Ever!

you ever think of some one who said they loved you but used you in the end.
ever had a feeling before hand that you could never say he was jus a friend.
ever loved some one so much that you gave them you first real kiss.
ever hated some one so much that when you think of them you couldn't help but miss.
ever felt some one so much that when ever they held you, you never wanted to let go.
ever mesmerized some one so much that you wanted to think of them mo'.
ever had some one use you for all the wrong reasons but u loved them for all the right.
ever had some one say they loved you by day but ever lose them by night!

I Dont Like The Fact

i dont like the fact that i think of you all day!
dont like the fact that the thought of you wont go away!
i dont like the fact that you use me for the wrong!
dont like the fact that you were a lie all along!
but i think about it now, and all i see is not being able to trust anyone, even me!
the way you appeared was different from the way you turned out!
you lied when you kissed me and said this was all you were about!
you lied when you said that you never planed on it turning out this way!
well i dont want to mess up your days!

Like I Cry For You

here i am tellin you today why i cant love cuz my heart has been taken away not by 1 but 2 men who played games took my heart and broke it. left me in shame left me in a world i no longer knew with the pieces of my heart i got back from you i try to smile knowing its i lie here i am alive when i truely wanna die!
no one knows how i feel cuz it still a mystery to my soul i hold on to you tighter cuz i cant let this go why have dreams when they never really come true why close my eyes n try waitin for you.
why should i cry for somethin i didnt do will you ever cry for me lik i cry for you

'Poof'

you wanted me in your life and 'poof' i was there.
then you wanted me to leave then 'poof' i disapeared!
i see that in our relationship
i was the fool.
you use me for certian things
kinda like a tool.
had me in tears every time
you said you were gone.
had me in love
for so long.
would've been perfect if it were all true.
but it wasn't cuz it envolved you! !

Sorrow Weeps

sorrow weeps as sorrow holds sorrow kills n wont let go.
seeing lies but all you see that everthing is as its suppose to be.
u turn your head, close your eye cover your ears, n try not to cry.
try not to blink cuz it will show all the tears you been tryin to hold.
jus for now play along
keep goin as if nothins wrong.
but til u see that its a lie get up n say good bye for now is when u finally realize that its yours n not any ones life

Story Of My Life

heres the story of my life!
all the wrongs and all the rights!
had no sisters only brothers!
we looked out for one another! !
me being the youngest i have to amit got in fights wen i was ten with nothin but boys that were my friends! !

by time i was 12 i moved away!
not that far but thats were my heart stayed!
lived in a place that was nice but not home! !
every night i felt more alone!
couple months later i met my bestfriend.
we made a promise we would be there til the end!
made it to 8th and it was boy was it fun! !
till i met a boy who i thought was the one! !
in one of my classes there he stood! !
not to classy but not to hood! !
sad to say, good freinds we came!
i had to except that he didnt feel the same! !
then one day i closed my eyes he walked outta my life with no goodbyes! !
this seems so sad but yet so true but read the rest in 'story of my life pt 2'

Tell Me What You See

stand in my place and tell me what you see when you look through my eyes all u see is misery!
now close them and listen to my heart
you can hear the brake as they fall apart!
dont tell me u know me
cuz its all jus a lie
dont tell me hello
when u really mean goodbye dont tell me you love me cuz i know it aint true its sad enough to know that i am still in love with you

Time Will Only Show

i look at him to find
an angel in his soul!
everytime i hug him
it gets harder to let go!
when he looks troubled,
im there to save his day!
i close my eyes and there he is in my dreams not fadin away!
ive seen him cry
that broke my heart to see!
hurt even more that the girl
he cried for wasnt me!
she broke his heart and
couldnt tell him why!
i was there to tell him that he was a wonderful guy!
he has seen me sad
but hasnt seen me cry!
he has been the to tell me that im strong and will get by!
i like him so much but he doesnt know
but does he like me?
time will only show!

Unfold

i may have told you i lik you so much and i still think of the last i felt your touch.
over and over i replay in my mind the day i lost you and the day i'll find not only you but me in my heart!
i try to keep it together when it all falls apart.
i try not to fall asleep knowing you'll be there holding me close and watching you care for not only me but for you and your soul in my dreams watching me and you unfold.
if my dreams are my future then my future is you.
lay down, close my eyes and sleep is all i care to do.

Used Again

i sit here wonderin why it was ever me i dont see how you cut me to see my heart bleed you knew my story bout my ex and what he did i cant wait to see your face when i tell you what you said i hate this moment where all i see is you me being your puppet and slowly being used you lie bout everything jus to make me feel that evrything we did seemed or felt real you seen i was an easy target cuz i get attached to quick you made your move n thought you were slick i found out what you said and i jus dont believe how i feel for it again and how u couldnt see she is my girl and she will tell me everything you say how you wanted to be wit her and how i was in the way cuz u kissed me first jus how you couldnt explain how you want her without your game lookin lame but i found out and yet you dont know how your night will be cuz i will show how much of a bi+ch i really can be when people like you mess with my heart or any part of me.
you messed up but i have to pay by livin with what u did to me every day
