A Distant Smile

Sunrise, Sunset,
Warm night, regrets.
Summer night dream,
What dream may come?

Life, lies, crime,
live your life the same.
Your destiny will prevail,
From nowhere a distant smile.

Lost love, lost war, life in slow motions, Lust, attractions, deep night of passion.
Still your destiny will prevail,
From nowhere a distant smile.

Togheter, two soul in this dull begin, fire on us, but in this holy night will win.
but still your destiny will prevail,
From nowhere a distant smile.

The deep blue see on this horizon,
Will bring to us high terrifying tides,
I can see on the way the perfect wave to ride,
I can see come to us, is a bit far, maybe just a mile,
And from nowhere will appear a distant smile.

A Girl Called Passion

Dreaming my life one day at a time,
Thinking of what I did was wrong or insane.
Thinking of you how you were always so true,
I know you was always in motions,
And someone told me you name is passion.

So I want you to know that I was born to love you, Each day of my life is meant to be looking at the moon.
Love is like magic and it always will be,
My love still remains strong as never did.
Love works in ways that are passion and strange,
And there's nothing in life that love cannot change.

Passion can transform you Into beauty and splendour, Your sweetness and grace can be always tender.
Your passion is unselfish, understanding and kind,
I love you with my heart and with my mind.
Your passion is the answer that everyone seeks, Passion is the language, that every everyone speaks.
Dreaming my life one day at a time,
Thinking of what I did was wrong or insane.
Thinking of you how you were always so true,
I know you was always in motions,
And someone told me you name is passion.

A Great Season

Flowers are growing in this summer garden, Time goes by in this wonderful green forest.

Elf's are singing they everlasting favourite song, Fairy are dancing without doing anything wrong.

Spring is bringing to us the magical cherry trees,
The warm weather is coming along with the bees.

Dragonfly, butterfly and birds are happy as ever,
The faithful princess will sing to us forever.

The river is clear and the mountain are high,
The clouds are happy and the sun is growing bright.

Mirages are coming on the beloved horizon, Daises, roses and poppies are growing for a reason.

The sky is great, ever so blue and ready to run,
The summer is coming fast bringing the hottest sun

Gianni Pintus

A Summer Dream

The sunset,
Eclipsed so slow,
Flowers buds,
Were growing,
So smooth.
The tides,
Where low,
And so calm,
The wind, Didn't make,
Any sound.
There was,
So little,
To do,
There was,
So peace,
Very much so.
Palm trees,
Where sleeping,
The horizon,
Was whipping, People, Dancing on the beach,
Happy moment,
For anyone,
And the moon,
Start to switch.
Too many caresses,
Too many kisses,
So many wishing,
All this whispers,
Made us two souls,
Two real wishers.
Then our,
Mother moon,
Started to following us,
With her shadow,
Started to plays,
With us,

Like a kids,
In the meadows.
The warm,
Gentle breeze,
It was great to feel,
We did enjoyed it,
It was a great fun,
We had a laugh,
Then again appear,
The sun.
What a day,
And what, a night it was, nothing, did gone wrong, nothing upset us,
there was,
just happy time, around us.

A Tale Of Friendship

I believe in you, in what you saying and in what you do.

Friends are forever they are cool they are like gold and always ready to listen.

I'm so glad to have so many,
I'm so glad to have you all, you are so important to me, you make me whole.

Friendship could be so close, or so distant,
could be just an electronic connection, what is important is the affection.

Friendship can eradicate, in 1 second or in 1 century, it doesn't matter,
is that lovely feelings. inside you,
who make you,
great, happy, secure, warm, lovely and mature.

A Yorkshire Tale

Sitting on my window sill, waiting for the cold wind, to blow the snow, in my direction, then suddenly,
in my eyes, appear the attraction.

The frozen street, slow faded way,
and in my mind, only shadows,
I can see,
in the white, snowy town.

The moors, where so empty, and the north wind, blowing so strong, around the hills.

Ghost's,
were walking free, in York and Whitby, the Humber bridge, was busy as usual, as everybody.
were on they back home.

Busy day on the m62, busy night ahead, between Sheffield and Doncaster too, Christmas is near,
the busy meadows, is spitting fear.

Fisherman's, on their way to the pubs, after a miserable, cold day in the bay's, and Scarborough, is awaiting,

the summer day.

But when the times, will come,
everybody will wake up, make theirself, happy and proud, with parties, celebrations and streets bonfire, be aware everybody, this is,
the great Yorkshire.

Above The Universe

You eyes stare out at me, with elegance and warm embrace, this surround lovely place, waiting to the night fail.
Feelings are not lonely, patience its my friend, Gentle my thoughts dare.
Her voice so sweet, like a songbird in meantime the dark fails, and i will cross mountains for her,

and walk on the burning sands, explore the wild lands., gentle bend on her feet. all the things I would do each time we meet.

i will take her across the horizon over the moon, across seas through blue skies and stars loving you Day by day Night by night Kiss by kiss Touch by touch my passion is so deep The universe would not handle my sorrow
I'll love you tomorrow

I'll love you more than ever then cross my heart, and love you forever

And At Last I See The Sky Above Me

From the deepest I'm coming, Coming here in this world, Where selfish feelings,
Are the only words.

