1,2, Sing For You

Under the blue sky, You will find your place.
That's right, your heart started working on it's own.

If you can sing from here with all of your heart, your melody from deep within will say "I love rock and roll"!

Until you get there, things will get tough.
Even when you fall at first, you stand up again.
If you say that is just too hard,
your dreams won't come true.
So wipe away all the tears, look and see- the dazzling sun is in your sights!

1 2 3!

I going to sing for you!
With all your smiles, I'll say hello!
Step towards the future!

1 2 3!

Sing a song that only you can sing!
Convey all your feelings with all your heart!
Deliver it! Your call and response.

A Mother's Love

It is a feeling from deep inside her willing heart.
It will never leave and they'll never part.
It is magical like a wiccan's spell.
It can be as pure as light as far as I can tell.

Never underestimate the wiccan's spell.
If you mess with her kids,
she will send you to hell.
She will protect them with her embrace and she will send you flying into the curtain lace.

It may not be likely for you to explode,
but it may be probable that you'll be in the next trash load.

Her kids are blessed in loving light.
She will never let them out of her sight.

Adult Mode

The city keeps on glittering all through the night.
A little more, just a little more.
Tonight the mood shall change.

Lipstick and a new dress shall make the perfect coord.
Even though I will be punished for this,
I'll dance the night away in my favorite heels.

Keep on looking at me.
Mother doesn't know that I'm mature.
Being cute isn't enough, if you're not greedy too.

As the waves keep on rushing by, I would get an occasional look at me.
A little more, just a little more, this soon will fade away.

My mother's necklace and pale nails made the matching pair with these shoes.
This is so much more any fairytale.
My heart won't stop pounding, I just feel in love.

Keep on looking at me.
This girl doesn't know that I'm mature.
In order to stay ahead, just keep on working hard.
I want to be more appealing.
I can feel you're jealous of me.
The future shall change.
Just keep your eyes on me.

I'll keep on walking through the night.
That is my gift to you.
I will soon return to my home, but for now I want to be myself.

Keep on looking at me.
Mother doesn't know that I'm mature.
Being cute isn't enough, if you're not greedy too.
I want to be more appealing.
Nobody knows that I'm mature.
The child in me has already gone to sleep.

Twinkle night... Twinkle night (6x)

Ancient Magic

It will entice your soul.
It will make you toss and make you roll.
It sometimes makes you black as coal,
but most times it plays a different role.

It is an ancient magic called love.
It is what makes the sun shine.
It is what makes God divine.
It is what makes an angel fly.
It is what opens up somebody shy.
It is an ancient magic called love.

Casey Jarrell

Angel Of The Moon

On the night when the moon shines bright, an angel is singing and igniting my soul.
Her wings flowing wide are shining a brilliant white, and the ripples in the water the moon's warming light.

One moment her voice would rise, and then the moon reflects within her bright blue eyes.
She would even dance across the lake with the water reflecting the midnight sky.
As time passes by, the moon would set.
The angel will now fly home until the next time the moon is shining a brilliant light.

Casey Jarrell

Angelic Heart

Deep in your eyes of shining blue,
I see a heart that's pure and true.
When I catch sight of you,
true love takes wing.
As you take my hand,
it makes my heart sing.

You have a soul that's pure and bright.
I would be blinded as soon as I catch sight.
On stage you are an angel.
You would make jealous even the most mischievous devil.

As you sing I would take part in order to be near your angelic heart.

Casey Jarrell

Angelic Melody

On a day when the sun would rise,
I would hear a song that fills my soul that flies.
By the sea that seems to shine,
I would hear a voice that's so divine.

The closer I get,
the song would rise.
Her wings would open wide and her voice would extend far across the skies.
When you listen to her song, true love would be near and it will not be far.

When the sun sets,
she fly away and be set free
until it is time to sing her angelic melody.

Casey Jarrell

Angel's Arrow

Looking up across the sky,
two feathers begin to fly.

They're falling down, within my sight,
and calmly landed in my hand without a fight.

In this time, they begin to glow,
and now they are an arrow and a bow.

From the time the arrow has been shot,
I began to dream my family's plot.

In this time, the arrow will shine.
A release of light made everything fine.

On this day, I've discovered my own fate.
It is now known that I can beautifully decorate.

In this time, the arrow lands.
It can only be in my healing hands.

In this time, the light will cease.
It will be tomorrow when the light can release.

It released a light that can heal a sparrow.
I now have an angel's arrow.

Aquamarine Melody

You left me a painted melody in my heart, though there was no ocean of eternity for us.

I'm sure I will become happy!
It drips from the piano of my heart...

The Aquamarine melody sparkles and thaws out the sky.
Until the last wave disappears,
make sure you look only at me.
Because you were a person I loved, there are words I couldn't say.
These feelings I couldn't convey, I now send to you, singing in soprano.

You were like an angel flying down in the sunlight, even though I wasn't supposed to look at the sky yesterday.

Tomorrow, the sound of the first waves shine like a hand bell.

The aquamarine shards melt, even tears drop into the wind.
Don't erase the sound of the waves in my heart.
Keep it as memory for just the two of us.
Even if on a sunny day, sad things happen as if it were raining.
It's not like I've lost to fate.
I've expressed my love... in soprano.

Casey Jarrell

Aquatic Melody

A melody as fluid as the sea,
As far as the eye can see.

A song that flows within the waves can calm our hearts and give back our every save.

Everyone from far and wide gather here at this very tide.

All the animals of both land and sea have gathered here with you and me.

All of us, even you and me, have gathered here to listen to the aquatic melody.

Casey Jarrell

Awaken The Power

You were the one who has been there for me.
I will always be by your side.
We have been through so much in the past.
Oh where, oh where,
Where do we go from here?

When I first met you,
I saw a gentle heart.
I knew then on you would be there.
The power of your heart has changed me.
Now I'll be there for you.

Will you please take my hand
so I can protect you?
I'll do all I can do to help you live your life.
Now start running to the new beginning and you'll find your brand new start in life!

In your heart,
you will find that your family will support you.
Find the strength deep inside yourself.
Then you'll do your best to help others.
We have found we're one and the same.
We'll change the world to make it a better place!

(My power, new power,
in the depths of my heart) (My power, new power, looking for a new world)

Wake up, wake up my new world!

Casey Jarrell

Beautiful Wish

I wake up, hearing my name in someone's voice.
Floating above the blue waves of the sea's cradle,
I dreamt.

Somewhere in this sea, someone's speaking in an arguing voice.
From a crying heart, love can't be born.
Only sadness overflows.

From the fragments of a beautiful wish of the sea,
there is a light that is wanting to be born.
In the orange sea, blending into the sunset,
the tears of the world sleep.

Someday, the source of all darkness will vanish.
That day will come.
I want to sing with a singular love... in the blue sea.

Someone called out my name,
so they know of my wish.

From the fragments of a beautiful wish of the sea,
there is a light that is wanting to be born.
In the orange sea, blending into the sunset,

Believe It

The same breath... The same rhythm.
The same breath... The same rhythm.

The changing truth is always never ending.
Believe, there is only one answer, definitely.
I've always wanted to speak my mind.
I've always wanted to be me.

No matter when, no matter where, la la la... It's a runway.
I want to live here in the present.
I will let you walk with me (la la la) ... on the runway.
So now, let's align our steps and walk forward.

Let it ring! Believe in the future.
Let it rise! Believe in it more.
I'm numb from shock, my heart's on fire, dancing.

Let us sing! Believe in our song.
Let us ascend! We will believe in you.
Be honest with yourself.
Don't let others get to you.

(na na na na)On days that blow by fast,
(na na na na)there will be tears.
Remember this and just wait until a brighter future comes.
No matter where you are, you're still you.
So never let go of your dreams.

Let the future glow, let the future shine, la la la... Light up.
Use the stage with all your soul.
Illuminate, illuminate, la la la... Light up.
It's time to shine with all your heart.

Let us burn! I want to hear your voice.
Let us dance! I want to hear you more.
My body's burning hot like the fire in my heart igniting my feelings.

Everyone! I'll give you my voice.
Yell and scream! Gently, let history change.

Come on over one by one,
there's no need to be shoving others just to earn our trust.

The same breath... The same rhythm.
The same breath... The same rhythm.
The aligning notes... The engraved beat.
The chosen accent... This constant crescendo.

It's alright, look ahead of you, la la la... It's a runway.
There's one right here in front of you.
It's alright, you can follow me, la la la... onto the runway.
I can't turn away from the light.

Let it ring! Believe in the future.
Let it rise! Believe in it more.
I'm numb from shock, my heart's on fire, dancing.

Let us sing! Believe in our song.
Let us ascend! We will believe in you.
Be honest with yourself.
Don't let others get to you.

Let it ring! The same breath.
Let it rise! The same rhythm.
Let us sing! The same breath.
Let us ascend! The same rhythm.
Let us burn! The aligning notes.
Let us dance! The engraved beat.
Everyone! The chosen accent.
Yell and scream! This constant crescendo!

Birth Of Love

As love and dreams become one,
The sadness 'now' turns into stardust.
Because of you, I believe.

I take pride in the fact I was born strongly, shining like an angel.
Don't cloud your gaze.

If I am to lend this power
for the sake of a dream, I want to be born.
I want to become love.

You were always at my side, watching me.
Not being afraid, you even went on a journey.
that courage is dazzling.

To shine a light in the dark galaxy,
I was born with the light of life.
Go and convey that meaning.

If you are going to use that power for the sake of love, I want to be born.
I want to become love.

If I am to lend this power
for the sake of a dream, I want to be born.

Bonds

The tears that hurt so much overflow in the nightly depths of the sea.
But as I stretch my hand across the glass surface of the water, light reaches them.

The only things I can see can only hear my voice.
Realize the fact that it's not everything.
The things I can believe have all increased by one, and now I can become stronger.

After being hurt, I'm shining again and feel our invincible bonds.
It isn't someone, it has to be you.
Through all the pain, I still pursue to increase them.
If miracles overlap over one another, it would seem like they could change fate.
Throwing away all doubts and darkness,
I believe in our strong bonds.

Anxiety and loneliness all are born from the shadow of your own weakness.
But don't look away from it, you can face it without running away.
The things that make your hand waver and the sicknesses you feel aren't real problems. Remember that.
You should know the meaning of supporting oneself, so become stronger now.

