Absence

sometimes we feel bad when our love one get too busy our emotion feels like as if empty its natural for those inlove well its love that matter sometimes wee, too get busy to forget loneliness because of our someones absence its an excuse misses there it goes sometimes we ignore the time just to escape from what we feel inside its as strategy to survive the day, , , getting too busy sometimes we hide our pains but still it remains we used to cry because to control we cannot try

Alone

all this time im still alone in the starting line i dont have anyone to race life with 'be patient to Wait' as they said i wish to be with someone who could race life with me someone who could bring color to my gray life who could be with me in times of boredom when would be that time come?

who is that someone? , im excited to meet lets prepare as the race is set our life is bored when alone we need to be with someones companion

Everyday

every sunrise we witnessed is a day to be blessed God has given us another day to live a chance to distribute love and a care to give every succeeding hour is a gift a time to explore someone to meet another privilege is at hand to search everything on land every moment is a treasure a time to feel its pleasure great time to recall a memories and be enlighten by the moments you cherish every smile is a greeting that can touch someone feeling God let us to mingle everywhere to touch ones life and give them care every night is a success for God has given us another time to rest a smile on the lips and a peaceful sleep get ready for tomorrow is another day to meet..

Goodbye Past

i have faced a lot of trials suffered many circumstances and experience a deep pains but that was carried away by rains i have lived in a boredom place felt loneliness that crossed my face conquered sacrifices and challenges but that was passed by my prayers i have felt to be a broken-hearted i have gained love with all my heart offered my joy but still get hurt but was past never can be a present anymore i graduated from sorrow now, i am free to face life's joy forget those pains, leave it a past hello tomorrow, i am free atlast! ! !

Hard Times With Love

'love fades when everything gets worse it hurts when you expect things change ofcourse but iflove is strong no one can break' sometimes situation are acceptable you believe that love is priority but then you realize it is like a painting in the wall cannot feel, it is just for your eyes to see sometimes you try to understand though pains are flooding you set aside your pride to save your love but it kills and sucks the feelings sometmes the only option is giving up because everything you do turning into crap how could you fight for yhe relationship if the trust and love starts to loose from where you keep.

Hi...

HI! its nice to see you again im happy to hear you call my name its been a long time when we part and now i guess a brand new start HI! i found you more interesting than before you are the oned i hope for the kisses and your warmth embrace flashes back your very own words in my heart knocks HI! i realized i still have the love that i dont know its still alive it comes back when i see your smile and i feel lost awhile

HI! this is our second chance i guess lets count on hope please dont get this miss im very yours still yours than before its you i wait until forever more....

How Many

How many times do I have to tell you

That this heart longs for you

How many words do I have to voice out

That I do love you, no doubt.

How many reasons do I have to explain

That every single moment we have still remains

How many challenges do I have to encounter

To prove this love that drives deeper.

How many efforts do I have to show

That every part of you I still know How many hugs and kisses do I have to share

Just to prove this LOVE is for REAL.....

carla joy cuala

Hurt Heart

i dont mind what may other people say whatever they might, its okay as long as i love you no words can stop me from loving you i dont care how many times i got hurt by loving you even its naked that you belongs to somebody please just dont stop me my love for you is free i wont beg you to love me, too your smile is enough for me to know that you appreciate it how painful love is at first i dont know its like this remember im always here when your 'someone' leave you, we can be together im here just waiting even though it falls my everything.....

I Fall Into Your Smile

i was hooked by the first time i saw you waving at the line you were smiling at me so, i did too.
i was cold when i realized you are at my side the feeling was unusual and when you speak i stammered as if im sick i wondered why i felt that way i pretend easy in front of you coz im afraid you notice it when we said goodbye i fell into a deep thinking there is a strange feeling within me i dont know, but i miss your smile when i lay on bed at night i wish you to kiss goodnight i used to sleep but your smile made me restless that drives me through this uneasiness will you just be in my dream tonight smile at me and hug me tight when morning comes. i am refresh and silly, you're i miss i now know what is happening to me but i am not sure if you feel the same way i am quiet in love with you yes, its love i found in you but i will just keep it i'll wait for the right time, , , , when do we meet?

