All You Need Is Love

Love is like the wind blowing in your face.
You can't see it but you can feel it.

Love has the beauty of showing that you care for someone great and wonderful.

Love is like your first kiss.
It shoots sparks and many emotions through out your body.

Love touches every part of your body with or without them near you.

Love is such a powerful thing that it can take you anywhere.

Love is like an eagle soaring through the sky.
Taking new journeys and seeing new things.

Love is something great and a feeling you'll never forget.

ALL YOU NEED IS LOVE

Cali Girls

Boston girls are pretty...
New York girls are smart...
But it takes a Cali Girl,
To win a guys heart! ! !

Florida girls are just bikinis and sun...
Vegas girls are hoes...
But when you want the best lookin girl,
Cali is where you gotta go! ! !

Jerset girls are wild...
Texas girls are fun...
But Cali Girls? ? ?
Come on, they're #1! ! !

Girls will be girls...
North, South, East or West...
But Cali Girls...
Always rate thee best! ! !

To any man who reads this...
And truly wants to know...
If you have a Cali Girl...
You should never let her go! ! !

Closer

Is it normal to hurt so bad?
Is it strange that I am so sad?
Being together from this day on.
I will be watching as our love spawns.
But the pain is deep...deeper than most know,
and the hurt is cold...colder than the snow.
I know how to end it,
the pain that lies within.
There is only one way to fix it.
So let me begin.
Waking up next to you,
Looking into your eyes,
and knowing I'll be with you,
until the day I die.
Being with you,
each and everyday,
will ease my pain,
and that's the only way.
So think of me at night,
dream of me when you sleep,
because inside you know,
my love for you is deep.

Last Breath

When the only thing you feel,
is that deep hurt called pain,
you have to ask yourself,
is there anything to gain? ? ?
Deep in my soul,
way down there,
it seems sometimes, the pain is too much to bear.
But when I hear that voice, and understanding what I'm being told,
when it soaks to me, and it erases all the cold.
He gives me strength,
courage and heart,
even when it feels, I've been hit with a dart.
I need him with me,
to survive these days,
I love everything about him,
I love all of his ways.
So when I am hurt,
and when I'm blue,
I go to the one,
my heart belongs to.
So baby I thank you,
for all you have done,
and I promise you baby, you are the only one,
I'll love you JJ,
until the day of my death,
and I won't ever stop loving you even after my last breath.

Shadow

God help me on this lonely street.
I feel like I'm alone, about to face the heat.
If you answer my prayer, and if this is how.
I need to make a choice, right here right now.
Will you be with me, from up there?
Will he still love me? Will he still care?
Deep in my heart I know he will always love me, because he is still here, and I'm down on my knees.
This is my weakest, and he's pulling me up.
Even though I'm running on empty,
he's still filling my cup.
I love him so, and I hope he can see,
what I'll go through to keep him with me.

Unexplainable Feelings

Like floating on air, when I talk to you.

I need you,
I want you.
Like air, the air
I walk on when I think of you

Feelings... for you.
I can't explain them,
and it hurts.

I say things
that sound so horrible...
I wish I could be so free of worry.

You tell me you love me,
and I love you.

I'm so scared
To disappoint you.
I'm so worried that I come off too obsessed...

I'm in love,
and I love it.

I love you,
and it's the best thing.

Us Together

You carry me, you spin me around.
You walk in step, you speak a sound.

What happened? What did we do?
What's the feeling? What's new?

Let's talk, Let's bring it back.
Let's be us, Let's get on track.

Find the peace, Find what's missing.
Find us together, Find us kissing.

It's not of matter, It's that we get there.
It's you and me, It's what we treasure.

I want you here, I do feel fine.
I want you forever, I do want are body's to combined.
