And You Walked In!

Your Smile is a bliss, You smile is a rain,
Your Smile takes me o'dear away from my pain.
You have walked in like a sunshine,
Removed all darkness & made everything fine.
Together our bond, Together our chemistry,
It really just feels like a Mystery.
I love to speak and you love to hear,
And that is the way together we cheer.
Your silent lips, your talking eyes,
It's true dear here my world lies.
Together we laugh, Together we fight,
Together we will make everything right.
Eyes sometimes get wet, heart also pains sometimes,
It is my faith in you, that wins all times.
You have walked in, I just want to say,
Stay beside me forever & never go away.

Friend

It sometimes happens in life,
You don't want to be wrong but you can't be even right.
You commit an error, which later on becomes a terror,
You laugh and smile to look smart,
Try to hide the pain in your heart.
You feel like a criminal, make you guilty,
Get far from life and its reality.
You find yourself lonely and everyone looks unknown,
Trying hard to believe you are not broken and alone.
But....
Don't you think the time has come?
When you should be strong and look for someone.
Someone who cares for you and holds your hand,
Listen to you and makes you a friend.
You want to share everything with him
Your pain your joy and your feelings within
You want to be with him for a lot of time
Whether it's 8 in the morning or night at 9.
Slowly your life becomes full of joy,
As a crying child gets his favorite toy,
So my friends listen to my advice,
Never forget a friend who is so nice
'cause he is the one who makes you feel
Life is a joy, let's share and dream.

I Miss You

I miss you every day
I miss you every night
I will miss you my dear for rest of my life...

Those were the days when you used to say,
I love you a lot, I will never go away.

You promised me you will stay forever,
You and me, will always be together.

You were so near, You were so close,
You always kept me away from my woes.

Your touch, Your smile, Your sparkling eyes,
Have you ever thought how much my heart cries.

I never thought there would come a day,
That we would be going our separate ways.

Time waits for no one, It's water through our hands,
Now my life is like a handful of sand.....

I miss you every day
I miss you every night
I will miss you my dear for rest of my life...

Let's Make A New World

Let's start a new day,
let's start a new life
Let's start loving each other,
and stop the fight

Let's share everything,
every happiness and every sorrow
Let's keep the faith,
and look forward for a better tomorrow.

Let's learn to share,
and show how much we care
Let's search our hearts,
and find the luv there

Let's kick away the darkness,
and open our hearts this time
Let's live together,
and spread the sun shine

Let's step forward,
and create a new world,
Let's Join our hands,
and show how much it is worth

Come Everyone.....
Let's make a new World
A World full of Luv and Togetherness

Life Is Hard....

You know yourself; your time is hard,
But O'Dear, Don't lose your heart.
Days may be dark, Nights could be worse,
But O'Dear, Don't lose your nerves.
Smiles could be less, Efforts may look worthless,
But O'Dear, Don't get Depressed.
Friends may look far, like millions of stars,
But O'Dear, Don't shatter apart.
God may seem hard, like an unreal story,
But O'Dear, Don't forget his glory.....
'cause the day would come when you will feel
It's your Day, let's yell and scream.
The day would be bright and the nights a lot brighter,
Success would be yours; you will win like a fighter.
O'my Dear, just keep in mind,
A part could be hard, not the whole life.
So look for the smile in the hardest of times
There is lot to come, just open your eyes.

Sometimes...Past, Present, Future

Sometimes.....I travel back to my past,
Down the memory lanes.
I find myself alone, lost in vain,
I see myself struggling, to live in this world,
With pain in my heart, that I could never tell in words.
I looked for a shoulder, which could give me support,
But no one heard me and passed on to their roads,
Than you walked in, with a wonderful smile,
This gave me strength and love for life,
The touch of your hand and your talking eyes,
Made me sure, it is you for whom my heart cries.

Sometimes...I look in to my present,
With my eyes wide open,
'cause I never thought it would happen,
My worries have gone & I have lost my pain,
All I've got is luv and your smile like a Summer Rain,
The power of love and the strength of your words,
Has made me eager to live in this world,
Smile on your lips and happiness in your eyes,
This is all where my world lies.

Sometimes....I look in to the future
With dreams in my eyes,
Kissing your lips at every sunrise
I see you with me wrapped in my arms,
Giving you love and all the charms,
'cause you are the one who has changed my life,
So I always dream you as my loving wife,
Now I always wish to forget my past,
& luv you forever until my breath last,
I pray to God may my dreams come true,
& I could always tell that "I Love You".

Taste Of Success

Life has always been so hard for me,
But now it seems as good as it should be.
The clouds of darkness have at last scattered,
Holding my dreams which were almost shattered.
My eyes are wet and my heart runs around,
It is the taste of success which I've found.
I remember the nights when I used to cry,
Pulling back my heart which always wanted to fly.
I remember those days when my friends used to say,
Keep trying until you find your way.
I knew it was possible and I worked hard,
What I've got is it's reward.
Those nights have gone when I used to cry,
Those days have come when I can fly high,
And reach higher and higher in the sky.....

Thanks...

Thanks, to my friends who always stood beside me,
Gave me the strength to become what I want to be.
Thanks to the God who took me in his arms,
When I was in pain and gave me the chance.
Thanks to the parents who always used to complain,
Gave me the power to win the game..the game of Life.
Thanks to the world which was so harsh,
Made me determined to go for the stars.
Thanks to the days which I spent in pain,
Inspired me to work hard for my aim.
Thanks to everything and everyone for what I have got,
It is much more precious than I ever thought.

Words I Never Said, Words You Never Heard

Words I never said, words you never heard,
Still we feel what I said & what you heard.
I want to miss u but I cannot, I want to luv u but I cannot.
I want to hear what you say, I want to say what you want to hear,
But how will it happen once again dear.
The sun is still shinning and the stars are still bright,
But there is something between us which is just not getting right.
The river still flows and the waves still have tides,
Than why we feel alone like two separate sides.
The moon is still white and the sky is still blue,
But why we are apart dear, do you have a clue.
I will come back and will come back stronger,
We will be again together and this time it will be for longer.
We will laugh we will cry, let us dear give one more try....
To be what we really are, to be what we really were
To be as one, the way we were....

Yes It's True I Want To Forget You

I want to forget you,
Yes it's true i want to forget you

Everytime I see myself in the mirror, I see your face,
I want to forget your arms that gave me warm embrace,
It was you who held me when i walked alone,
showered me with luv that u have always shown.
Yes it's true I want to forget you....

I see your face in the flowing river,
I feel your touch when in the nights I shiver.
I hear you speak, when the church bells ring,
I feel you dear, when the birds sing.
Yes it's true I want to forget you...

Your face I see when I close my eyes to pray, how could I tell you I always wanted you to stay.
Your arms around me at the end of everyday,
I know my luv that moment has gone away.
Yes it's true I want to forget you...

I remember we used to walk hand in hand,
And write Love Letters in the sand.
I am still thinking what went wrong,
I am searching for something I had all along.
Yes it's true I want to forget you...

But....How could I?

Your Smile Everyday

I saw you today, I again saw your smile
Something that remains with me for a while

Your smile comes to me like a morning bliss, which gives me the joy i dont want to miss

Your smile is so bright,
It lights up my night(sadness)

Your smile is like a flowing river, which always gives me cosy shivers

A smile that carries a special warmth, that dries up my tears & ushers charms

Your smile speaks many silent words,
So sweet my ears never heard

O my friend I just wanna say,
Just give me a smile everyday.
