Daughter Of Death

I was born Born to the blood of angels Born through the veil of a storm Born without love inside of me Born with a need to perform Born out of vengence Born out of scorn Born out of hatred out of love torn Born with a mission Born with a drive Born with a need with a need to sruvive.
Now it's time to show you what i'm really about no more pretentions;
No more frothing at the mouth there's no use of hiding all my sins deep inside I'll wear them on my shoulder like a badge of pride Cuz i'm the daughter of death from my very first breath i'm the daughter of death blood red as macbeth living a filthy mess i'm a daughter of death just a daughter of death I was Raised from buring ashes Raised with tragic crime Raised from cries of chaos Raised on borrowed time Raised by the darkness Rasied by the night Raised by the claws of fright Raised to be hated Riased to be loved Riased to be doomed
By the powers above

Don'T Give Up

Hate me
love me lothe me but either way your gonna love me

don't judge me take me for granted just love me
hold me

don't take from me give to me
hold on to me love don't forget me

let me love you don't fight me
let the music go round us

the beat of our hearts can feel the joy of love let it flow
hold on don't let go for the love is all we have to rely on
don't give up

Don'T Let Me Down

Walk me my future,
Hold my hand along the way,
See my dreams come true in your eyes,
Don't let me down.

Wake me when my nightmares seem to cease.
Hold me tight so they won't come back.
Don't let me fall.
I gave you my dreams and wishes
I found them in you.
Don't let me down.

See me off father to the new life and the place
I now call home.
Don't cry daddy I'll come around.
You brought me up and we went through it all together.
Life was hell.
But look at us now.
Don't let me down.

I stayed by your side Through thick and thin.
When all we had was each other to take care of,
I wont let you go until I have to.
I wont let you down.

We struggled, and lived We held on and never gave up We brought each other up We stressed, laughed and joked, and for ever will you be the father that has not let me down....

Her Last Breath

The love she held dearly She faltered to In the heart of her mind it was her Life she sought to be free
Of all the pain without the one true love

Her last breath
What a disaster
Her last breath
She could have mastered it all

Such a hurting person Seeking forgiveness
Seeking the love
The love for companionship
She cries

Her last breath
What a disaster
Her last breath
She could have mastered it all

She could have But everything failed for her She would have
But she gave up to soon She should have
But she never thought

Her last breath
What a disaster
Her last breath
She could have mastered it all

Hold On To Me

I'm falling, catch me weeping may i have been, dry my tears.
Sorrow, joy from you should give me my strength.
Hold on to me because I'm falling.
Save me, my fears have caught up to me take me somewhere, ever so nice and quiet.
Show me you love me, my other fear says no,
Hold on to me for I am weak.
Lay next to me, in my dreams i am happy Hold me tight, fierce love shows in your eyes, sit with me, please don't go or fade away.
whisper you love me, in my little ear Shake me awake when i have a nightmare.
Tell me everything's going to be alright Hold on to me, Please don't leave me.
Whisper your cares and concerns Tell me what you feel Show me ever lasting love never forget me Hold on to me, as it if were our last breath.

I'LI Wait For You

of all the friends I've ever met your the one i won't forget and if i die before you do I'll give the angles back their wings and risk the loss of everything just to prove my friendship is true

In This World Of Mine

Take me baby, to a quite place where it's just you and me take your hands and rub me down slowly kiss me softly in to soft abyss i'm going my my my my

Take me around the world lets enjoy the view like a red rose smell as sweet as you

lets give love a try and let time fly we'll see how it goes

Take this heart of mine and hold it with such care, ever so fine carve yours with mine

just let us go to this little town so fine

Inside Of Me

my mind such a beautiful place
the heart of me,
what a maze

my edge of eagerness
fills like a big open
black abyss
the joy that resides& hides like a snow white hare

There's a wolf inside me it howls inside of me ever so painfully crying out in terrible sounding screams

my mind such a
beautiful place
the heart of me
what a maze,

my edge of eagerness
fills like a big open
black abyss
the joy resides& hides like a snow white
hare

There's a scratching at my insides crying out to me
screaming
'let go.. let go '
i can't help it bout out of my pain
i cry

my mind such a
beautiful place
the heart of me
what a maze

fills like a big
black abyss
the joy that resides
hides like a snow
hare

hear my cry out of joy when the light has reached my mask my mask hides all that i hold inside
the pain

my mind such a
beautiful place
the heart of me
what a maze

Just One Lie

We're done.
He's gone.
I almost died.
That fateful day
All the blood that dripped from my body.
The crimson red that fell to the floor.
We're over
There is no us.
He was my rock.
My keeper.
I was strong and full Now I'm weak and empty.
The lie that made him doubt.
When we tried one more time might be The one where in the end I just give up It was forgivin, but it wasn't enough My life rests in his hands.
I'm gone I disappeared.
My family is going to miss me.
My death what a shame.
The love he held.
I held to mine.
Just one lie.
A small lie of whom I had talked to changed all that I Had, all I could get.
Just one lie had me out cold that night.
Im done with this life It's pointless without him
He doesn't see it.
My daughter will.
Just one lie made us fall apart once more
For the last time i've fallen and this time I don't have footing to get back up.
This life without him is a dead life.
My daughter will see what true love is when she realizes her Mother and father died and walked away.

My Best Friend

There is a part of me within your soul.

Theres a part of me that feels your pain when you are empty i'm not whole when your bewildered i'm insane we have a connection deep, deep within you've been my provider my shelter, my rock, my best friend. In my shallow life i find substance in you knowing that we've shared a special bond your honest opinions and direct point of view your bold intuitions I've learned to grow found of we share a connection deep, deep within your my wisdom, my warrior and of course my best friend.

I've had so many opportunities simply because of you you guided me though obstacles.

You eliminated fear. you listened I find comfort knowing you are near. we share a connection, until the very end from this life to the next phase

you will always and forever be my best friend

Seraph Serenade

Your're my angel back in heaven lost among the free,
trapped up in that tower
looking down upon my plea
if only i could climb up there and sort through your debris, i'd bring this angel back to heaven for all eternity Gritty demented cloth covering up flesh born to rot lace wound up so tightly and faut that bitter screams of breath would get caught Bloody circumstances heel kicking in the doors mad of steel stiletto razor - sharp so surreal that sunny dreams of death wouldn't heal Dirty penalized belt whipping up trouble with every pelt leather so stained so worn it could melt that haunting demonic rage with one wely Musky vilified veil smothering cries of living hell dust choking cries to such avail that holy water rise with one wail Angle back in heaven lost among the fress
loking down upon my plea
if only i could climb up there and sort through you debris, i'd bring back this angel captured just for me

Suicide Ride

Alone doesn't hurt anymore
The pain's too strong to feel it alone doesn't work anymore there's no one left to heal it if i turn my back on it all and walk away from this place then maybe someone will find these dried up tears on my face

Poor things
She could have been so smart so rich
she could have been so loved so blessed she could have been but,
she lost her grip

To many voices none of them mine there're far too loud to hear my pain inside if i could leave this world leave it all behind would they all shut up and watch my suicide....ride?

Faith doesn't come from inside you've got to go and get it faith doesn't stay by your side you've got to not regret it If i look my faith in the eyes and let my tears flow with grace then maybe someday I'll find a life for me to embrace

I can show them all what they never could see once they watch my fall they'll finally notice the

if i just lost my grip
