I'm the one who believes in magic but always seems to fail whenever it came to me... One day soon i'll be holding it into my hand eve nif it's too late to turn back time.

Aking Panaginip

Hindi na mapakali sa aking inuupuan
Gusto na kitang Makita, nasaan ka naba
Ilan araw pa ba ang aantayin upang ika'y makasama
Sa panaginip na lang ba lahat ng aking mga pangarap

Pagod na ako tumakbo at habulin ang tunog ng pag-ibig
Sana sa iyong puso marining ang musikang hinahangad
Upang sa iyong piling wala nang hahanapin pa
At sa habang buhay tayo'y magsasama sa walang hanggan

Hilo hilo na sa kakaisip sa iyo
Makakamit ko ba ang iyong mga kamay at pag-ibig na wagas
O isa lamang itong panaginip na aking binubuhay
At sa dulo ay ikaw ay mawawala sa aking paningin

Ngunit lumayo ka man sa akin ikaw ay hahanapin
Abutin man ng taon ay aking susuyurin
Sapat na namalaman mo na pag-ibig ko sa iyo at tunay
Basta't tumitibok ang aking puso ikaw lang ang syang bibigkasin

At sana sa pagdating ng panahon pag-ibig ay makamit
Iyong mga kamay maramdam at hindi hangin lang
Yakapin ka na parang hindi na papakawalan
Sabihin sa iyo na mahal kita at walang iba

Behind The Treasure's Chest

I see a treasure of map in your eyes
Something what we all been looking for.
I stare to see where the treasure are Maybe it's the treasure I've been looking for With every look I took
I found a way to where it lies
And as I get close enough to forever wealth
Time begins to run fast and faster

But every time you go the treasure disappear
Lost track to there I'm going.
Now I know I need you to see
Still asking what's behind the treasure chest
Could it be something I've long for to have

Yet the journey is far and long for the treasure to see Inside of me I'm hoping it would be the one
The treasure of what they called "Forever Love"

Book Of Love

Shivering at this cold lonely night
Shouldn't feel this way
But I just couldn't stand the wind
My feet are down on the ground

Gossip I hear as they talk about me
Could I face them all to make them understand?
Is it wrong to feel this way
The cold night making myself to loose hope

But when you came I see the light
The cold turn into a warm embrace
Everything feels alright when you're besides me
Shouldn't feel this way but I do

Not asking for anything else for you
All I seek is to see and care for you
Your smile that colors my day
Are you an angel sent to me from above

But everytime I see my hand
With someone holding on to it
I cry to know that you'll be far away
Still hoping miracles would came

But when you came I see the light
The cold turn into a warm embrace
Everything feels alright when you're besides me
Shouldn't feel this way but I do

I lift the knife to stub into my heart
Don't want to hurt anyone
I just couldn't deny I'm starting to fall for you
Breaking down on my knees, God give me light

Would you understand me?
Or would you walk away and stay way from me?
I ask nothing of you... just give me a way to care for you
But whatever you'll do I'll understand

And who am I to wish you'll fall for me
Just a regular guy you knew a lot back then You're an angel of beauty and who am I to hope
I know I am just a friend to you

But when you came I see the light
The cold turn into a warm embrace
Everything feels alright when you're besides me
Shouldn't feel this way but I do

And someday I wish time will be right....
Someday I hope you'll learn to love me too...
Someday I pray you'll be there and now I wish that it is you and me written on the book of LOVE.

For now I hope you'll stay there next to me even just for a friend.
I just need to see you....

Could It Be

Could it be any better
If I met you years ago
Would it be a little happier
If your heart belongs to me

Why time is so unfair
When the good one came then your heart is not free
Still I believe this is true

What left to me is to hide the feeling and want to you
Would I survive this endless dream
Now I see the girl in my dreams

Could it be any better
If I never woke up again
Live this dream to forever
Where I can touch your hand

My heart is crying out so load
Wanting more of your embrace
These stolen momet's I'll cherish
For it felt so real and true

Not a game to play
But a love to live with tears
If you could hear my heart
Calling your name to be mine

Baby love can't lie
The feeling shows, you know
If I have to love you this way
Let it be and for deep inside I know

... still i'm happy you came along into my life though tears are next to me

Deep

Everyday maybe just a usual day with you
A stare, A smile is all I did when with you Everyday there's a silencie between our converstation A silet so loud that I wish you could hear

But each day that cound it become deeper
Deeper that sometimes I wonder If i could survive
Clueless you maybe for all this things I hide
Helpless I am for you are with someone else

I see my shadow embrasing yours
I see you in my dreams where tears is absent
Only in the other world I could be with you
When can I take you there to be with?