Money alone can't buy our eternal bound bonds with one another.
No matter where you are, our melody will reach you and you won't be alone.
The seasons that come again and again give birth to life.
It may be slow, but they do grow up believing in their deep bonds with one another.

My pain... is our suffering.
My smile... is our joy.
The things we share and the things we surpass by ourselves binds with our bonds to the seven seas that we believe in!

After being hurt, I'm shining again and feel our invincible bonds.
It isn't someone, it has to be you.
Through all the pain, I still pursue to increase them.
If miracles overlap over one another, it would seem like they could change fate.
Throwing away all doubts and darkness,

Brave Song

In this melody deep inside of me,
I will tell you high over the sea.
I had to keep walking on this path.
I have to be strong.
I won't be afraid of anything:
Now, I will show you.

Someday, you may feel alone and all that you have are your memories.
Everybody you love will always be there.
Stand up for yourself.
Never shed a tear.

In this melody deep inside of me,
I'm at a place where I see myself.
I now know that I am not alone.
As the wind blows through my hair,
the future seems brighter.

I will not ever forget you.
My memories will stand strong.
When you are feeling sad,
I will hold your hand.

The light in our eyes will shine on.
We'll raise our hands as we pray.
As the sea begins to sway,
I look at my friends.

In this melody deep inside of me,
I will tell you high over the sea.
I had to keep walking on this path.
I have to be strong.
I won't be afraid of anything.
Now, I will show you.

Bright Heart

Along the distant sea,
I heard a wonderful melody.

The music, it had so much love.
It even moves the birds that fly from above.

Along the distant shore, as I come to appear,
I saw a young girl, playing the violin, that was so very near.

When I arrived, the song began to soar.
It was as if it was creating a golden door.

From the door, there came a carriage cart.
She rode away with the melody from her one, bright heart.

Casey Jarrell

Burning Heart

Holding your hand that felt so warm, our passionate love begins to form.
In the light, you shine like the sun.
With all that's yet to come, we both will have so much fun.

From where the flames dance, there is a heat.
Your passionate kiss is something ever so sweet.
Deep inside of your burning heart, there is a love that is deemed to never part.

Casey Jarrell

Butterfly

I have a dream that I would fly
high across the sky.
When you're all with me,
I'd get the same feeling.
Just like a butterfly,
I'll spread my wings.
I'll send you a prayer on my love.

With all of my friends
and all the love I send them,
I will do anything for them.
While we fly
so high in the sky,
we will sing from deep inside of our hearts.

I say (whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa)
as I would fall.
You say (whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa)
as you reach out for me.

I have a dream that I would fly
high across the sky.
When you're all with me,
I'd get the same feeling.
Just like a butterfly,
I'll spread my wings.
I'll send you a prayer on my love.

While I would sing high above the wind,
I am free when you're all with me.
When we're far apart,
we all look at the stars.
We'd all know that we're not alone.

We say (whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa)
as we sing.
They say (whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa)
as they all dance along.

We all have the same dream to spread our wings
high above the sea.
We all have somebody to be there for us.
Just like a butterfly,
We'll spread our wings.
We'll send them a prayer on my love.

I have a dream that I would fly
high across the sky.
When you're all with me,
I'd get the same feeling.
Just like a butterfly,
I'll spread my wings.
I'll send you a prayer on my love.

Corona Aurora

When I am in a frown,
I will wear this colorful crown.

All the colors of the aurora decorate the crown making it even more beautiful than the sora.

The golden shine is as bright as the sun.
This calm feeling relaxes me as if I was doing something fun.

Each color born of each color of the aurora reflects the light and forms a colorful flora.

A crown that was born of the sun and crystals that were born of the aurora has been given a name called the Corona Aurora.

Casey Jarrell

Crimson Fire

In the light of the crimson fire, you will find the shadow of the distant sire.

You can hear the sound of every hoof.
It is so loud that it could shake every roof.

Running through the pasture in the color of crimson red, the stallion spreads the legend where it will now be said.

The story rides on the distant sire.
He will now be named the Crimson Fire.

Casey Jarrell

Crystal Sea

On this day that is very sunny,
it will be a time that is bright and funny.

On the bay of this crystal sea,
there are friends that will forever be.

For the friends that will forever stay,
they will find a shiny shell upon the bay.

For the friends in this time of peace,
the light from within will now release.

For the friends that will forever be, remains the memory of the crystal sea.

Casey Jarrell

Dawn Of Light

In my sight,
in the dead of night,
I heard a melody
that could take flight.

She raised her hand
up to the stars.
She told her story
to the light of Mars.

She sang her song
with all her might.
The song will travel through the distant light.

She sang her song
throughout the night.
She will forever bring the dawn of light.

Casey Jarrell

Diamond Crevasse

Eternal love is the one thing we're all wishing for.
We reach to the stars and we dance along with the moon.
The stars are shining along the water's edge.
We wipe away our tears and then we sing this song.
It's so long goodbye.

Goodbye, goodbye, so many times
I repeated the same word to myself.
I wave my hands gently.
I'll become stronger now.

The moon and the stars will guide us as we find our way.
My love for you, is it really true?
I will always be there for you when you feel lost.
When you spread your wings, my whole body sings for you.

Back in those days, we lived simple lives.
We work and we love.
Then we retire for the day.
It's a long, long goodbye.

Goodbye, goodbye, to the one I love.
You fought for me, now I sing the melody.
I'm not alone when you're here.
I'm waiting for you.

While the stars are shining, miracles are flying high in the sky.
For the sun and the moon, we'll reach them very soon.
The moon and the stars will reach you when you need them most.
For the sky and the moon, I'll give them the gift of love.

The stars will shine and then we'll be fine.
I will guide you.

The moon and the stars will guide us as we find our way.
My love for you, is it really true?
I will always be there for you when you feel lost.
When you spread your wings, my whole body sings for you.

While the stars are shining, miracles are flying high in the sky.
For the sun and the moon, we'll reach them very soon.

Embraced In Wings

The sky far away from here is illuminated.
I fly forth, aiming towards that light, but the cold rain soaks my wings and I'm alone again today.

Like the ripples on water, my distant memories within my heart are wavering.

Right now, I just want to quietly sleep in a translucent wind embraced in wings.

I'm looking for the whereabouts of the destiny I was entrusted with.
A swarm of falling petal-like feathers dance down.
One day, I'll surely be able to reach the place that will be able to heal my lonesome heart.

My eyes reflect that place before me as I stare upwards into the sky.
I've gathered the fragments of my sadness.
Eternity is so endless and suffocating.
So much that it sounds like something someone would long for.

My dream is but a mirage. But now, somewhere it's secretly and transiently blooming.

Casey Jarrell

Emissary Of Air

Emissary of wind,
emissary of air,
gather here in this very layer.

Emissary of wind,
emissary of air,
my wings are now open in the air.

Emissary of wind,
emissary of air,
changing into a bird is a wish I dare.

Casey Jarrell

Eternal Snow

Do you know how long it's been since I fell in love with you?
All the time, my feelings heavily grown for you.
Can you notice my feelings for you?
Somehow, I couldn't put them into words.

Just like the winter snow, falling down quietly until they cannot reach.

Hold me tight- If this is how it feels
to be in love with someone.
I love you- and I've found you.
And so I wish that you could stay here.

Do you know how long you've been clouding my mind?
My sighs are fogging up the window glass.

Can a candle flame melt my frozen heart?

Hold me tight- tight enough to break me so that in an icy wind or a blizzard,
I won't feel cold.
I miss you- every time I think of you.
Tonight,
we will stay
under the snow.

If there is an eternally falling snow,
could it be my feelings for you?

Hold me tight- if this is how it feels
to be in love with someone.
I love you- this feeling swells up in my chest.
I want to shout to the winter sky
'Can you stay with me? '

Ever Blue

Without even a sound, all of the colors change.
It is so clear in the blue sky throughout the day.
I love it when the shines on my face.
I'll have my friends with me,
and then we can sail across the sea.

I need someone to save me.
This is my destiny.
The stars and my friends will guide me.

It is the Ever Blue sparkle of the ocean that I love.
I become stronger to protect the future.
There is a lovable person, there is lovable place.
I need to protect everything that I love.

If I had someone to love,
we would be out here on the beach singing until our voices give way.
I'll always have my friends at my side.
Our voices will glide
until we calm the raging tide.

I have something that I need to say.
I've found love upon the bay.
You are the one that I love.

This single love will always last.
We'll always have memories in the face of our dreams with a shining light.
You were the one that cared for me.
We were always meant to be.

It is the Ever Blue sparkle of the ocean that I love.
I become stronger to protect the future.
There is a lovable person, there is lovable place.
I need to protect everything that I love.

Firework

What a sad night without you.
In the most hostile empty place,
where is the right distraction?
There's an explosion because there is no light without darkness.

There's something in the air,
there's something in you,
that draws me to you.
Enlighten the heavens
and enlighten me.
Like a great firework that fills my heart,
how long will this darkness last?
It keeps expanding along the border between me and you.

The good and bad within me makes the whole of my soul.
A magical glow will remain.

There's something in the air,
there's something in you,
that draws me to you.
Enlighten the heavens
and enlighten me.
Like a great firework that fills my heart,
how long will this darkness last?
It keeps expanding along the border between me and you.

There's something in the air,
there's something in you,
that draws me to you.
Light up the night.
Brighten the stars.
Like a great firework that fills my heart,
how long will this darkness last?
Now is the present and my love for you is far away when you're not here.

Flower Bud~ To The Vivid Future

I am waiting under the cold
frozen sky.
The shining world;
I opened my eyes to it!

Gentle lights
pour down on my flower bud.
I am no longer feeling scared.
Go up, up, as I raise my hands.
Even my tears
and sighs turn into glitter.
They melt away the snow flakes only to be reborn.

The warm rays of the sun shine down and embrace me.
To the vivid future,
I open my petals to it.

The blue sky is wide and endless.
On a small chest,
a big dream is shown.
The scar of that day
fades away.

Now, with strength and courage, a new life is
is this unshakeable vow.
I won't be erased from this city.
Go up, up and bloom!
Even my tears
and sighs flicker.
Fly away dream seeds carrying hope.

Softly
in a gentle breeze

while wrapped up
to the vivid future,
I open my petals to it!

Flower Of The Sun

Golden yellow, shining like the sun, brightens the day on a distant run.

Person and flower, moving side by side, will not part on this 2 mile ride.

