Distant

only in a world this cold could i find the kind of PAIN you've given me so distant too distant..... i'm watching you drift away burning memories they hurt i cant forget how i hate thinking of the love we had the thoughts make me sad but when i look in your eyes my pain dissapears
could i helplessy love you drove me away you did i cant help but think it was your plan all along so now i'm left all alone it could only happen in a world this cold

Every Time

please dont tell me you love me everytime you do i feel another tear welled up inside my eyes please dont tell me your leaving everytime i think about it i hear more pain in my cries i gave you everthing of mine my body's now empty so please dont tell me your just gonna throw it all away.
i hear another crack go through my heart why your so heartless you never thought to say i try to get over you, and i try to stop crying every second of every day but these tears are slow tears they may never go away.
please dont tell me everythings gonna be okay
every time you do i feel another knife go through my chest and it always barely misses my heart so then i have to live with the pain please leave me alone these tears are slow tears and i'm just tryin to deal with the pain

Ian

Something so hard goes straight to the soul it seems impossible to get over and my heart is left with a big hole.....

i'm trying to be happy, wearing a smile,
but im dying inside the words seem to be fading i just wanna run and hide..... everywhere i go i see your face and realize how much i miss you on the day you died a piece of me died too.....

My Way.

and if i could erase it all i would have never of met you..... my heart would have never of been broken if i had it my way you wouldnt have left me astray.... i dont understand i did everything for you..... and out of all the other gurls i would have never hurt you i would have never abandoned you..... i didnt take you for granted....and when you looked in my eyes....all my pain all my fears.....hun you made them dissappear.....but now thats all i have....pain everyday...and fears that i wont be okay. i could have never screwed you over the way you did me and the sad part is that i still love you and always will cause you touched a part of my heart that no one can EVER come close to im slightly okay....not sure yet..... im trying to decide weather i should hate you forever or forgive you already and move on with my life.....which direction am i going.....who knows....since you happend im all turned backwards... well its nice to know your doing fine even though my checks are stained from where my tears have fallen right now im pretending everythings okay.....i dont know if i'm trying to fool everyone else or just myself some how you have managed to get under my skin more than anyone ever did please dont go... come back just to tell me everythings going to be okay with out you..... and whipe my tears away like you always did.... is it possible to let you go? but everything happens for a reason i guess..... but it'll never be fair.....i cared for you...i cried over you..i picked up my shattered heart and put it back together.... and you never cared... right now im pretending everythings okay....i dont know if im trything to fool everyone else or just myself..... and if i could erase it all i wouldnt..... cause you touched a part of my heart no one can EVER come close to.... because im grateful that i did have you at one point in my life... but if i had it my way you would never have left me if i had it my way.....you'd be here by my side today... and im whiping away my makeup smeared eyes if i had it my way you'd cry over me the way i cried over you

See

See i dont tell you how i feel because i know it all to well i saw it in your eyes i read it on your face but what you have right now is me you dont see it you dont even know it before you even realize it ill be gone my tender love an kissing the sweet embrace that i gave you it wont take you long before you get lonely your laughing now but soon your gonna notice that your thinking of me often and your mind is blank on what happend so now your looking in all the places im supposed to be that just shows you dont know me see ive been here the whole time but you didnt realize see i still think of you dearly see i still wish you were near me i just wish you could have seen it in my eyes and read it on my face. if we were together it would have been a lie it seemed we were ment to be but it took you to long to see.

So Sweet

your kiss so sweet, so tender you kiss that makes my heart swell your kiss that drives me into unknown passion your kiss that makes my stomach flutter your kiss that makes me know i'm loved by you your kiss that is unhesitant to be bestowed upon me your kiss that sends me into poetic bliss

Sorry You Say

can love be found after its been lost? ?

can you forgive the unforgivable? ?

you might be sorry
but i am too...

i thought you cared i thought you were true but i figured out that no matter what with love its always, cruel can you trust the once untrusted

can you see the lies in the innocent

i guess not because i trusted you i'm sad because of what you did i'm mad because i blame myself what if i said or did something different maybe you wouldve been happy i wonder can you find love after someones thrown it away all i know is you hurt me in a way that there is no excuse i hope you know that your the last person who will ever touch my heart i'll lock it in a safe forever there it'll stay perhaps it'll help my heart heal is love at first sight real can it be as real as the pain you've given me are you as sorry as you claim to be i guess we'll just have to wait and see if your truly sorry you'll have to wait can you forgive the unforgivable i truly dont think i'll be able i'm drowning in my thoughts of sorrow there's no one here to save me so i guess i'll just have to keep swimming until tommorrow.....maybe my hero will come

Why Care

why should i care if your not here and even though gave you everything i could have possibly given its your loss not mine..... even though my hearts gone and every shred of faith i ever had of you is gone too
why should i care
but the truth is i do care for you i try not to
why should i care
you've never thought of what we could've had dont you understand i cared for you deeply i cant believe you didnt see me and everything i did for you but why should i care its not my fault your heart is bare cant you see youve caused my heart to tear so why should i care but the truth is i dont not anymore i always knew you had a good heart but you always caused people to hurt you just let it sit collecting dust leaving it empty so why should i care you've never loved me....
