Cause Pain

I cause pain and never know what to do I cause sorrow every time I try to help you I'm the worse person you can talk to I just make people want to spew I never know why I have friends I'm never good enough for them
The people I know could do better even the none existent people that i desire.

Confused

your all confused your brain is scrambled you don't know what to think you don't know whats right from wrong you don't understand anything you just wished you understood all these feelings your having you never know what to feel you think one thing then feel another you never know whats going on wishing you just understood wishing you could get everything right but then there's no thrill then every things just boring you'll never get any where if you weren't confused life would be pointless if you always knew whats right the thrill of never knowing or what you feel would never be there so no matter what you think or feel just go with it and feel the thrill of what you have cause your never going get out your always going to feel that way so just deal

Confused Thoughts

Keep something close and watch it get ripped away Put up a front Falling apart

people that hate me and try to keep me trying to be good thinking positive

Things bad could happen feelings coming down but never know when I'll break When I'll fall to the end yet I hear his voice as it calms my heart but that's gone I'll fall apart

so wat will help me when he's been taken wat will calm me when he can't call me

Now when he is put behind bars how will I take it how can i handle it

This tells that I do love him and yet I can't have him is this a sign is this early is it trying to tell me that I'm not ready that it's not suppose to be can it be that I'm not suppose to be with the one I love

The one that's true

The one I want to go through even if it's not true I just wanna him to be forever close to me

Copper Wish

Our hearts beat fast Feeling the rush
Of the blood pulsing through With a slight of breath Your feeling the heat
By a gently touch
Of sinking teeth Start breathing heavy Causing burning marks
By digging nails Tarring skin
Body filled with red scares
The deep touch pulling across Ripping seems through sharp bites Dripping lust
Of a ruby gold Followed by a passionate kiss of a copper wish cabby desired

Envey

I envy you
For you see Your the only one that controls me
You are the one that makes me confused
You are the one that makes it so my mind can't choose Your the only one that I question about Your the only one that I've thought about this for so long Trying to choose on whats going on Don't try to tell me it's cause I can't figure you out When all it is
Is my emotions that keep wondering about While I lay here pondering About whither I may like you I'm slowly rotting waiting it through

Fears

The fears
That bring tears
The fears
Of that taken away
To never be seen
The thought of second best To leave, to never rest The want to stay with To never watch them go Yet will to follow their wants and needs
What makes them feel the best
You know
That you're seen But can't help but think That you're going to be put behind the scenes

For My Friend

I couldn't go through life knowing my friend was in vain I know that she caused pain but shes my best friend in the world so i look around with my head in a whirl and think to myself I do not die for pleasure i do not die from pressure i do not die for sorrow i do not die from pain from others i would never die to cause pain I die for my best friend i die for a friendship that was pure I die for a friend this is true Cause there is no life to be living through so to you i say think of it this way I was going to die anyway I'm just ending it a little sooner Just think of it as me being away and is going to be back as another Just on a different day Always remember this too I'm not doing this because of you I'm doing this for my friend so she doesn't die alone or in a sin so she doesn't die in pain of being in vain This is what I'm dieing for here's another way to see so you can leave it be Life is already hell I'm just releasing my self from the cell I'm freeing all this pain
plus I'm happier this way I'm happy not being afraid

Friends To Foes

I try my hardest to be a good friend but it never ends up that way in the end I don't understand I'm trying so hard We end up fighting and typing so hard Till our fingers are bleeding They'll never let it go We'll end up being greater foes We'll talk big words and threaten each other We'll make it so we can't even stand seeing one other Life will go on and it'll happen again not speaking to these people hating them till the end

Plz don't end up as one of those friends hating each other never speaking again If it's meant to end then at least let it fade fade away as the friend I never hated

I Slit My Wrist

I slit my wrist
and watch the blood drip down as it carry's away the pain And as I fall to the ground
I think about the pain that's being drained
As I slip into a restless sleep
I think about what i did this week
As i think i start to cry
For I feel sorrow
For the rejection and the fear of tomorrow I rise awake to grab a knife then slice away doing so again and again till it all bleeds away I look at the knife
And the blood spilled on the floor And wonders 'why does it poor? ' I start to feel relief for only a brief of time shall I be awake I start to slip away Happy that I've paid
It all goes black for i am gone For i am finally happy after all along it's almost like a song
The pain is finally gone I know that I dealt with the pain in the worst way but it made me feel better It was the only way i could pay for the pain I caused and the pain that was dealt plus it doesn't matter I feel a lot better I'm sorry for you please don't be sad its not like you did it you never made me mad oh please I ask think of it this way I'll probably be back another day carry on what has happened today for people to know that things may end up this way but also for people to understand the way I think and the way I stand people probably wont get it they will probably say it was stupid and wont admit it but they are the ones that never see they are the ones that never let me be they are mostly the ones that did this to me they mocked they teased and they were never pleased That's why i feared the next day because people never liked me my way they hated me because I was different they hated me because I wasn't perfect that's why I did it that's why I cried and made a slit that's why I cut so much because I was crushed because i was rejected