Person and flower, moving sweet and slow,
are still together in this garden's row.

Every year during the summer rain, these sunny flowers will spread across this level plane.

Every day,
under the shining sun,
I will always take my garden run.

Casey Jarrell

Follow The Wind

Follow the air.
Follow the wind.
Release what you have sinned.

The wind is your savior.
Tell him what happened with your every behavior.

Follow the air.
Follow the wind.
It will get you out of your every sin.

Follow the angel.
Follow your God.
It is not very odd.

Follow his words.
Follow his advice.
Eventually, you will be very nice.

Forever Dream

When I open up the door of dreams, a world comes shining forth.
so I knock, knock, knock, knock.
When the sun shines the light on me, I walk forth and I knock, knock, knock.

My dreams of you and me melted my heart and my soul.

Dreams will come true
for all that I've through.
I will believe in them.
I spread my wings upon the silver wind.
I say hello.
I say hello.
Forever Dreams will come true.

When the sun starts to set, I open up the door
then I fly, fly, fly, fly.
I can see the stars shine across the sky.
I reach out as I fly, fly, fly.

Amongst the clouds, I will find you.
Take my hand and I'll sing for you.

Dreams will come true
when I'm beside you.
You spread your wings and fly in the midnight sky.
I say yes.
I say yes.
Beautiful dreams will come true.

Dreams will come true
for all that I've been through.
I will believe in them.
I spread my wings upon the silver wind.
I say hello.
I say hello.
Forever dreams will come true.

Gem Of Mind

Let your words project your feelings in a certain dialect.
Be as social as a bee,
trying its best to make some honey.

Be as strong as an ox,
using expressions to get through to a sneaky fox.
Use your words, never hit.
Talk it through when you have the time to sit.

Create a message that will remind that you can always use the gem of mind.

Casey Jarrell

Giraffe Blues

I can feel your hand caressing me.
I can feel a warmth forming inside my heart.
I can also tell you've also crying those endless tears.
Eventhough I'm here with you, you would kiss me.
Our world is for us!

Our dreams that we hold are spreading their wings.
They will never lose faith in us.
We are strong enough to fly on our own.
I will always stay by your side!

It is time for me to spread my wings,
and take flight along with all of you.
My voice will carry us above the clouds.
Our light will shine for all the world to see.
I know times will get hard, but we must be strong!

There is a light somewhere inside of you.
You must try fight the tears.
Let the wind carry you to ends of the world.
I must say that I truly love you so!

Our dreams that we hold are spreading their wings.
They will never lose faith in us.
We are strong enough to fly on our own.
I will always stay by your side!

Girls Be Ambitious

I often get told that I seem mature.
But I'm still a kid, so it gives me a bit of an edge.
It isn't strange for me to look so cute.
When I put on my heels, it is a perfect fit.

Now, follow your heart and dance to the music.
It's important to face the challenge, so turn the switch to that one scene.

As the years go by, I'll stay as I am, wearing all my best clothes.
I'll dance proudly as I convey to you my feelings.
Let it burn hotter and I'll step onto the floor letting my lace swing above.
Everyday's a brand new world- that's right it's show time!
I may act spoiled sometimes, but isn't that just fine?
When I'm on the stage, I can do anything I want.
The moment for me to scream and shout is waiting.

Tip tap tip tap tap, feel the passion.
The rhythm holds the heat.
Tip tap tip tap tap, raise the tension.
The tap holds the beat.

Casey Jarrell

Glow

Right now,
the sun's burning.
It will melt the sky.
The morning will come from its sleep, raising its voice.
It's sprouting the world.
When you put it away inside your heart,
your love will never leave.

Our journey has started on this day.
The wind, sky, star, and rain are changing every day.
You can tell on your cheek.

I'm glad that I met you.
It just, just carries the heat of the sun.
You can stay with me.

Like the rain, it just, just glows!

Casey Jarrell

Glowing Moon

When the sun descends below the trees, the shining moon rises into the sky.
I look upon this shadowy lake and would see the moon reflecting across the water.
As the night drags on as the birds fly overhead,
the song of the night fills my soul.

As the clouds begin to clear,
the light of the moon shines brighter.
I would reach forward only to see that each miracle needs a key to open the doors that block my way.
When that door opens,
it will lead to so many opportunities in life.
As my hand descends,
my spirits are raised by the nature that surrounds me.

Under the light of the glowing moon,
I leave a message within this ancient rune.

Casey Jarrell

God Bless You

You came to me on angel wings.
I saw your face through the winter snow.
I saw a love that could last for eternity.
As we walked along the road,
I remembered when we first touched.
I won't forget it.

I confess to you all of my feelings.
Then my heart would keep on fleeting.
For you my love I give to you this song that you won't forget!

The two of us are the same.
When you first took my hand,
I told you how I felt about you.
Your eyes would light up my heart.
Thank you for falling in love with me.
Our love would stretch to the depths of my soul.
Thank you!

Our love will last for all time.
I feel so warm deep inside
as if I could melt.
I would always tell you "I love you";!
I wish you would do the same just before you left for war.

I would see your reflection through the mirror glass.
It would remind me of the old days.
Oh please, O God, guide us through the rest of our days!

Casey Jarrell

Guiding Light

One night on my way home, there was a light from where I roam.

I look up to the sky and see the stars that start that start to shine.

I reach out and start to see that it is home is where I should be.

Thank you for being my guiding light.

I hope to fly home tonight.

Casey Jarrell

Happiness On The Same Earth

I see the light deep inside of my soul.
It is a warmth that I've never felt.

In the sky that's right over me,
a song spreads and begins to melt the land.

Our happiness on the same earth leads us to true love.
Gentle feelings gives the whole world a home and we carry on.
My memories of my home never seem to leave.
This miracle dances inside,
and I will not forget.

The song of little birds sings to sleep.
I have a dream that snuggles against me.
I float to the treetops of the forest, and we all will feel them too.

We sleep on the same earth,
and we have peaceful dreams.
As we fly through the sky we sing inside all our hearts.
With emotion, I will trust in myself.
I will save this peaceful place and I will never leave.

How much in this long time, and by the day-by-day so far you protect people who you kept alive.
The transparent star will forever nurture once again.

Our happiness on the same earth leads us to true love.
Gentle feelings gives the whole world a home and we carry on.
My memories of my home never seem to leave.
This miracle dances inside,
and I will not forget.

To your heart, evergreen.

Heartbeat ~ Perfect Harmony

Struck by the stormy sea, at this moment, it seems we might lose.
We shake it off, and gaze at the love in our hearts.

We'll stand up again, no matter how many times for the sake of the promise.
Bathing in the scorching light, a spray of water flutters.

Even hotter, hotter, hotter than the sun,
We will raise our voices higher now, higher now, higher now.
Now is the time, now is the time.

This intense heartbeat overflows with a song of love.
In this speedy heartbeat, there is an only truth.
Reflecting off a cloudless mirror,
the heartbeat we convey breaks out with the power of love.
And so we are in this hot, perfect harmony.

I'll spread out my arms and accept all of you.
It was painful, and it was the first time I knew what true love was.

Faster, faster, faster than the southern wind,
Crossing over the squall stronger, stronger, stronger.
Now is the time, now is the time.

A harmony colored with everyone's heartbeats as they overlap will not stop ringing, and will not stop the sparkling.
We'll get back our paradise.
The heartbeat we feel breaks out with the power of love.
And so it spreads out in a perfect harmony of dreams.

This intense heartbeat overflows with a song of love.
In this speedy heartbeat, there is an only truth.
Reflecting off a cloudless mirror,
The heartbeat we convey breaks out with the power of love.
And so we are born in this hot, perfect harmony.

Heavenly Tune

Under the light of the silver moon,
Aspen was playing an angelic tune.

Under the light,
her voice will rise,
and will attract every bird that flies.

Everyone heard her distant call.
We will travel, but will not fall.

We found her in the middle of the forest playing a piano covered in flowers of the florist.

We travel back, and never fall,
as we heard her angelic call.

Under the light of the silver moon,
she will forever play her heavenly tune.

Hello! Winter Love

The snow is glittering as we dance along with the music.
Santa and his big heart are so exciting.
Hello winter love!

As the music plays, we receive our gifts today.
We untie the ribbon then see what's inside.
Our eyes light up just like the stars.
A little girl sits inside.

All of us have been good this year.
We have been waiting for so long.

The snow is glittering as we dance along with the music.
Santa and his big heart are so exciting.
Hello!
Hello winter love.

It's really true that me and you gave our hearts to our families.
The colors of the night sky are shining with the moon.

All of us have to be wise.
We are all strong inside.

The snow is glittering as we dance along with the music.
Santa and his big heart are so exciting.

All of us have been good this year.
We have been waiting for so long.

The snow is glittering as we dance along with the music.
Santa and his big heart are so exciting.
Hello!
Hello winter love!

Holy Fight

I was heavily shaken.
Fire was burning through the snow.
I was sad and so alone,
so I gracefully danced in the snow.

We will cross the road
to find the dove.
You've calmed the fire that you lit!

Sha la la la- my heart smiles for the second time.
Our voices made a new vision.
Sha la la la- the warmth of the world is a midst us.
I shall be the one to ask you.
'Please pray for me.'

I looked up at the night sky that was bustling.
The stars changed gently from time to time.
In the steepness of my face,
a tear was shining like a star.

In the corner of my date,
you were at that event.
We gently smile by the child!

Sha la la la- your heart is smiling on your sleeping face.
Your dream opens in the sky.
Sha la la la- this makes me run into the world.
Look into your heart.
'Please pray for me.'

Sha la la la- my heart smiles for the second time.
The laughter of smiles resonate.
Sha la la la- the warmth of the world is a midst us.
I shall be the one to ask you.

Hope And Light

Two angels of hope and light protect our worlds with all your might.

For every light, there is a dark,
please will you defeat the devil's mark?

For every life that has been lost,
please will you protect us at all cost?

Now, believe in them so they can win the fight so that one day, we can live in a world of hope and light.

Casey Jarrell

Howl

From the time a wolf is born,
there will be times to play and to learn.
When the time came for her to make her first sound,
she felt free and never bound.

Ever night since she was two months old,
she would howl feeling strong and very bold.
From the first time the moon touched her eyes,
her voice was flying far across the midnight skies.

When she would feel lost and can not find her way back home, she would send her voice flying and listen for her pack then she would roam.
They will always stay by her side.
In the forest she'll reside.

