I am only 11 years old and i love writing poems and have fun all day, books are my best friends, and if i do any thing wrong in my poems so please point out my mistake because i am only 11 and i will be very thankful if you point out my mistake beacuase i made a qoutation 'dont be sad if any one points out your mistake, just think that any one is watching that what your doing'

'Fun'

My tummy is full
i look like a bull,

Weather is sunny
and i am so funny,

now the weather is rainy
and i got one penny,

so lets go out in rain and then feel the pain.

Life

Life is Furious
which comes and go,

Life is full of thoughts
as your teacher taught,

Life is like a mirror
That makes you happy or sad,

Life is full of troubles that makes your mind shuffle,

Study hard live Luxurious life Or play all day to make your life Hard,
