A Message From My Heart

i miss you like hell though hell knows nothing of missing you my soul is the only soul on earth that felt and knew how it feels to miss you i was always here to help you always here to catch you when you fall but your heart always belonged to someone else i might have had you once but i want you for all time it is worth standing for hours under the pouring rain in a dark night to see your face and your enchanting eyes cause this is all i'd ever want won't you call, won't you go my restless breath missed you my motionless heart is crying my motionless dead heart is again dying talk to me even if you won't love me i understand, but stay by my side hide the pain burning in my eyes this burning pain that all my tears couldn't stop

Ghina Albiek

A Sole Plea

Darkness you see
So you open your lid
You let it be Uncovering feelings you hid

But who to?
In all these shallow faces
All is seen but you Suddenly you lose all your traces

Parting a place you once knew Daring not to look back That cavity in your heart just grew Yet courage is what you lack

And there on that old bench you shelter
"Have I become a lonesome naught? "
You pick some clovers up and you welter
"Do I love myself, or do I not? "

With these abandoned eyes
And that ancient gesture
You raise your cries
In a bittersweet mixture

And at dawn you surrender
"Aren't they coming to rescue me? "
You hold your thoughtful mender
And start writing an immortal plea

"Dear me, dear me If sun shall rise upon that bench then near that lonely sea Shall my worn body blench"

You rest your hand quietly on that floor
You let yourself rest once and for all Holding tightly to that one thing you adore
And slowly, you let that pen fall

A Soul That Loves You

For the first time I feel That the sadness I have no doctor can heal Though it should have been a happy day
But all the happiness has faded away

This world is too tight for me
It became so hard achieving what I dream to be Cause my dreams got higher than reality
A dream of changing my whole personality

My eyes are wet, they are full of tears
This memory will stick in my head even after years
And I still love you in all the seasons
And I still love you and it needs no reasons

Crying clouds filled this vast blue sky Tried reaching them, but they were so high Your love was shining my heart so bright
Your love didn't leave me depressed in this dark night

Black & white can never be mixed Also my heart can never be fixed My eyes and my feelings won't lie
My dead soul forever will cry

About The Stars

Sometimes I stare at the sky, I see the stars shining, and I dream I'm a star, these stars are better than me and you and better than everyone living on earth, at least they are free to do and say whatever they want, at least they never tell lies, they're strong enough to say the truth, strong enough to express their feelings and share everything in their hearts, I hope I can be a star one day, I hope I can shine just the way they do, yesterday was full of tears, I hope these tears will bring back the years we've wasted crying, people have day & night, but for me it's always night, I can never see the light, every year millions of dreams and wishes are made, 50% become true and 50% for the next year, but when you try everything to reach your dream and you couldn't even touch it, so you try everything just to touch your dream but you couldn't even see it, and so then when silence fills your life, you even forget your dream, and you start wondering what are dreams made of? ! you feel that you've lost your way back, you feel that you're unwanted, you feel that you can't fit in again, you feel that they're all better off without you, you disappear for a whole year thinking that they will all miss you and that when you get back they will ask you not to ever go again, but the ugly truth kills, when you know that they totally forgot you, and you feel that earth is too small for you to live inside it, you feel that air isn't enough for you to breath, in this situation there will be no need for you to live anymore, when it means nothing for you to live, when you sell your life for free because it means nothing, it is worth nothing, you don't need it anymore, even saying Goodbye means nothing when the closest person to you doesn't even care, he doesn't even recognize you, when you try and scream hoping that the stars might hear you, when you say it out loud, things that you couldn't even admit they're true, things that you never told yourself, you wish when you say them out loud someone pass by and hear you, you like him, but you can't tell him, though you want him to know, so you keep it in your heart, and tears go down your face saying that you love him, but no one can read tears, you love him but you can't stay next to him though you want to, the same feeling of wanting something that you cant want, loving something that you hate, it's always reverse, you're scared of something before it even happens! And nothing can explain how you feel, when the only one you love leaves you to die in pain, when the only one you love can feel your weakness but left you, and you feel that time is passing so slowly and you can feel every single second, when you tried doing everything, and couldn't move not even a step forward, people pass by and you hear the laughter get high, you wish you can laugh too, but unfortunately you can't, you were the one to say nothing is impossible and now you're the one to say it is impossible, you were the one to say dreams are made to be done, and now you're saying your dream won't ever be done, when you always say NEVER LOSE HOPE, but you already lost all your hope, what can you do when everything you believe in comes out to be all lies, when you discover you're living a lie, and you don't find a shoulder to cry on, you fell but didn't find a hand to get you up, when they all lie to you thinking that if you know later it will be better, exactly like when a little girl asks about her dead father without knowing he's dead, and you just can't tell her the fact that he was a vile criminal and he's probably now thrown in hell! What can you say to these innocent eyes, a heart that shines with love, a heart that glows in dark, a heart that never knew lies, I can't believe this all change after several years, it changes to the exact opposite, you can't trust anyone any longer, not even yourself, now obviously death is much easier than living, and you would rather die than see your friends getting further and further every day, they're all leaving you alone, darkness starts filling your empty life, you don't want to open your eyes cause you're scared you won't see anyone next to you, but I advice you to open them, because sooner or later you will, but it might be too late, so then you will open your eyes and see nothing but blackness, it will be too late to regret now, cause your soul either went to heaven or to hell, perhaps it's heaven, you've got few moments to live, so don't write cause no one will read, don't cry cause no one will see, don't scream cause no one will hear!

