Cynthia Gomez(2-22-94)

i am 17 i write mostly about love or pain. when i write the poems i write im not always thinking when i write them so they may not make sence.

A Christmas Wish

may the winter be joyful and your hearts warm
while your children play with the snowman they made.

may you have a great christmas
while your children open their gifts that were on their great wish list.

may you have a wonderful time
when your family arrives with hugs, kisses, and greetings..
To think this was you wish, to have a..
Merry Christmas!

Cynthia Gomez

A Friend

someone that you always see someone that cares someone you go to in time of need someone whos always there someone who cries with you someone who holds you someone who will be by your side someone who wont let you be alone

someone who listens someone who dont judge someone who helps you glissen someone who wont let you lunge off a bridge.

Cynthia Gomez

A Game...A Lie

why did i fall for you why did i care
why did i cry because now the pain i cannot bare

you wrapped me with your warmth
you said you loved me
but it must have all been a game to you because you threw my heart into the flame

you held me close and said you wouldn't let me go it was all a lie
because you said 'Bye'

now what do you want?
your memory..
all it does is haunts and taunts,
my dreams...

Cynthia Gomez

Afraid

Afraid to lose
What we once had Afraid to give in
To someone so bad

Why must I fall for you?
Again and again
Why must I love you?
When I will never win

My heart stops cold
My body trembles
By a single touch
But its never enough

I crumble at your feet
But this feeling...
I cannot defeat.

Alone (Part 4 Of 4)

I'm alone in this cold burning world.
To defend myself against all evil.
To slay the demons. (boys)
to burn the witches. (girls)

I stand alone in the night when I feel free
when I can finally breath and see such a beautiful sight.

I got used to being alone
now I prefer it above all else people turned on me
they hurt me

I will rise against them in the end
I am not scared, I am no coward
I am strong & fear less so let them try to hurt me again, and watch them fail.

on the 4th line no offence to witches. i love of my best friends are wickens. i just couldnt use the other word.

Cynthia Gomez

Amazing

You have the lips of an angel.
And eyes like the sea.
Your hair used to dangle.
A better sight could not be.

With hands as gentle as a rose.
And a scent that is irresistible.
I got to say, no one knows,
that to bear it, I am not able.

If you were to kiss me.
The memory I would keep.
If you were to put me in harms way.
I would grow wings and fly away.

I gave you my heart.
My freedom, my body and of it every part.
With my heart, i trust you.
Hurt it and who knows what i'll do....

Amber

a fired spirit
a loving heart
a bad day she can cure
by simply taking away your fears maybe by wiping your tears.

she is like fire and ice
one time steaming
other time nice
but she is always by your side

she helps me through hard times
she makes everyone smile
even if she will criticize i know i said the mushy parts
but to me
shes a sister in heart

Cynthia Gomez

Because I Fell In Love

Why am I this way?
Why am I so ashamed?
Why do you egg me on?
When you know it's wrong.

I can't push you away
Because it would cause me great pain
Trying to stop my feelings for you
Is like trying to stop the rain.

If you didn't care like you do
I could maybe stay away from you
But then that would be of no use
Because I can't stay away from you All because I fell in love with you

Cynthia Gomez

Because You Live

Because you live I am alive.
Because you live I will always be in pain.
Because you live I will always cry.
Because you live I will always worry.

I sit here ripping inside.
because I cannot hide
from the life
I cannot push aside.

Im your angel.
and I broke thy only law.
I fell in love.

Now im doomed to watch you live while I protect the.
Never to touch, never to be seen.

Cynthia Gomez

Blood And Darkness (Part 1 Of 4)

You cut my heart with a razor.
And watched me bleed.
Enjoying me go through pain and agony.
Oh you love it when you win.

You dragged me into the darkness.
Where i see no light
Only feel pain and my falling tears.
Only hear screaming then to find out its mine.

It was a curse i put on myself,
To love you and feel your warmth,
To feel your strong hands.
To see your beautiful eyes.

I was stupid to ignore,
The simplest changes.
The way you looked at girls,
The way you used to look at me.

You hurt me over and over again and again, but i cant turn away.
Im addicted to you,
With everything you do.

