A Hate Grown In Me

I am the guy who made you a lady
I want our happiness to stay steady
But as time went by, our happiness instead of growing it died
We hurted each other a couple of times
And I regret all of mine
I'm losing or lost the girl for me
More hate, more hate is growing to be
I don't know where to look or turn
My heart is aching from the constant burn
The hate is strong I want to cry
I lost my woman I want to die

Don'T Want Someone New

I don't want someone new
I just simply want you
My heart calls your name
And my soul does to
I need you by my side
Till the very end of time
Don't take my heart and brake it
Simply keep it safe with yours
I don't want someone new
I just only want you
Hold me close and tight
Safely through the night
Kiss my lips real soft
And never tell me lies
Don't hurt my feeling please
And I promise I won't hurt yours
The day we met I won't forget
I tell you now Its one thing I don't regret
Until you brake my heart and leave my side
That will be the day my world brakes down and dies

Even In My Dreams

Even in my dreams
I have no happy ever after
Even in my dreams
I hurt so very very much
My tears that fall are more than real
Even while I sleep
I wasn't meant to be happy as can be Because even in my dreams
I strive to survive
And even in my dreams
My heart brakes down and cries

Here I Am

Here you are asleep
And I'm awake..
Staring out this window
Lonely as can be..
Tears roll down my cheeks
As I look up at the moon and the stars surrounding it so beautifly
I imagine the night with out a moon..
That's how I feel my life seems very dark...
I feel like I love and love and love.. but I get no love in return
Is it me
Or is it you...
My life is just so dull...
It feels like my nights are getting darker
And the sun doesn't seem to shine on me anymore...

My heart is torn..
It hurts everyday
It simply burns... it simply burns...
I hate this ache
I can't take this pain anymore...
I pray this pain goes away as fast as today...

I look at the night sky..
Wishing on a star....
My wishes will come true
Because I need to smile..
Atleast for once... at least for once...

Here you are asleep
And I'm awake..
Staring out this window
Lonely as can be..
Tears roll down my cheeks

Insecure

'Don't be insecure' I was always told
'Your such a beautiful girl with a lot of love to hold'
I always shook my head in disbelief
Only because deep down inside I was always so insecure
I can have someone to hold and love me yet I simply push away
Because I don't believe anything anyone ever says
But as the days go by my insecurity gets worse
And only because I feel this just might be a curse
I never wanted to push those loved ones away
I never wanted to look in a mirror with out looking the other way
I always wanted to love myself for me
I always wanted to be happy as can be
But how can I with this insecurity, its eating me alive
How can this be?
I need you by my side yet I push you away
I want to hear compliments yet I think they are fake
I think the world is against me in every little way
I feel I'm being talked bad about each and every single day
I've been lied to and hurt
I've been talked about as dirt
So maybe this insecurity isn't a curse
Someone brought it out of me
While I was always down and hurt

Mistake

So I was a mistake I was told
Early one time many years ago
My mother gazed into my eyes
Told me how I wasn't planned
And how I yet survived
So I was a mistake I was told
By everyone that ever 'loved' me
They say I'm no good, I'm a worthless piece of * I say why do you say something so harsh to the one you loved like this?

Negativity

My mind is filled with so many negative thoughts
Thoughts that drives me insane
Thoughts that brakes my heart
My mind is so strong
So strong it blocks away the positive
And leaves me trapped in the dark!
My thoughts ruin everything
Everything that surrounds me
So I no longer want to love the ones that truly loves me

To The One I Love

Since day one I Knew you were the one from your tender kisses that simply makes my heart race to your warm soft hugs which makes me feel so safe. No matter what I'd always love you the same nothing would ever change. If you keep my heart forever I promise I will forever do the same. I remember our first kiss and our very first date,2 beautiful necklaces given to one another filled with nothing but love. I remember when you brought me my very first rose told me how much it symbolizes me which really touched my heart, I'm yours and your mines lets keep it that way. They say forever never last but lets give that a change. I love you dearly I really, really do don't ever leave my side because I promise I won't boo. Your heart is with me safely as can be, until you want it back then you can go and send it free. But till then I hold your beautiful heart close to mines till when? Till the very end of time. We may argue and fight, say hurtful things we don't mean to each other, but I realize at the end of the day we are the ones that will forever have one another.

Why?

I gave my all to you..
I put you before most too..
And what do I get?
Tell me what do I get?

I tell everyone how much I love you..
I even let you make me a woman..
Oh, how much I do, just to prove my love to you..

I'm there whenever you need me..
I would stand close by you..
But what do you do?
But what do you do?

You let people put me down..
You let people brake my heart..
That is what you do..
That, is what.. you do..

Why?
Why?
Why?

Why do you let someone hurt my heart so bad...
Sooooo dam bad...

Why?
Why?
Why?

Why do you let that happen..
Since the very day we met... since the very day we met...

Its my mistake..
For letting my heart take place.. in this..
Oh its my mistake..

I'm starting to realize I will never be as special to you
As you are to me... and you need to realize it too...

You really really really really dooo...

Words Do Hurt

Words do hurt
And I'm sorry my words did hurt you
I never really thought they would have hurt you so much
Words hurt
And it really took so long for me to notice
Once you said hurtful words to me
I noticed how weak my heart then became I could have only imagined how weak yours was

I wasn't thinking about how hurt you would have felt
But all I want to know is, did you really mean those hurtful words? Or did you simply say them to make me feel how you did?
Words do hurt and I probably noticed it too late
I just want us to say less hurtful things and start to throw love to one another's way.

Words do hurt and can change a person for life
Words do hurt and can brake our poor little hearts
Words do hurt and can make you run away
Run so far you would never see the day
Words can make you smile yet they can also bring you down
So think before you say something you don't mean
Because once you say a word you can't take it back, just leave

But just know this, the words I said to you was these: I LOVE YOU.