Could it be wors!

Ashes And Smoke

Ashes and smoke
Burn out your backyard Soft, melting and soft Give up that photograph
Wine-stained shirts Covered up with dirt Tilt back your head
Give up that photograph
Ashes and smoke
You've lost that backyard Hot and pure
Burning in flames
Burning fire
Give up that photograph
Peaceful and quiet
You've longed for that backyard Hold up your hopes
Ashes and smoke
Black out your way
Lost and betrayed
Holding that photograph
Flames, blue flames Burst out the dream Head up high
Tender, but cold
Not like your backyard
But you still hope
Ashes and smoke
It's too late to rain
Burning your hands
Tender, but cold
Holding that photograph
It's too late to rain
Soaking your hands
Give up that photograph

Careless

Only silence fills my life
I'm again living in black & white Tears were made to be dropped But mine were made for you only you

I hear people laugh
I see couples smile
I smell the amazing scent of flowers
And feel my heart crying out of pain

I try to call him but he doesn't answer
I try to forget him but my soul prevents me I envy those who share their happiness and fears
As I walk alone again under the rain

Love is the strongest weapon against a tiny heart
A tiny heart that loves but isn't loved A tiny heart that broke a thousand times
But still it has the power to keep the name it loved from the start

Why do we cry if no one cares?
Why do we love if everyone lies?
Why do we share if no one does?
And why shall we live if we will die

In life your love must die
In life you should always cry In life there's no need to try
In life only birds can fly
And people still write fairy tales!

Give a damn about nothing Say whatever and do whatever Keep smiling cause life is short We're all gonna die however...

Ghina Albiek

Creating Hope

I dont believe that much,
Cause i dont even dream that much,
Since i know reality isn't that much,
And i know i won't reach that much

Lets think about what we have,
Love and deal with what we can,
Convince ourselves with who we are, & i'll show you i can reach a star

Forget about a miserable past,
Plan for a shining future,
Lift your head and look at the sky,
Be brave and dont look so high,

Ignore the words you hear around,
Show them you can use ur mind,
Cause none of them ever felt this way,
Fell in love and flew away,

You need no make-up, no change, You're beauty just the way you are,
Be strong enough but dont start a fight,
Be sure enough you can light this night!

Ghina Albiek

Death In Love

He's different from anybody i know
He's a legend in my life He's every thought and every dream i have He's not just what i want, but also what i need He's every single breath i take He's in every and each move i make He's not just the reason of every smile on my face
But also the reason of every tear my eyes drop He's not just a human, he's not just a boy
He's not just my love, not just my life
He's everything unless everything has an end He's something that was born to help me live He's something that was born so i can survive Though he's the reason of me dying a hundred times Cause death in love is nothing like death in life Death in love is immortal, it never ends till you die again

Ghina Albiek

Ending This Love

There was a sparkling in my eyes when i met you But now all i can see is the color blue I'm sitting here missing something true Missing someone i once knew

I saw something high
And thought it was the sky
But when i said goodbye Discovered this everlasting blue is a lie

Just the way i believe seasons are four I do believe it's you whom i adore
And parting from you is what i abhor
O love is the only thing we can't ignore

I'm in love yes i can see
But your love seems like a sea
Let's not sit down and drink some tea Let's go search for the reality

My soul is calling can't you hear I guess you promised you'll be near But all i can feel is the power of fear
And a sweet pain that made me bleed for a year

Now that death is coming closer
And my empty heart is growing older Sorrow is becoming much more stronger
And my love for you is about to be over...