If I Died

If I died right now no one would know no one would see the thing that use to be me no one would care at all you see the thing that use to be there isn't there at all For you see if I died here alone no one would moron or even have sadness in their tone no one would care no one would see no one would even shed a tear in irony cause there's nothing more for me

Misbelief

We all hope we all pray when someones sick then we all pray that it goes away but some times it sticks some time it takes a life away when that happens I always think whats the use of praying to someone who never helps someone unreal that lets the good sink if he's real then he's left a bad impression on me it's like he only likes himself the last straw he's lost my belief he took someone dear to my friend after she gave him so much hope so now i think that there's misbelief in the one that's suppose to save us all but instead he sleeps I can't believe how people pray and say he is real as I listen to them I always keep my lips sealed but I always think how can you believe in something that's never been revealed I always think how can you believe in something that never helped out he just leaves you there to pout to bawl your eyes out it's really sad how some suppose of god can just sit back and watch you go through this pain and not be phased at all it makes me wonder how he can let so many people go young it took years to gain my belief yet it took a matter of seconds to lose it all to me he is not real or just a big jerk keeping his lips sealed while people try to stay healed

My Friend

She was my bestfriend and she wanted me dead and like an idiot I went with it cause she is the one I'd die for she's the only one that's heard my heart pour we went through a lot and for that I have a plot I love her like my own sister and for that I could never be pissed at her she's the only one I believe she's the only one that can make me relieved.....

cabby desired

Pain

The pain I feel
Keeps me sealed
For nothings real
For that I could be killed
The pain I feel
Shall be revealed
But not till
It is seeked Till then I shall contain Till then I will keep it with in Hiden inside
Hiden with nothing no one by my side

Pushed And Pulled

I get pushed and pulled, hit and hugged in every way no matter what I do I either get in trouble or straighten it out it's so confusing so stressful I'm out of my mind I laugh everyday and I have a good time but on other side I'm being ripped away.
I can't handle it but no matter what I do I'm always in it I can't stand I can't walk away I'm stuck in the middle with nothing to do but I have to live I can't survive I'll try my best and I'll try to live through this There's going to be my ups and downs There's going to be my depression my sorrow and my happy days and every time everyday I'm being ripped away I'm not five people I'm only one stuck in something that I can't get away from

Stars And Dreams

I watch the stars as days go by I see the way they seem to fly How can I make you see How can I take you by the wing So you will see the things I dream Instead your seeing the feelings as they die While we're watching the stars as if they cry Knowing the feelings that have gone past Missing the feelings that have always last Seeing them calling like their dreams Your watching them leave As I'm seeing them rise to the scene

cabby desired

Suicide Lover

I love him more than others I miss him cause he was my lover life will never be the same and I'll always live with the shame Of knowing that we didn't die together to catch you up to date I'll tell you whats the bother He had to move away we weren't allowed to see each other we were for bidden lovers So i am dieing cause there is no life worth living If it's not living with him I die to forget the pain of never being together and as far as i know he's dieing so i will not die alone Now i know what your going to say That I'm foolish and this isn't the way but I say to you wouldn't you do the same If you could never hold or be held by the one that's meant to be
If you could never kiss the one that you always kissed with meaning To lose your love is to lose your life that use to have mean I'll say with my last breath with my last dropp of life
'I had loved I have held but it was forbidden so now I have been killed' to my love I shall be forever with in,
Suicide lover

Tears Fall Down

The tears fall down
As the heart beats fast
The feeling of touch
Makes feelings flow past So many, it's hard to find a breath
So much, It's hard to find ground Your wishing time would freeze Cuz your loosing touch with every scene
As your feeling every breeze
You start wishing it could all disappear Yet it's all there As time goes by Your getting yourself lost While it all slips away
With every little day It's filling your eye's With feelings that happen
When you can't let go
The tears fall down
When your wanting everything to show Cuz you don't want to go round To see nothing, not even a glow

That Little Town

I think about the dreams
And I wish that they were real Imagining all those happy faces Seeing things in better places Instead things are going fast With not a time to see The ways you really feel Mixing with the ways you think Which way is right Which way is true Can you see the way right through Can you see the feelings hiding Or has it all just been confusing Getting pushed towards an answer Then believing that it's always been there Making pathetic attempts From a failing heart Your wondering minds
And all the curious thoughts Ending up in the same direction Wishing things to just slow down Like the dream of that beautiful town Can you really find a place Where you know your moods
And always know what you chase Where you hear the tunes And know which way through The things you think were always there And the things you feel Were the way you were going all along

The Things U Know

Find the one Get real close Feel the touch
That everyone knows

Find you love them
Make the plans Feel it's perfect
The way everything lands

Then all of the sudden Its ripped away Torn apart
Till another day

See the hope Find the ways
Make a paths
Through the scattered haze

Starts to wonder Why again
When everything is good Everything ends

You start thinking, start sorting About the things that were said
The promises made
That you hope not to end

