Charlie May(1996)

Hi, I'm Charlie May, born in 5/5/1996

The poems that I uploaded are all my originals, I know they are not very good but as I'm writing poems in my spare time I thought I might as well them to see the advise and theedback I get ^^

Bright People, Dark Minds.

I think the brightest of people usually end up being the darkest.

..you know why?

Because they have further to fall.

After all even Satan used to be an Angel.

Charlie May

Close Yet Far Sun

Shining sun,

Up it comes,

See the light,

Yet so bright

but it is far,

Its only friend

a shooting star.

Charlie May

Every Moment

Time flows by,
Day after day,
Never stops,
Never stays,
All things good and bad,
Will disappear like that,
All moments big or small,
Now's the time to cherish them all,

Charlie May

Feel

Feel the sand beneath my feet, feel the wind against my cheek,
feel the sun touch my skin,
and feel my feeling's feeling for him.

Charlie May

Feeling Of Life

As I lay here on my bed,
I feel death near,
I feel it spread.
The hole inside my heart will see,
All the things it used to be.
Trembling so hard I can't lay in peace.
The word,
so far.
How can I not laugh,
when death is yet the future of my past.

Charlie May

I Chose Eternity

Once dead you are dusk,
Memories, passion and lust,
All gone in a blink of an eye,
Erased in time,

Like life would end,
It never does,
You are forever,
And forever is us.

Charlie May

I'M Not You

Night and day,
frightened I stay,
alone.

Might I say,
people aren't pray,
and I will be myself today.

Charlie May

Life Is A Dream

Life as you know it is a dream
Everything fake, no real esteem
A dream that's way to short,
Countless memories, countless wars.
At the end everythings gone
But think of this,
Once dead in a dream you wake up once more,
In a life of beauty, love ones and more

Charlie May

Moon Of Red

Moon of red,
Once a year,
Blood is shed; a tear
Scary but im not scared,
How can i be,
When im dead

Charlie May

Nightmare

As I woke up I realised I was dreaming,
As I stood up I realised I was screaming.

Charlie May

On The Over Side

Glass walls seperate us all
One can see pain of another
But never experience it

Where someone's elses heart lies we will never know
You can never understand completly one's soul

My heart is yours, it breaks, I cry
Forever i will love initil i die

Charlie May

Pain Will Save Me If It Saves You

Freezing are my bones, they may snap against my will,
all these lingering thoughts keeping me from the thrill, Death is what is far compare to the love that is near,
all my tears are not wasted fears, saving me is saving you and that is what's dear.

Charlie May

Rain Drops

Water shivers,
Plants grow,
All that figures,
As water flows.

Charlie May

Reach Out

Infinite sky,
Where the clouds so high,
Like I could ever reach them,
Rainbows nice chilling bow ice,
Like I could ever beat them.
Infinite sky,
Where I could be so high,
I will surly reach them.

Charlie May

Rumor

There's music in my head,
Theres' music in my mind,
It makes life much more kind,
The space is crowding around,
It makes me want to drowned,
away,

It's hard for me to breathe,
With everyone up my sleeve,
Can't you see the truth,

If you think thats me,
Then you must not be,
Who i thought was you...

Charlie May

Sin Soul

Demons sleep,
I'm the pray,
Who will stay?

Madness lies under the skin,
Should I let it win?

Cracked open,
Soul gone,
Was I the one who went wrong?

Fire ablaze,
a new craze,
Will this be my ultimate faze?

Charlie May

Suppressed Myself

Trapped emotions,
Falling Skies,
All the things that make me cry,
Dirtied one,
Broken soul,
All the pain that takes its toll.

Charlie May

Waiting Alone

Under the blood red moon on a chilly night waiting for you who is yet to change my life.

Charlie May

Waiting For....

My life
everything i hated
my life
everything just wasted
when is it the time it will never come waiting here for something that just begun

Charlie May

Waiting Under The Moon

As I stand here in the cold under the blood red moon waiting for you who is yet to change my life.

Charlie May

Zero Regret

A heart full of regrets is a heart full of sorrow,
The only way to live is to live for tomorrow.