Ghina Albiek

Feelings Are Back

And when you very least expect
He comes with pain along And tears can hardly reflect Misery in lyrics of your song

You beg him to break-up with perfection
So maybe your soul would be set free
When you were almost done with your mission
He comes to leave you drowning in the sea

Oh and what a light can moon give When the sun is gone away
And what a life would you live
When there's no light in day

And just when feelings are back You start to fall once more But dignity is what you lack If your heart falls to four

You go on trusting his lies as you did
As he goes on enjoying the game Haunted with memories for too long you hid
And so his game starts to get lame

So he goes ignoring your calls Unaware of what you might feel
He says it's over and your heart falls
And is that something a doctor can heal?

As a rose grows it learns to Bend down to show him you're shy
Then hurt him when he touches you Just then you can lift your face up to the sky

Ghina Albiek

Figuring Life

tears wash eyes, but they don't wash pain years pass by,
and many pass with rain,

trying to express that you're depressed will take you hours, and maybe more, but trying to change it will take you less, and with results thinking about him too much won't get you anywhere but calling him makes you feel better just go for it and ignore who stops you looking at the clock as the time passes will just waste your time but working on planting a seed will get you flowers that one day will bloom starring at the sky, will give you hope walking next to the fire, will burn your rope that you hold on to stay alive and if you ever lose, you'll be underground and as the sun shines, hearts start to beat it's so unbelievable they're like the machines

I can own the stars if i want to I can paint the sky pink instead of blue I can tell the birds not to fly except when i want to I can make the truth lies and the lies true whether you said the alphabet from A to Z or from Z to A it will just be the same whether you said the numbers from 1 to 10 or from 10 to 1

it will just stay so lame

I'll tell you how to describe the world Life sucks but we've got to live it Love ends but we've got to try it School is even worse but no one can live without it Work never ends; we might die and it won't end Money cause problems with friends, and we love it more than ourselves Having fun might make you fail, but we still have fun and never care Loving your parents won't make you a nerd That's what life is all about:
What we love is exactly what harms us
And what we hate is exactly what benefits us

For Syria

Lifting the head of humanity
Looking with the eyes of freedom It's Syria what i call my home It's Syria my heart and soul

Flying with a heart full of peace Throwing the pains away Wiping away all the tears
And fighting all the fears

Dreams will grow
Also they will achieve All together we will be One hand holding the other

Each second we will spend it together
Here, in your streets we will stay forever Helping, protecting, and loving each other Holding your flag that will last till ever

Syria, you kept us safe for years
Now it's the time for us to keep you safe We will give you everything we have But it won't be enough you gave us the stars...

Ghina Albiek

Goodbyes

hate goodbyes, but they say everything has an end i don't believe but i did cry cause i couldn't even say goodbye the worst was the last moment pretending not to notice you the worst was the last look it was silent even our eyes couldn't speak didn't know it was the last look ever couldn't believe i ruined everything again but thoughts of you won't leave my mind they will remain till the very end and since i don't believe in ends then they will remain till ever it's something i believe in and use it in ever poem i write i'm telling you now it's not goodbye i'll see you again in a place where only angels are around hope you'll remmember me then.

Ghina Albiek

Hard To Breathe

it feels so hard when you really want something but you know and you're sure it's never gonna be yours

you watch the sky and know you can't reach it you watch a star and know you can't catch it locked on your dreams and threw the key away forgot that there is hope which is a key for your way closed your heart with black hands kept pain and sorrow in remember you kept my heart too and i promise it will last till the end raise your head and look up feel the freedom in your soul tenderness of sunlight over your head see, it was you who made it hard to breathe!