From the darkest tunnels I'm coming, Here in this ruin compound, where everything is burn,
Where there is nothing to be found.

Here from the last core i'm coming,
Coming from the darkers place, Here i'm coming just for you,
Where everything it's so dull.

But wait. Just wait for a second, make this better, make this done.
Think nice, positive, with your heart,
Make this a better living,
Make this a words of loving.

Love your brother, love your next kin,
After all we are all with the same skin.
I see the light here, It's so lovely to see it,
And at last I see the sky above me

Gianni Pintus

Androids Love

I'm out of circuit, preserving the monotony, electrifying feelings, just metal rain, no heart to beat,
awaiting in vain.

Lips stiff, no kiss felt,
walking back in reverse, MR 2C it's my name, what is yours?
nobody to blame, just malfunction without pain.

Empty days, never been dated,
all alone after the working days, I'm a robot, not human,
no one to play,
not one to love, no one sent from above.

Close circuit,
I can feel you now, no corrosion in here,
I feel the difference,
I feel magnificent, feel the beat at last, feel reborn, feeling love in many different form, smiling without tears, loving without embarrassment and fears, finally I'm able to percepts will our love be accept?

Andromeda Everlasting

Dry your eyes with pride for heaven sake,
And I promise you I will be naked..

So all your fears and fates are near,
But the brave within you, will remain clear.

Andromeda in the fury of this darkest hour,
I beg you forgiveness as our souls are sour.

I hold my head up high for there is no greater love, Although we are men, with mortal sins and all lost above.

The stars beat our dreams again, Shipwrecked flew the constellation with no men.

In many planets we have been, many lands we have seen, Many lovers we have met, but we departed without regrets.

Andromeda so you must carry this dream into the darkness,
So you will find hope alive among the hopeless.

Let courage find a life within,
Stand up when someone else start to be mean.

Defend the weak & innocent, Love the honest in this words of elements.

The ninth gates are open at last,
The lords of Darkness are in the past.

New detectors from ferryman, Across the gulf of space without run.

Andromeda dance on the mighty Neptune's path.
After the tempest passed away in the dark blast.

War of the worlds are begin,
The white queen dreams take us within.

A brilliant red orb shines through my telescope,
The Martians sky soldiers are surrender to every cope.

Valleys, mountains, dunes lost in this bloodlust,
The warriors of earth's oceans lost the trust.

We dream of journeying back across the void,
We shall land in this city full of androids.

With shameful humour we are always acting,
At last we know the peaceful song of Andromeda everlasting.

Angel Face

My darling and beautiful love,
You have been sent to me from above.
I am so grateful to have you,
And all my love I will give too.

You must have come from heaven and more,
Because your heart is soft and pure.
When you start to cry and try to fly, My heart suddenly begins to raise.

Your sweet lovely voice, Keep make noise in my ear,
But with you by my side,
There is nothing to fear.

We are here together and even so,
You always shine forever and more.
Your beauty is my happiness in this whole world, Raises me up the sky and I will pray to our lord.

Yes, heaven is missing your great pace, because you are here with me and with my fate.
I'll love you for eternity and for all your grace.
Because you're my sweet, beautiful Angel face

Gianni Pintus

Angel Of Love

A beautiful angel coming toward me Taking my hand
And flying with me.

He's holding me tight I'm happy in the sky we flying away in this wonderful day.

Celestial sensations
I love him so much
I see his lips, He kiss me and I love his touch.

We're all alone
In a blue sky room
He lays me down Confident in this love doom.

He kiss my neck
I felt sublime
I felt divine wonderful sensation till the sunshine then waiting the silence tides then living the heaven gate then he kiss me again waiting for the fatal fate.

'Kiss me again', I say Breaking the spell
He hold my hands
Now I know him so well.

'One last kiss' he says Before you go back tenderly I kiss him then I raised to the soft clouds, and felt happy ever last.

Gianni Pintas

Angels

Once a beautiful angel start an infernal race,
The pain is seen in his shadow celestial face.

We all fell once,
We all fell down twice.

But tonight was the night that angels fly, Deep and far away above the sky.

Flying through with their soft pale skin Cutting through the clouds with every mean.

But their worst fears are coming true,
Even the mighty inhabitants of heaven knew.

The rain pours out but the angels didn't make a sound,
So they are given to the all Gods the last flying around.
Endless run above the full ambitious moon, Devils are making havoc from below too soon.

The number they choose to win is 666,
But Angels are too good defeating every sins!

Gianni Pintus

Angels Race

I'm flying too fast, but it is a total blast.
I'm flying to high,
I like it, it is alright.

Super speed,
I like to use,
It is vital, to win this race.

They are,
all well behind, losing gap,
they are all tired, finally at last.

I'm breaking clouds, and touching stars, I'm leading, this race,
from the start.

No matter if I win, no matter if I lose, what make me happy,
is my own pace,
I really enjoy, this angels race

Best Christmas Ever

I wish will snow every day.
I do wish will be joy all the way.

A great Christmas for everybody, with snowflakes around the streets, and all shops handing fee gifts.