Everyday maybe just a usual day with you
But to me everyday with you is light
And to meit's theonly happiness I could have
For this love I have for you is deep

Francis Utada

Have You Ever

Have you ever love someone so bad?
that you are not sure if in return love will be the prize
Have you ever want someone so dear?
that even you know how high the mountain, still you climb
Have you ever like someone to be with?
Even in reality you know it's just a dream

What would you do if the love is strong?
Where would you go to this uncertain love?
How would you say the feeling you have?
Why would you risk everything for this love?
When could this love be true and real?
Have you answer all the questions written on my heart

Still I will cross the bridge and swim the ocean
Still I will accept the pain and consequences it will bring
I know for me my love is real... and this i tell you my dear
That all I ask is to let me love you the way you deserve to be
And by then all the question will be answered by heart.

Francis Utada

I Could Love Again

Now the reason is gone to love again
Empty room is all I could ever been to Rain on my window as I start my day
Picture of you scattered on the floor

Could I ever get over this love you gave
The love you have promise for forever
Now you're gone with your sweet goodbye
How could I love again to what you have left

Though the sun tries to shine I refuse to see
Still the hope of getting back is all I could ask
I'll live my days alone just to be with you again
If the sun resist to shine, i'll resist not to

Flood of tears on the floor
Your picture has fade and your letter has torned
Though in my memories still it's fresh
Now I know i miss your hugs and kiss

Though I maybe paralyze to what you have brought Still I know I could love again once more Tomorrow I can be over you, I know I will
But until the wound is fresh, i'll still hope and dream of you

Francis Utada

I'LI Be

I'll be your help when in trouble
Your shelter when there is rain
I'll be your wings for you to fly
Your pilot to travel around the world

I'll take you to the highest mountain
See the world from up above
I'll swim with you to the deepest ocean
See what's beneath the world we live

It doesn't matter when or where
It doesn't matter how we stumble down
Just hold on to me and then we'll conquer
Just be together and love will do the rest

Time is running, take my hand
Let me show you what we can do
This is not about you, and not about me
This is about what we can do together

I'll be your shoulder
When the darkest days enter your room
I'll be your ladder to climb
Every time you keep falling into the ground

They said life is too short to notice
They said time never waits for no one
Until time is here, right in our hand
Let me do the things I have to do

And I'll be there for you always
Though near or far my heart will follow you
I'll keep falling and falling only to you
For you are the greatest love of all

Francis Utada

Into My Eyes

I remember the first time I saw you
Your smile can make a time stop
Your beauty can bloom the roses into red
Could my eyes lie when it locks into yours

Your sweet embrace could freeze a lava
Your caring words could make a baby sleep
Everything in you I see is goodness
Still I hope my eyes could lie when it looks at you

Falling fast to the ground, could I control?
One hand up and the other reaching to you
This is not on my plan, but why im looking at you
A grasp of breathe I took still my eyes search for yours

If only I'm free I wouldn't hesitate to move
I'll take the risk just to be next to you
I'll leap into the shore for you to see
That in my heart your name are starting to engrave

Closing my eyes everytime I look into your eyes
For my eyes couldn't hide the feeling I have for you
Got to be in control, but for how long could I?
When every day pass emotion getting stronger

KESOU I maybe.. where else it would go
NEGAWAKUHA time would come for the both of us
Don't get me wrong... just wanted to say what I feel Before you see my feelings into my eyes.
Ashikarazu nichigainai kesou to you!

Could it be you watakushigaaisurutokoronojosei

Francis Utada

It's True

Two weeks is not enough to know someone
It'll took years to completely see the real person
And for now I know I only knew a part of you
The part I believe what really best describe you
And as everyday goes I wanted to learn more about you
Wanted to see the good side and also the bad side
We are not perfect and I'm not expecting you to be But all I care is to see the real you.. the one you really want to be Yes two weeks is not enough to get to know each other
It will take a long journey and a deep sea

But your beauty can be notice for a second and will last forever
Your smile could fill the room with gladness and wellness
For it is like a rose that blooms so red
Your kindness could only take a few second to notice
Your sweetness can make a child ask for more
For it is sweeter than a candy bar
And these are the things I admire to you

Maybe I couldn't tell everyone who you really are
For I guess I only knew you half of your life
But I can tell them all the beauty in you
And I will tell them...
"Two weeks or 3 is not enough to completely know a person
But it only takes a day to completely fall to a person"

I guess it's true.