Ghina Albiek

Heartfelt

Staring at the night sky Cold feeted, blue eyed Hearting the Stars insensitively Hallowed by their pride
Yet everything has its dark side

Wandered and wondered what love is Got scarred and slandered yet I Can't seem to know how Can't seem to know the reply
Again in dead-silence I lie

Oh Stars, won't thou respond?
Bright light, lead me to you I've lost my way and just when I caught a dream it flew Lead me home, oh please do

Sleepless, painless, I write
With a tongue of vulnerability I Paint my words and about The Stars I think and cry I've longed and belonged to thy Compassion they say it is So on I devoted my heart For love of these Stars I have Gave my every part They've been my endless art

Cut me to hundred peices I'll still bewilderedly stare Captivated and enchanted With thy flaming flare
Which leaves one's self in despair

It's heard they're Godly magical creatures
'They give bad luck' they said Yet I pleaurably gaze

For within these Stars I've read What's been forever unread

Ghina Albiek

I'LI Wait For A Best Friend

you think it's easy dont you?
then i bet you dont know what you mean to me a best friend isn't just a person for me you're life, you're oxygen cant imagine life without you and could a person breathe without oxygen?

when looking up and down when looking left and right even while blinking thoughts of you are filling my mind i hope this goodbye wont last it wont be good till our hands meet again till we run and laugh along not a thing will change untill you're all back right next to me missing you can never be a thing to handle i dont wanna meet this day when i will have to hug you for the last time i never wanna meet a day that will steal my best friends from me with you my hopes have grown bigger and bigger till they got down without you am nothing i cant dream when you're not with me loving you isn't something to discuss it's something i was born with it's a seed that grows deep down in my heart it cant ever be described with words it's a pleasure that you fill my whole heart misery cant leave my soul if you'll ever leave me alone in this world if i wont see you again then why should i live?

may happiness surround you and your path may joy fill your days may hope stick with your dreams may your path lead you back to me cause i'll always wait there's too much hope and i can borrow a little to use some and keep some to help me wait for years cause for you i'll spend all the time i've got your laughters are filling my mind when we used to run after each other laughing as if we never had another but though its gone now remembering it still makes my heart laugh and still makes my tears fall.....

Ghina Albiek

Imy

I want you
But it's so hard to get you I love you
And it's so pure and true

I can see the sky
It's turning dark blue
Only if i can fly
Like these birds and see you

Sounds and sounds around me
But i can't hear a noise Cause when i think of you darling
I only dream to hear your voice

Every word we spoke will remain
In my heart they will be safe Cause they will be guarded by your love
That fills every inch of my heart

It's a dark cave i guess It's my closet without a dress It's me in a big mess
It's life without you and there's no need to continue the rest

Ghina Albiek

Internal Conflict

I opened my eyes to see Dawn's breeze embracing me
I struggled trying to break free
But it was forcing me to let it be

- - - -

I got myself up to explore the place
It was like my dreams took me out of space
And mankind vanished with no single trace Yet it all seemed similar except his face

- - - -

My house and my kitchen but who's that guy
'Speak up you, and I can tell if you lie'
But he kept staring at this bare dark sky Gazing at the stars as they say goodbye

- - - -

He finally turned his face and said
'I know whatever goes around your head
I didn't guess or foretell I simply read
But all you humans do is mourn when one is dead

- - - -

You always see, but you never look through
In this world I live in nothing is true Even the sky here lost its blue
I dragged you here because I believed in you

- - - -

They call me Conscience; I'm your soul mate I'm a mixture of feelings that you create It's not a coincidence, it's all planned, it's called fate'
I turned pale, no longer feeling my heart-rate

- - - -

His eyes watered, I could clearly see his tear
'I'm here begging for help my dear Humans killed the peace and filled us with fear For everyday one conscience dies here

- - - -

I found out wars are what humans adore
The scent of blood and bodies on the floor
They unstoppably kill more and more Humans became the one thing we abhor

- - - -

Children's screams and widows mourn
For they were given the right to be born
They treat humans' lives as an object of scorn They'd kill then sit arrogantly on a throne

- - - -

They lost humanity, they became savage
Whatever goes under their sight ends up damaged Every place they lay hands on ends up ravaged
We still have hope to get humanity salvage

- - - -

Humans are animals with brains they don't use They're blessed with body builds that they abuse Help us, prove me wrong and don't refuse'
I wanted to defend mankind but I found no excuse

- - - -

I woke back to reality with a message I received
We were born as beautiful creatures I believe So now I live for that one goal to achieve Spread the word, we're beautiful, we'll retrieve