Goodies for kids everywhere, go around to the market stall, make the Christmas tree standing tall, ornaments, lights and parties on, with mummy and daddy carry on.

Then wait for the Christmas eve, with children's making for Santa, mince pies and glass of sherry, then in the morning open the presents, and everybody will be merry.

Can't wait for the school holiday, can't wait for the kids play, there will be so much fun outside, as all the kiddies will play with snowball, or making the snowman in their streets, playing all day long together adults and kids.

I can't wait to attend to the sledge competitions, having a run down the hill in slow motions, and I can't wait to drink the hot mould wine, and then feel so happy, cheerful and feel so fine.

Singing carol in their church, with candle in their hands, pray to a better life, with so much hope in demand, children's lay in bed this special night pretending to sleep with eyes closed tight, They know the magic won't be right
If they are still awake after midnight.

So kids beware I'm coming, down your chimney,
make sure you are in bed, then your wish will come finally.

Breathe And Help

I seen things go wrong,
In this world
and I don't like it, Breathe.

There so much hate,
In this world,
and I don't like it,
Breathe.

Passion is lost forever,
In this world,
and I don't like it,
Breathe.

So much domestic abuse,
In this world,
and I don't like it,
Breathe.

All this unnecessary war,
In this world,
And I don't like it,
Breathe.

People hurting people,
In this world,
And I don't like it,
Breathe.

Children in needs.
In this world,
Do something,
Help.

So much poverty,
In this world,
Do Something,
Help.

Too many countries suffering,
In this world,
Do Something,
Help.

Too many people starving,
In this world,
Do Something,
Help.

Too many things unfair,
In this world,
Do Something,
Help.

Breathless

Looking at you, that night,
made me whole,
just one time,
and my heart.
been done.

Breathless.
I was remain, the cold breeze, made me insane.

Your sexy shadow, was great to see,
your sexy moves,
was so great indeed.

I offer you a drink,
I was enchanted, when you made, a wink.

So cute, so perfect,
so kind,
so classy, make me, smiling,
make me,
thinking, if I can hold, you hand, tonight,
will be, a dream, come true.

Gianni Pintus

Chasing Stars

I heard your call,
I look you fall,
I feel your heart,
I know you worth.
I'm chasing stars,
I'm bright and light,
I like to play,
I'm chasing dreams.
I'm here for real.
looking through, the window, try to feel,
the wind,
looking after,
the love blind,
chasing stars,
under the spell, of unicorns, loving,
the uranium sister, under,
the love,
of the holy lord, I'm chasing stars,
in this, wonderful, big world

Gianni Pintus

Childrens

Every children, needs us, every us, needs to,
look after them, no matter what.

They are,
what make,
this world,
still sane.
They are,
in our veins,

treat them, with pain.

All the children, in this big World,
are the future,
our only hope.
For them, we most fight, for they right.

We must treat,
them with care,
we must treat,
them fair.
They are,
our existence, they must,
be brought up,
with confidence.

Every children,
is part of this, solar system,

every parents, need make sure,
kids are look after.

Every children,
got the right, to be here, every little kid,
need to grow up, without fear.

We must make,
this world safe,
we must make,
this world awake.
No matter what,
No matter anything, childrens are,
our best hope,
let's make,
this works, we must think.

We know sometime, they make havoc,
but we did it too,
on our time,
no matter what,
they are our only hope.

City Of Angels

IT'S NIGHT IN ANGELS LAKE CITY.
LIGHTS ARE CALMING DOWN, BABY ANGELS START TO REST, THERE SILENCE, IT'S FOR THE BEST.

THE GUARDIAN ANGELS, ARE GOING TO LOOK OUT, FOR THE EVILS, THEY ARE OUT, TO MAKE SURE, THE LITTLE ONES, ARE SECURE.

BUT THEY ALL KNOW, THE CITY IS SAFE, THEY ALL KNOW,
THE CITY IS GREAT.

THE LAKE IS WARM.
TONIGHT... Read more,
THE LAKE IS CALM, NO WAVE IN SIGHT.

THE BLUE ANGEL PUB.
IS STILL OPEN, THE ANGELS WARRIORS, ARE DRINKING HAPPY, BUT STILL SOBER.

THE RADIO ANGELS FM, IS STILL BROADCASTING, THE LAST SONG,
THE ANGELS TEENS, ARE ALL DANCING STRONG.

ANGELS LAKE TELEVISION, IS STILL GO ON,
THE CHIEF CONSTABLE ANGEL, IS STILL AWAITING FOR A VISION.

BUT AT LAST,
THE ANGELS LAKE CITY, GO TO SLEEP.
EVERYBODY HAPPY, WAITING, FOR THE MORNING, MEANTIME, THEY ALL ARE.
MAKING THEMSELVES WARMING

Close To You

The evening star will bright the dance floor, Moonlight will shine through the white door.

Dance with me till the night will stay with us.
Take me higher where nobody dare to rise.

Well I've been told too many different things,
But I know you are on the top of everything.

If thunders made you flashings in all my dreams, My true love will always show you how much it seems.

