.
You coexist with all beings, visible and invisible together, you are bound from the energy of the universe itself.

Fallen Angel - Alexis Karpouzos

Fallen angel!

Why are you scared?

Why you dwelt alone in shadow?

Why you tighten your fists?

Why threaten the whole life?

I know, afraid to love, let tenderness pour from your eyes to irrigate the earth and the light of love, silently, will lift you on the heaven again.

alexis karpouzos

Hello Sun

Thank you sun to be where you are in the universe to keep us from ever-darkness, to ease us with warm touching, to hold us in the great hands of light.
Thank you because never said on Earth 'You own me'.
HELLO SUN.

alexis karpouzos

I Ask The Lips

i ask the lips, why are you crying?

'I lost my colour, i lost my flame, i lost my longing'.

The eye says:

'I lost the inward tenderness, fade the light around me' and the ear,

'i don't hear harmonies but lamentations and screams'.

And the heart whispers:

'Finally the breeze will continue to lightly caresses the night sky and the clouds will dissolve.

Pain itself will crack the rock and let the soul emerge'.

alexis karpouzos

I Dream That One Day

I dream that one day
we will look at each other in the same way we look at the sun.
and we will touch each other like the sun on earth, and the blessings of light will flow into our hearts.

I Met A Word - Alexis Karpouzos

Last night, in my dream, while i wandering in the wild lands and crossing silent shadows, i met a word and ask:
"What's your name?
"My name is love
and i'm alone in life, i need you,
otherwise will be lost the dream".
I answered: "We need you too, but we are in pain and scared and don't admit it.
Please,lend me your glowing eyes".
"No, no need, you're in the embrace of light, butyou've forgotten it"

alexis karpouzos

I Want Your Touch

I want your touch.
I want your voice and your thoughts.
I want your grace and your mistakes.
I want your passion and your fears.
I want everything.
I want everything in her.
The stardust that makes her is the same stardust that makes me.

Is A Cloudy Day - Alexis Karpouzos

Is a cloudy day, coldly winds blow,
the people hold their breath, looking from distance their fate, the fear of the shade cover the earth, and suddenly from the depths of unborn worlds a secret language says, the unity is our guide.

Is Our Fate - Alexis Karpouzos

i know that i shall meet my shadow, one day, is our fate. I know that, someday, the light ends for us and the deadly gravity will absorb us. And again, a magician spark will shine and a ocean of souls will flood the universe and will give birth to stars and grief.
And maybe, just maybe, in another heaven, my dreams will be your dreams.
You see, everything repeats itself and everything will be reincarnated in different forms.
An incredible miracle, carefree, and we live in it.
The miracle is folded into your heart.

Love Was Born - Alexis Karpouzos

The stars blink in awe when the soul gleam from love, of the gleam of souls the celestial light bursts forth and life miracles radiate in eternity.
Love was born and set the worlds alight.

alexis karpouzos

Take My Hand

Take my hand.

We will walk.

We will only walk.

We will enjoy our walk without thinking of arriving anywhere.

alexis karpouzos

That's Life

She's real and dreamy she's logical and mystical she's sensitive and distant, a warrior and lover.
She's fearless and gentle, wondrous and brave.
She lives in waterfalls and forests and sunsets and galaxies, and dancing with the universe.
She's believes in oneness.
THAT'S LIFE...

The Birds Of Imagination: Alexis Karpouzos

The birds of imagination, no doubt or hesitation, no gravity, no names or religions, no nations, only journey, no return, flights to unspoken desires.
They are emissaries of sacredness, create something that still does not exist, unmasking the invinitely inventive life.

The Mast Of Life - Alexis Karpouzos

You can hear the earth sigh, the shadow is chasing us, the fear embodied us.
But the hunter of all shadows dressed in the sun's morning ray will continue to weave the mast of life and like seeds that dreaming beneath the ground your heart is still free to dreams

alexis karpouzos

Trust Me

Dear self..

Trust me.

I know more than anyone else.

Love me.

Don't forget to put your hand on your heart.

Take the power, the power to change lives and futures.

Don't forget the power, and don't ever give up on it.

alexis karpouzos

Unspoken Desires: Alexis Karpouzos

When are we gonna talk about the unspoken?
Behind of the words a silent ocean of desires and a coiled knowledge lies in wait, listen a restless voice in our heart endlessly urging us onward to break the limits of fear and to embrace of our longing.
Unspoken is whatever we have not desired with all our heart.

alexis karpouzos

We're In The Dark: Alexis Karpouzos

We're in the dark, a veil in our eyes, the light is mixed with the shadows, chained souls in the cave of habit, climb to the roof of heaven if you want more light, and then you will see the birds make celestial circles with their freedom, the fall gives them wings

alexis karpouzos

Where Is The Magic? - Alexis Karpouzos

Where is the magic?

We all start out knowing magic.

We are born with hurricanes and whirlwinds, oceans and galaxies inside us.

We are able to sing to birds and read the clouds and see the destiny in grains of sand.

But we have forgotten the magic and we feel without compass, alone and desperately,

only selfishness, only pain, fear and darkness.

But, magic of love has never disappeared from the life, the love hold the life.

alexis karpouzos

You Came In To This World

with enough light to find your way out of the dark, enough kindness to save a soul, enough love to shift a planet.
Don't worry, you are equipped with all you could ever need.
Look with in, you are drenched in magic.