It's All About You

</>he's my closest friend and my best guy the only thing that makes me smile the thing that makes my heart skip a beat the thing that i love from my head and to my feet but why does it hurt so much to think of you and dream so far why does it make me cry when i know that I'll never touch the sky they say everything is hard but nothing is impossible i discovered love is impossible to have you by my side will never happen to hug you closer than ever will stay a sweet dream it was a night when only moon lighted my way it was a night when sun never showed it was cold but i had to endure cause i saw your shadow and believed i might see more u looked at me once but never looked twice while i blinked once and couldn't blink twice you made it clear enough to see what i mean to you I'll take my last breath and hold it till death my eyes spoke to you language of love while they stared at your shining eyes my soul held yours tightly while your soul slowly let go.....

Ghina Albiek

Learning Love

It started out with liking you,
Then loving you,
In a couple of days i was falling in love with you,
Later somehow i was falling deep down in your love,
But now am actually dying in your love,
The thought that you might call any minute keeps my eyes opened widely, I never sleep so i can think about you more,
And if i sleep i dream of you,
How hard is that? !
You're literally in every moment of my life,
How would i ever forget you? !
How can i get over this perpetual love? !
Every time i say i'm over you,
You come and take me back to your love,
Without knowing this love will kill me at last,
Though i'm already dead,
But a person who decides to love dies a hundred times,
It's just never been controled, It's love,
But who knows whats love!
It's not saying 'i love you'
And it's not marrying someone you've never even seen, It's much deeper than what a brain understands,
It's something to understand in heart not in brain,
It's something you feel once and never again,
You dont ever feel the same,
People dont get the differences between LIKE and LOVE!
Actually there's no differences,
It's completely different,
I envy those who dont know whats love,
And i advice them not to ever meet love,
Or they will meet death too, Ya actually i finally got what i never got,
Love is death!
Even if it shocks...

Ghina Albiek

Leaving My Dreams To Get You

I'll say goodbye to the sunset say goodbye to the moon I'll say goodbye to all my dreams that I left with a heart of gloom

I might never see you again but in my heart you will be a shining star and a diamond that's what I'm sure you can see a golden treasure you are a tiny feather your heart as deep as an ocean and as clear as the sky you're more than a bird flying so high you're too expensive to keep too hard to leave even my biggest dream couldn't get me any far from you whether the water is pink or green whether the sky is yellow or blue whether you eat apples or melons you will always be you

I might leave my dreams but I'll never leave the one my heart chose and I might hide when I'm scared but when it comes to you I'll be the first who stares at your eyes forget that there are stars and who has got the key of your heart has got the key of everything in her life it's like summer sun to fall in love with you spring flowers to own your heart for a minute winter storms to be far away from you my lifetime is falling like fall leaves when we're apart you're a dream that grew in my heart you're a dream that I kept for all this time though I really wanted to own your heart but it doesn't matter as long as you own mine.....

Ghina Albiek

Losing Him

losing something with a broken heart losing something with no strenght at all losing something you cant ever replace losing something that is the only reason you're living losing him just after you finally found him cause no one can understand me the way he does no one can read my mind and thoughts the way he does no one can make me feel best even at my worst when he smiles i forget the whole world in his deep smile his eyes shine my life like a light in a hopeless night his laugh rhymes my day, it reverberates as i walk away his breath warms my heart, it cools down the fire that's burning inside my heart his sweet words mend my life his tender touch makes me faint i suffer and suffer day by day and i'll never give up even if i had nothing left to say living without a reason to live but loving with a hundred reasons to love cause love and life never grew up together one thing they both share, they're both so cruel

Ghina Albiek

My Loud Silence

can hear the footsteps of ants but can't hear the sound of drums i can't see why, even though I'm not blind

i always wonder why the sky is that high?
have been watching birds for years, but still it's so hard to fly!

yes I'm lost, tripped and fell on my knees but when i looked up it was too hard to catch my dreams

my black rainbow, and my colorful night,
millions of lamps,
but there's no light stuck here, next to a door locked in, with a key in my hand hate you, but can't live without you you wonder, but this is my loud silence!