Holding you hands everyday it will be a dream come true,
Kiss you gentle all day long will make me more close to you.

I'm waiting everyday to meet you because I'm in love even more,
If I can reach you up to the great moon I will never be again alone.

I close my eyes and you are still in front me just waiting for a kiss,
I don't care how much effort will cost me, I will stay still in front of you as you wish.

After all you are my sweetheart and brave companion and love you alot,
You are all my dream, my everything, my true love and you are so hot.

Hold you hands everyday it will be a dream come true,
Kiss you gentle all day long will make me more close to you.

Gianni Pintus

Dance Of Life, Dance Of Love

First night together here on the ballroom we clicked the first kiss, never felt, nothing like this Looking so deep, into your enchanted eyes,
thinking,
'Ho my god, this is so right' We dance all night long, holding each others, so thigh, staring up the sky, and it feels so right.
Feeling, Like two lovebirds, out of the cage, flying so far away, in a world, where love,
is the essence, of life,
and where lovers, would dare, to exploring,
true feelings, and learn, true meanings.

We can dance,
where the clouds, are gentle,
where the stars,
are so shine, where the moon, is so bright, where lovers, never dare,
where kiss you,
is only fair,

where I cannot resist, where the heart persist

Gianni Pintas

Dance With Me

Your lips shine in the morning for me Your skin is so soft as much can be.
But your tears bring a little happiness for me
My love can never be so true as you reach.

Baby would you dance with me tonight?
Into the serious moonlight,
Brighter than the stars above you shine,
And both of us feels alright.

Give me the moment everybody need.
But your love isn't no strangers for me.
And the morning can never be so sad as you leave.

You're really beautiful tonight,
And I going to loving you that's right.
C'mon babe take a ride with me,
To the desert there's no one can't see.

Got no luck I got no past, Just going a bit too fast,
How long does forever last.

Baby would you dance with me tonight?
into the serious moonlight,
Brighter than the stars above you shine,
And both of us feels alright.

But your tears are now mine, Still keeping them till the end of time.
I'll be waiting for you baby,
I'll be waiting for the new moon begun,
I'll be waiting for this love to run.

I hear the angels calling and the rain starts falling, Thunder and storming brings justice by the morning.
She likes to sleep her nights with the window open wide,
Just in case I would come in her room without any light.

Baby would you dance with me tonight?
And both of us feels alright

Gianni Pintus

Dancing Forever

I've heard your cry in the dark And I thought it will be mad.
I've accepted your request, Because you know I am the best.

And if we get ready to our chance,
This could be done, so let's dance.
But first you must promise me you will sign,
And to sign this you must first read,
Then soon will be done and we can proceed.

Take me to the higher star that is where it will be done,
In front of mother moon your destiny will be won.
I'll let you take my soul away,
If just once you will make my day.
You can have it today in this fair lesson,
In exchange for momentary lapse of reason.

Do what you wish as I'm not scared, Because once its sealed with a kiss,
My soul, my heart and myself will be prepared.
Yes I know I'm a man of principle and fully aware,
That you're capable of less so please grant my request.

And dance with me till we are exhaust and happy with,
I've heard you're in love with me and I'm too and I agreed.
So will take the lead and it will be it together We will succeed against wind, snow and rain
And we will here on clouds dancing forever.

Dare

Hot night, steamy night, white sheet, love is sweet, touching you,
adoring you,
feel your lips.
the last breathe, caress your body,
feel you essence, stay silence, feel malice, feel so soft,
never leave,
never since,
look at me,
I can see,
touching you,
touching me, feel undone, passion will come,
sweat bodies, warm room, last passion, sexy doom, take me above, where is the love?
show me how, things can change, passion it was,
love is here, we are no more,
two stranger, in this night dare.

Gianni Pintus

Darkness Is Coming

The day of darkness are coming, it's all so clear,
They will take our emotions and our fear.

Nothing will be perfect nothing will be right,
In this journey of darkness and In this darkness night.

The imagination will give us more years of blood, Everything dark in this world will become fool.

The silence at certain point will become loud, Darkness is my shield and it is my proud.

I'm riding alone in what we called a living night,
For once, it has revealed life's true the mighty light.

I'm alone, in the darkness hour of this perfect rarity,
We are here lost in the dark in this wild insanity.

No pictures need here in this empty room now or ever,
In darkness weird imagination could be with you forever.

Life is on balance and unclean here,
But neither dirty, uncertain and nor clear.

Gianni Pintus

Dirty Race

Make me swear, hold my arms,
dance with me,
call me names, told you once, .

Face to face, race to race, final straw, let go,
since you here, want you near.

Glad you came, hit the fame,
lay on me,
make the sin,
don't look at me, let it dream, full moon, dirty heart, white roses, falling apart.

Great sensation, night of passion, screaming souls,
dust and guilt, dirt mind,
let's get filth.

Slaves we are, everywhere, since they came,
dirty flame,
call my name,
night insane,
call my bluff, good to say, no one is hurt.

Gianni Pintus

Disguise

Every day I tell my story to the world After dressing myself of dreams
To give to you all what you want But not everything is the way it seems.