Casey Jarrell

I Believe (We Believe)

Our dreams were always connected.
I'm happy you're my friend.

A year ago, I did not imagine that I now live in the future.

The two of us can go beyond our limitations.
When I was alone, there was this unbearable pain.

I will change the wind.
That's what I believe.
We're all starting over and hiding our power.

I'll be a star of hope.
That is what I feel.
What is important? Do you want to?
I want to know.
I will be strong for you.
I am not alone.
I believe.
We believe.

It's hard to forget all the things I've done cuz my heart is filled with tears.
The fire of hope doesn't fade away easily.
I can't sleep at night cuz of anxiety.

So many times!
Even though I have weak feelings, it's okay.
That's how I'm strong and that's an opportunity.

I will change the wind.
That's what I believe.
We will nurture this light that's deep inside of us.

I'll be a star of hope.
That is what I feel.
I left the past behind, yet I can't see the future.

I am flying and I'm sparkling.
The wings on your back are the hope of the future.

I will change the wind.
I'll be a star of hope.
I want to protect the world full of love.
That's my wish.
I believe.
We believe.

In The Outback

In the desert night,
there lies a joey within its mother's sight.
It lies beside her in the desert grass,
taking a well needed nap for this younger lass.

There which bats will take flight,
this joey will sleep in this starry night.
She sleeps by her mother's side, dreaming of all the good times as her mother tried.

Just she wakes in the morning bliss,
she is blessed with a mother's kiss.

Legend Of The Mermaid

Blowin' in the seven-colored wind, it's the tune of the large ocean.
In the dawn, I heard a melody.
It's a nostalgic song.

The birds fly from the eastern coast,
even this island has a short cut.

The paradise of the seven seas
will shine through the storm.
I confess to you, my love,
that I'll be reborn.

The song of seven lands
will unite our pearls.
Our journey is a promise
That I won't forget.

Clouds slowly float away,
vanishing as they aim for the rainbow.
And then the stars, like pearls,
can release a wondrous light.

Fro the southern sky,
a sound can be heard.
Yes, it's finally time
for me to grow up.

We'll go on a miraculous quest to fulfill our destiny while embracing our kind mother's wishes in our hearts.

The fantasy in the night,
overflowing with a prayer,
brightens our future.

The paradise of the seven seas
will shine through the storm.

I confess to you, my love,
that I'll be reborn.

The song of seven lands
will unite our pearls.
Our journey is a promise
That I'll never forget.

We'll go on a miraculous quest

The fantasy in the night,
overflowing with a prayer,
brightens our future.

Lighthouse

I'm sitting at this lighthouse while the moonlight shines on my face.
When you reach for me, you'd take me into your embrace.
When the world starts spinning, I start grinning as the stars shine in space.
When I look into your eyes, they shine like the lighthouse.

By the sea under the moon, I sing the melody that waits just for you.
Is it really true that we shine just like the stars in your eyes?

I'm sitting at this lighthouse while the moonlight shines on my face.
When you reach for me, you'd take me into your embrace.
When the world starts spinning, I start grinning as the stars shine in space.
When I look into your eyes, they shine like the lighthouse.

When the stars shine down on me, I feel like I am floating on angel wings.
In the middle of the night, I am gifted with the song that you sing.

I'm sitting at this lighthouse while the moonlight shines on my face.
My love keeps growing as you sing for me.
When the stars start shining, I start flying across the graceful sea.
I look into your eyes and I see the lighthouse.

Love Chronicle

When I was young, I was always the lonely one, but you were there for me.
You were always there when I needed care.
Those memories will always be with me.

I will always be there in your time of need.
I'll cherish your smile that is shining in the starlight.

You were there for me when no one else was; you cared for me.
It was you who taught me how to love.

Our journeys are intertwined.
No matter what occurs, our love will never end.

The world changes every day throughout our lives.
(the flowers, birds, and sea) (the wind, mountains, sweet sun)
We'll never leave our shining world.

Our lives are like pieces of a necklace.
You'll always protect me, and I'll follow you for eternity.

I don't have to always try so hard, but I've finally learned how to love.

We 'll try to reach our dreams.
No matter what occurs, the gaze won't be shifted.

You were there for me when no one else was; you cared for me.
It was you who taught me how to love.

We 'll try to reach our dreams.
No matter what occurs, the gaze won't be shifted.

You were there for me when no one else was; you cared for me.
It was you who taught me how to love.

Our journeys are intertwined.

Makeover Makeup

The scent of citrus is strongly filling the room.
A swipe of lip gloss is so magical.
I could hardly recognise myself when I look into the mirror.

I've come into my own,
and became something new as I found my style!
It gave me the courage to walk into the world and a patch of blush is my new motto.

There is a light in every woman.
It'll shine when you need it most!
Makeup is not for every girl because a natural beauty is the brightest of them all.

Casey Jarrell

Marine Snow

The song that's in my heart sounds so heavenly.
The sea that's surrounding me will shine underneath the stars.

Oh... in this crowded place,
my life begins to flow.
In this melody are my feelings for you.

I'll do anything, just create the destiny.
The emotions of the sky are coming down on me.
Out there in the world is pure white snow.
I'm looking at you in all of my dreams.

The more I'm with you,
our love begins to take shape.
As I listen to those words you say, the sea begins to sway.

Oh... in this crowded place,
a miracle from deep inside rises up along with the light.
I am looking at you with feelings so true.

Every time winter comes in my eyes,
a future so blinding leaves me the key.
This wish that I seem to have gently believes in me...

Under the snow, my love for you begins to show.
(I'm here for you)
Just take my hand and I will stand right here beside you.
Take my hand `cuz the end's here now!

Now my tears are dancing in the snow.
The emotions of the future are here in my mind.
Out there in this hopeful world, I gently believe in this marine snow.

Melody Of Heart

Love like a melody.
Love like a melody.
My heart just keeps echoing.
Love like a melody.
Love like a melody.
May it reach you and warm your soul.

From afar, I catch your gaze.
(I fall in love)
Your melody dances through the air.
(I'm loving you)
It felt like could read your mind.
Whatever you would do you'd bring me with you.

Why do I feel so warm?
I've never felt this way before?
I am your normal girl.

I walk in this field of flowers.
It feels like a dream.
You take my hand as we walk along.
I hear the song of the sea.
You would look at me,
and then my face would red.
I would see deep inside your soul.
You're all that I need.

Love like a melody.
Love like a melody.
My heart just keeps echoing.
Love like a melody.
Love like a melody.
May it reach you and warm your soul.

Casey Jarrell

Miracle Force Magic

It's a song that keeps on moving me.
It fuels the light in my soul.
1 + 1 is infinity.
1,2,3,4 is magic.

It's a view that nobody has ever seen.
I'm looking for partners to find it with.
I can't do this without your strength,
so let's go together.

The future is hidden.
Wish to the moonlight.
Head towards the light.
Gather here, the music never stops flowing.

Count to four with magic and imagine a wonderland with me.
Jump along with the rhythm,
and we'll share our happiness!
This music is like a miracle.
It leads us to our wonderland.
Today the world is moving.
Make our hearts as one
and let our song be heard.
Let's sing together!

Casey Jarrell

Moonlight Destiny

A light was born inside of me to shine like the moon.
It feels so warm when I'm with you.
The stars in the sky light the way and lead me home.
I will always be with you walking hand in hand.
When I gently cast a shadow in the moonlight,
I kiss you in the middle of the night.

I walk this path with our hearts gleaming under the moon.
I believe in our eternal love.
I trust you; trust me with our bond declared with my love!

In the middle of the night, I wrote this song for you.
I would sing it for you when you're with me.
You would play along as I sang for you.
It feels like I should tell you how I truly feel.
When I first met you,
I felt like an angel.
Oh!

I walk this path... while the light of the moon is shining.
Eternal love flies forth on angel wings.
Trust me; Trust you with the love that you have promised me.

Even if we're reborn one day,
I'm sure we'll find each other.
The blue moon is calling your name however.

Straining my eyes beyond the light,
I reach the one dearest to me.
This destiny of ours will never fade away.

I walk this path with our hearts gleaming under the moon.
I believe in our eternal love.
I walk this path... while the light of the moon is shining.
Eternal love flies forth on angel wings.
Trust me; Trust you with the love
that have promised me.

Moonlit Night

In the dark where the moon shines bright, she skates upon a frozen lake within a circle of the moon's light.
She raised her hands up towards the sky.
Then her arms embraced her chest with gentle warmth.
She spreads her arms as she begins to spin.
Then she lowers herself to revolve low to the ground.

In the circle of golden light,
a graceful lutz rose above the shining lake.
Then warmth fills her face within her brother's wake.
She then lands close to the edge of the line.
Then she would move around the moonlit shape.
She'd go back to her brother with unending light only to remember this moonlit night.

Casey Jarrell

Moonlit River

Deep in the river,
I see a reflection.
It was a reflecting moon
That scattered my recollection.

It was so clear,
I could see the night.
I could even see the birds in mid-flight.

There was a shooting star whose tail was shining.
I made a wish,
And I soon was flying.

I swept my hand within the river.
The reflection shines like a piece of a sliver.

There was a rose upon my landing.
The smooth reflection was as clear as glass after its sanding.

The reflection shining like a piece of a sliver looked so beautiful upon this moonlit river.

Casey Jarrell

My Flower

A scent lingering in the room
has led me to this very bloom.
A scent so fragrant,
A scent so grand,
A scent so strong it could spread across the land.

A shade of golden-brown is something that will not make me frown.

A flower so beautiful,
a flower that's for me makes me bend on this very knee.

The allure, scent, and attraction is enough to control my very action.

Don't worry, she's not only your flower,
she's my flower.

Casey Jarrell

My Most Precious Treasure

On this starry night,
I could hear a single voice.
It kept ringing in my ear.
That person taught me not to be afraid.
She would stay through thick and thin with me!

I would sing for her even through the fire.
I would do anything for her even if it costed my life.
Deep inside of my heart, there is a song that hasn't been heard.
When she listens to it, she'll know how I feel.

When the sun rises in the sky,
I walk onto the balcony.
I really felt at ease.
I spread my wings so I could fly.
Your voice has raised me to new heights.

I'll go any length just to find you.
When you're alone, I would always be there.
When you take my hand, the stars begin to shine.
That light will guide us throughout our days.