You brought me pain and darkness,
As well as love and light,
Now its only darkness and misery.
As im chained to how you treat me.

Cynthia Gomez

Cheated

I'm confused.
I don't understand.
You said you wanted me.
You said "If I lost you I wouldn't know what to do."
You said you loved me.
But you cheated on me
Why?
We were perfect..
No lies no fights.
A game of who loved who more.
We made each other happy.
We were different when we were together.
I tried to give and be your everything.
I tried my hardest for you.
But you cheated on me.
Why?
Was it me?
Did I not do enough?
Was I not enough for you?
I never lied to you.
All I ever did was love you.
But you cheated on me.
Why?
You still say you love me.
You still say you want me.
You still say you would be lost without me.
But do you really mean what you say.
How can I trust you now days.
I may be mad and confused.
But I still know I love you.
And because of that,
I don't know what to do.

Cynthia Gomez

Choosing

Its so confusing,
Choosing between him and you.
Where do i begin,
Cause i dont what to do.

You entered my life.
When he left my sight.
You made me glad.
When i became sad.

You wouldnt let me frown.
Cause you would act like a clown.
No matter what you do.
I couldnt turn my back to you.

But he has been in my life for a while.
And he too made me smile.
He stoped me when i started to cry.
He held me when i wanted to die.

He makes my life easier to stand.
Just by holding my hand.
I love him being by my side.
Without him i dont think i could survive.

Instead of you, i choose him.
Cause without him, my world would crumble and end.

Cynthia Gomez

Cold (Part 3 Of 4)

i used to be nice and kind i used to be cute and fun
i used to have friends
i used to have men at my feet.

when she died
it all went dead
i changed
i turned as cold as ice.

im afraid of what i can do.
so i write and write to keep calm i cant talk about how i feel only to him i can

Cynthia Gomez

Drugs

Drugs are bad
They make people sad
They kill brain cells
And will put you in jail

People think they are cool
But you will end up in soil
So don't do them
Or you might not see life again

Cynthia Gomez

Forever Bound

Tears are falling Mine they are Thinking of making a new scar

I wanna die
I wanna say "world goodbye";
I wanna jump off a bridge just so high
Like I tried to do last time

Blood is streaming,
As I am screaming.
My dream is unbelieving
As my body is losing feeling

As I am turning cold
But feeling like burning coal.
Wishing I could just go
When I see him show

The way he looks when he cries
When he knows I wanna die
But he refuses to let me die
No matter how many times I try

Let me leave I only say as a plea Can't you see?
Together we can no longer be

As darkness surrounds
I can only hear his voice and its sound
And his wings coming unbound
Again he whispers when he bends down
"Did you forget we're forever bound";

Cynthia Gomez

Good Vs. Bad

your an angel
im just a mundane
your a piece of gods work
while im just plaine

you keep me tame
but without you i go insane
why was it to me you came why am i so amshamed

your flawless skin
my never ending sins
your spring blue eyes
my heart full of lies

why is it i who you choose im just bad news
i want you so much i do
but i shouldnt keep you..

Cynthia Gomez

Heat

our burning desire is like blazing fire
as our bodys entwine everything slips from mind

hot pressed kiss
with unknown bliss
with a moan of pleasure
wishing this couyld go on forever

with wandering hands knees become weak, cannot stand
as heat washes over me..
dang your just a tease

Cynthia Gomez

Hero

My super hero,
my only love.
saved me from myself.
from drowning in the misery.

Brought me to light.
everyday helping me fight.
holding me up
making me face the world.

Only now it seems that youve turned your back leaving me lost once again.
lost in the never ending cold darkness.

Or am i wrong.
are you there, are you just hidden.
are you trying to help me in some way
...im so confused....

Prove to me that you are here.
that im not alone on this.
show me that your still trying..
i cant do this alone..

Cynthia Gomez

Hurt And Dieing

i feel like im not here.
i feel like im dead.
i feel tears,
dropping from my head.

lies causes pain,
love causes you to go insane,
rasors bring a sweet release,
and a life to keep.