These lights are gone crazy
And I need change face every evening
You are the one comes to seek the oblivion, Then escape away in a cloud of illusion.

Behind this mask there is a man
A man who come from so far Living in disguise heartless Then vanquish loneliness.

I can transform everything in reality
I can hide false hopes and lies Even little stars shining in your own sky
And forget your words full of insanity!

With all his weakness, bitterness and problems
But here with you for the same reason What I seek, what I want, only God knows I'm a hollow soul with nothing to prove.

Let the sun begin to shine through your night
Let the light reveal disguise in your life
My life is in the same direction of yours
And everytime I'm reborn I will be here for you I will be your disguise doom.

Gianni Pintus

Dracula Journey

Blood dripped from her veins onto the ground where she stood Wings spread over the bay the whole boat covered in blood Sparks of red blood flashed behind her wounded neck
See the entire red elixir stream out of the shipwreck Then the malevolent creature seem to disappear in the darkness left empty by the storm just a shadow to chase in this madness

In a second the freedom faded and fears raised and we felt fret
I can see in the distance a face that has lived through death
And has decided to embrace life after death and darkness
A chance at life and light but he can't leave the dark night May the sun burning bright and there is no reason to fight it
He will not leave the shadow definitely not a reason to die

Gianni Pintus

Dragon Heart

My fierce Dragon knight, Flying away up the sunny light,

Running fast through the first cloud,
Where no one can shout that loud.

Taking care of the rough peaks, Coming back in the cave just for a sneak.

The best of all, will win the battle,
Meanwhile the loser will always rattle.

The greatest fight not even start,
The dragons heaven never exist.

With fire and wind I come back to earth,
And with my passion I will win what is worth.

The scars I've over my body are forever, My dragon heart will keep me alive and die never.

Gianni Pintus

Dreaming

I dream into your eyes,
And from that moment I knew, I'm going to fall for that eyes, ho such a beautiful blue.

My heart keep tell me,
The waves had reached heaven, with the stars below our feet, Time had stopped passing, and our journey was complete.

It was our first kiss, since the day we met, it was so passionate and I will never forget.

The stars shining brightly all around us,
From high up above, and the entire universe felt the love.

You are the light of my dreams,
And my soulmate too,
I think of you every time, then I look at the stars, and I know you will be mine

Gianni Pintus

Dreams

Wake up in the morning ligh,

Your silence will never betray.

Wake up from this wonderful believe,

Do not be afraid of what it is.

Strong willing will make you the one,

Love is the answer you will found.

Dreams are coming toward ourselves,

Dont let me go and either yourself.

Night passions always we felt,

Those nights we lived never melt.

Looking for the thruth behind our love,

Will reveal the dreams we find above.

But if you care about what always seems,

Don't hide behind you deepest dreams.

Gianni Pintus

Drive She Said

Drive she said to everyone,
Drive away let's have fun.

No one knew what happened to that girl
She just seemed to be a wonderful pearl.

No one of us never knew where she came from,
She was born maybe here or maybe she just came along.

Driving my man, I just want be taken to the next ground, She always ask a passer by ' Hey man where is the next town? ''.

Drive she said to everyone,
Drive away let's have fun.

They always took her to the same road,
She knew which way to take as she would.

She say to all 'if you dare enter those fields at night, when the light of the full moon shines strong and fair bright'.

Drive she said to everyone,

End Of Days

Close my eyes, but he still near,
Open my eyes and I can smell only fear.

Infernal flames all around him I can see,
The beast is awake in this dare dream.

Rusty smell of burn came from hell,
His majesty is wake up and look well.

The Darkness is here wide awake
We all live in fear of the Evil's sake.

And when those flames are over and burnt out,
What you shall hear is only the demonic shout.

But he cannot move without the shadows light,
I wish he will be hunt forever in this eternal night..

666 is the address you want,
But be careful he ready to hunt.

No mercy, only admiration to the beast,
For the others no rest no peace.

He never sleep or out of play,
Be careful this are the end of days

Endless Love

This wind is calling on us within,
Let's making love, let it begin.
We are calling for passion while we are lay down, Deep into the night, naked without make sound.

Dreamers is what they call us,
We are together in this journey of love.
We are here lay in this endless eternal encounter,
Will God ever wake us up in this night of wonder?

It feel we are spending the night ahead in never land,
But I cannot hear your voice and I cannot here any sound.
We are here peaceful and lost in in this pleasure dome,
We are here making love all night in this holy home.

We are lay so quiet on a bed of red rose,
We are so happy here making true love.
We are here lay in this endless eternal encounter,
Will God ever wake us up in this night of wonder?

Gianni Pintus

Endless Night

I can hear,
The wind, whispering,
Behind, the full moon, Lighting my room,
In this lovely, hot light,
We spent, the night,
Sitting, on the window, Drinking and laughing.
Telling to each other,
Tales and stories.
We were surrounded from beautiful butterflies, ladybirds and dragonfly, Talking about Unicorns, And smelling wild flowers,
From silent to sudden laugh,
Then a kiss from the past,
This beautiful Summer night,
Was great so cute and bright,
We cannot stop talk and giggle,
It was a real blast,
It was a great laugh

Gianni Pintus

Eragon

I can see the horizon, yes I'm just a farmer boy, Eragon is my name.