I would sing for you even when times are painful.
When it hurts the most, I'll be there to heal your wounds.
When the light shines brighter, I know that you will alright.
When I know that you're safe, I'll sing for all eternity.

My head keeps spinning when you're around me.
While the stars are shining, I 'll embrace in my angel wings.
Deep inside of your heart, I can feel the warmth of the sun.
When I open my locket, there is my most precious treasure.

My Oldest Friend

Bring in the old.
Bring in the new.
You're as friendly as Mrs. Barbara Sue.

Out of every friend that I've come to find,
I see that your soul is pure and kind.

Though I don't see those locks of red hair,
I can always see you at the fair.

Through this letter that I send, you'll always be my oldest friend.

Casey Jarrell

My Precious Mother

You're smart, crafty,
and very caring,
and you are the gift I'm always sharing.

You one that will not forget
all the good times since we met.

You are the one I'm closest to And I'm always there if you don't have anything to do.

You're more powerful than any other and that's what's keeping me with my mother.

Remember that you're more caring than any other and that you'll always be my precious mother.

Casey Jarrell

My Sweet Heart

When I was young and would feel down,
I would draw a heart in my hand.
Then it would turn my frown upside down.

With all my friends standing by my side,
I feel like a horse running a mile long stride.
While my day is feeling bright,
I do what I can to do what's right.

While I'm at home and running free,
I spend time with my family.
When I'm here,
I do my part.
I give to you my sweet heart.

Casey Jarrell

Myself

Oh, why do I love you so? There's nowhere for me to go.
Drowning in these tears, I believe you'll see me through!

As I close my eyes, I'm reminded of a time so so long ago, joined as one, when our voices harmonized.
You and I were closer than can be.
Living in a blissful dream, love was born instantly.

Who would guess we'd go our separate ways to this day?
The pain revealed with all of my fears.
Were the two of us both the same?
And we never realized love was right there all along.

Oh, why do I love you so? There's nowhere for me to go.
When I hear your voice ringing in my mind, my will's not my own.
Those words that supported me were yours or were they a dream?
Even though we're far apart, I want to know.

I was lost when I was so very young.
You were always there when I was in need.

'It's okay to be afraid' you said to me.
Are the two of us both the same?
Someday, I will save you.

Oh, why do I love you so? There's nowhere for me to go.
When I hear your voice ringing in my mind, my will's not my own.
Those memories will never leave me.
When you're with me, I'm not alone.

Oh, why do I love you so? there's nowhere for me to go.
When I hear your voice ringing in my mind, my will's not my own.
Those words that supported me were yours or were they a dream?
Even though we're far apart, I want to know.

Oh, why do you touch me so? You're the only one who gives me hope.
Clinging to lonely dreams, your voice will always be with me.

Nature's Kiss

A newborn upon Mother Nature's breast feels her warm embrace like the sun's shining crest.

A newborn whom she shall protect will one day learn her loving dialect.

A newborn whose known her bliss will now earn nature's kiss.

She will take her under her wing and walk hand in hand as they both sing.

Her apprentice will make the future bright and once again bring about a peaceful delight.

She has a power that's yet to be revealed.

It one upon those it can heal.

She is one that will show us bliss.

We'll one day feel her nature's kiss.

New Future

There's just one thing that never seems to change, the dream that I have always been running to.
And I wonder once when I looked into those eyes when I was so very young?
Hey, look up at it, the night sky is so vast!
Yes, so it seems that you understand that you can shine with every light you have.
So, let's find the moon together.

Let's sing a song!
For all time, I will find a way to reach my destiny.
Day by day,
I will find the time to search for you.
Let's sing a song!
For all time, if I'm with you, I can do anything.
More and more,
More, and more, and more, I will get many thanks from you.

In those days when we met, we were filled with mischief.
We had so much fun when you were here.
Yes, now you know, I am now on the wide stage!
Now, you will see all the smiles shining upon me.

Let's sing a song!
You can see my heart with the shining light of every smile.
Day by day,
I'll keep your loving memory.
Let's sing a song!
I'll never give in to my emotions.
More, and more,
more, and more, and more, I'm still singing for you.

Let's sing a song!
Repeat and repeat.
Let's sing a song!
Repeat and repeat.
This song is for you.

Casey Jarrell

New Future (Church Version)

There was a time way back in my life when I had a single dream.
I would reflect through my memories, and remember my mother's words.
'Hey, look at the stars! '
'They are shining so brightly! '
So very soon, I will sing with all my might to my precious lord just like heaven's angels.

Let's sing a song!
For the rest of my life, I'll sing for you even when I'm in so much pain.
Day by day,
I will walk just one step at a time.
Let's sing a song!
For the rest of my life, I'll do my best to love that're dear to me.
More and more,
and more, and more, and more, There's so much love that I have left.
Thank you for everything.

When I sing to you with all of my heart, you're listening to how to I really feel.
I really care for all of you,
so I will sing you this song.
I will shine like the moon, and show my one true reflection!
Now I truly see that life is meaningful to all of us in so many different ways.
I will look deep inside of my soul!

Let's sing a song!
In the spotlight, I really hope that my song will reach you.
Day by day,
I will stay by your side even when you don't want me there.
Let's sing a song!
For the rest of my life, my love will always be in your heart.
More and more,
and more, and more, and more lives will link together 'til the end of time!

Let's sing a song!
For the rest of my life, I'll sing for you even when I'm in so much pain.
Day by day,
I will walk just one step at a time.
Let's sing a song!

For the rest of my life, I'll do my best to love that're dear to me.
More and more,
and more, and more, and more, There's so much love that I have left.
Thank you for everything.

One Step

I take one step towards the door.
Then my wish will make me strong.
I will reach for my goal that I'm aiming for,
and I won't let go of your hand!
I won't let go of your hand!

The sun is the only thing I see floating in the cloudless blue sky.
As it lights my way, all my doubts seem to melt away.
The negative colors are fading away.
The sky is shining bright.
I'll be here in our new world
with all of my friends.

Now is the only time!

I take one step into the light.
Now I'll get a second chance.
Someday, I'll reach all of my dreams that I believe.

I take one step towards the door.
Then my wish will make me strong.
I will reach all of my goals that I'm aiming for,
and I won't let go of your hand!
I won't let go of your hand!

Casey Jarrell

Only Human

The feeling of sadness fades away with a smile.
As we arrive, what we are we waiting for?

Unscratched yet not unscathed;
We will reach for our dreams.
Every day, we will remember that summer day.

We'll live to see tomorrow.
With a single breath, they'll hear the song from deep inside of our hearts.
We will all take a step forward.

When all the rain clouds start to clear,
a new path will shine before us.
Even in the darkest place, there is a light in you.
So strongly take a step forward.

Casey Jarrell

Only Love

I truly hope that we meet again.
I will always think of you when I'm walking down your lane.
I will always be by your side
even if the water is at its highest tide.
When you had your paw in my hand,
I could see why you protect us where you stand.

To me and to my family,
you will always be our dearest Collie.
You stuck with us through thick and thin even though we have to keep you out of the trash bin.

We by your side when you were scared.
Even through the worst thunderstorms, we always fared.
Even when it comes to the time for him to die,
Tiger will be the only love throughout our lives.

Casey Jarrell

Overflowing With Love

I my hands, there is a small flower.
It will gently breathe right here as well.

When I was a child, I would hold you in my arms.
I loved all the countless smiles that were full of love.

When all the flowers bloom, I will sing this song as the melody echoes.
I will continue to sing this song for you and embrace you.
Within my embrace, I'll warm your heart.

Casey Jarrell

Passion Flower

Your lips are red like roses.
Your heart does many poses.
Its melody is playing inside of me.
Your soul is like many flowers that I have never seen.
Your melody is a drug to me.

My love for you will never change as long as I will live.
I must say that I love you so!

You're my passion flower that won't fade away.
You will always be by my side.
We'll move to the music that you're playing.
You're my light that's always shining!

There are new buds that are blooming.
They are getting stronger with each passing day.
Your song just keeps on growing like the vines that are spreading.
I will soon get to sing for you.

The melody that you play makes me dance and it gives me so much life!

I am your passion flower that will sing for you.
Your melody just moves so.
I will keep getting stronger with your love and I will keep on shining for you!

You're my passion flower that won't fade away.
You're melody just keeps on moving me.
We'll move.... We'll move to the music that you play.
You're my light that's always shining!

Peaceful Sea

A lady relaxing on the beach is recollecting her memories of the peaceful sea.
Feeling the warmth of the sun and feeling free always felt better when she was with her family.
Watching the children play from where she sat, yet her lover was asleep with his face under his hat.

Her daughter was in her lounge floating along,
but her granddaughter was by her singing a song.
Her son was by the water digging a hole while her grandson with her son found a bowl.

When her husband found his wake,
he soon found out that he was blisteringly baked.
At the beach there was life,
yet at home there was no strife.

Casey Jarrell

Poppin' Bubbles

P-Poppin' bubbles in the sun
P-Poppin' bubbles in my heart
P-Poppin' bubbles

I have a feeling that I just want to know.
I'm always singing deep inside of my soul.
My face keeps on turning into a deep hue of red.
I just don't know what to make of it.

It feels like I'm in love with something, but I don't know.
I will just have to look deep inside of myself!

The water swells inside of me and I feel like I want to explode.
It creates bubbles in my chest.
There is a light deep inside of my soul.
I just feel like I just love you so much!

I just keep on basking in the morning sun.
I love the way you make me feel.
You will my hand and you will lift up my heart.
I just love you so much.

When you leave, I just feel like I'm alone.
When you're here with me, it just makes my day!

The water sways and I feel the sun against my face.
When you're here with me, it just feels like I just want to explode!
In my darkest days, you become my light.
Then i feel so much happiness!

I feel like I'm alone without you here,
so put this letter in this one single sphere.

The water swells inside of me and I feel like I want to explode.
It creates bubbles in my chest.
There is a light deep inside of my soul.
I just feel like I love you so much!

The water sways and I feel the sun against my face.

When you're here with me, it just like I want to explode.
In my darkest days, you become my light.
I feel so much happiness!

Prayer

Rising from the earth and into the air,
I open my wings to fly through the air.

The air is the only thing I have left of you.

And I will find the path
that's closest to you.

Diving into your arms is my only prayer.

It's my only prayer.

My only prayer.

