Christina Torres(9/29/95)

My name is Christina. I love animals and I sometimes like to right poetry.

Always There

You are always there for me and probably always will be whenever I am down you pick me up your smile is so pleasant your wink is so special you scare me when you raise your voice
I love it when you talk I can't tell you how great you are cause words just don't explain it.

Nameless

He flies all around full of color
With his wings all around
He has a lot of ground to cover With Tepui chasing him, he gets it done faster.

He is beautiful, like spring flowers
That thrive from April showers,
He goes from flower to flower Drinking all the sweet juices.
Tepui chasing him is a nuisance.

The nameless butterfly.
So beautiful and sweet,
is very colorful and neat.
Isn't life wonderful for the Nameless colorful butterfly.

So Special

You are special and probably always will be Your voice is special Your hair is special

When you talk your voice
Just makes me feel special It's like when you asked Jazy
And I to help you that was special

It's like God sent you down here
To make Jazy and I feel special That is why Jazy and I are Proud to call you special

The One

You are the one to make me laugh
You are the one to make me joyful

You are not the one to make me mad
You are not the one to make me sad

When I'm sad you are the one To cheer me up

You are the one

You will always be the one
