A Best Friend

Someone who is always there for you
The one that makes you smile
The one that makes you laugh
The one that makes you feel happy
The one that cheers you up
The one that supports you in anything
The one that helps you when your stuck
The one that defends you from your haters
The one that you can tell your secrets
The one that you trust
The one that's with you all the time
The one with an amazing spirit
The one with a striking heart
Someone who is trustworthy
The one that is smart
Someone with unrestricted love
The one that takes away the pain
The one that dries your tears
The one that alleviates your fears
The one with an amazing smile
The one that can never be ignored
The one that is easily adored
The one that is respectful
The one that you will never let fall
The one that is one of a kind
Someone who is hard to find Someone who is unique
Someone who is never hurtful
Someone who is loved by all
Someone who is relied upon
The one that you can talk to
The one that is worth your time
That person is a best friend for life...

A Love Like

A love like...

Tastes like honey

Tastes like sugar

Tastes like skittles

Tastes like gummy bears

Tastes like Oreo

Tastes like lemonade

This moment tastes so sweet

I love the fact that its only you and me

Together for ever

Because we are meant to be

Im so amazed

By the way you kissed my lips

A Moment With You

"A moment with you"

As I see you

And see that everything in my life is okay

And I think about the things that make life great

I wouldn't change a thing about it

This moment with you is perfect

don't go away

With you I find a place so secure

With you I see life so clear

This feeling with you is like a magical moment

Sparkles all over

Shiny stars are brightening this night

Your arms around me make give me this special warmth

Your eyes staring at me are like the stars

When you kiss me I feel like a princess

Under this beautiful sky

This wonderful night was made only for me and you

Holding our hands so tight

With a smile in your face

Makes me feel great

I love you more than anyone else in my life

don't let me go

Hug me tighter

Close enough where I can kiss you

Close enough where I can whisper "I love you"

Close enough where I can feel you

I don't want this night to end

This means a lot to me

Under this magical night

Any one would want to be like us

But this one was made from god specially for us

Kiss me

Hold my hand

Hug me tight

And whisper "I love you"

I don't want this to end

But I guess it has to

Because the sun is about to arise

And I got to wake up from this dream

All I Want Is You

All I want is you

This Christmas all I want is you
I already wrote my letter to Santa
And all I asked for is you
Its so cold and I need you as a blanket
Its so boring and I need you as entertainment
Its like forever and I need you
Because forever is what I want with you
This Christmas all I want is you
I already told Santa not to put you under the Christmas tree
Because when I wake up I want to be able to see you just as I open my eyes
So I told him to put you in my room
This Christmas all I want is you
Why? Because you make me smile just as I stare at you
So you will be the reason why I would smile this special day
This Christmas all is want you
Because Im so in love with you
And when I see you I ran out of words
To say I wouldn't leave you
So I'd rather have you here all the time
This Christmas all I want is you
Because you are independent
And by me we work it all together
Your so beautiful
I really love the words I wrote to Santa
They let him know that I really want you
So I bet he will bring you to me
Make sure that he puts you in my room
I cant wait till Christmas
I cant wait till I receive my gift! !

Close Your Eyes

Close your eyes

I bet there's many girls out there in the world
That are stuck between two walls
They cant find a way out
Those drugs are killing them
But that's what makes them feel free
It's a way for them to let out what they have inside
I bet they do it because of their life
But don't realize that they are killing them selves
There's many girls that wish for their lives to be better
They lose themselves in alcohol and drugs
They do it just to feel with power
And feel brave
I bet there's many girls in life that have been abruptly abused
And later when they wake up they feel different
Like if they had no one in life
They are afraid to go on
They just sit by the wall and start to cry
I bet there's girls in the world that have lost many friends and families
Then they feel sad and cant stop crying
Because they feel alone and have just lost their hope in life
I bet there's girls that get bit up all the time
And they cry and want to run away
I bet there's girls that are going through a difficult situation in life
I bet there's girls that are ignored
I bet there's many girls in the world that have sex at a small age
And end up pregnant
And are left behind by their family
Many girls in this world want to dye
Many girls in this world want to run away from home and never return
They feel their world so cold
Those horrible times they had are stuck In their minds everyday
They are becoming afraid of the entire world
I can understand how they feel
But lets all close our eyes and pray to god
Tell him to help all of this girls that are lost in the world
Tell him to never forget about them
Picture all of us girls running away together think that when we come back everything is going to be okay

Now open your eyes...

I Am Who I Am

I AM WHO I AM

Im the type of girl that can make you smile
Im the type of girl that can make you laugh
Im the type of girl that can brighten your day
Even if I can't brighten my own.
I the type of girl that can annoy you
But wont get mad at you at all
Im the type of girl that will never stay quiet
Because I can't control my mouth
Im the type of girl that will help you out
Im the type of girl that will always be there for you
Im the type of girl that will make you happy
Im the type of girl that will back you up
Im the type of girl that will make you feel better
Im the type of girl that can make you strive
Im the type of girl that will never give up
Im the type of girl who cares about you
Im the type of girl that will make sure your okay
Im the type of girl that loves to stay active
Im the type of girl that's never shy
Im the type of girl that's really crazy
Im the type of girl that makes you strong in life
Im the type of girl that will always remember your name
Im the type of girl who always says hi
Every time she sees you pass by Im the type of girl that will be there at all times
Im more then just any girl
I am what I like to be called,
An amazing friend you will always to have....