Shall will land on the field, mighty dragon,
you are my shield.
Shall we dance?
through the sun, in the mist, above the peeks, in the fog,
with the stars above, kissing the moon, then lay to sleep, and wake up soon..

Evils tried, to incurs, the wrath, of devils, and demons, are out to catch you but I know, you are ready you are my hero, ho dear Eragon.

Saphira, is so vigilant,
in looking after you,
she is so proud, to be with you.

Shall will fly, above the sky,
mighty dragon,
you with me,
Shall we run?

in the fields, through the waterfalls, down the earth flames, chasing elf's,
and god knows, what will become,
but nothing here,
is wasted, nothing here, is come,
and undone.

We flew, where,
no one dare, where only, monsters beware.

We lived,
the days of dragons, we lived in a world of fantasy, and in a world of warriors.
but nothing is lost.
where only ghosts, are hollow,
we will defeat them,
I know we do,
because I trust you, my dear Eragon

Gianni Pintus

Eternity

Thinking of you without any limit,
Holding you into my arms for the eternity.

We are similar in this great love, we are together in this feeling groove.

Loving you every moment, Why I'm writing this poem.

Loving you since we met,
Loving you without regret.

Thinking of you without any limit,
Holding you into my arms for the eternity.

Fallen Angel

The skies are in peril tonight,
Angels are fallen in this dark light.

The rain is coming thick in this way.

I can hear melancholic singing from the gods above,
Will the chosen one sing all day to us?

The divine sword will slice our dreams.
Angels are fallen in this night full of mean.

Why will live in hates and discord?
Why we are going back without words?

Who will be the might Archangel Gabriel?
Well put in this way, it is a difficult label.

God make us a better person,
But we still make sins without reason.

The skies are in peril tonight,
Angels are fallen in this dark light.

Invincible clouds above this day,
The rain is coming thick in this way.

Who will be the might Archangel Gabriel?
Well put in this way it is a difficult label.

Gianni Pintus

Fear

Dreaming, a real dream,
has been unveiled, the flames of desire, standing here, touched by fire.

Wake up, and seen nothing, my mind is lazy,
there is no recalls, nothing at all.

The last stand, give me some faith, touch my soul, freeze my kiss, before is too late.

Togetherness, don't look back,
don't say a word,
don't make swear, we run from here.

Love will be believe, face the truth, silence at once,
hearts of angel, we are in danger.

Breathless,
look around,
so many sounds,
loot at me,
there isn't anything.

The final chapter, senseless,

my fantasy,
don't turn your back, to the reality.

Gianni Pintus

Feeling The Heartbeat

Day and night, look into the light, running wild,
will you dare, sweeping my feet, feeling our heartbeat.

Remain in silence, nothing to tell,
shall we dance,
love at first instance.

Where we are going?
when will we stop?
look at the moon, the night is falling on us, so soon.

I'm crazy about you, you know I am,
let this love run,
let's for once have fun.

The deepest dream, is looking for us,
it's coming in the moonlight, to pick us up,
and take us,
to a far away place, where we will be blessed, where everything is timeless, living a day dream, and feeling our heartbeat

Gianni Pintus

Feelings

In the morning your love is warning you kindly invading my space our bodies feel the heat and the morning is bright is our age of reason, I felt the touch then in the midnight hours my heart wake up and my love born again demanding happiness touching feelings above walls

dreaming to make love under the waterfall holding hands in the sunset

stay close to eachothers

until the sunrise

make this love so bright

under the shining stars accompanied by the wise moon feeling the nothern wind on our back smell the flowers scent then leave the mighty sky and slowly comeback to hearth with a magnificent descent.

Gianni Pintus

Fire On Us

See that flame?
It warms your heart,
You will never feel apart.

See that fire?
It will make your heart hot,
And you will feel soft.

Fire on us, fire all night, Fire tonight,
With fire we will fight,
With Fire we will together,
With an untamed flame forever

Gianni Pintus

First Poem

The grass was green, the hills spin,
the trees were so tall, the water fall.
the mountains was high,
the birds fly,
the leopards roars,
the monkeys moans,
the lion king,
the butterflies wings,
the lakes mirror, the first willow,
the mighty wind,
the moon is kind,
the stars are bright,
the sky is light,
the owl sleep,
the swallow wish,
the panther wait,
the snake bite,
the queen dream, the king sing,
the soldiers march,
the enemy search,
the kids play,
the adults pray,
the wall is bent, this story end.

Gianni Pintus

Flying Away

We may fly away, Hiding everyday.
In the dark side of the moon, Riding above the skies too soon.

Running beyond the storms, Shinning through the rainbows.
Watching from up above, Feeling each others love.
Sitting above the stars in our special place,
And looking at each others face to face.

Chasing non stop our dreams every day,
Loving close to each others in every way.
Touching the heaven every night,
Switching on togheter our everlasting light.

Bringing in this world our devotion, Fly above the wave in this lovely ocean,

Our everlasting love will be amuse, Fly above anything without lose.

Fly in this sky insane with angel's wings,
We will get married wearing our shining rings.