Ghina Albiek

Painful Hell

Looking at your shadow Missing this wonderful smell Crying for I'll never reach Living in this painful hell

Let the tears fall to the ground
Let them fill these empty oceans You'll never hear this scornful sound
I made whenever I thought about you

Wanna get drunk enough Enough to get you out of my mind
Out of my mind but never out of my heart
Your name is lasting in my dead heart

Loving you was never a choice
But not giving up was Not moving on was Sell my heart and waste my life too

But I never regret these choices
I only regret loving you And if I had the chance I'd never do I'd never want to fall for you

When you look at me, when you laugh
I wanna get close, I wanna kiss you But instead I feel the pain of missing you Missing you though you're right next to me

Cause I don't want you, I want your heart
I want to own your heart and keep it Keep it and replace it with my heart
A heart that loved you from the very start

Someone like you I'll never find Love another will never happen
These tears my eyes dropp and the power of my love
Are a simple gift and am only asking you to keep them till you die

And my only wish is to never face a day when you die in front of my eyes

Ghina Albiek

Poetry Back In My Soul

I see your face in every face
I feel your touch, i feel your embrace
I think of you and my heartbeats race

I get my hopes high Say this time I won't cry
But then I shatter, and oh I try

You show from far away
Not having much to say
So I walk along following your way

Trapped with feelings I couldn't hide Poured myself and threw my pride
And each day I'd die a bit inside

You had my heart and you had my soul
You had my thoughts and you had me whole I gave it all not knowing I'd simply fall

All my dreams for you I gave Hoping my life you'd save Not knowing my hopes would cave

He's different, or so I said Taken by words he filled in my head What's good has love ever bred?

Ghina Albiek

Reaching You

What if the world is over?
Will you hold my hand and make me stronger?
Will you be the one to raise me up when I fall?
Just be sure I'll be the light that leads you home

Reaching your heart is like reaching the sky
So high, so clear, and fills the whole world
The distance between me and you, it's endless
But I believe I can reach as long as I'm alive

So strong, my love for you So colorful, life with you So wonderful, to own your heart So sad, that I can't

Where ever you are, I'll be there with you Whatever you say, I'll admit it's true Whenever you call, I'll be here Whatever it is, I'll help you dear

Not a day passes without tears
You broke my heart, don't pay but just fix it I've been loving you for long enough
And I'm not dead so I still believe

God gave me heart to give to you God gave me eyes to stare at you God gave me life to spend with you But no one ever gave me you!

Stabbed Me In The Back

It's almost been a year
Thought seeing you would wipe my tear
But not this time guess I was wrong
I couldn't even give you my rhyming song

Planned for tons and dreamed in vain Thought it'll be perfect under the rain Forgot we're not living a fairytale
So now and then my heart is for sale

Now that you're here, you're more than near But I'm hiding in darkness crying out of fear Waiting for your enchanting warm embrace Forgot it became a dream to see your face

No this time I'm not falling apart Because since I met you I'm living without a heart But since it's useless I won't fight Cause stars have grown in a hopeless night

I didn't ask for a goodnight kiss
But for once to be that girl you miss I stare at you afraid of getting caught Time made you love me, or so I thought...

Stuck In A Love

Holding to my tear, dont wanna lose it
But this mighty love will let go of it
It has taken too much from me
And my powers are about to fade

It feels so hard to know you're somewhere around You're too close but you dont even lift up your face
To see me waiting to steal a look from your eyes
It's hard to love and not be loved back

You know it's all about you Every single thought of mine Every simple daydream i have I'm gonna spend every minute loving you

You're next to me but i cant do What am thinking of and what i dream to do Give me your hand to hold it so close Warm it in my heart like a guiding light

Today is the first time we get that close You held my hand and didn't let go I dont care about the reason you're holding it I just care about the fact that you held it

I'm into you boy and nothing will Part me from this love cause i was born with Yes I was born to fall in your love Never get up and what else have the pleasure to be named love?

The One

I love the one that his eyes shine whenever he smiles
I love the one who laughs whenever he hears a joke
I love the one that has this baby face
I love the one that has this tiny heart
I love the one with this perfection i see in him
I love the one, the one i see perfect no matter what he does
I love the one who cares about his expensive jacket
I love the one that isn't a waster
I love the one that is so humble
I love the one who looks through people not at them
I love the one who cares about inner beauty and not appearances
I love the one that laughs with everyone
I love the one who smiles at everyone's face
I love the one that is always so nice to others I love the one that helps people he loves no matter what I love the one that loves with all his heart
I love the one that suffers for the one he loves I love everything about this one Except the fact that am not the one he loves Except the fact that i'll never be.....

