Dont Forget

that you are the part the fraction of he who bother nothing more than four letter word love, i do for you

My Beauty

In the world of so many below the blue sky where Jim and Jacks better, good and best sparks you are that one

In the forest of beauties among stars, roses and diamond above naked eyes of beholders a true source of pride you are my full moon

Old and new fashions you fit your hip's favourite song you sing up and down, up and down a map to a wonderful place of honey and not bees.

Smoking

Turns nostrils into exualses short and long kitchen chimneys carbon dioxide exit of hot white dangerous gas with tar, nicotine and others, black soot warms the lung like overused kitchen like wet burning liters nostrils inhale exhalings with no gun and knife pill or injection fight or accident

why you have decided to kill yourself? smoking kills
