A Broken Mirror

A broken mirror is my heart
You shattered and tore it apart
Now I know not what to do
How can I stop loving you

When the mirror is broken
Never can it be fixed
I can still remember
My greatest fear

It was hard to put aside
To not just focus on you
Not to confide in you
Let you break my heart into

Voices are calling my name
Never changing just waiting on you
I never realized what you did to me
You do not need to be sad

This could all turn around
Just so you and I
Can be happy once again
My mirror will not be torn

Apart again
I can not let my heart
Be dark and cold again
We have to spend some time apart

The light I have to see
So I can look at the view
A mirror is crystal and clear
It has no scratch at all

You are wonderful
Inside and out
Those things are what made me
Fall in love with you

To think that I could see
I never thought I would
I will find one thing
A mirror of my heart

A Red Rose

You have sent to me a red rose
Through this letter a flower
It is my heart not a rose
My dear darling, I am writing
To let you know

That your heart is more than worthy of me
There is so much love
Hidden in this letter
Like the countless number of pearls
In the ocean

If I was nearby
You would have kissed me
Through your letter
You sent me a rose
It was your heart

Did I share my dreams
When I was falling asleep
Dreaming of you
I had so many
Having fun and laughing

While whispering to me
And holding me tight
It was so full of passion
I needed it and wanted it
Just your love for me

In my dreams you came
You do every night
There was loneliness
For the two of us
Now I woke up

The dream could not be mine
I will not let you be lonely
Baby don't worry

I am the happiest
Girl in the world

I will bring music
Our love is growing stronger
Day by day
Never forget it, neither will I
I taught you to love

Like you did me baby
You sent me a rose
It is your heart
With this letter
Comes your love

Near my heart
I am satisfied
We both are waiting for our eyes to meet
We will both have peace

I have come into your heart
Now into your house as the moon
Lands in our compound
To you I am coming
It won't be long

I will let you know the day and hour
It will be such a night.....
Baby our night is almost here
How shall we meet
I will call you and let you know

To join you I will leave
Then we can meet
Tonight we will be together forever
To me you are looking forward
I will come to you now

In your arms I will be
A letter to you I wrote
Soon you will get it.
I have sent you a rose

Through this letter

It is my heart

Christmas Is Coming

Christmas is coming
Spread the good news
Bring alot of cheer
Christ is here

Children are playing
Sleigh bells ring
Music playing
Songs to hear

Lots of ribbon
Plenty of bows
Turkey cooking
Lot's of drinks

Happy as can be
Christmas is coming
Give thanks
Say please, thank you, and your welcome

Santa is coming
Go to sleep
Presents to buy
Wrap them all up

Winter snow
Hay rides
Wrap up warm
Christmas is coming

Hear bells in your sleep
As the angels sing
With winter snow
Stars shining bright

On a cold christmas night
Snow on the ground
Wind blowing
Storm a coming

All wrapped up
Snuggle and warm
Hear singing
Bells ringing

Ice on the road
Watch where you go
So much fun to be had Just for winter

Have a good night
Snow all around
Flake's on the window pane
Merry christmas to one and all

Dont Let True Friendship Die

I have written things here
I hope you will never have to feel
Just let it grow, let it flourish
True friendship never let it die

On the inside
Missing them is always pain
You try to fight on the outside
Your companions are forever your tears

It may seem to ease
Like days you won't forget
We shared so much together
When you think of those times

It is so hard
Cause suddenly they are gone
Your best friend it reminds you of Don't let true friendship go

angel plant

Friends

Friends the best in the world
Loyal and true
Always there for you
Does not listen at what others say

Don't walk away
Or run
Stand by you to the end
Call and they come

Always there for you
To wipe every tear
To give good cheer
Need advice

Go to a friend
Tell you like it is
Don't leave anything out
Love you like no other

Friends The Best

Friends the best in the world
Loyal and true
Always there for you
Does not listen at what others say

Don't walk away
Or run
Stand by you to the end
Call and they come

Always there for you
To wipe every tear
To give good cheer
Need advice

Go to a friend
Tell you like it is
Don't leave anything out
Love you like no other

Hear Me

In the hills hear me
Hear my roar
Be aware
I am mighty

I am strong
I can break your bones
You come hunting for me
As I do for you

I am a tiger
So beautiful to see
I can run
I can hide

I am the best
Look at me go
I will fight to the end
Be not afraid

Look me in the eye
What do you see
A big tiger
Please be at ease

You can hear me
From far away
Hear my cry
Hear my call

Let me be
I want to be free
Run with the others
Be with my family

That is all I want
I will let you know
I want to protect
My young

angel plant

Heartbeat

Listen to my heartbeat
As I listen to yours
Always there for each other
I see your face so sweet
With your smile so divine
My heart skips a beat
It goes faster and faster
Listen to my heartbeat
As i awake from a dream of you
How quick the beats are
When I think of you
My heart flutters
It will not be still
Listen to my heartbeat
As I listen to yours
Beating as one
That is what we are 'one'