Cynthia Gomez

I Need Not

I need not love you for you will break my heart
with every thing you do
it will turn tart

I need not touch
if i do, i want to kiss
it will be rough for i cannot resist

I need not see your handsome face
for your eyes are like the sea
as my heart cannot keep pace
I will be me
but with you i will not.

I Once Loved You

I once loved you,
With everything I had.
Untill you,
turned around and stabbed my back.

We once were great friends.
And trusted each other.
But that time has passed.
Now my heart I must cover.

You knew I loved you,
And would do anything for you.
So you played me right.
Fooled and uded me, then got out of sight

You lied to me the last time.
You will hurt me no longer.
You made me cry till I could see,
That for you i will no longer bleed.

I loved you once.
But no longer will i suffer,
From the pain you have brought me.

I love someone else now.
And he has mended my heart.
Except a missing peice that you took when,
You broke it apart.

I loved you once.
And never again will I.

Cynthia Gomez

I'M Just Me

im a fighter
im a writer
im a dancer
but never a prancer

im a lover
and i love my covers im not a faker
and never a hater

im someone to love
someone to trust
im always a suprise
but i dont lie

i love my books
sweets are what i cook.
music is what i listen to especially the kind that goes'boo' im not a wanna be Im Just ME

Cynthia Gomez

In Sync

just so far away
but only very near.
i feel you.
your heart beating in me

your warmth rolling off my silken skin your blood pulsing through my violet veins
as seeing through your beautiful hazel eyes.
my warm tears streams as your own.

we are more than just together
we are no less than in love.
it has been proven, we belong together against all odds we stay standing.

Cynthia Gomez

It's So True

It's so true
That i love you
I also know too
That i need you

It's so true
That i want to kiss you as you know too
That i want to be with you

It's so true
That i want to touch you
Even when im blue
I can say i love you

It's so true
I can't stop thinking of you
Your in my mind all through Every thought i have is of you

Like A Flower

I'm like a flower in the desert on a summer day.
Sitting in silence and withering away.
Running out of tears while burning in the flame.
Nothing again will ever be the same.
I took in your warmth and you took my life.
Why didn't you just stab me with a knife?
I can no longer wait for a reassuring night/knight.
So you win this fight.

Cynthia Gomez

Longing...

Im Longing for your kiss,
And the way it brings me sweet bliss.
Im longing for your warm imbrace.
And your smile on such a wonderful face.

Im longing for your sexy evil stare.
And the way you just don't care.
Longing to look into you deep eyes,
To see the things you cannot hide.

Longing to see, to me, what you would do,
Because baby, it's all up to you.
Longing for your warmth.
It's pure joy as, to me, it swarms

Longing for things like they used to be.
when nothing kept us apart and it was just you and me.

Cynthia Gomez

Love Is..Pain? Or Wonderful?

Some say love is painful
Some say its wonderful
Some say it doesnt exist
But for me
When it starts its wonderful
When it ends it becomes painful
But when im away from that person
If i dont miss them
Miss the way they speak to me
How they speak to others
Miss the way they look
Miss the way they make me laugh
How i miss their smile
Miss the fun
If i dont miss this and
If i dont miss the warm fuzzy feeling when im with them
Miss the butterflies in my tummy when i see them.
Then i start to find out that I never loved them, so if i never loved them,
Then there is no way love exist

Cynthia Gomez

Love Never Ends

Day and Night,
To keep you I would fight.
Winter and Fall,
Your always there when i call.

When i'm sad,
You brighten my day by being glad.
When im feeling alone,
You call me on the telephone.

When life brings me down,
Your always around.
By being there,
You show me you care.

Everyday i think of you,
Hope its the same for you too.
I love you with all my heart,
So please dont tear it apart.

I hope our feelings dont fade,
And oue love to stay the same.
I hope our love never ends,
Or the unraveling will begin.

Me With You

I have been around a while.
And being with you makes me smile
like im koo-koo.

Everytime im with you
i have butterflies.
And when i kiss you
i try not to cry

i try not to cry
because you have gentle lips.
And it's hard for me to say goodbye
So i just zip it!

You always knew i wanted you
To be in your arms
and to keep you from harm.

Miss Judged

I think your mine.
I think you love me.
But in my mind,
it is the only place I can see.

