Bent

You have to accept the fact
About something strange on your spine
Since 7 you was given a gift
One that you couldn't see
But could feel it Lived 10 years old
Between the fragility and strength
That killer back pain
That cry-ing
That you know you couldn't be tall like anyone else then you realized it wasn't straight the X-Rays would show this curved this deformed your perfection aren't normal ruined your life
10 years and still counting Getting worse and worse
And the worst part is No one cares.

Drowning

Nobody saw her, the tormented woman Fighting against its hold in the middle of the ocean
"Oh help me, save me"
Nobody heard, the tormented woman
Can no longer breathe
With tears gasping,
On her tired eyes
With the blue pulling her in deeper Suffocated her breath
Until her heart stopped beating
In the ocean of life

I Fell In Love But

I fell in love when you asked my number then you sent me flirty text to keep me attached to my mobile phone waiting for the sound of your custom chime tone.

I fell in love when the first time i heard the sweet sound of your voice on the phone and you said i don't want to forget how your beautiful voice sounds.

I fell in love when you asked me to go to my favorite Coffee shop down the street, the way you order my favorite coffee and the bread even i don't tell you.

I fell in love with our morning conversations that was exhaled through caffeine breaths and interrupted by coffee stains.

And i fell in love when you sang my favorite song with the guitar in front of people in the coffee shop and reading the love notes you had written to me,

I realized,
i am in love with the power of your words and the feel of your existence.

But i am not in love with you.

In The Quite Calm Of Night

In the quite calm of night
With only a wind chimes
I standing alone, beneath the moon
With a blue shine

In the quite calm of night
The past memories sneak out Of my eyes
And roll down, on my cheeks

In the quite calm of night
The blue light fades away
The pale comes out Too fast, truly fast

In the quite calm of night
I grasp something
That the blue moon
It's truly like our moments
Then becomes a memory

Ocean's Stories

My ear craves to hear this
The ocean's stories
When the bird sang
Your name and the wind Whispering your secret
That made me fall into a sadness Broke me into pieces because every word you said
"i love you"
Was a lie.

Rain

I'm the rain
Always come
With grains of water
And cold stab

I'm the rain
Who had vent out the anger
With a rumble
And the flashes were snatched

I'm the rain
Who you always avoided
And shelter in Enormous secure box

I'm the rain
Who you always ignored
Because you would prefer
The fire that will warm you

But, you never know How much sacrifice the rain
Which always

And will always come back
Even though i know
The pain after falling Over and over again

Rise

It's harder to do than to simply say
When you want to succeed all you going through the process
It all started when i was sitting on a wooden chair Looking at the white board full of black marks Paying attention when the teacher is teaches Took the exam that you don't like
And made you afraid of failure
Rise
And fall
Rise
And fall
As there was no satisfaction to live
Too many failures have involved
And you didn't know that It led you to success
It's harder to do than to simply say Nothing is instant
The gift is in the process
All the satisfaction you wanna be There are many stages in it Feel tired from all nighters Study full time and still working Remember? nothing is as important As you are;
Take care of your self.
Failed on test?
It's okay to be not understand about something It's okay to get bad grades
Don't be afraid to fail Life isn't all about good things only You are so brave, you are Brave to learn and work hard Brilliant to manage your time
Wake up in the morning
And get it all done
I admire it
I bet that all of you are good because either way, Either way to achieve your dreams
For family, yourself and world

And make it real

Rock, Paper, Scissor

Have you ever been cheated on?
Have you?
Me, for the example
Why? Don't ask me how stupid i am
I'm like a paper
Clean white paper but fragile
By the sharp scissor
Oh scissor, why?
Our wonderful hopes
Just a dream
Never exist, never real Blinded by you
Stupid, yes i am
Then, now you're with a rock
Live a love story
On top of my suffering
I smile when i see it
Yes, even laughing happy
Why?
Because now you're like me
Fragile, stupid, even helpless
By the hard rock