I Love You When I First Saw You when i first saw you there was a feeling so new i am happy i just dont know i think of it until you go i am wondering i cant find reason why i used to be until your face flashes in my imagination oh! your smile catches my attention i tried to forget the feeling but when ever i see you smiling this feeling grow as the time goes by i begun to ask 'why' i found it love yes love! when i first saw you i am inlove with you do you mind if this is true? ? ?

I Miss You A Lot

on the day you said goodbye i am thinking when will you dropp by when you turn your back i close my eyes wishing you a good luck

Though it hurts you still have my support you have my love where ever you may go im just here waiting for you

Im alone, i have only our memories the time we shared, the sweet caress our laughter and the promises but most its you i really miss

I long for the kiss we shared still flashes back, still remmbered when will it happen again? would you just kiss me in my dream?

I miss you a lot my dear do you hear what i whisper? how long do i have to wait? in this loneliness i cannot escape

remember always care missing you is what i feel I LOVE YOU its for real.

I Never Thought

i never thought that love will come i never thought this love will shine i never thought i will found it in you i never thought it will bothered me most i never thought that it made me restless at night i never thought it will brought me light i never thought its complicated i never thought i'll be this dedicated i never thought love is like this i never thought that it will brought caress i never thought that i will fall for you i never thought i can be this inspired because of loving you..

carla joy cuala

If Love Is...

if love is the happiest thing to experience then, why do people suffer bitterness because of it? if love is the reason to live then, why do people commit suicide because of it?

if love is the best give to receive then, why do people not give? if love is the easiest thing to carry then, why is it hard to deal with?

if love is the lightest thing to carry then, why is it so heavy when times are alone? if love is the greatest of all then, why do people get hurt because of it?

If Loving You Is A Crime

i love you since then i just forgot where and when you're the one who made me feel troubled and this heart get involved is it illegal loving you? if it is then im willing to pay love if you want to what might other say, i dont care i am willing to surrender is it unlawful loving you? if it is then tell me what i gotta do my time is free to spend with you i love you its true

then arrest me close to you im willing to be a prisoner of yours i wont object

if loving you is a mistake then i will choose ten times to retake just tell me when to stop just tell me when to end this love

carla joy cuala

Just Here For You..

when time gets rough im here i can hold you enough dont hesitate to call me up you have my shoulder to lean on when problem arises my door is open for advice just knock we will solve it in just a tick of a clock when boredom eats you my smiles are free to share just tell me we will be happy you will see when a promise gets broken dont feel ignored there will be promises that will come more we are two that the real score when everything gets fine then bear in mind its the time to refresh and to collect the upcoming memories

carla joy cuala

My Feelings For You

you make me smile but i dont know why i dont have any idea i just feel happy when i see yah!

you make glow and grow but i dont know so i cant find any reason i just have different reactions now, im asking why sudden change of feeling im missing you badly why should i, silly is this feeling mutual? i ask and suddenly love knocks i now figure out the feeling is real and still counts

carla joy cuala

Never To Love You Again

im here alone in this lonely place im alone with those happy memories that has been passed by time and regret and will remain pained...unforget i have felt inlove with you much more than when you said you feel the same way too i counted on you so much but i woke you were gone so fast i dont what was happened you just said you never intended hurting me is not intensional but why all those times youre emotional?

its clear to me, you just fool me silly, i didnt notice its enough i learned a lot i'll never love you again..... once pain is better enough

carla joy cuala

Old Times With You

"i remember the old times how i cross the line to be with you that very time" the memories brings back how we walk with holding hands how we share sweet words how we build our own world the moment still plays on my mind every part of it still reminds it still touches my heart still grows inside the places recalls the moment every hour that pass and will be remembered, will never last i will treasure those times those memories, those that push me cross the line to be with you

carla joy cuala

Quiet Inlove With You

I always dream of having you i cant take away the thoughts of you you make me feel troubled always

a smile of yours touches my heart that makes me restless at night i cant take away in my imagination feels like un finished mission how could i overcome? if this heart calls you to be my someone how could i tell you?

do you mind if i love you?

i dont know where it start i just miss you everytime we part each day we talk, each time we smile i always give myself a try to tell you what this heart feels takes a lot of time for me to rehearse how could i tell you?

this heart longs for you?

carla joy cuala

Starts For Forever..