The honeymoon will start in this beloved ship, Everything is packed ready for our special trip.

We are now heading for the beloved sun,
We're flying for few hours or maybe just for one.

Gianni Pintus

Forbidden Love

Why you left me here in despair?
Left me here with this broken love affair.
With many promises that never came,
Left me here in this love of shame.

I Can't breath no more, I can't feel any air, Left me here in this cruel world with no care.
Trying to make a new dimension with my head above, Left me here with expectation of this forbidden love.

Feeling shameful and broken against Life's wall, Left me here alone and ready to fall.
'Please' you said 'Come and share with me', Whatever Fate has deemed to be.
I thinking of you with all my love,
Left me here alone and I cannot move.

Now you gone and I'm still here with no chance, Feeling hurt, empty and crushed by this lost romance.
Ok let's just be a friend, in care indeed.
Farewell my love, that's all I shall that ever need.

Gianni Pintus

Forest Blood

Running through that forest,
Where the shadows creeping,
I felt your breath all around my neck,
My veins are exploding, they are so weak.

I turned at once steering at your eyes,
This dark forest whispers names.
Losing myself deeper and deeper Silence is moving creeper and creeper.

Into my own insanity, but I smell blood Your eyes are cold, but yet so charming.
Would you bite me again and again?
To feel the darkness, to feel the domain?

Your smile fades away, in this furious haunting night, Waiting for the sunrise as you close your haunting eyes.
But my innocence you cannot kill, even after the crime,
My lost soul is only what I can feel, but it shall be only mine.

It's coming, this transformation it's begin all over me,
I feel it so much, it's make me for sure very ill.
Darkness as took my body on this cruel night,
This forest is without peace till the morning light.

Gianni Pintus

Forest Blood 2

Her voice was very acute, so deep,
But at last she gone to sleep,
This last drip should be fine,
In this forest the silent is mine.

Where the quiet darkness night is alone,
My thoughts are like an heart full of stones.

A blood full of deception and anger, full of screams,
She just lay here, in this immortal forest filling my dreams.
Her kisses are the immense and I can feel the last sip,
That grow in my black veins while dusk and dawn are so deep

I must hurry, must carry her into my beloved eternal room,
I know she will be fine when she wake up in this infernal doom.
In a bed of red roses you will rest for a while my dear,
We will sleep through the day, but in the dark will stay near.

Forest Blood 3 (Re-Birth)

Will be blood,
In the moonlight, all over her,
on her red lips, where no heart will beat.
Black wings in the night, she so close to feel the real bite, waiting for the moment, while the vampire will take her life, wait and see,
if this will hurt, waiting the re-birth

Gianni Pintus

Forest Blood 4 (Love Embrace)

You are now within me Warming me with your blood Under the skin, over the world.

This unforgiving fruit will bust,
It surreal with just two marks left.
From your teeth I can see now, Dripping wet with blood, it is cloud.

Drank calmly and tender from all my sins
I have been bitten from my skin,
This lost soul I have seen,
From heart I have felt,
This flame desire will never melt.

Gianni Pintus

Forest Blood 5 (Bring Me Back To Life)

The darkness falls, and I see nothing, starting to fear, it begins real, then I fall, in this night whole.

I can't feel it,
Nothing to heal it,
The room is dark, but footsteps approach,
In this cold evening, Forbidding, unforgiving.

The door creep, I turn slowly,
A tall shadow I can see only.
As my eyes blink, I realise my fate.
The shadows embrace my hate,
My believe turns black,
Dark days are coming back.

Its loud, all so very loud,
Be a bat, is make me proud,
I closed my eyes, then opened,
there I was, on the bed,
He came up,
and sudden he took a bite, Bring me up to the dark skies, and finally introduce me to the eternal life.

Gianni Pintus

Forest Blood 6 (Eternal Flame)

A always dreamed this encounter, This sinister feeling make me wonder.
Peace all around this room, Dark happiness are ready to rule.

Touch me my eternal prince,
Hold me with your infernal wings.
Yes I can feel this fire all around me, Yes I can feel your breath in this night to be.

I open my heart and love to you prince of darkness,
I will full my joy of princess in this wonderful emptiness.
Page of history ahead I can feel, touch and see,
Will be love, lust and blood ahead, I swear will be.

No angels can stop us to make this world divine,
No heaven can stop the darkness making crime,
And no justice will be unveil in this dark world insane,
The reins of darkness is coming up bringing the eternal flame.

Forest Blood 7 (The End)

Hold my hand tight my beloved Prince, I can feel the pain in my heart,
This time we cannot win.

Hold me forever my great lover,
I can feel the end in my heart,
This time we will surrender.

Hold me till the last moment my great guidance,
I can feel the blood disappear from my heart,
This time there is no turning back at once.

Hold till the dawn my great spirit,
I can feel the lost war in my heart,
This time our love found the limit.

Hold my entire body my trustful everything,
I can feel you deep inside my heart,
This time we will die forever with no rebirth.

Hold me till the rein of darkness will suck them,
I can feel the end of days inside my heart,
This time our journey has come to an end.

