Braking Up

we all know brake ups is hard we know it is coming we need to understand that life is short and that we need to go on do not go with some mean or nasty or that treats you bad go with someone you can spend your life with

Broken Heart

I will never forget the days we once had The days when you were everything to me
My mind used to tell me we'd be together forever
But now I realize that was all a big dream
The feelings I have for you will never go I wish I could take back that one regretful day
The day when I willingly let you slide from my arms Never did I think of the astonishing pain of regrets That I would once have to live through The sight of you in someone else's arms Makes my heart shatter into a million pieces
I sometimes wonder if you still think of me
Or if to you, I'm just a face in the crowd
I wish so very much that one day we can have it all back But for now, I'll sit here silently Remembering all the memories we once shared Everyday my love grows much stronger Hoping that one day you will feel the same And put back the pieces of my broken heart.