Casey Jarrell

Precious

After the rain falls from the sky,
I would find the seven colors of a rainbow.
I want to show you how I feel as a thanks for the smile on your face.

With all my might,
all our words (delivered) ,
all our hearts (resounding) ,
will fly out into the world!

I'll return all my love to you!
A light will be born thanks to you.
This warmth will form a ring and surround us.
(Thank you for all my precious days)

Now, I finally understand these fragments of happiness from those dear to me I collected one by one will form here in our precious days.

Casey Jarrell

Precious Star

You are the one that's for me because there is no one like you.
I fell for you because of the light in your heart.
You shine just like the starlight.
My love for you is so very true.
You'll shine for eternity,
for eternity!

You're the precious star that came into my life,
and you light up the sky, and gave me courage.
You will shine just like the sun and heal the light in our hearts.

When we take in the sunrise,
I can see how peaceful we truly are.
Our love will last for all time.
When the sun starts to set,
you just want sing your little heart out.
Your song will bring back what has been missing from our lives.

In the darkest cave, you will light the way until we reach the end.
There is a song inside of all of us that just wants us to let it out.

You are the precious star that came into my life,
and you light up the sky, and you gave me courage.
You will shine just like the sun and heal in our hearts.

Casey Jarrell

Promise Of The World

My tears fall as I smile
while my joy hides in my heart.
Somewhere inside of me lies a promise of the world.

Even though I am alone now,
what will my life bring to me?
Like the gentle touch of your hand,
all our worries fade away.

My memories of you
will forever be in me.
You are the gentle breeze that embraces me.

We leave hand in hand
in the middle of the day.
While the sun shines through the trees, our promise never ends.

Even though I am alone now,
tomorrow is limitless.
You have taught me the kindness that lights up the dark.

My memories of you will live forever more.
You're the birds flying high in the sky,
and the flower in our home.

Casey Jarrell

Rainbow Colored Teddy Bear

For a long time, the sky made me feel lonely.
When I held your hand while we would laugh,
what were we scared of?
Bear, open my heart!
Open Ranka!

The flowers bloom in the city and the stones turn into candy.
I wipe away your tears.
My handkerchief turns into a little bird.
The love of a lost little girl spans the rainbow.
It will reach you, I know it!
A little girl's courage will survive!

My life puts stress on my heart.
The weight of the future I measured is a deep red.
I have to do my best in life.
In my heart is what I'm looking for.
Bear, open my heart!
Open Ranka!

My uniform turns into a dress.
An ocean is in my purse that throws everything else into the desert and I will play with the dolphins in the forest.
The rhythm as I walk grants you a wish.
A little girl's courage will survive.

The piano flies in the sky and stardust turns into notes.
The devils sing and dance in a fairytale.
The miracle of love will cross the rainbow and reach you and reach you.
A little girl's courage will survive.

Casey Jarrell

Return To The Ocean

Across the sea,
I can see a light that's guiding me towards my destiny.
In my soul,
I can feel that there something missing deep inside of me.

When I sail across the water,
I will get to see the ones that I truly love.
In my heart of pure light,
I promise to come back home!

I will return to the sea, and the ones that I love!
We're separated, but I know they care for me.
I will return to the sea, and the ones that care for me!
In my heart, I know they will say that 'I love you'.

In my heart,
I can tell that the sea is unsteady, so I go back to see what is wrong.

Even in a storm,
I will be by their side.
With all of my might,
I'll be the hero deep inside.

I will return to the sea, and the ones that I love!
We're separated, but I know they care for me.
I will return to the sea, and the ones that care for me!
In my heart, I know they will say that 'I love you'.

I will return to the sea, and the ones that I love!
We're separated, but I know they care for me.
I will return to the sea, and the ones that care for me!
In my heart, I know they will say that 'I love you'.

Casey Jarrell

Return To The Sea

I remember the tale about love that suddenly turned into a tragedy.
Hopes and dreams have been crushed, but I know that this truly is not true.
We fell apart at the seams, but love always found a way.

I won't forget all the times when you played your melody.
Our love vanished like the sands spreading apart on a lonely beach.

Definitely, definitely, I know that this just couldn't last long enough.
We were connected by the waves of the ocean blue.

Definitely!
Love can conquer all that it faces.
There's no such thing as fate, but all that can be changed.
I know all that is just a lie.

When it all ended, the new began.
On a bed of ripples, I'm reborn.
The light shines on my face.
It tells me that you're here.
I can't lose you,
So I'll return to the sea.

A miracle of happiness will happen.
The seven seas helped me,
And now I realize.
Love is okay if you find a way with the one you love,
And you gently kiss.

Casey Jarrell

Rhythm Of The Sea

When the wind blows through the bustling trees, a soothing sound comes from the sea.
When two hearts unite,
they create a song that's pure and bright.
There is a place within our souls that we will find.
When we find that place, all darkness shall be left behind.

There is a place where the water sings.
When we get there, oh, what joy it will bring.
At the beach, you hear that beautiful song.
You even get a feeling where you belong.

At my home where I'll forever be,
I'll always remember the rhythm of the sea.

Casey Jarrell

Rosy Wind

Flying across the southern sky,
there is a fragrance traveling ever so sly.
There is joy that it will bring.
It will even make you feel like you want to sing.

Even though we don't know where it will come,
we will still be able to smell it some.
It is a fragrance ever so sweet.
It will even attract a parakeet.

It will be from your bouquet of roses.
Bring your gift just like god to moses.

Casey Jarrell

Second Chances

Where there's darker times, there's brighter days.
From where you fall,
you will rise back again.
Let go of your heavy burdens because you can shape your where it's better for you and the people you love.

Friends, family, mothers, fathers, brothers, and sisters can help you when it matters most.

Even when your job is on the coast, they're still waiting for you to come safe and sound,
and not in the ground.

If you truly believe in love,
look to the ones who care you the most.

Casey Jarrell

Shine

I just keep feeling something deep inside me.
It is a feeling that I've felt once before.
It feels like the warmth of the sun.
I must be thinking that I'm falling in love.
I knew this feeling from somewhere deep inside!

She is the only one that I truly love.
The sun's shining in my soul.
In the blueness of the sky,
I will follow her to ends of the earth.

She will always be there for me.
She melts the ice in my heart.
Why won't she notice the feelings I have for her?
'You are the flame to my candle! '

There is a light inside you and you let it shine.
You guided me in my darkest days.
Your soul is the brightest thing I've ever seen.
The moonlight is jealous of the sun!

We have went through so much to get to this moment.

I will be the light that will guide right back home.
You will shine just like the sun.
Our love last for the rest of our lives.
Remember that I love you so!

There is a light inside you and you let it shine.
You're love is all that I need!

Casey Jarrell

Shining Melody

In this song,
there is a line.
It can make you feel that everything is fine.

In this gift that I will bless,
the warmth of the sun will caress.

In the sun,
the snow will melt,
and you will remember the feelings you have felt.

On this day,
you will lift
from the warmth in this rhythmic gift.

In future years,
you will remember the song,
and you will feel the feeling you have always long.

In this time of tranquility,
I give you a shining melody

Casey Jarrell

Shining Miracle

Deep inside of your eyes,
there's a love that's not far away.
Oh it would fly across the blue sky.
I will always try to express my feelings for you.
Oh our paths will meet along the way.

In our eyes, a miracle reaches out.
From where I stand, I will sing my song!

Will the light shine my way,
and help fulfill my dreams?
Will they fill up the sky?
I will bask in the light of the sun and then I'll spread my wings.
My heart will shine just like the stars.
I walk in the light of the sun.

The light is the same.
Everybody is the same.
Oh we all have hopeful dreams.
Forever we will be best friends just you and me.
Oh we have the best days for us ahead.

Miracles in our hearts (miracles) will shine.
My love for you shines forth (shines forth) just ahead!

We'll spread our wings and fly high in the sky.
We'll sing along with the music.
The song in all of hearts plays the same melody.
It guides us along the way.
We walk underneath the light of the sun.

The song of the future creates a courageous light.
All the words we've learned will serve as our guide.
Hear our voice!

Will the light shine my way,

and help fulfill my dreams?
We'll receive the blessing of heaven.
Underneath the sun's rays, we'll reach out to you.
All our voices will fly high in the sky.
We walk in the light of the sun.

Casey Jarrell

Shining Star

A secret melody
is the dream inside of me.
I'm your shining star.

A desire of hope is what made me strong.
When the stars are shining,
I can glow upon the stage.

A light that shines in the dark will make you feel magical.
Extend your hand
to the day where your dreams begin.

Just believe in me!
Then your dreams will come true.
Your heart will shine just like the starlight.
A secret melody
is the dream inside of me.
I'm your shining star.
The starlight never fades away.

Just believe in me!
Then your dreams will come true.
Your heart will shine just like the starlight.
A secret melody
is the dream inside of me.
I'm your shining star.
The starlight never fades away.
My dreams will come true.

Casey Jarrell

Silver Moon Crystal

Seven rainbow jewels bonded together, and created a crystal as light as a feather.

The gift of a mother's power, and the love of a princess daughter will combine together, and she will not cower.

Avenge your love,
and bring the light.
Surely, evil will not win the fight.

The Silver Moon Crystal will forever shine.
Where there is love,
there is a guiding line.

Casey Jarrell

Single Flower

From a seed that was planted years ago,
Out comes a sprout as I seen it so.

10 days later, it has grown higher,
Even though it can't be burned by fire.

9 weeks later, I have seen the first bloom.
Right here and right now, it is invulnerable to doom as I see now.

One special feed has been gave to this single flower.
It will become a WHOLE bush with ALL my power!

In 3 years time; I can see it now.
That flower will become a bush, but I don't know when or how.

Casey Jarrell

Song Of Healing

Awaken the song in my soul that keeps on echoing in our hearts.
In the sky where light fades away, it ignites a single spark of love.

People will pray together even when their mistakes seem to repeat.
That is why we must get along.
Dreams will be reborn again and again.

On a journey that never seems to end, everyone is searching for the meaning of life.

The world is a gentle ship.
It sways and gets swayed carrying everything and embracing everyone the way they are.
The world is a ship of hope.
It sways and gets swayed carrying a person's pain and calling for the arrival of a new day.

Starlight Melody

Under the moon,
in the starry night,
there is a melody spreading throughout the light.

In the shining night,
I hear a song,
but it won't be here for long.

I travel,
I run,
I have to here that heavenly voice,
but it will be my only choice.

