Black And Blue

Black and blue,
Yellow and green,
This never is a good seen.
God didn't creat us to be mean!

Welps and scars,
They don't go far.
They hit, they kick,
They don't care one lick.
If only it wasn't far.

Days turn to weeks.
Weeks turn to months.
No one hears from you,
No one gets near you.

You cry,
You plead.
People yell 'just lie'
But in the end you will just bleed.

Months turn into years,
Years into an eternity!
No one knew,
No one knows,
And no one can feel what you have felt.

Angels look from above.
You cry,
You plead!
You have had enough!
Drops begin to fall.
And you wished you was never born at all!

You go to the promised land.
God always has a plan.
Friends cry,
Friends die.

In the end we are all the same.
We are blue,
We are black.
We are yellow,
We are green.
Well I guess some people really are mean.
In the end you have lived your life!

Blue

The sky is blue
Roses are red,
But they can never compare.
Your eyes are green,
And they tend to gleam
You are oh so beautiful
Nothing can ever compare.
He, the Lord, made you...
With love and compassion.
Your heart is like a diamond
It will never bend
Water is blue
Blood is red.
But it will never compare,
To the heart in your chest.
I love you dearly
I hope you can see that clearly.

Friends

Friendship is great!
If you don't make a mistake
It is filled with love
All sent from above

Friends are angels
They don't come with directions
If you are in trouble
They will be there on the double

Friends will always be there
Their spirit will be in the air
Friends are loving
Friends are caring

They will be there...
Until the end of time
My friends will...
Always be mine!

I Remember

I remember the day
When He took you away.
He came to the rescue
And left us without you.

I cried myself to sleep wondering...wondering
If I would see you again.
We miss you dearly!

He took her too!
We had absolutely no clue!
She was very sick,
But it happened to quick!

We was struck with grief
And disbelief.
We miss you
I hope you miss us too!

I hope you remember
Remember those days
We had so much fun...
Through out those days.

I will always remember...
Remember when you...
When He took you away.
I miss you dearly
And I will always remember it oh so clearly!

Lord

You are my heart
You are my soul
I will live for You
And I will die for You

I am glad to call You my Lord
You are my master
I will stand by You
And fight for You

I broke Your rules
I am an abomination
I hope You will forgive me
Forgive me for my sins

You are my heart
You are my soul
I will stand by You
And I will live for You

Love

Love is kind.
Love is sweet.
Love is giving.
You can test my love...
But it's like a dove
The Lord made it so pure
It will scream to the world
Until I get you!
My love is so honest
It's so pure
It will always be yours
Until the end of time
My love will always be there

My Epilepsy Life

They don't know
Know what it feels like
Every day
Pain, suffering, weakness.

You look great on the outside
But you feel terrible on the inside
All the pain!
It hurts but you wouldn't know!

You can't feel it
The pain suffering and weakness!
It hurts so bad!
All I want to do is sleep

Sleep to get away...
From the pain and weakness
Even from a small one!
It hurts so bad!

They say oh it's nothing
You're making it up
You're lazy!
Quit lying you're just fine

NO!
I'm not fine!
Why don't you see how it feels
Take a walk in my shoes!

Why don't you see how it feels?
I wouldn't wish this on anyone!
It's taking on my life!
I can't even drive!

But I'm just fine?
You want me to get a job...
Ride a bike 10 miles to work and back!
Only if you knew...

Knew what it feels like!

My Epilepsy Way

They just don't even know
What it feels like
It hurts, but you wouldn't even know!

The pain doesn't show
Only if you know what it feels like!
They just don't even know

If it could show...
What it feels like...
It hurts, but you wouldn't even know!

I put on a fake smile...just for show!
My very pulse steadily spikes...
They just don't even know

Damn, they just don't even know!
It's trying to take over my life...like
It hurts, but you wouldn't even know!

They say it's nothing and go...
And go away on spite!
They just don't even know
It hurts, but you wouldn't even know!

Royal

Being a peasant isn't everything.
Your life will change
Your choices are vital
You live in a time
Time where everything,
Everything seems so real.
It isn't so pleasant
You would know if you were a peasant.
Peasants are real
And they can see what is reality
You make choice,
Choices that will change their lives.
YOU being a royal isn't so pleasant.

Shelby

You're like a force of nature
He made you perfect...
Perfect to me! <3
I'm just a friend?

I remember...
Remember the day we met.
You...you probably don't remember.
That day I will NEVER forget!

You are perfect!
You are unique...
And I love you in every way!
That you couldn't believe.

Only if you could understand
How much I love you.
You could then realize...
The pain I have to go through.
