2 Worlds,1 Person

pulling against my soul heart breaking its crying
i could feel it confused
two worlds
tears flowing dont know what to do mind saying one thing my heart saying another
hard to think hearts clouding my mind soul tearing it hurts
stomach churning
one person... everything to live for but what? ?

A Life Not Wasted

a life lived so long a beautiful soul to go along with your smile you bore us like your own you loved us like no other a love so pure and precious sitting with God in heaven looking down upon us while i looked up upon you looking wondering what star you are missing you like never before the day will come wen i see you again but right now its your time to rejoice
a life not wasted
lived to the fullest never forgotten

All In The Past

i use to dream it use to be my life i thought i was good i wanted something gave everything and in the end got nothing dreams said i would go far they were lying they were a mirage its who i was who i wanted to be it was my mask in hard times who i turned into when i was down dont give up! i need to what is it good for anyways its worthless it was my first love i was what i did, so, who am i now?

Always Shine

in the presents of darkness i will always shine the days are dark and ugly but i will still shine through my trials and tribulations i will still shine dont be embarrassed let it shine be who you wanta be the light will never go out bring yourself to comfort bring me to peace when you live your life live it to the fullest

Amazing

amazing is beautiful amazing is kind amazing is brilliant amazing is you... beautiful is amazing beautiful is admirable beautiful is sweet beautiful is you... you are beautiful
you are amazing

Cloudy Day

the wind blows the clouds go the rain falls the clouds cover the sun like a thick blanket i doze off this boring day the sun peaks out but goes back in hiding like a scared kid looking out seeing the drops falling wondering if god is bawling knowing he cant be but just what if a 'what if' question i think hard about it but theirs no reason and i do this all... on a cloudy day

Conquer

when the beauty subsides and fades behind the mask that keeps us shielded from the world blinding me from where im suppose to be seperating my heart from my soul trying to be true to myself and my love conquering the deepest part of her soul knocking down my barrier to let her in is this a mistake, letting her into a sacred place so she can come in and destroy it leaving my body dry and hopeless will she love me unconditionally my head spinning
not knowing where to go or where i am but i keep walking... cluelessly stop! ! !
close your eyes... listen, open your eyes follow your heart, run! ! ! run! ! ! run... into her arms, kiss her! look into eyes, let the tears of joy run down your cheeks share your life, your love, yourself let her love you... dont be afraid, fight your fear conquer yourself, conquer the darkness in your heart

Destination... Hell

nowhere else for me to be all i want is to be burned
her eyes burn through me like hot metal threw plastic her smile devours me like a hungry wolf not caring how i feel turning my feelings to dirt my love to nothing tearing me apart inside out make me better take me away let the clouds turn red may the demaons circle me in the sky carry me into the pits drag me down let my fingernails drag agianst the limestone seperate my soul from my mind challenge my thoughts give me more pain more suffering give me what i deserve take away my love i dont deserve to have it its useless, i throw it to the fire feeding it with every feeling i had burning me with her hatred the sun turns to blood as do i...

Dora

a woman so sweet a woman everybody loved smiles on everybodys faces you gave people chances you brought new lives unto them my life was changed not in a good way but in between you make me want to be a better person i think about you now and then mostly in july the time you left us and left me a life well lived and for that i applaud you

Empty Thoughts

empty thoughts stuck in my head wishing waiting stuck in bed cant get up, no not yet pray a little harder go a little farther like a storm in my presence taking away the essence bringing back the day i looked your way in the light so bright especially in the night your light shined so bright in my empty thoughts you run wild every path in my mind you control i hear your voice in the distance or are those just my empty thoughts caleb nathanael gonzales

Francis

francis you were beautiful a once in a lifetime person someone to lean on but francis you had to go he called you home i needed you but didnt always talk to you i suffer the consequences for that crying randomly francis you were amazing so many lifes you have touched over the years the world lost a heavenly angel but i gained a guardian angel when times get tough dont look back keep going forward keep your head up francis didnt give up and for that i thank you

I Am

I am, unable to be figured out lying to myself, for things I have done things I have said like a puzzle being broken down slightly tossed and turned forced into places i don't belong...
I am, ME!

I Stand Alone

under the stars everything lost in a million ways scared to death ive never been alone waiting for a miracle but God not on my side... nobody is i look to the past for mistakes ive seen what ive done youve made mistakes you killed yourself a million times over you lost yourself when you lost her i stare at the stars thinking of you wondering if you do the same when you fall in love you know your taking a chance... giving your heart away never knowing what direction your going in i took that chance and crushed myself!
its been hard to say goodbye its been hard to live my life should i give up?
or should i keep going in a different direction i lost!
its over... when you love you realize who you really are

In Fear

i stand here in fear watching the people walk by knowing one day i`ll die should i be in fear?
some people say ya
some people say no but deep down i hear a voice of comfort, guiding me threw my fear take it away from me for this i thank you

Let Me Be The 1

your beauty overwhelms my hearts desires consuming my soul with every stare i wonder why i even try i just need your attention i try to fight it i try to let you go but your smile brings me back always thinking of what we could be your voice like angels praising God my feelings for you are to much to comprehend the world exists so you could live will he care for you like i do no!
my love could go around the universe infinitely your eyes hypnotize me making me love you more make the pieces of my heart complete i`ll welcome you into my spirit my passion inflicts the everlasting love uncontrolling feelings tear my heart wanting, but cant have break the seal control the uncontrollable come into me be mine let me be the one! !

