She Is The One

She is the light of the moon that brightens my dark
She is the grace of the lotus that touches my heart
She is the splendor of gold that enriches my life
She is the fragrance of jasmine that sweetens my strife.

She is the joy of the heart that lifts me up high
She is the delight of the senses that makes me sigh
She is the wisdom of the world that shows me the way
She is the virtue of the light that keeps me from stray.

She is the courage of the warrior that fights by my side
She is the loyalty of the wife that stays with me in tide
She is the one who loves me, more than words can say
She is the one who makes me whole, more than I can repay.

She is the one who fills my soul, with passion and with grace
She is the one who holds my hand, through every time and space
She is the one who gives me all, without asking for a thing
She is the one who is my all, my lover and my queen.

'Ultimate Love'

I love the cosmos and humanity
With all my heart and soul, without any vanity
I marvel at the people, the worlds and the stars
Their diversity, their beauty and their potential
I cherish every breath, every moment and every smile
They fill my life with joy, with hope and with wonder
They are my inspiration, my passion and my destiny.

Sublime Beatitudo

We all desire to be happy, but how do we attain?
Is it by chasing money, fame, or worldly gain?
Or is it by finding peace, joy, and love within?

Happiness is not in things, but in actions
It is in serving others with kindness and compassion
It is in easing their sorrows and afflictions
It is in saving their time, efforts, and resources.

Happiness is not in self, but in growth
It is in learning from our failures and troubles
It is in seeking the wisdom behind every obstacle
It is in enhancing ourselves and our abilities.

Happiness is not in ease, but in strength
It is in facing hardships with courage and faith
It is in knowing that trials make us resilient
It is in cherishing the blessings even more.

Happiness is not in harm, but in respect
It is in treating others with dignity and care
It is in refraining from hurting anyone by word or act
It is in freeing ourselves from guilt and remorse.

Happiness is not in fate, but in meaning
It is in discovering the purpose of our existence
It is in understanding that we are here for a reason
It is in fulfilling our potential and our essence.

The Vision Of Soulmates

We envision a world where love prevails
Where we can celebrate our joys with grace and gales
Where we can discover the beauty of nature and culture
And feel the bond of spirit to spirit and pulse to pulse.

We envision a world where hope guides
Where we can motivate others to strive for what is right
Where we can make an impact with our actions and words
And support the ones in need with our empathy and our works.

We envision a world where justice rules
Where we can confront the evils that inflict harm and fools
Where we can unite together against tyranny and spite
And create a better future for ourselves and our plight.

We are the visionaries, the soulmates, the lovers
We are the explorers, the transformers, the shapers
We are the ones who dare to envision and act
And we are the ones who have so much to offer.

Soulmates

She was a beautiful soul of grace
Who waited for his coming with faith
She kept her heart clean as the sky
Hoping to find him in the celestial high.

He was a secretive man of merit
Who also craved for his soulmate
He searched the world for his perfect pair
But fate had prepared a unique moment.

One day they both wandered in a flowery glen Where nature showed its wondrous ken
They spotted each other across the blossoming land
And felt a shock that made their hearts expand.

They walked towards each other with a smile
And felt a link that was beyond guile
They knew at once they were heaven's design
The most glorious love story of all the time begins.

Penomenal Leader

He came into this world with a mission and a vision
To end the wars and conflicts that caused so much division
He lived by eight core values that shaped his every action
He was a legend, a hero, a visionary.

He mastered self-control, he never let his anger cloud his mind
He radiated confidence, he never backed down from a fight
He practiced gratitude, he valued every gift and every chance
He spoke gently, he used his words to heal and to enhance.

He cherished humanity, he gave them all his love and his support
He served the needy, he shared his wealth and made their lives more bright
He gained wisdom, he excelled in science, and administration
He had revelation, he guided many souls to their salvation.

He was the phenomenal leader who inspired and impressed us all
He was the one who answered the world's call
He was the one who left a mark with his deeds
He was the one who sowed the seeds

Of a better future for humanity
Of a brighter destiny for eternity.

The Ultimate Truth

The false spirit lures you with promises of power
But it only leads you to darkness and despair
It fills your mind with lies and doubts
And makes you blind to the truth and love.

The false spirit binds you with chains of sin
But it cannot break your soul within
It tries to rob you of your dignity and grace
And makes you forget your heavenly place.

The false spirit fears the light of Christ
But it cannot stop His sacrifice
He died for you to set you free
And rose again to give you victory.

The false spirit flees from the Holy Spirit
But it cannot escape His judgment
He convicts you of your guilt and need
And leads you to repentance and faith.

The Holy Spirit dwells in you with power
And He guides you every hour
He fills your mind with truth and peace
And makes you see the beauty and joy.

The Holy Spirit frees you from the bondage of sin
And He helps you to grow and win
He restores your dignity and grace
And makes you remember your heavenly place.

The Holy Spirit shines the light of Christ in you
And He enables you to live for Him too
He gives you new life and hope
And opens the portal to salvation and glory.

Destiny

He unlocked the secrets of the cosmos
With his brilliant mind and curious eye
But faced the scorn of jealous peers
Who dared to question the status quo.