I make that choice,
to follow the voice,
then I will get the chance to rejoice.

I see a hill.
With the light standing still,
I saw a girl singing by a distant mill.

I saw the girl within the night,
singing with all her might under the light.

I heard the song by the shallow sea.
I will always remember the starlight melody.

Story Of The Seven Seas

Surely shimmering beyond the seven seas is the story that leads all lives to paradise.
We'll surely find out where all the birds are flying off too.
Embracing that dream, we left on a journey.
The treasure map we found at the secret cove
no one can see just yet.
But the single constellation is glowing for us.

The story of the seven seas starts from here.
Many miracles are always revolving around us. Will they ever return to us?
Even if at the end of our journey, we're to become adults.
Within the treasure boxes of our hearts, will always be our mermaid souls.

The lute's melody I heard on the beach at dawn was similar to a sweet lullaby from my hometown.
Everyone is surely protected under the veil of love.
and go down their own paths.
Even when the sea is stormy, our bonds and heartbeat will still be conveyed.
Even if there is to be no light, you'll surely be able to see something.

Before long, the sadness of the seven countries will become a song and cross the seven seas, becoming love.
I want to become a life that can warm this world.
I'll never forget.. these Tales of Mermaid.

By the time the large rainbow fades away, at the end of our dreams will surely be an overflowing rain of happiness that we'll all share.
At the beginning of our large journey, we didn't have a map.
We just continued heading towards the future while looking to the sea.

The story of the seven seas starts from here.
Many miracles are always revolving around us and one is here once again.
By the time our journey ends, shining in our hearts will be our most precious treasure... our Pearls of Mermaid

Sunny Day

In the forest on this sunny day,
all of nature will sing and play.

All of the birds will singing in the sky, cheering up any animal that cannot fly.

In the river, the water is flowing, delivering the nutrients that it will soon be bestowing.

In the forest,
under the sun,
everything is doing something fun.

Remember to try your best because life is the biggest test.

Super Love Songs

Starlight!

We will gather more light.
This world will surely change.

We will fly through the stormy wind.
We will battle the dark sea.
We will not back down.... Surely!

We will perform Super Live!
We'll feel the wind on the wide stage.
We'll sing our Super Songs!
We'll convey our songs of love.

Starlight!
Believe in yourself.
Try to have to faith in your own dream.

You can change this world.
The starlight is shining bright.
We'll have everlasting peace... Surely!

You'll reach your dreams of singing Super Live!
You'll win the battle of light and shadow.
You'll be with us Super Girls!
We will try to help you.

We will fly through the stormy wind.
We will battle the dark sea.
We will not back down.... Surely!

We will perform Super Live!
We'll feel the wind on the wide stage.
We'll sing our Super Songs!
We'll convey our songs of love.

You'll reach your dreams of singing Super Live!
You'll win the battle of light and shadow.
You'll be with us Super Girls!
We will try to help you.

Sweet Melody

Sweet melody
Sweet melody

Under the sea, I will navigate the depths of the oceans to find a wondrous light that will make us happy.
Across the sea, I will find you wherever you are and I will tell you that I love you.
I will cross the seven seas just to find you and sing my song.

The birds flying from the east
will give you the message filled with feelings.

The light of the seven seas will guide us on our journey.
Oh, sweet melody
give me life and bring me closer to my love.
Just make sure to not lose yourself, and you will shine brighter than the sun!
Oh, sweet melody
give me life and bring me closer to my love!

The birds flying from the east
will give you the message filled with feelings.

The light of the seven seas will guide us on our journey.
Oh, sweet melody
give me life and bring me closer to my love.
Just make sure to not lose yourself, and you will shine brighter than the sun!
Oh, sweet melody
give me life and bring me closer to my love!

Tears

Please don't try to fight the tears.
You will rise up from the ashes.
You're a guilty man that is condemned.
You have the lord's mercy.
Please pray to lord Jesus.

You're a guilty man that is condemned.
You have the lord's mercy.
Please pray to lord Jesus.

Tender Rain

I look into your eyes and I see a gracious light.
The sky's awake
while we make it the day.
You will protect me
with all that you have.
I'll never shed a tear
as long as you're in my heart.
Oh what a joyous time.

It's a tender rain!
This song was made just for you.
It'll wash away the pain.
Even in your darkest days,
I will be your light.
These words of mine are just for you.
Singing in the rain,
there's a single drop of hope.
Look to the sky
and you'll see that it's shining.
I will always be there when you feel scared.
You realize that this world is beautiful.
Please come o tender rain.

The Eye Of The Cat

What is as easy as flying a kite?
It would be the gift of eternal sight.

In the home with a shining light, a delicious scent allures a cat
in this peaceful night.

In this night, and in this hour,
it will unleash the secret power.

In this night, a mouse has been caught.
A cat has unleashed its plan that has been sought.

In this night, the fight has been won.
The meal will last until the distant dawn.

The Future Leads The Way

Let's do our best and walk towards the future!

I love the sky and the ocean.
They are telling me "Go do your best!"
To let our voices reach far, far away, shall we shout our dreams even louder?

(Full of hope)
We pull ourselves towards tomorrow.
It is really fun to attract others with our hearts and try to run away!
(Let's always run together)

The future leads the way!
There's nothing I have to say, but I don't know if I should cry or laugh!
I'm sure our future selves know the answer.
Let's run with all that we have!

While I sing and get wet in the rain,
I believe the sky will definitely clear.
Cheerfully, cheerfully let's let our voices ring,
and we'll surely reach all our dreams.

I will grow and one at a time,
I will overcome all my weaknesses.
In the midst of the waves of clouds,
a blue sky is waiting for us above!

Let's spread our wings and fly!
Let's soar high above the sky, and sing with all our might.
Let's meet our expectations while hand in hand,
so take the chance and don't run away!

I live, I live Love Live days!
If we throw ourselves in, won't they come true, our dreams?

The future leads the way!
There's nothing I have to say,
oh our wish was made for everyone.
Let's spread our wings and fly!

Let's soar high above the sky, and sing with all our might.
I'm sure our future selves will know the answer.
Let's run with all that we have,
and take hold of this chance!

Let's reach all our on the wind!

The Garden Dancer

On a day when the sun first rose,
there was a woman standing in a graceful pose.
In her mouth,
there was a rose.
When she spun,
she threw it to the person she closely knows.

When she first raised her hand,
she would jump and flip to grab a rose when she would land.
She would dance within the circle of white.
Then she would rest and enjoy the garden of light.

Casey Jarrell

The Harvest Moon

For those who planted the seed, it is the harvest moon they seek.
During the night,
the plants will grow.
When the plants bloom,
they soon will know.

They say that on Good Friday, plants will grow and look healthy.
When the plants bear fruit,
farmers sure will be wealthy.

In autumn when the moon is full,
crops are plentiful and buckets are filled.
For this night will be arriving soon.
Always look forward to the harvest moon.

Casey Jarrell

The Hummingbird

Look at the skies
and make it soar.
Sing your song as you have before.

Your feathers shine as you soar.
They are as if they are a great décor.

As you fly into the sunlight,
we can hear voice with all our might.

Look at the skies
and make it soar.
Sing your song as you have before.

Casey Jarrell

The Light Of The Winter Rose

The light of the winter rose is so bright that you could see it through my clothes.

A light shining in a blizzard is so magical that it was made by a wizard.

I feel cold.
I wonder if it was sold.

A light so warm.
A light so bright.
I really need that light.

Oh, precious lord,
please give me a sign
so I can find the light
that's truly mine.

Casey Jarrell

The Love Of A Rose

It is a message spread out on the bed
that says 'I love you' in a card where it is said.

The soothing fragrance will make you smile,
and there will be a gift as if it were from the River Nile.

Open the package,
and you will know that he is the one that will make your river flow.

Read the letter,
and you will see that he reveals his love on his bending knee.

It is the love of a rose that you're running to.
Remember this, and your love will shine through.

Casey Jarrell

The Nest

In this tree that is standing tall, there is a nest that will not fall.

The weight was even on each side.
There were vines with it cradled inside.

It was made by the sparrow light that wouldn't give in without a fight.

Every darkest night,
after every exhausting flight,
she would take a rest
in her nest
with her wings held in tight.

Casey Jarrell

The Only Sunlight

Everybody hear me now!
With this song, I'll keep on shining.
I won't let my doubts get to me.
I still have feelings welling up inside of me.

If you're just yearning for it, you'll never get to the places you need to be.
If you're just wishing for it,
You'll never stop dreaming.
With a smile that you chose in order to not lose the shine of the stars.
You'll grow and change and stand on the stage of destiny.
And don't let the looming loneliness close in and stop you!

Everybody hear me now!
With this song, I'll keep on shining!
I won't listen to what others say about me!
I still have feelings welling up inside of me.
Just hold me- more, more babe.
The rainbow lights the way for the only sunlight.

Deliver the message to somebody who needs it.
There's no need for fearing one's own feelings.
You will burn eternal flames in order to never hide the moon's gaze.
No matter where you are, you'll always be there at your fated live.
Even the rain clouds that shield you will eventually clear.

Everybody hear me now!
With this voice, I'll keep you from withering away.
The right answer isn't that far away, you can believe that anything is possible.
Don't give up- never, never babe.
You can paint a brighter day with the only sunlight!

Everybody hear me now!
With this song, I want to shine.
I will become the magnificent red sun adored by all of this world.
Everybody hear me now!
With this song, I'll keep on shining!
I won't listen to what others say about me.
I still have feelings welling up inside of me.

Just hold me- more, more babe.
The rainbow lights the way with the only sunlight!

The Place That Calls To You

My dream is for the two of us to keep walking together.
You would would fall along the way, yet even now your voice deep inside still rings in my heart.

I want to be honest but I can't.
There are still a lot of things I want to talk about with you.
Your shoulders shake as you're still quick to cry.
I need to screaming at myself in my head.

I want to be a little bird that's flying in wind.
I want to be free as a cloud passing overhead.
You went out into the world searching for a way to rescue me.

&quot;So pretty&quot; you say with a smile on your face.
I only want to strongly protect you.
But even if I'm hurt, I'll always love you.
I want to see you again.

The day we made a promise,
we both admired the scenery.
Don't ever drop your petals.
I learned to laugh along with you.

I wanted to go into the world with you and shed the same tears and smell the flowers.
Only you accepted me for who I was.
In our eyes an assortment of colors bloom.
I will find you!