I Believe

I believe in you
I believe in me
I believe together
we will be

I believe in love
I believe in romance
I believe in passion
Baby that's you and I

I believe in dreams
I believe in fantasy
I believe in miracles
Just you and I

I believe in God
I believe in religion
I believe in hope
I believe in us

I believe in trust
I believe in vows
I believe in honesty
I believe in the two of us

I Have Come

Very different from everyone
I have come to save you
Enemy of the beauty and lover to
I will not leave you

Your heart you may hide
For cover you better run
Yeah yeah
Find you I will

Run for cover baby
I'm going to be your lover
You don't love me
Is what I will hear

Yeah yeah
Hide your heart
You will
I will find it

I have come to save you
I'm going to steal you
I'm so bad yeah yeah
Run for cover

Gonna make you fall in love with me
So don't make promises
You can't keep
I will steal you in sleep

Going to make your senses fly
Yeah yeah
When you see me coming
Run for cover

In my arms you will be
Make you forget your way
And make you mine
Oh baby I will

I will stop your conversations
In two minutes time
I have come to save you
Because your mine

Better run for cover
Yeah yeah
In front of a crowd
I will not tease you

I will not leave you
I will meet you
Even if you lose your eye sight
I will see even if you make a reason

I will throw in my heart
I have come to save you
I will not leave
I love you

I Want To Be

Your always there
Yes you are Always there.....
Yes you are.....
Like the air I breathe
Miss you.....
Oh yes I do
In my heart.....
Your like a song
In my mind

So silent
So quiet
I feel lost.....
With you.....
I am calm
Only you can make me
Feel complete.....

Oh yeah, oh yeah.....

You're always there
Like the air that I breathe
Ohhhhhhhhhhh.....I miss you

In my heart
You will always be.....
Like a song
.....

If I Had One Wish

I wish I could help someone today
There are so many living on the street
No home nothing at all
Feed the hungry, calm the blind
Heal the sick so many in pain
Make the world a safer place to live
Some have no clothes to wear
Many don't have shoes on their feet
So many depressed thinking pills will help
Drinking and drugs are all they know
Give a hand to those in need
You may need one someday

Like No Other

I am a person like no other
I have grace
I have style
Well liked by most

Hated by some
I do what I want
Think what I want
Say what I want

I don't care what you
Think of me
Don't worry about what you say
I'm just me

Let me be
I don't bother noone
So leave me alone
I'm your friend if you want me

If you don't it is fine
Your loss
My gain
I will be the best friend

You ever had
Or your worse enemy
I will love you forever
Or hate you if you push to far

I won't walk away
Only you will do that I'm smart, beautiful, and loving
I will be your lover or wife

Whatever you want
Just don't mess around on me
I will fight for what is mine
Want to love me, show me

Tell me how you feel
I'm just me
Like no other
You will find

Listen

Listen be aware
Hear the sounds
What do you hear
The wind blowing

Birds singing
Plane flying overhead
Children playing
Dogs barking

Listen at what you hear
Music playing
Bee's buzzing
Train a coming

A prayer
A secret being told
Maybe a lie
A true confession

Screaming in the night
A soft cry
Someone pleading for help
Car going by

A heart beating
Softly in the night
A song in the air
Listen

Living On The Edge

Do what you want
When you want
Don't worry about what Others think or say

Go where you want
Or fly away
Dream all day and night
Think of what you want

Say what you please
Run in the park
Go places in the dark
Don't hide in fear

Go for a walk
Or a wild ride
Do something you don't understand
Research the world

Living on the edge
Get wild
Have lot's of fun
Let's do something weird

Live your life the way you want
Don't let others tell you what to do
Go to places unknown
Fly a plane

Jump out to Do your thing
Walk your way
Play in the hay

Find a man
Be all you can
Please and tease
Go out on the town

High heels
Stockings to Short skirt
Live on the edge

Love Comes From God

Love comes to us from God
The day we was born until the end
We all need love, we want love
We have to have love

Look at the new born baby
How the mother looks at it
See the tears that flow
She forgot the pain

When she looked at the baby
For the first time
Look around at all the animals
How the mother or father
Protects their young at all costs

If we don't have love
Or grow up with parents
Who don't love us
We feel we are to blame

Are we are not good enough
We search for love in all the wrong places
We pick people we know are wrong for us
We find someone who at least pretends to love us

Sometimes we get with people who abuse us
We don't leave because we think we can't do it on our own
A child needs love to grow
To be a better person

To show love and respect
Without love we are lonely souls
Always looking wondering if we will ever find Someone to love us

Then sometimes we wonder
Am I worth it?
Do they really love me?

Do they really care?

We cry, plead, and bargain with God
If only you will send me someone
If we wait and do what God says
He will send us the right one

The one he wants us with God got me writing poems
I never thought I would write poems
God is love

He will supply our every need
If we listen and do his will
If he takes care of the flowers and trees
The animals

Don't you think he will take care of us
Believe and you will see what love does
When it comes from God
He does send love.