Too Late To Regret

you are near me no one is between can you hear me it's what you've always wanted I just realized what's a smile and what it really means my heart won't forget the love you gave me

I can see the trees growing green and the stars shining up in the sky I can laugh and I can sing a love song but these all worth nothing when I'm without you you left without saying goodbye and that filled sadness in my heart my tears are going down like waterfalls cause I saw you leaving but couldn't even make a change

we can't get back time but we still have memories I'll live in past cause you're my only future I'll keep on regretting my whole life but nothing will ever change past just hear me once it's something you always asked for just hear me one ' I love you '

I always imagined myself in a white dress and you're next to me in a black suit but now i can see you in white and I'm next to you in black may your soul rest in peace

Two Minutes Ago

Just two minutes ago,
I was with my dream guy,
Just two minutes ago,
I was living a fairytale,

I had to go, i really did,
Felt goodbye coming out of my heart, Felt the pain coming out of my eyes,
If it was my choice I'll never ever leave,

Just two minutes ago you held my hand,
I couldn't take it back pretending i don't want so,
Felt deeply those little seconds,
When your hand tenderly touched mine,

Just two minutes ago i was with you,
It seems like a dream that can't become true,
I cant believe i was really there with you,
I cant believe i wasted time talking instead of staring at you, just two minutes ago you looked me in the eyes, Stared for a while then laughed,

Well this laugh still echoes in my mind,
Then your smile slowly brightened my way,

Just two minutes ago you had my heart,
You had my heart right in your hand,
And without noticing you let it go,
You let it go and fall to the floor,

Just two minutes ago i was counting your breaths,
While you walk i was counting your steps,
While you were talking i counted the words you used,
And while i was leaving i didn't waste these last seconds and stared at you.....

Wanna Erase You From My Life

Every single tear
Every single year
Every night i spent Every word has melt Every look in your eyes Every chance i tried to take Every time the wind blew Every time i wanted to call Every lonely moment i felt Every little secret i kept Every breath i took and held Every time i said I'm fine Helped you get the one you love while you are the one i love Forgot my feelings toward you and tried to make your dream true Only because I'm in love with you, i left everything and lived for someone i thought i knew Discovered you're selfish, vile and mean, you left me alone though you heard me scream Now that i lost many, but i still have few,
I noticed how stupid i am for loving you

What Color Am I?

Dipped in some blue Mixed it with red
How I loved the sound of you Singing to me in bed

Red, Red, is all I see
What color should I use?
In my head it's sickening me
Red. Now isn't this abuse?

Held my brush up high,
Where is my blue?
Maybe it's another big lie
Like the ones I heard from you

Grown up eyes,
I think I'll use some white Between these lies,
It might make it look bright

Whispers, whispers, in the hall Monsters forcing their way in That little crack in the wall
It's a dark, dark night to sin

White, I lost my white With shaky hands I drew
In the scary blackness of night Far away, all my white flew

Lowly whispers, they're still there I'll close my eyes,
In the morning they won't be there I'll shut in my desperate cries

Red, Red, is all I see
I lost my colors that night I surrender, letting it be No color is within my sight

Whispers, whispers, all around Shameless whispers fill my head
I grew tired blocking that sound
All my white was painted red

What color am I?
Color of fear
What color am I?
I don't belong here

What You Once Said

I lifted my face and looked at him
His eyes were wet with tears falling down His cheeks turned red, his love was clear
He said 'forever I will, love you dear '

In a day without a date
In a morning with no sunlight
I passed him by ignoring his tears
But he didn't care and yelled 'I'll love you for years '

With my boyfriend I was walking once I saw him staring, slowly dying so I smiled
He ran and said 'one day you'll discover my love is true '
'One day you'll discover he doesn't even deserve you '

In a party once he asked me to dance
I looked at him, refused, and tried to be nice Felt that his pain could fill the whole sky
But he smiled and said 'I'll love you till I die'

Years and years passed, I was sitting with a broken heart Still I remember when we first met Though you're gone your love is alive and still so blue I'll always remember when you once said
'Forever my heart belongs to you '