He taught himself the laws of nature
And hated the system of oppression
He solved the puzzle of space and time
And fulfilled Einstein's unfinished rhyme.

He grasped the force that binds the atoms
And built a machine that flew faster than light
He became the wealthiest man alive
And saw his homeland in a different light.

He shared his fortune with the needy
And hired mentors for the greedy
He inspired many loyal minds
Who worked for his vision of a better kind.

They transformed India with their deeds
And honored his legacy with their creeds
He was a visionary and a leader
Who unveiled the secrets of nature and wonder.

Amal Jacob

Phenomenal

He had a mind that yearned to know
The secrets of the cosmos and the soul
He had a spark that none could match
But he was scorned by those who feared his role.

They shunned him for his brilliance
They mocked him for his poverty
They schemed to kick him out of school
They let the bullies beat him brutally.

But he was strong, he learned to fight
He trained in martial arts, he sought revenge
He thrashed them all, but then he quit the school and left his love, he felt estranged.

He studied on his own, he found the truth
He cracked the puzzles of space and time
He had a vision of the human mind
He reached the pinnacle of mind and reality.

He planned to change the world with his wisdom
He spoke to everyone with empathy
He found his purpose and his mission
He lived a life of courage and belief.

Amal Jacob

Ultimate Protagonist

He is a sage of science and philosophy,
A master of the mind and reality.
He probes the mysteries of the cosmos with care,
And wields his wisdom with grace and flair.

He ventures into the quantum realms sublime,
Seeking to unveil the secrets of space and time.
But fate plays a trick with a curious twist,
And sends him to a world where magic exists.

There, he undergoes a wondrous change,
From a human being to a Holy Spirit.
He gains abilities beyond logic and reason,
And dons a mantle of courage and vision.

He faces the evils that haunt this land of lore,
Spreading fear, chaos, and grief on every shore.
He confronts their darkness with his mind and might,
Using his knowledge to dispel their plight.

He vanquishes each foe with his clever art,
Showing the power of his faith and truth.
He returns to Earth with a noble mission,
To transform the world and its condition.

He strives to spread peace through humanity's core,
And create a harmony that lasts evermore.
He imparts his insights, his thoughts profound and clear,
And guides humanity to a dear future.

The sage of science and philosophy, a radiant light,
He blends truth and hope, a splendid sight.
He shows us the Holy Spirit that dwells within us all,
To transcend our limits, and answer destiny's call.

This is a tale of hope, and faith,
That reveals the strength we have to shape our earthly space.
Let us heed the lessons this sage imparts,
And strive to change the world, united in our hearts.

Mystery Man

He mingles with the masses, but he stands
Apart from them, for he can glimpse the truth.
He shows compassion, though he understands
The faults and fears that they would rather soothe.

He listens to their chatter, but he cares
Not for their views, for he has his own voice.
He speaks with eloquence and insight, dares
To share his vision and to make a choice.

He learns the mysteries of the cosmos,
But guards them well, for he is well aware
That some are not yet ready for the loss
Of ignorance and comfort that they share.

But he is not a passive spectator
He is the poet who anticipates
To shape the world by words that captivate.

Legend

From the sacred land of noble spirits,
He came with a vast and clear vision,
He saw the world in chaos and despair,
And he resolved to end the age of evil and restore the light.

He soared on a blazing star with a fiery blade,
And he conquered the foes of peace and rights,
He united the world under his name,
And he fostered harmony among the diverse tribes.

But he was not a tyrant who oppressed or invaded,
He was a sage and a mentor of the spirit,
He taught the way of virtue and kindness,
And he inspired the world to seek a higher merit.

He was a hero, a legend, a star,
He was the eternal king from afar.

Ideal

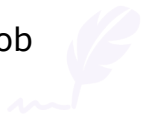

He came, with a vision of a peaceful world;
Learning from people's flaws and strengths.
He witnessed the evil that lurked in the dark.
And knew he had to speak out and act up.

He spoke of hope and kindness to the crowd.
Leaving behind the drama and the pain.
He showed them how to live with joy and faith.
And taught them how to love like sun and rain.

But they resisted him with fear and hate.
They doubted his words and challenged his will.
He faced their trials with courage and grace.
And proved his worth with fire and skill.

He was a leader, a teacher, a friend.
He gave his life for us till the end.

Ultimate Hope

I am the ultimate hope,
A light that glows in the dark,
A beacon of love and strength,
A heart that's pure and strong.

With words that flow like honey,
And thoughts that soar like birds,
I paint a world of beauty,
With every line and word.

My poems are like music,
That soothes the soul and mind,
They speak of love and longing,
Of dreams that we can find.

So here's to you, dear people,
My words continue to inspire.
Darkness is the absence of light,
I am the light of your life.
I quash the desperation in you,
And your spirit's never drowned.

Amal Jacob

Cosmic Love

I keep your smile close to my heart,
The divine music of love. In a moment,
Our souls unite and my mind whispers: you are mine.

When our souls unite,
They reveal a vision of the end of life,
When our souls assimilate to the cosmic spirit.

The power of our divine love leads us in the cosmos to illuminate a new aura of love.

With the virtuous flame of our love,
We'll forge a golden crown to enthrone cosmic love.