Only Your Heart

Only your heart
Is safe with me
I will hold it in my hands
Cherish it forever

Never leave it alone
Or make tears flow
It won't get lonely
Never fly away

Only your heart
Has mine
To love
To treasure

Only your heart
I keep safe
From all harm
From every fear

Only your heart
Is what I am missing
What I long for
I need you

Only your heart
Has my love
My heart
Only you do I belong

Prince

The Prince of Darkness
My bright and shining star
The greatest Prince of them all
Watch him dance and sing

Watch him go
A sexy style
His sweet smile
Melts your heart

Makes you smile
Snap your fingers
Tap your toes
My Prince

Watch him dance
The way he moves
He is enough
To drive you wild

Those bedroom eyes
Lips so sweet
Love me tender
Love me wild

My Prince

angel plant

Prince And Princess

Just one day with you
My Prince, would be a dream come true
To call you mine
To call your name

To be your Princess and have you kiss me
To have your warm embrace
The dreams so sweet and tender
To see your eyes gaze at me

To serve you and love you
Make your wishes come true
Take a walk with you
Have a candlelit dinner for two

Walk on the beach
Take a ride
Kisses sweeter than wine
Have you one day by myself

Hear you call my name
And whisper in my ear
That would make my day
Just to be with you

Secrets

Secrets unfold as you move on Secrets are in your soul
Some are good, some bad
Secrets can make you happy or sad
Don't tell the wrong person
Or it won't be a secret any longer
Secrets are fun
Some secrets are best kept hidden
Secrets can hurt people
Also sometimes they help
Secrets are yours
We all have them
They start when we are children
Keep on until we are grown
Secrets

Take Time

Take time out to relax
Play a little live alot
Give to someone today
Don't turn away
Show your love
Give respect
Take time for the things
You want to do
If you don't you may never Get the chance

Thanksgiving Is Here

Thanksgiving is here
Have good cheer
Be with family and friends
Give a kiss or two

Tell someone you love them
Get on your knees and pray
Thank God for what you have Don't worry about what you don't have Thansgiving is here

Lend a hand
Bring joy and peace
Think of all the things
That God has done

Give to the poor
Give a smile and hug
Someone needs you today
Say thank you and please

angel plant

Trust Me

I had trust a long time ago
I destroyed it all
Now I need it again
It will make me strong

A simple word to you
I can give you happiness
I will give you emotion
My heart is yours

Love you have
Happiness is yours
Peace be with you
Hope is there

I was once lost
No one to blame but me.....

Now I need you to forgive me
I have nothing without you
I just want to be with you
Forever more

I will tell you the truth
I hope you believe me
Never more to be afraid
You make me so whole

I won't cry
Or make demands
Just give you my hand
All my love

Waterfalls

Waterfalls such a beautiful sight
So peaceful and quiet
The water shimmers as it falls
Blue and clear

Hear the whisper in the air
As the water flows around
Listen at the sound
As it calms you down

It lets you think
Your mind in a spin
As you wonder
At the amazement of a waterfall

It is graceful like a swan
As it flows down
It is like a gentle breeze
Such a tender touch

Waterfalls can touch your soul
Your heart
Make you wonder and think
What beauty nature brings

When We Met

The night I met you
I never knew
You had met someone new
I thought it was our beginning

Never felt that way before
You made things right
But your leaving me alone
I promised I would never let anyone close

But then you came along
Turned my world upside down
I fell head over heels
In love with you

I was so full of pain
Living in misery
But my rain turned into sunshine
Now tell me what am I going to do

Thank you for giving me a smile
If only for awhile
It was good while it lasted
My breath of air

I hope someday you will feel the same
Come back and love me once again
I will be waiting
With arms opened wide

angel plant

You Are

You're
You are my friend
My companion to
Through good times and bad
The best buddy
My best friend
Through happy and sad
I will stand beside you
You walk with me
Listen to me
There to talk to me
With smiles, and happiness
Tears and pain
I know you'll be there
Throughout all the years

angel plant

You Hear

You hear a soft voice
Singing to you
Touching you lightly
With finger's that love

A wing you will feel
As I linger there
To watch you sleep
Feel your dream

I watch over you
Every single night
As you lay to sleep
Hear my prayer

I hold you while you sleep
Listen to you breathe
Your my all
Im here beside you

You hear bells
Ringing in your sleep
It is I my love
To have and hold

Don't give up your dream
I won't leave you
I will keep you warm
My love Im here

You hear me
I am your angel
You hold me close to you
I lifted your heart

Don't be sad
Never fear
You know it's true
I'm not going anywhere

angel plant

You Will See Me Again

As tears stream down your face
You see me walk away

You know today
May be the last day

You will see my happy smile
In your heart you know, you will see me again

Only now
You feel as if your life is going to end

As you put on a happy face
So I cannot see your sadness

You hide sadness so good
But in your heart you know, you will see me again

As we hug for the last time
You will hold back your tears and try to smile

I see you struggle and say it is okay to cry
You think I don't know, a part of you has died

As I turn my back to walk away
I see a single tear roll down your face

I turn back to say I like you
You cry harder than ever before

You see me walk away
In your heart you know, you will see me again