Impossible Love

"Impossible love"

The best thing in my mind

Is when I think of you

At all times I carry your smile in my heart

At all times I think of you

At all times I wish I was with you

Never regret meeting you

Never regret kissing you

I felt in love with you at first sight

And I understand that we cant be together

Because you are taken away by my best friend

And I am not going to hurt her

But just know that I feel this love in me

That's killing me and I need you

Hope someday we get to meet better

But for now go ahead and make my best friend feel like a princess

Never hurt her

Never make her cry

And just seeing you doing things the right way

Will make me forget about you..

Make Your Self Better

When your all alone
Think of that person that makes you smile
When you feel sad
Think of those fun times you had with anyone
When you feel down
Call your best friend to cheer you up
When you are crying
Remember that time when you smiled
When you are stressed out
Thing that what your doing is for a good thing
When you feel tired
Rest a little because there's lots of thing in life you have to accomplish
When you are left out by your friends don't be afraid to meet someone new Maybe they are actually worth your time
When you are shy to do something
Just do it because you'll regret it later
When you are mad
Let out what you have inside
Scream
Cry
Yell
Till you get tired and feel better don't stop doing what you like doing
Make your self better.

My Appearance

Me and my appearance

When I was a baby
I would have to wear dresses
My hair was always brushed
When I grew and learned how to walk and talk
I would say no to dresses didn't like to play with dolls
As I grew bigger
All I wore was
Any shirt and some jeans
I don't like high hills
I'd rather use tennis shoes
I don't like my hair brushed all girly
I just wake up and grab it up
For Christmas I'd get barbies
But I never used them
I have lots of cousins that are my age
They'd go to my house wanting to play tea party
I'd say no, I rather play with the ball
I didn't like it when they'd tease me
I'd just ran away from them
Now at my age
I still don't like dresses
I wore them
But didn't like it
I don't like make up
I don't like wasting time in the mirror
Or taking time picking the clothes Im going to wear
I just wake up
Walk to my closet grab the first shirt I see Grab the first jeans I see
Grab some socks
And put on my tennis shoes
Grab my hair back
Get my stuffs and leave the house
During the summer
All I do is stay home
And play video games with my brother

Or go to the park and play soccer

Im not the type of girl that likes to be called a princess.

Rather Not Survive

"Rather not survive"

Imagine how it would be without love
Imagine there's no heaven
No moon
nor sun
Imagine there's no stars
No night
Nor day
Imagine there's no sky
No air
Nor rain
Imagine there's no you
No me
Nor anyone
Imagine there's no hope
No time
Nor music
Imagine there's nothing in this world
And if it would be this way, I'd rather not be alive
Why be alive
When there's no air to breath
Why be alive
When there's no sun to light your days
No moon or stars to tell you when to rest
I'd rather rest in heaven if there was nothing in this world
No rain, no time, no music, nor you
Why survive without you
Without love
No I'd rather be in heaven where I can live in paradise with god
Where there's many reasons to survive
Why survive when there's no world
So if you ask me if I want to live without anything in life
I'd say NO! !

Those Eyes

Those eyes

The color of honey

The reflection of the moon

The eyes of the sky

The waves of the ocean

The light of the sun

The sparkles in the stars

And the world I see

Are those beautiful eyes you have

What Lays Behind Me..

“What lays behind me”

It all started because of a conversation we had

It was so cold

And I didn't feel okay

He called me lazy

Said I was good for nothing

And that I should be dead

And said I wasn't perfect

Wished for me to be killed

And made me mad

He'd took things too far

I felt this anger for him so deep in me

He would not stop messing with me

So I felt that I had to stop this

So I screamed at him

I couldn't help him any more

I looked around

See the hot coffee laying in the stove

I grabbed it and purposely threw it on his face

He'd stood up and screamed at me

But I didn't care

And he hit me one twice and three times

But I didn't cry

I ran to my room

And looked back

I saw that he was after me

And when he got me

He hit me one more time

I felt his hand dropp to my back with this huge strength

I felt like my blood had stopped running through my body

My veins turned purple

And my eyes became watery

The look in his eyes made me be afraid

Now you have discovered the other side of me

You might always see me with a smile at my face

But if you'd lived with me

You'd see a different face

What lays behind this smile

Is more than you could imagine
What lays behind my shirt
Are the bruises of the pain
And what lays behind me
Is a life in the dark....

Your Lips

Ur lips

Like a dropp of rain fallen from the sky
Gifted by god only for me
Like the rose in my garden
Red and beautiful
Like the ocean in the world
So blue and deep
Like the flavor of candy
Sweet and delicious
Your lips are mine to hold
Your lips are mine to kiss