You hide things from me.
And i don't know why.
I just want to see,
the reason why.

I think you want others,
from the way you act.
But I choose not to bother,
that fact.

I think these things,
cause you won't tell me.
And it brins meto tears,
that you may not trust me

Mistakingly In Love

what is it about you,
that makes me feel this way?
what makes you so special,
that makes me feel like living everyday?

we have been together for only a short while.
didn't think you would effect me this way.
you swim through my mind like a fish in the Nile.
every time i see you, i cant help but smile.

is it the way you hold me close?
or is it the way your kiss somtimes lingers on my lips?
maybe its the way you intwine your fingers with mine?
or is it because you wont leave my side?

i have no clue if you feel the same.
but i have to say i think i am..
Mistakingly in Love

My Angel

You're the one I love
You're the one I cannot shove
You're the one that's there for me
You're the one that I will always believe

You saved me from my death
You are the one who took my breath
You are beautiful to no extent
You're an angel decent

You took me on a midnight flight
So these tears and fears I would not have to fight
You spread your gorgeous black wings
And wrapped your arms around me to remove the sting.

How did I come to have you?
In a world that was so blue
You're my angel today and everyday.
Always there to save the day.

My Dark Angel

At times when I see you
My blood runs cold
My heart beats faster
Like I've fallen in a hole

I would like to know
How you do it.
It's you I despise
And yet I still want you.

Those hard coal eyes
And that death pale skin
The way you look at me when you pass by.
I know what you are...
You're a sin.

I feel myself leaning toward you Against my own will
I know I shouldn't
But for you I would make a blood deal.

I can't run from you
You're in my dreams
I can't wake up
I don't think I want to.

Behind closed eyes
In a dark field
When danger arrives
You and your wings become my shield.

At every night
It ends with this
An everlasting, tight
Enveloping kiss

When I wake at midnight
My eyes open to find yours
Then to take in the beautiful sight

As your black velvet wings unfurl.

and for eachother we were there but not ever since that day

One Of A Kind

My heart is special, Just like you my heart is kind, beacuase your on my mind
And to hurt you I would never, if so I would be blue my love can be blind, but can not be pushed aside

There is only one of me, and thats all there will ever be Im not afraid, doubt thats going to change
Mess me over, boy you gonna wish you never knew me
Im not your maid, thats not going away

Im one of a kind, thats just fine
My love is rare, dont be scared may be out of my mind, but I sure do shine
Im fair, and I dont care
I dont make sence, and I like to jump fence
Im out of my mind, and thats just fine.

Only A Crack

what can i say
that i havent said before
what can i say
that wont make my eyes pour

you were my everything you were all i could think yet you stoped caring in only an eye blink

i trusted you with all i had and yet you turned your back why did you lie
you only made my heart crack
so go ahead and go back to living a life full of crap

Cynthia Gomez

Please Dont Go Away

Please don't go away.
Ill love you everyday.
Please don't go away.
I beg you please stay.

I'm nothing without you by my side.
I bleed when I'm without you.
Without you I would sit here and cry.
So please don't say goodbye.

I gave you my heart long ago.
Now you're saying you gotta go.
What did I do wrong?
Did I not play the right song?

Why are you leaving me
Can you not see?
I'm in love with thee.
Without you I could not be me.

Cynthia Gomez

Protect Our World

what has she become?
what have we done?
she used to be beautiful and we made her cruel.
more natural disasters..
like blazing flames,
massive floods,
killer quakes.
why dont we stop
why dont we listen
to people like the nature hippies
we can help instead of harm
you wont lose your arm its just so simple plant a tree, help her please!
just open your eyes and see.
she used to be beautiful blue skies pretty green leaves
massive rivers and streams.
now the polar bears die
and the tigers..they are not free nothing is like it should be.
we can make it better.
please help me
Protect our World

Cynthia Gomez

Reasons I Love You

The reasons I love you is because you always smile.
Because you always make me laugh.
Because the way you wrap your strong arms around me.
Because the way you love me. Because without it I wouldn't make it
I love you because you always care for me
Because you will always protect me
Because you don't care what people think. Which I think is funny.
I also love you because you're taller than me.
I love you for the way you turn me on.
I love you because you look cute with your little dimples
Because of the way you hold my hands with your strong ones
The way your always happy witch makes me happy
I love the way you look at me with your sexy evil grin.
I love you for being honest
I love the way you kiss me, how you can be gentle then rough.
The way you touch me softly.
I love you because you can be rough.
I love you because you're my everything
Most of all
I love the way you control me
& even more I love you for you and the way I am when I'm with you.