Over and over, at the place that I promised you,
I'm waiting for your hand!

I want to be a little bird that's flying in the wind.
I want to be free as a cloud passing overhead.
You went out into the world searching for a way to rescue me.

&quot;So pretty&quot; you say with a smile on your face.
I only want to strongly protect you.

But even if I'm hurt, I'll always love you.

I want to see you again.

I want to see you again.

I want to see you again.

The Place Where The First Morning Comes In This World

Look...

underneath the veil of the dawn,
the candle dies out, and they kiss.

At the hidden cape, the two of them lay down together,
and listen to the music box of the wind.

I want to hear just a single word of happiness.
Hey... since you're always by my side, anytime is fine.

Hey, half of this world is filled with an invisible miracle called 'love'.

Without knowing a name, you invited me to the beach which is where the first morning comes to this world.

You know...

people are reborn everyday,
so it's okay to leave yesterday's bad things and frustrating tears behind.

Look...

underneath the veil of the dawn,
you can become someone completely new.

I'm living for you now, that's what I've decided.
Hey... I've never said it, but thank you for everything.

Look, half of this world is filled with an invisible miracle called 'love'.

Casey Jarrell

The Silver Moon

In this night and in this hour,
I will reveal my secret power.

In this night and 12 hours past noon underneath the light of the silver moon,
I will be arriving soon.

In this night when the moon is revealed, my secret power will be unsealed.

A cloak as black as night will appear and then I can't be heard by any human ear.

I will grow fur and whiskers.
I will then be on four legs and have cat ears.

Don't worry, I will be arriving soon as a cat underneath the light of the of the silver moon.

The Sound Of The Bells Of Hope ~love Goes On~

Why do you wish your dream left your mind?
Even in a decollete land, flowers will bloom.

In the seven-colored wind, the seven-colored sky,
you can find hope in this world.

You had the wrong dream.
You wandered in search of the love and Clue to the mystery of your memory.
You suffered from the cold loneliness stuck in your heart.

Rest your pure white wings and sleep in grace.
You were born because you wished to live, now!

The sound of the bells of hope, sing the last song, now!
This world is not only for the strong.
Listen to my love in this song!

The beautiful wish, which is deep and fragile, is hidden in your blue eyes.
Your dream was shattered, and your tears were shed.
You don't need all of your sorrow to vanish.

Finish the wrong dream,
Forget everything,
And sleep like an innocent child.
When a new dream is born in your heart, you can be free.

I want to show you this pure white heart.
Look straight in my heart, the truth is a tender miracle, you'll see!

Believe in our hearts, and give me the first kiss.
In the heartbeat of the moment, we felt something.
Listen to my heart in your chest.

Rest your pure white wings and sleep in grace.
You were because you wished to live, now!

The sound of the bells of hope, sing the last song, now!
This world is not only for the strong.

Listen to my love in this song.

The world has started from the love.

It attracts everything and makes a big ring of love.

You will make a mistake, be hurt, fight, and shed tears.

Still, it won't be the end, your love for someone else.

Casey Jarrell

The Stars Of Heaven

Oh,
Is it sadness, is it regret,
or could it be joy?

Oh, feelings are now overflowing in my burning chest.

The thin voice is reporting on the understanding of love in those eyes.

I gaze up at the large sky so often, I've grown used to this strength...
From here, I walk on.

Oh,
Over time, all of this will be Enveloped in love.

Gently, time piles up
That strong light from one hundred years ago.

At first, a chest is an open, empty space.
Next and never, those bonds return home.

Those days passed by faintly
The world's pain comes from kindness...

I gaze up at the lonely sky so often, I've grown used to its strength...
Once more, I think.

At first, a chest as an open, empty space.
Next and never, those bonds return home.

From here, I walk on.

Casey Jarrell

Those Who Return To The Sea

Through all the tough times we've been through,
we all knew what to do.

We walk along the bay and embrace the gentle sunset.

We would also sing the message we say.

The door to our dreams would open through our eyes.
The lights are shining through and we fly across the sky.
For those who return to the sea,
they will sing courageously.

When the sun sets,
we walk in the light.

Casey Jarrell

Time Has Passed

Time has passed within this gentle spring.
Graduation is a joyful time that everyone will bring.
In this time,
bells will chime,
and birds will sing during this joyful time.

During this time,
we will leave the nest,
and go off to college and do our best.

On the tenth year,
we will have a career.
A time of peace and wealth will also appear.

Take your time to remember the days.
Remember when you first conquered true love's maze.
Remember the good times when children play.

On this day when you walk down the gym, time will tell and you'll answer its every whim.

Casey Jarrell

Venom

I am a poisonous kiss that comes upon your awaiting lips.
I am the toxicity that kills from a single drip.
I am the temptation that draws you near my awaited breast.
You are infatuated with me and brought to my deep dark nest.
I slide upon your skin where your blood begins to seep.
You shall soon find yourself in an eternal sleep.

Casey Jarrell

Viator

In the starry sky, your light keeps flowing.
There is a light shining in your soul.
It's flowing beautifully just like you.

Your love for me is walking while the music plays.
I believe in the dreams that we have.
The sun will rise up ahead for you.

Even the stars will have tears that will fall to earth.
Your warm and gentle heart will once again.

Extend your love to others and even the light.
The future will become brighter.
The sun will rise up ahead for you.

Casey Jarrell

Voice In The Dark

Voice in the dark!
The dark folia,
steals the bonds of pearls.

Voice in the dark!
Now, I begin
this magnificent show.
It's placed in a song,
echoing this dark power.

The ghost beneath the waves will capture you in this mirror that you saved.
Our hearts will unite these chains.
The magic in our will bring you pain.
You are misleading the weak!

Voice in the dark!
The black waves will destroy your melody.
Voice in the dark!
Stop the love
that will break these chains.

Refrain the whirl.
Steal the bonds of pearls.

Casey Jarrell

Warming Light

In the warming light that is shining across my face,
Love and care spread through the curtain lace.

With this light shining upon my face,
I will cherish those memories from within the curtain lace.

On this morning, within the warming light,
I will find you within the garden of light.

Follow me through the garden fair,
And you will arrive to the shining chair.

Sit in a chair next to the curtain lace,
So I can look within the eyes of your warming face.

Casey Jarrell

White Rose

From one's love, focus, and clarity,
there comes a root
of the rose of eternity.

With sunlight, water,
and a little time,
there will be buds
upon the stems of lime.

On the first summer morning
there which the wind blows, there will be blooms
of the eternal White Rose.

To win one's heart
that will forever stay,
try to give her a wonderful bouquet.

Go to her without a shove,
and give her your symbol of eternal love.

Casey Jarrell

Who Am I

I creep into your humble abode.
You walk near me and I'll explode.
I am the colors black and green.
I am like nothing you have ever seen.
I may not be a zombie nor a skeleton.
You have seen me.
Who am I?

Casey Jarrell

Wholeheartedly

All alone on an anxious night,
I was humming a song.
The darkness seems to tremble.
I can feel the power within it.

Every word and every note are pieces of a miracle.
If you hum,
(Shalalala) Spread your arms wide.
That's the melody that rings the future.

From my heart, I'll sing for you.
I can feel deep inside something that is true.
As of that day, hope turns.
The phrase is flapping its wings.

Carrying this wish. I'll sing tomorrow too.
As long as my precious person is here,
it will be more dazzling than yesterday.
I want to meet that smile again.

Casey Jarrell

Wings Of Darkness

More beautiful than a rose, more seductive than the moon
If you want that precious life, then force yourself to bloom in this hand

The door to the world of darkness will now open.
Once again, leave everything to fate and be reborn.

Now close those eyelids of yours and find the masquerade in the middle of the night.

Now, slip into darkness. Come! There's no reason to be afraid.
And be there for eternity.

The moment the the suspiciously swaying wind escapes
I'll make you forget many things along with your pure devotional love.

Let's engrave a new time into the world of darkness.
It's okay not to worry about someone else and hurt your own heart.

Close those eyelids of yours and find the voice coming from the future.
Now, slip into darkness. Let me teach you of it as you become captured within my wings.
And definitely you'll be there for eternity.

Close those eyelids of yours.
Now, slip into darkness.
Close those eyelids of yours and let your heart-filled matters be stolen away.
Now, slip into darkness and in the midst of a riddle, late at night, feel my deep kiss.
And become eternal.

Close those eyelids of yours.
Now, slip into darkness
Close those eyelids of yours.
Now, slip into darkness...

Casey Jarrell

Within The Sea

Within the sea,
beneath the waves,
a dolphin swims in the underwater caves.

He will swim to find his girl,
and then finally they will make the water swirl.
They will travel within the sea,
and they will be free eternally.

They will also look to the skies,
and fly over the sea to forget the lies.
They will spiral within the bubble veil,
and forever tell their romantic tale.

Casey Jarrell

Yakusoku (Promise)

You know, right now, I'm watching you even if we're apart.
In my heart, there's an unending love for you.
Wipe away your tears and smile for me.
You are not alone.
To dream is to live.
Your sorrow gives you strength.

Let's walk this endless road.
Let's sing high above the sky.
My feelings will soon reach you.
Let's make a promise to keep moving forward.
Thank you for smiles.

Hey, if I close my eyes, I can see you smiling.
Your love for me is like a light tenderly shining.

I can hear your voice calling out to me.
I'll soon get to see you smiling at me.
Your pain will become courage someday.
I'll always have your loving memories.

Let's walk!
There's no turning back.
Let's sing with all of our friends.
Let our wishes reverberate.
Let's make a promise to fulfill our dreams.
Thank you for love.

Like our days in the past, we raise our hands towards the sky.
We'll keep chasing our dreams.
The future shall change.

Let's walk this endless road.
Let's sing high above the sky.
My feelings will soon reach you.
Let's make a promise to keep moving forward.
Wipe away the tears.

Let's walk on the chosen path.

Keep singing!
Let the prayers resonate.
Gently I vow, to fulfill my dreams.
To you and my companions,
I promise.

Casey Jarrell

Your Heart's Desire

When love is formed by the result of fire, it will reveal your heart's desire.

You can tell her when your heart will sing.
Your love can be sealed with a wedding ring.

This is a memory you will never miss,
the time you revealed true love first kiss.

If you have feelings that you want to reveal,
find her,
tell her,
and it will seal.

Casey Jarrell
