Hey i am Alyssa Hinson i am 16 years old and i love to write poerty butt people call me Aly, so i guess you can if you want

Both At The Same Time

Why do you have to be kind and cruel to me
both at the same time?

Why do you have to be happy and angry at me
both at the same time?

Why do you say 'I miss you' but then say 'I dont miss you'
to me both at the same time?

Why do you have to say 'I love you' but then say'I hate you'
to me both at the same time?

pick one

but pick carefully

If you love me just tell me

If you hate me just tell me or you might lose me in the long run

So do you love me or hate me?

The Setting Sun

When i hear you'r voice
the sun is setting
When i think of you
the sun is setting
When i dream about you
the sun is setting
When i cry about you
the sun is setting
When i say i love you
the sun is setting
When you'r on my mind
the sun is always setting Maybe it's a sign that when the sun is setting
You will come to me and say
'Ilove you'

When I Heard You'R Voice

When i heard you'r voice i jumped for joy
The reason for that is because you left wiithout saying goodbye
My heart was racing when i saw you'r face but you ignored me with disgrace
I asked you what i did you said you dont know but i had to of been something Does he know?
Does he care?
Does he feel the same way?
i dont know, all i know is i cry everytime i see this face because my one true love looks at me with disgrace

When I Look At You

When i look at you
My stomach turns upside down
When my stomach turns upside down
My heart leaps too
I have no other choice
then to love you but i don't care
because loving you would be a privilege but what would be even better was if you loved me too
So i ask you now
Do you love me?
Do you care?
please tell me the truth
please dont lie
I want to know so if not I can move on
I can let you be happy and in return i can be happy too
So do you?
Do you love me?
Do you care?
Do you think we have a chance?

When I Looked Into You'R Eyes

When i looked into you'r eyes
I saw the pain that i once caused you
The pain you never let go
The pain that's hurting you on the inside
The pain i should of seen all along
But i didn't
And that hurt you even more
I know how much i hurt you now
And i regret it
I regret doing all those thing i did to you
I now know that you could never forgive me
But im sorry
I will never forget what i did to you

Who Am I Really?

I change my hair
I change my clothes
I cover my face with make-up
Who am i really?
I make myself the way people want me to be so people will like me
I never listen to what i am told
My grades are slipping
Who am i really?
Is there nothing real about me?
It's as if i am hiding behind a mask so people wont know the real me
Who am i really?
I am not who i really am around my friends
Who am i really?
The answer is
I dont know anymore

Why Should I Say 'I Love You'

Why should i say 'i love you'?
If you dont care
Why should i say 'i love you'?
If you give me weird looks
Why should i say 'i love you'?
If you already know
Why should i say 'i love you'?
If you say 'oh well'
Why should i say 'i love you'?
If you laugh at me
But most of all
Why should i say 'i love you'?
If you say 'I dont love you'