Cynthia Gomez

S.B.W

Something must be wrong with me.
I shouldnt want to be with you.
After all i did, you could never see
How much you really meant to me.

What did you do
To leave a mark on my heart?
When you said 'Goodbye'
Why did I fall apart?

I have someone new.
But that dont change the fact,
That i still want you...
Just want you back...

Saved

My super hero,
my only love.
saved me from myself.
from drowning in the misery.

Brought me to light.

lost in the never ending cold darkness.

Scream

I turn up the volume.
I slit my wrist.
I just might go to the asylem,
if i cannot outwit.

You did this to me.
You made me hurt.
Just wait, you'll see,
what you did from the start.

You said you loved me.
But you lied.
How could I not see,
what was in plain sight?

You can't hear my bloody screaming.
You can't fix me like your car.
The real me you cannot see.
You will see the scares you made on me

Cynthia Gomez

Stuck Between Two

Stuck between two.
Don't know which to choose.
It's so painful.
I don't have a clue of what to do.

One is shy.
The other is so fly.
One likes to hold and hug.
The other knows everything I love.

One lets me be free.
The other is protective over me.
One likes to cuddle.
The other makes me melt into a puddle.

That B

do i hold you heart or even a part or is it she
that b

i thought it was me you wanted to keep i thought it was me that made your heart beat but it was she
that b

when you cried
it was me by your side not she

The Three Worlds

There are three worlds.
One of light and love.
One of dark and pain.
And one in between.
In the one of light,
Every one is nice to each other,
Every one is gentle,
Everyone cares,
Everyone is thin, pretty, and has wonderful hair.
In the one of between,
No one is what they seem,
Love is what causes pain,
It makes people never the same.
People get made of for being fat, and it kills them inside.
People who do that are often from the world of light.
In the dark world,
Everyone is on their own,
They dont care what happens most of the time.
They are the ones who were mistreated,
They are the ones who were hurt and not loved,
They were the ones who people thought were ugly when they were beautiful.
They hate themselves cause they think their not good. but thy are wonderful.
They used to care, they used to love.

Which world would you want to be in?

The light world where everyone is pretty, mean, snobby, and cruel
The between world where you get picked on if your not perfect.
Where you have to fight to live.
Where you get fooled with love.
Or the dark world where you are cold inside with pain,
Where you dont feel love oir hurt anymore,
Where you dont have to care,
Where no one can judge you
Where no one cares and you are yourself
I pick the dark world. Im already in it

NOW YOU PICK! !

Thinking In The Cold

whispering in the moonlight telling myself everything is all right tears streaming with fear
every thing becomes unclear.

where did it all go wrong
where do i belong
where do i go im all alone

cool wind stinging
weeping willow singing
fresh earth below my feet body so cold, no heat.

To Dream

To dream of beautiful blue skies.
To dream that no one dares to lie.
To dream of no fear,
And no falling tears.
To dream of no pain,
And to be come once again sane.
To dream of being where every thing is wonderful.
Where everyone thinks you beautiful.
To dream of never being alone.
To dream of going to a place called home.

But to think its only a dream.....

Trapped

I'm a little butterfly
Stuck in his sticky web
Drawn only to him
Much like a moth is to a flame

I try to break free
It is of no use
No will to over power
Will I ever be released?

I can't pull away
I can't hide
This feeling I can't fake
It's me he always finds

I can't do anything
He's got me wrapped
I'm nothing...
But trapped

Tricked Part 1

He cast me from heaven
for i would not obey
the simplest task
to stay away

i put you in danger
by staying by your side
now i must stay bidden to empty shadows and to keep out of your sight

its torment for me
to see you be in pain
but i cannot do anything or the Arc angels would throw me in the flames

as they touch her my rage boils
i won't let them do this
My love, they won't mend and toil

'you may burn me to ash
but before you can their throats i will slash'

Tricked Part 2

"You will die here tonight
So don't even fight
You hurt my love
So I'm setting it right."