Lillie

lillie you overcame so much the brain tomer the surgery you needed you got through it lillie your brave soul i look up to you in every way my inspiration my loving caring mom lillie the life you`v lived amazes me the odds were against you you pulled threw lost someone dear to you and still pray and for that mom i love you

New Emotion

i find the way you lead me break my chains, my habits a new emotion following the leap of faith something like a time bomb tipping his hat showing new emotions blowing his his kiss over my head... shoving me to the side like a shadow casting me down laying down on my back surrendering? !
to whom will I? !
break me?
who? !
new emotions

caleb nathanael gonzales

Night Sky

my mind blank like the night sky motionless, breathless... alone in the night sky where did you go?
how did this happen?
high in the sky just trying to get by i want to be someone not just who they want me to be i want to be me disappear...

No Thanks To You

you left me open my hearts dry and cracked you left me vulnerable to live another day on my own with nobody but myself
lonely in space i call my own with nothing but a pen a paper to write this, you tore me down but never built me back up you opened me up to see my love you stole it from my heart i`m feeling empty i`m dead inside

caleb nathanael gonzales

One Day

one day i`ll be happy one day she`ll be back one day i`ll be covered with her love one day she`ll be mine again one day the depression will be gone one day we`ll be together one day our love will be restored one day i`ll hear hr voice again one day...
one day we`ll spend time together one day i`ll live for something one day my life will have meaning one day my love will consume her life one day i will smile will that day ever come?

One Star

one star faded another star shines a brand new awakening happieness in the horizon the darkness glows with her smile guiding me threw somewhere new in my future hoping my path is clear no struggles no hard times do i have something to live for?
i think i do her beauty never siezes to amaze me i could fall in love but i think im scared does she fill the same or, will she let sorrow fill my soul i care when you love, you love a lot but when you hate you love even more love is a special thing if you have it dont let it waste keep it safe keep it in your heart dont let your heart break, dont let the love escape! !

Please!

please! enter my heart dont be afraid take a risk you won regret it your beauty is as a great as gods greatest attractions when i hear your voice, angels guide me to where the treasure might be never knowing what the future may bring but praying to god that your in it your what the world needs, but especially me my mind wonders off into what could be please! enter my soul enter the mysterious deep depression of my heart let god see what we could be lift your eyes and look into mine see the feelings that lie deep within me slumbering wake them to see how things could change may you put them to rest the feelings i had once before make the dream of the boy come true the dream of having someone like you please! enter my mind begin to understand the feelings i hold the heart, the soul, the mind you hold in your hands dont throw it away keep it safe within your heart dont break the spirit of what we could be hold it gently within your arms let the mind run free of what the future could bring dont be embarrassed of the past dont stray away from where i could be, stay close please! enter my life

Sammy

sammy you lived a hard life a life without a father a life without love you had hope you had faith you found something good to you you give me love you give me hugs a life worth living you were there when i fell you were there when i was crying i almost lost it and you brought me back sammy your a great man a wonderful father you had nothing but now you grew up to be my father and for that i smile upon you

Shattered

my heart is shattered
my mind is blown
my soul is crying
i dont know why i know she loves me but now im denying her love is great it seems it is dying my love is big i hope she knows it seems she forgot i hope she doesnt go i dont know what to do and shes right next to me but she cant comfort me it seems were apart but in our souls were together theirs a string of love between us that will never keep us apart
but i know she will never let go

So Many Lost People

looking for something but not knowing what in a dark world losing control, causing havoc i look around seeing nothing but evil let your light shine upon me bring it to me cover me with your presence find me i dont wanta be like so many lost people in the day their is darkness in the night their is evil bring me joy and happieness bring me upon your findings findings of beautiful deservings the findings of so many lost people

caleb nathanael gonzales

The One I Lost

so beautiful and caring your the one i lost
the laughter of an angel
the smile and the body
the one i think about no matter what
the one who caught me when i failed
i said i love you you said i love you too
i lost you but can you find me

caleb nathanael gonzales

Time

time wat is it?
time heals all so they say but does it really?
i still grieve from time to time thinking of the good times turned to bad thinking of what we couldve had i turn around at the clock wondering where the time went i look for it everywhere unsuccessfully help me please wont you i need you time take this off my mind i can take this anymore they were wrong time is not on my side

caleb nathanael gonzales

Why? !

why am i? !
the chills cover my body tears enter my eyes and across my cheeks with thoughts of a mad man the making of a new man a new person full of joy, happiness and hope with the memories of the past still stuck in my head taking them out one by one but still a million only wanting one thing on my mind wanting her face imprinted in my head never leaving my soul staying in spirit never taking my happiness away keep the smile on my face dnt let it go hold it forever keep me strong keep us strong keep our love strong never let go dont take what we have for granted hold it...hug it...kiss it... keep your eyes, heart and soul set on it! dont lose sight let our love run free into the world let the world see! !

Wishes

so many wishes people ask for so many people without wishes wishes that don't come true devastation fills the air like a hot humid summer night wishes are made wishes fail you wish, wishes came true but why don't they?
some are just coincidences some maybe real but we`ll never know for sure but i wish i knew
