A Dream Destination

I want to be where i can find peace there

A small cabin of clay made live in solitude and so glad

Sarrounded by flowers and breezy air can enjoy sweet humming of bees there

A fresh morning dropping from night veil slowly and noon welcome with sun glory

Silky evening where linnet sing moony night where my dreams find wing

I close my eyes and find myself in dreamland where i can see to and fro only wet sand

I hear in my deep heart's core a river water lapping with sounds by the shore!

Feel You In My Heart

You are so far

But

I don't feel you so far

I feel you in every moment

How near you are

Yes

I can't touch

Physical distance

between us so much

We always with each other

As sky with land always on horizontal weather

They don't meet ever

You are always in my heart

I feel distance between us never! !

Life Is Not A Joke

it is full of hope

sometime situations are very difficult and getting no proper result everything seems surrounded by dark and everything get harsh

no need to fear
you have to defy here

believe in yourself
you can win the battle
sure! you'll be winner.

You Are My Friend

a message i have to send

Don't break my heart
its a picture of friendship's art

Its can't be bought or sold its precious more than gold when two people get nearer and no distance at all between feellings of their

then a mircle takes place and all dissimilarities get replace they arrive with each other at a ship and that is called 'FRIENDSHIP'

Your Chocolate

Let me be your chocolate
That you share wid your mouth
The sweetest
the most delicious
You ever had

For this moment,
That would never comeback
Let me make this day
One of most melodious and memorable

Let this day make Our relationship more and lovable and livable
And our feelings for each other more sweeter than ever..
