My Selfindulgence to blame For all the shame in the family you dont know what it's like how i feel how i cry how i hate the way i hate my life..

Do You..?

Do you ever think of how start Had you really plannend to break my heart Or did you only want sex because when i said 'no' You just said ' next '
Why didn't you give me some more time Because still want you to be mine the things you've said were so mean i gues are love was just a dream tO me you were really everything but tO you i was just nOthing and now i bake you 'please gO away' Or come back let me in and let me stay..

Suicide

im sitting on my bed feeling so sorry so sad.. what did i do to make myself cry no one knows that i want to die i look in the mirror but all i see is a girl crying wish to see herself dying..

You..

I dont know why im sitting here still thinking of you writing this thing about everything you do and all those terrible things you did I still love you it just wouldn't fit i've screamed i've got sloshed i've cut myself i've smoked pot i've cried You can say there's nothing i haven't tried Last week there was a guy he said he was falling in love with me but by every move of his lips i felt your touch and your kiss and it struggeld me full of fear and i ran away there was i in the middle of the night starting to pray i closed my eyes and it all doesn't seem so dark but when i opend them my world crumbels and falls apart it all feels like you just had plannend to break my heart i still remember all the things you have said i thought you love me but you lied to me instead if there's a truth behind you lies than let me know but if those worlds are real then i will say goodbye and then dont ever say your sorry because then i will say its just another damn story better late then never so please tell me
Do you want to come back now or stay away forever..? ! !
