December 28 (6: 35)

December 28

I just couldn't wait

I had the phone next to me

Wanting it to ring

December 28

I just felt really great

I've been happy all day

And you were the one who took that away

The time was 6: 35

And you called me trying so hard to contrive

I really wanted to talk to you

But before I could you told me we were through

December 28

I really freaking hate that date

Because at 6: 35

I wanted just to sit back and cry

Something told me that this wasn't going to last

Because right now honey it's 2007

And you are only my past

I have to try to move on

Only because I want to be the one who is strong

It really makes me laugh

Only because I am not whole

I am freaking half!

December 28

Man I just want to hate

But I really can't

Only because my wish that I had

You really can't grant

6: 35: 45

That's when the conversation ended

Then I realized that we were done

It was two then one and now it was none

I thought to myself what did I do so wrong?

In your heart I knew I didn't belong

December 28

HATE! HATE! HATE!

What is the matter?

My heart broke and all it did was scatter

Please tell me what you don't understand
Because to me things didn't go as planned
I opened my heart to you and this is what I get
In return something that you admit
Well in life I hope things go as well as you want
Because I will not be the girl on your side that you will want to flaunt
December 28
I realized I really could wait
Because I didn't want the phone with me
And I really didn't want it to ring
It was 6: 35: 45
And all I really could do was cry

One Heart Instead Of Two

I'm a lost heart without you
There's only one but there was two
I'm lost and crazy since you left
Now ever since there is one heart instead of two
Why can't I stop thinking about your smile?
Every time I think of you it makes the moment worth while
The way you called me baby I always smile through
And every day that I think I really do miss you.
Now ever since there is one heart instead of two
Why do I feel this way about you?
More than what I have felt for any other boy
My feelings are different for you as you can see
Do you remember when it was just you and me?
But.....
Now ever since there is one heart instead of two
And I am just so crazy over you
It's almost as if our love could never let go
But it always did show
And now I am the one to tell you
My love can never be found
Because without you it's somewhere around
I want you to tell me how you feel
Because right now this relationship couldn't be so real
As I walk about thinking possibly what could I've done?
Realizing I didn't do nothing but miss you a ton
Now ever since there is one heart instead of two
And I now that I know that I really can't be without you
I have taken myself down and I am going to let you be
I want to see how long it takes you to realize that you
Will miss me
Now ever since there's no more us
All I have to do is gain your trust
I am going to have to try to move on in life
But it's going to be hard it's going to be such strife
But I have noticed that I really can't move on without you
Because what we had I knew it was too much to be true
Now ever since there is one heart instead of two
And all I can think of
Is you