i never expected i will fall for you it was like a dream in a lonely night i never thought it will come true for it was like a story of an old fantasy you came and i was surprised you have all the love that i never knew it was all for me you have given everything the time we spend together will be remembered for forever every touch you have made in me still on my skin the kiss we shared was still on my lips the hugs still comforts me your words still playing in my ears it was like a love song that never last for years your sweetness took away my fears i felt secure everytime you whisper you so much care everytime i feel your arms wrapped on my body i feel were living in a different world that was for only you and me and when i looked at your eyes i saw how much you loved me your smile shows security 'everything will be alright, as long as you are with me' and when we shared the love that night i told myself to hold on tight it was the beginning of everything it made me feel more closer to you and realized i was worth loving that was the most unforgettable experience it awakes all my senses and when i felt your body on top of me the feeling was unusual, unexplainable the caressed of your hand through my body brought me in heaven now, every part of you was known to me that still im longing for...

Thanks To You

ive been alone for almost a year all i have are tears trying to hold on but i feel to fall alone soon im almost to give up but someone lift me up i am surprise its you who brought me another sunrise you hugged me to share comfort and i feel it enhanced my rapport thanks for being here for the concern and for the care now, i can stand up on my own ofcourse with your support now i learned hw to smile again thanks a lot! i really mean i can face sunrise with the smile on the lips that before i never been like this

thanks to you
you brought out all my blues i can sleep peaceful at night and awake with a feeling so light thanks to you

you teach mehow to face life again thanks i meet someone like you...

This Love Is Real

sometimes i dont understand there are times that i misses you dont figure it out why until i found answer to my 'why'

'i love you' its the answer ive realized i smile for its unbelievable but silly, , its the real i begin to remember the times now i know how i fall for you your concerns and reminders catches my emotion and attention well, its possible to fall for you your kindness is enough to hook me this love is real

and will beat for forever

carla joy cuala

Three L (Long Lost Love)

its been a long time, dear how are you this past few years i havent heard about anything you i want to know whats new on you of all the days, have you miss me? have you miss the things we used to do? or have you find somebody new? have you miss the things i used to do?

are you happy all those times im not with you? have you ever feel blue? how about the concerns and my hugs? how about my sweet kiss so innocent?

and now youre comeback are you with goodluck?
is this the time for second chance? give atleast three good signs

carla joy cuala

Trying To Escape From Love

i used to run, to hide and flee to stay away from love im afraid to get hurt again but suddenly by destiny, you came you hooked me the very first time i know that love will shine so i prefer to pretend trying this love to unsend i dont know if i could handle another pain so, i ignore another love to gain but your charm kills my control im falling for you like a fool

carla joy cuala

Unshown Love

my dream is just simple to be with you, thats my goal every part of you i want to know and this love i have, i want to show but you are far away how could i show you in my own way? will this only in my imagination? oh! it makes me scream how could i get into you? to show this love that never go? this love that just for you only i cant show you i will just keep this and just be in my dream i will just wait for you to come to fully show, this love remains

carla joy cuala

Waiting

i've been waiting for so long while writing the lyrics of this song thinking of you consumes a lot of time how could i finish the song's first line i've been alone since the day you left and still your promises are kept memories serve as my hope and can't control myself to emote i've been in spending months alone for you are far away from home i know someday you will knock i am waiting for your comeback i know our love still holds on distance won't be a reason our trust is enough i'll be here waiting for you dear

carla joy cuala

When You Feel Down

when you are sad when you are mad i am thinking how to make you calm securing you're feeling is fine when you are in tears i use to be a laughter-maker i dont want to see any tear in your eye only when i die

when you are bitter i will try to be more sweeter to ease your pain and teach you how to smile again

carla joy cuala

Your Love

we started as strangers and find ourselves fulfilling each hunger the loneliness and emptiness we feel finally fulfilled and forever sealed as the days passed by everything fall in each place love grows in our hearts and then everything starts my life appeared its color when you came before, i said ' well, my life is just like this' but im wrong there was you who brought difference your simplicity shows the natural you every single word you say is meant to be true you gave everything now, i end up asking for nothing thank you for loving me you gave everything more than what im expecting your love is unique dear it will be cherished fo forever.....