Francis Utada

Love Of The Past

A poem should be written to brighten one day
Not to make them cry and the guilt of love
A poem should be the one to give confidence
Not the one to break you down into the ground hundreds of poems written everyday for us all hundreds of tears has fell into the words of it Should we must go on and see them cry

For all I care is happiness of them

Yet in every tears they shed I see light within
And in their cries what's behind is the will to live
To rise up once again and fall inlove again
But while the poem makes them cry....
Rest assure that love of the past is still in your heart.

Francis Utada

Not To Fall But I Did

Surrounded by things we have to do
Do we have time to be in love
Preoccupied with the struggle to live
Could we find time to see what's inside

For a mean time I like to stop the clock
Watch the birds that fly so freely
Listen to the melody of them like no worries
Enjoy the sun as it touch the sea to end the day

You are buzy moving place to place
Thinking life is just about surviving
I held your hand without you knowing
Still your moving place to place

Could I make you stay for a second
Watch the birds fly so freely
Listen to their melody so sweet like love
Enjoy the sun's view while you're there beside

On my knees I'll carry your burden
Just look for a moment to see the beauty
For a moment take a deep breathe and relax
Let my love sing around you and into your heart
'Coz by now you mean so much to me

Help me not to fall to your buzy world
My love might not be noticed and be crushed
Yet I couldn't stop the gravity by pulling
Now I'm heading over into your heart, falling fast

How could I fall for your sweet smile
Your sweet embrace I long for more
With your eyes that freezes me as you stare
When I know you're buzy traveling around the world
Yet, still here I am fallen for you with love

Francis Utada

Part Of Me

Here I am speaking the part of me
The part where your love has stained How could I forget the memories we had
This part of mine keep fighting within

But too many tears had shed
And I admit that i'm not unaffected
Not unaffected to this consequences i've been to
To what others may say and the things around

And as a part of me with you keep struggling
Nothing that I can do for this love I hide
Too many damage has done, now im on my knees
Could I ever survive while part of me is still with you then they said it should be 1 on1 not just a part

The reason why I couldn't hold you like before
Could I get back to the one whole full of love.. or time is up
But behind my being stronog still God knows you're still the one

Francis Utada

Part Of My Life

In our life people come our way
Make a big mark in our life
Sometimes good and sometimes bad
But whatever it is they have done
One thing would never change

They have been a part of my life
Who changed me the way I am
To better or worst, they wont be forgotten
Coz once part of your life, it will never change
So thank you for coming into my life

It may have been my fault
Maybe I've put a cut into your heart
But the memories will remain forever
Though sorry is not enough, still thankful for you

And remember we may have parted ways
In our memories there's still some good things left to smile at
There are bad things we learned from
We may have lost it but forever it will be a part of my life

Thank you even if I know some of you are mad
I would never deny all the things you have shared
Though it may be good or bad, it doesn't matter
All the bad thing have been forgiven and the good thing remembered

Francis Utada

Path

Wind blew my feet on the ground
Without knowing its consequences
While my hand touch the ground
I see myself falling fast to you
Shouldn't be or should I, question remains
Heart torn into pieces as it became more confuse
With a shot of vodka I stumble down

Without any warning it hit me hard
Bleeding to its mystery yet I'm glad With time so indefinite to be
The question remains while falling into you
Could I get up back on my feet
For now I'm carrying the burden of this

No way to go but to where the wind blows
Where I know rejection is behind
To where I know your heart is the path

Francis Utada

Reason

How could you just stand there
Let the wind blow passed you
If only there's something I can do
I let you feel the warmth embrace

Tears behind your smiling face
I could feel you inside in my heart
I even cry with you while we laugh
Let me show you what this is all about

Gently open your eyes don't look back
The road is not here for no reason at all
We cross because there's a reason to be
And look for that reason and you'll see

Couldn't wait for too long, I must move
Tomorrow someone might take you away
But how could I when I'm invisible to you
Color the wind and love will bloom

Don't took any step yet just listen
I may have stumble in the past, yes I did
But to you the tune is different, melody is sweet
Is it just a coincidence or the one we are waiting for

Would you let this moment pass
Would you just dream and never reach the reality
You know there's something here between us
But I know there's something you should do

So let me in for awhile
Feel your warmth embrace
Touch your lips just once
Live this dream for a moment
For all I ask is for just a time