They say it's ok
They say they'll never go But you always know
The truth that seems to show

Hearing it over The sweet words said
How you fix everything How you helped in the end

As it goes over You start to see The things you were enough for The things you could save

Because of the fact you were there Just the fact u were alive, you were here Seemed to heal anything To stop any bad vibes

Yet that seems to be then That seemed to fade
No matter the hope
It seems not to hide

The fact that you aren't Enough anymore
The fact that you Tried so hard

Doesn't shine through It's not heard Cause feelings don't matter Cause being a reason

Doesn't meaning a thing anymore Not being able to touch them Starts making the fear grow Because now you know

Your No Longer Their Show

cabby desired

These Walls

I like it in here cause there is no fear no matter how hard people try they wont make me cry these walls take it away cause there's no reason to pay Like there is no pain the walls will always contain the sorrow i feel like life isn't real it all disappears and makes me feel spared like someone really cared I know people don't because they can never hear my yells and screams of disappear but some how these walls fill that void these wall I enjoyed I'll shall be back to them because i have much pain and sin so right for now i shall desire them

cabby desired

Time

Wondering minds Soaring passed
Being kind Thinking fast

Acting out to things untold Trying to shout
To keep from seeming cold

Never getting
The things unsaid Always sitting Wishing it could be read

Getting lost looking to be impossible searching for the cost To make it all possible

cabby desired

Trying

Trying to help Make you see What has risen
From your fallen dream Hearing you crying
And wanting an out
You think you fake
A thing you doubt Seeing nothing Like your own little drought
These are the hardest of all times Yet these are the times you see the most
The things you believe Made more complicated by the host Then in the end
Your just fighting for something Trying so hard Thinking your dream will leave Because your mind makes them look so clear But they might disappear
It's a tragic time Taring many apart
But leaving a time that can't be lost Leaving memories that can't be tossed Your dreams may be miss placed But your wishes will find something better to chase

U Tell Me Things

you tell me shit thats never true you tell shit even though it's through you tell me shit that i never want to know i never care about the shit that you always want me to know I never really cared what you said to me I never really cared if people said anything I usual just ignore all the things around I usual just listen to my heart of sound People try to tell me all these things that are unheard people tell me they understand everything but all i hear come out of their mouth is what they believe people always tell me how they think and what they know instead of tellin them i really don't care Something in me just shuts up and listen anyways I never know why i do it or why I'm even there I never know why i do any thing I wonder why I'm not spared Now all i hear in my ear is this ring

cabby desired

Undesired

I'll never know what it's like to get my crush I'll never know what it's like to get who i want I am the unwanted one
The one ppl least desire I'm the one people would never choose to be I always crush on the untouchable I always want the ones that never want me back

cabby desired

Watch

watch the way you fade to me with every scene I see the way you seem with every move you take from everything seeing you everyday watching you fade away

Who I Am

I'm invisible, to one I'm abused, by another I'm forgotten, by the last I'm not worth the money, to save I'm not worth it at all I hear other people say they love me I hear them all call me cute and hott but I never believe them I never listen to their crap
I am weak
I have no guts I'll be alone forever stuck in a box, with my curse stuck in a box, being really hurt I'm a failure
I am unwanted I'm just another person that needs a little work I'm another face in the crowd I'm just a little more fucked up I'm just a little abnormal I'm different, from people I'm hated, for it I'm undesired, by them all There's only one I believed and for that she is hurt She's like my sister, she worries for me She's there for me and for that she's in pain, she's hurt by me For that she is sad, she's torn apart thinking she might hurt me or I might be mad While it's all me
This is me and I know it's only just a tad
But it's who I am even if people don't want it

Why Me

you think of me as the freak I am you see me not as I see with in so why do you stand there for asking the question you've asked many before

I ask these questions thinking your not sincere but in the end it's not hard to show to me you shall not fear

You hope that in the end you can call me your dear and hold me tight where I'm forever in your sight

cabby desired

Will I

I found this person Kept him close in the end got him taken away being torn apart things are happening from keeping from the rest yet it finds a way

I'll remember him I'll wait for him cuz with every doubt i hear his voice that makes me wanna shout to keep him close and fight he might of went against me he could of been lying yet I believe him yet i trust him

My body shows me that I've been worried cuz when I sleep it makes me find him will i walk away till the proper day even if my plans comes to the end will i go to another to find a cover so I'm not crashing when I do fall

So I'm not hurting
When I'm losing one of the only men that I love

Words Or Touch

The feeling of touch
Sends you into a rush Making it harder to breath Harder to see Making you take the chance To feel the fear that someone else Anyone else can take the same You watch the body language Hoping that as soon as this leaves They don't get bored, with text That there's no boredom, with talk Making more chance For something better
To come along Causing you to wonder Is it only touch Or is it also spoken words Even toughs little actions
