Curtis Brown(march 8)

the poems i write is the way i feel or the way i felt before. my poems are things that happen to me or things i feel doing that please read them and comment on them please and thank you.

Always Me

I fight for my right
To live my life
You can judge me
But best believe
It's not going to change me
Not as long as I
Keep believing in me

Curtis Brown

Cheat

The clock is high
The sun is bright
The moon is ticking
The birds are singing
The women are weeping
Because their men are cheating

Curtis Brown

Easy

Its easy to say I love you
But hard to really prove it
Easy to say sorry
But had to really show it
Its easy to say a lot of things
But hard to really mean them.

Curtis Brown

Forbidden World

As the sun rise
My heart Settle
Start beating slow
As if time its self is slowing down
Feeling the breeze of the wind
Smelling the flowers in the field
Feeling one with nature
Feeling lost In happiness
But with tears in yo eyes
Because you know the truth
This peaceful world
Is forbidden to you
That its a forbidden world
Were only the righteous go to

Curtis Brown

Help! !

</>I'm lost in my mixed emotion
Not knowing what to do
Trying to figure out
If I should be with you
It feel like you don't wont me to
If so
Then let me know
And I'll let you go
I'm trying to understand
But it's hard for me to
Because the words that you are saying
Is ripping me in two
I know you been through a lot
And you still going through it
But I'm here baby
To get you through it
I will listen
I will try and understand
I will help as much as I can
Let me help that broken heart
Because truthfully
I might not know what love is
But with you I know I can find out

Curtis Brown

Imprisonment

As I go through life wondering why
There's so much pain in my heart
So much suffering in my life
So much hate in my soul
Feel trap in a body that don't feel like mine
Can't be honest with nobody
Because who would understand
My suffering
Who would understand
My pain
Who would understand
My heartache
My worthlessness
Keeping a smile on my face
So them tough questions don't get ask
Consumed by darkness I am
Lost in my mind I am
Understand happiness I don't
This is nothing but an empty shell
My own personal hell.

Curtis Brown

Me And You

I love the way you smile
I love your dimples
When I look into your eyes
Everything feel so simple
With you in my arms
It feels like nothing is wrong
My past might catch up
But with you
I know I can not mess up
Ride or die
Smoke and fly
Kiss or shew
It don't matter boo
Because it just me and you

Curtis Brown

Missing You

I miss your kisses
I miss the warmth of your body
I miss the feeling i get
When I look into your eyes
I miss the way you feel in my arms
The smile you put on my face
Every day
I miss the beat of your heart on my chest
I miss you baby
You is my heart not was Without you
I can not live

Curtis Brown

Never The End

People come and go
But they love will stay
As there body's is gone
There sprites shale remind
They will be with us
In our memories
In our hearts
In our love for each other
For all those that taken away
The end is not the end
Its only the start
Of a new beginning.

Curtis Brown

No Time

Much on my mind
Don't got the time
Life is too short
Live my life to the fullest
No regrets
Can't tell the future
Learn from the past
Live in the present
Never let your heart
Shatter like glass

Curtis Brown

Only One

When I see you my heart stop
Your smile is what brightens up my day
When you walk into the room
I see no one else
Your eyes shine like a diamond in the sun
I do believe you are the one
That will change me for the better.

Curtis Brown

Pain Behind A Fake Smile

The poems I write
I don't write to impress
I write to relive stress
To remove pain from a frown hidden by a fake smile
In hopes of a day too truly smile
Fear that the day will never come
Because the pain is so strong
I'm lost in this darkest that I feel so alone
My body is here but my mind is gone
Never can comprehend way I act so thug
I guess all I want is to be loved again
Now you know the pain behind my fake smile.

Curtis Brown

Power Of Love

Love is not a game
Love is a battlefield
Love is not a TV show
Love is the way a person feels
Love never dies
That's the way I feel
Don't be scared to show how you feel
Love is the way
Love is the power
Never give up
On the power of love

Curtis Brown

Pray

As i sit here
Praying to the havens
That you never loss that smile
That you never loss that gorgeous laugh
That your heart never brakes
That your love never fades away

Curtis Brown

R.I.P

Writing this is hard for me
Because writing this Means that your gone from me
And your never coming back
You was my best friend
You was my ride or die
You was my brother
Even if we didn't come from the same mother
I loved you with all my heart
I would have died for you
I would have took a bullet for you
You was always there for me
Now that your gone
I feel like no one cares for me
I feel lost in darkness
But i know your watching me guiding me as i go
I love you bro
I would never for get Rest, In, Peace

Curtis Brown

Remember Me

As I pass
Remember me as I was
Not as I am
That funny guy you talked to
The one that you cried too
The one that was always there
Though the dark and good times
Though snow and rain
Though hell or fire
The one you told your secrets too
The one that told you the truth
Remember me as I was
Not as I am
Keeps the laughs we shared
The smiles we had
As the last present from me.
Remember me as I was
The one that you loved.

Curtis Brown

Shattered Heart

The loved we shared
Will never be found
The pain you cause
I would never go through again
The heartache you left me with Shell never heal
I couldn't believe that this pain was real
This was a pain I never wanted to feel
A pain so deep
A pain so severe
That my mind doesn't know its here
You gave me my most worsts fear.
That you would not be here

Curtis Brown

Someone

Who would have known
Someone like me
Would meet someone like you
Someone as beautiful
Someone as smart
Someone that fills my heart
With love & laughter
Someone so kind & sweet
Someone like you
That I was blessed by God to meet

Curtis Brown

The One

</>I'm happy when I'm with you
I'm happy when I'm around you
Without you I can not breathe
When I'm in your arms I feel so weak
When I look into your eyes
I feel myself falling to my knees
You have me baby
So don't let go
I love you baby
With all my soul

Curtis Brown

Time Of Love

People say love will never happen
People say love is fake
People say love is made up
I say love is time
Time never ends
Time comes and goes like the wind
I say never give up
Love will all ways fine its way back again