They run they scream.
They wish it was all just a dream.
The pain the suffering,
"Kill me now" they plea.

Covered in blood he runs to find her.
Instead of her,
He finds him.
The one that cast him,
Because of only his sin.

"You disobeyed once again
For it you must pay the price.
I will cause you great pain,
No longer being nice."

"You may not have her.
She will not live.
She will be with me.
My word I will give."

"I did the sin!
Let me pay!
On earth,
Let her stay! "

"If I let her,
No love will be shown.
She will be desolate and alone.
Only you to protect her."

"I'll take it, but what of my sin."
"Oh yes the sin once again.
It you will pay for,

By becoming a mortal.

"You have it your way.
So take her and Go away."

Trouble

Trouble here
Trouble there
Trouble follows me
Everywhere

Naughty or nice
It's me
It finds

I never lean
To stay away
Even if it causes me
Great pain

Intrigues me it does
No matter where it comes from
I tend to stay by him
When he lives on a whim

Now here comes the grand finale
Time to see if in the end
If I'm still alive

True Monster (Part 2 Of 4)

I feel like this every night like its you
whos the monster to me.
but when i wake up.

i know its me
im the one causing pain
im the one beaking hearts.
im the one whos hurting myself.

i hurt my friends
to see their pain,
to see their dreams fade,
with me everyday

i cant stop
i always want more
i want people to feel the pain i went through i want them to realize what they have

they have everything, and thinks its nothing,
they have friends, & real parents.
they have a mother who cares
and they think she dont.
they will soon find out what it means to feel pain beond bearable
they will feel how i feel being torn apart to try to keep what they got.

Vampire

I'm gonna take you on a ride.
I'll make you wanna scream.
So don't close your eyes,
or i'll appear in your darkest dreams.

I'll take you down.
To the ground.
To the dark.
To let you start.

When you awake,
Night it will be.
You will have strength,
through the dark you will see.

Wait And Chase

When you left me,
I locked my heart.
So I don't bleed,
So I don't fall apart.

Some friends wonder,
Why I don't speak.
This is because i'm wondering,
in my head seeking for you.

I try to be calm and wait,
for you to come back.
But for now your the bait, cause im trying to get you, but i can't have that

Wanted Love

My heart need you.
My eyes can't see you.
As much as I bleed for you,
I can't be with you.

It never stops, theres always more.
When I think of you saying goodbye,
my eyes start to pour.
To think why dont i die.

I know I have to go on.
When your not here.
Even though your gone,
Your memory will always be here.

Through the cold nights.
It may be rough.
It may or may not be right.
I will always want your love.

Why Me

one day perfect
next day ruined
one day fabulous
next day a burning ruin

why does this happen to me.
when there are a million human beings
let the rain come
let the rain wash away my pain

let me drip
my shining rubys
let me be alone
and turn cold as stone.

Cynthia Gomez

Why?

Why must i love you.
Why must i care.
Why must i cry for you,
when you are no longer here.

Why did you lie to me.
Why did you break my heart,
when you never loved me,
from the start.

Why must i feel like this,
When i know i was played.
Why after what you did,
Why do i still wish you stayed.

Wrong

a heart
as it rips a knife
as it cuts.
tears
as they drip blood
as it plops

thorns
as they tear
when the hurt i can not bear.
why did i give in
why did i let him win.
i was such a supid girl
who thought love was the world but i was wrong
cause the blue bird stoped its love song.

You Complete Me

Your my only lover.
Without you I would run for cover.
You complete my heart.
Without you it would turn tart.

You put a curse on me.
So now your all i see.
You make me happy,
so its hard for me to be snappy.

Every minite i want to be with you.
Now when i want you, you text me just on que.
You make me laugh no matter what mood im in.
If i were to lose you, i wouldnt find love again.

You complete my world.
Before you, i was on a tilt-a-wirl.
All i want to do is hold you in my arms,
and to keep you from harm.