A time that would last forever

Someday

Someday who knows your heart might cross to me
One day who knows your eyes will look for me
Hoping that those days would come
Wishing that someday will be today

Someday you might fall for me
Like the way I've fallen for you
Somday I miss you would turn into I love you's
Praying each night today will be that someday

Someday I know you'll realize
The love and care I have for you
The truth to all what I'm feeling inside
Listen today and someday will be now

Someday your heart could be mine
One day dreams will turn into reality
Hoping you and me would have a chance
For everyday I'm wishing for that someday

While someday is not around
Listen to song and poems I've written to you
Let me love you the way love should be
For you know how special you are to me

One day someday will come our way

Francis Utada

Tears From Above

Tears fall down on me
I look around and see nothing but shadows
I hear a voice of crying along the way
I listen carefully but I can't figure where it came

Running fast not looking behind
Sometimes we must follow where the wind blows
While sun is shining darkness I see
Still the tears kept falling down on me

Nowhere to run, road is block
Must escape the tears that's following me
Guilt and fear I'm into right now
Who are you? show me your face?

I thought you're far away
I thought I've lost you when I ran away
But you kept holding on up high above
Watching my step as I run

Where am I to go, where should I run
Must go now before I see the pain again

I looked at you to see
You waived your hand goodbye while the last tear fell
As you turn around you whispered I love you, then run away

I've been running away from you for all of my life
How fool am I not to face your tears
When all you're trying to say is how much you love me.

Francis Utada

The Cycle We Are Into

Haven't we been to this place
The mellow song and lonely tune
Without a clue we wonder why
We keep on going back to this place

Look at the moon hiding upon the clouds
The stars freeze like it's dead
The wind blows so cold that we shiver
A tear dropp and here we are again

We keep on coming back to this circle
Though I know your love is pure
Yet to me I have so much places to go
And we know we can't go on living this way

Endless fear hunting you, tears falling down
The more I keep you in my life the more pain you felt
The circle blinded us to the dark side
No where to go, it's just keep coming back to us

Could I make it any better
Pretend and hope things would go the same way again
If I knew I'm falling fast to an isolated island
Hoping thing you'll understand, but I guess not.

Full of hope and courage you presented to me
Yet in yourself you already lost the strength to live alone
All I want is for you to understand and took that courage to live
'Coz you know I cant stand to see you down on your knees

Would it any better if I close my eyes
Live on life like there's no background around
Time is running for the both of us
Can't waste no more time of yours

Could we escape the circle we are running on
Is there a way to stop this cycle
Would staying be a help?
Or is this the end of the line.

Francis Utada

The One

How could you stop the time
It ran so fast, i'm falling into the ground
Could you hear the thing I long for you
Could you see my heart belongs to you

Could you give me just a little time
Let me say to you what you mean to me

You are the one who give light to me
You are the one I would live for forever
And you are the one, you are the one
Yes you are the one that I love to love

Though you're with someone else's arms
This feeling for you would never changed

So I let time decide, make hope's and dream
Now i'm at the edge a place I never been before Make this dream came true, God knows when Time will come someday, one day and you will see

You're the one, God knows what you mean to me
You're the one, So just take my heart with you...
Coz you're the one my heart long for.

Francis Utada

The Stain

Hiding from what scares me most for 2 months
I got to stop the stain of tears on my pillow
I can't even go to God to say the wor Sorry
Everything has change and i'm alone
I have too many reasons to stay and not to go
And i've thought I could take what you want
Even inside graspling for it....
If she set her eyes on this world....

I know i'll be standing right next to you... and if not...
i'll fall and die with her, my angel

Francis Utada

The Way It's Going To Be

Another month has passed still I miss you around Another month will come another hope for you and me
How many tears should I shed for you to see How many heartache before I could find forever

I put your picture on my wallet to see you everyday Though it's just a portrait of you, to me I feel you beside Am I crazy or not but this love is over flowing Pretending not to care and pretending my tears to others

Oh give me hope to survive this madness of me
When are you coming back you know I need you here
Couldn't breathe without your smile
Couldn't see the color without your eyes my love

Is this the way it's going to be
Each and every day I miss you here by my side
The way we talk, we laugh, the only memory I have with you
If this is the way it's going to be.... Still I'll choose to love you

And if this love will fade before the end of the day
I promise tomorrow as I start the day I'll love you again
Again and again until you touch my heart and be mine
I'll keep on fighting for this one sided love.

Francis Utada

What You Do To Me (A Song Looking For A Tune)

Stay there for a while
Look me into my eyes my girl
Drop your bags, listen for a while
There are things you really need to know

Sit there on your favorite chair
I'll play the song we used to sing
Touch my hands, you see its trembling
Coz I don't want to see you go away
And not until I

There's something you do to me
You smile to me and my heart just froze in love

Now I can't smile when without you
Now I can't breathe without your sweet embrace
And I just can't see the good things
When you're far away with me
This is what you do... you do...
Yes this is what you do to me

Believe me this is true
No lies, no game, this is my life in stake
I'll take all the risk (you know I will)
Just to be right next to you always.

There's something inside of me to tell
You smile at me and I knew that I'm in love with you

Now I can't smile when without you
Now I can't breathe without your sweet embrace
And I just can't see the good things
When you're far away with me
This is what you do... you do...
Yes this is what you do to me

No no no... when will I see you again
Oh dark it will, when you're so far away
Could I survive this love you do to me

Don't you just stand there smiling at me
Hold my hand and tell me you'll be there too

There's something you do to me
You smile to me and my heart just froze in love
(You're the only who could melt it baby)

Now I can't smile when without you
Now I can't breathe without your sweet embrace
And I just cant see the good things
When you're far away with me
This is what you do... you do...
Yes this is what you do to me

When You Said Goodbye

Now you're already gone miles away
Where would I go to feel your touch
Missing you so early, you're all I need
What left to me are memories we have

When could I see you again my life
Picturing the day you said goodbye
Should have hug so tight
And whisper the words I love you

I dont want to cry before you go
Just wanted to leave a smile for you to keep Since what you brought into my life are happiness
Now the memories are all that left in me

I'll keep this memories so that love will survive
If there's one thing I could do best for you
It is to love you and prove you all of this is true

Francis Utada

Who Am I To You (Right Next To You)

Gracefully your body move
The fire starts and the heat arise
On my feet again staring at you
Waiting for you to look at me

While all of them, surrounding you
Here I am just staring at you
Waiting for a sign to make a move
Later you'll see what I meant

Gently I walk towards you
Though everybody around is pushing me
Still with my feet on the ground I move
Later I'll be right next to you

Just look at me even for awhile my girl
Maybe then you could see some light in my eyes
Only if you could hear how loud I shout
That my heart is begging to call your name

Let me in into your world
Let me plant this love in your heart
It's fruit could bring us together forever
Just hold on to my arms and believe

Now I'm next to you
I could feel you're hair and your face
The beauty of God's creation I see in you
Especially the love growing in my heart

But as I move next to you
Still you look far away, my tears starts to fall
Am I not the one for you?
Am I just a passer by without a clue?
Though it hurts I'll still love you the same...

Who Am I to you? Now I'm standing right next to you.

Wish Stick

As I open my box of cigarette
Last stick drawn upside down
With a kiss and wish on it
I held it long in my arms

With a note written on
All I can do is read it again and again
Wishing you're here with me
Before I lit the last cigarette I have

Couldn't burn, I want you here
Keeping the memories of you
The only light I could find
For you know you're special to me

A picture of you only in my mind
While you held the cigarette of wish
Couldnt ask for more but you
Where are you now? You're far away

Should I burn, make the wish
Should I keep, let the memory stay
All I have is this last stick I have Reminds me of how I miss you so much

Wouldn't light another cigarette
Until you are next to me again
I'll keep this last stick on my hand
To let you know how I love to keep you here inside

if you only knew.... the wish that I'll ask for is you

Francis Utada

You'Re My Angel (This Life)

This mind and this soul
Misuse and misplace
This is wrong this love
But so loud and I face
The greatest mystery of love

So long, goodbye
Should I, tears fall
Close eyes, mouth shut
Pain in heart I feel
I know I can't let go

So let me love you
Hold me in your arms so tight
Let me care for you
You know that's where we belong
But so long, so far
Where are you now, I'm miss you now

So far and so high
Couldn't reach, falling down
So cold and so dark
You are the light, the fire
You know it's you I want to love

How long should I wait
I need you, I love you
Can't wait, I'm bleeding
Tell me what should I do
For you know you are the life

So let me love you
Hold me in your arms so tight
Let me care for you
You know that's where we belong
But so long, so far
Where are you now, you know and you know
That I miss you now

Last breathe, I'll take Couldnt find a better way in this place, this room mistakes, misplace
you are the one I dream

All alone in this room
Lonely sound, empty chair
With this risk, I'll take
Just to be right next to you
You know and you know... you are my angel