Gianni Pintus

Forever

Close your eyes and bring me back memories, I'm dream the wild night, feeling the light,
there will be love,
sent from above.

Open you eyes, nothing has changed above any limits, feel the passion,
there will be love,
true devotion.

Grab your sword, go down to hell and save me, bring me back to life, where I belong too, show me respect and I will fly, with no regrets,
show me the true,
and I will be always with you.

Warrior heart, its what I feel.
your soul its mine, I do love you and I always will.

When the sun will rise, there will be peace, then I will show you, my true love and ever and forever, this entire planet,
will be enough, to make wish come true, the universe will be aware, the tides will ride with no fear, the unborn treasure, will come to life,

and feel real,
the polar star, will feel my love and forever, my soul, will float, everywhere above.

Gianni Pintus

Forever And Ever

I can hear,
The butterflies whispering on me Behind the soft blooming wind,

The faires are dancing In the early hours Then they spend, their night, reading fair stories to our kids surrounded by the warmest fire, Telling stories and tales.

The beautiful unicorn giggle, at the sight, dancing gently,
on wild flowers, jumping on the soft hills, laughing along the cheerful birds, and feeling so happy with all.

Then you suddenly rise from silent heavenly soars, looking the prairie and even so smiling at us and disappear again in the universe, blasting stars vanishing in this constellation forever and ever.

Gianni Pintus

Forever More

Since you left that day my heart have been sore,
I have been dreaming about you forever more.

Been seen wonderful things while dreaming about you,
Been whispering in the night searching for the true.

Been a while ever since the wildest of the winds,
Been whispering about you and me within.

Feel my heartbeat and just begun,
Feel my heartbeat on this endless run.

Feel my heartbeat if you dare,
Feel my heartbeat forever more.

Been a while ever since I let it shine in,
I have been wondering without you within.

Been a while ever since the wildest of winds, Started whispering about you within.

Every path I take, every moment I made, Every breath I take, every time I wait.....

Every clouds I walked, every stars I met, Every dreams I made, every time I wait....

Since you left that day my heart have been sore,
I have been dreaming about you forever more.

Been seen wonderful things while dreaming about you,
Been whispering in the night searching for the true.

Been a while ever since the wildest of the winds,
Been whispering about you within.

Feel my heartbeat and just begun,
Feel my heartbeat on this endless run.

Feel my heartbeat if you dare,
Feel my heartbeat forever more.

Gianni Pintas

From Here To Eternity

Remembering, succeed,
touching you,
till the day, vanished.
Your warm hands, over my body,
you cold breathe, was so intense,
I felt passion, unforgettable, emotions.

Take me,
with you,
take where,
I cannot fall,
I'm an angel,
I will make,
my call.

Kiss me,
kiss me dear,
I want hold you,
I want stay near you.

This empty gap, between us,
is unbearable, this solitude,
is unreachable.

There is not stars, like you,
the moon,
will never be bright, as you are,
the sky is blue,
but you are so true,

the sun,
is warm today, but you are,
the pretty thing here, if I can say.

There is nothing, compare to you,
no destiny,
no infinity, from here, to eternity.

Gianni Pintus

Golden Heaven

A golden heaven is appearing in this hollow sky,
Stretching through the clouds and heading on our way.

This is our sacred reward, for our deadly and painful sins.
But a new life they have been given to us with a new begins.

Broken Horizons, fallen stars, dark moon, hell bells, rising water,
As the gates of heaven slowly close living behind the sad old mother.

A golden heaven is appearing in this hollow sky,
Stretching through the clouds and heading on our way.

Almighty angels are never falls into the black rift,
The silver star is brighten towards us, what such gift!

The great white north pole at last it is not that far away,
The fleet is driving fast heading to the golden heaven and sky.

Gianni Pintus

Gone With Sins

Lay on here, feel the heat,
bringing back with fear, temptation, salvation, destruction, lust,
lost love,
eternal fire on me, tainted love on you.

Open your eyes, grab my dreams,
throw yourself there, where only heartless dare, bringing back memories, no playtime anymore, feel empty, feel sore.

The wind blow on us, the evening breeze, seems disappear at last,
funny games here,
it was a real blast,
but you gone away with sins, you gone away so fast.

Gianni Pintus

Have A Good Time

Time is coming to pack your suite case,
You will have a great fun with lots of noise.

I wish you all the tinsel you get,
I'm sure you spend your time without regret.

I'm sure you will be happy as ever,
And you will be smiling forever.

Have a good time with lots of giggle, have a great week with a nice wiggle.

I'm sure mountain, seaside, lakes or whatever you choose,
You will be as a usual sensible and very wise.

Enjoy plenty you days out, have a great laugh in your nights about.

Be always happy while you can.
let's have have a great fun with all the gang.

Im sure you will be fine,
I wish you to have a good time

Gianni Pintus

Heaven Can'T Wait

My great Lord give me the strenght I need,
My beloved God take me to the right way ahead,

The heaven is there, not far at all,
I'm free at last, out of this wall.

The angels are leading me above in the sky,
The gate of wonder is open at last, I can see the way.

This magnificent view is what I love to see,
It is calm at last and I can feel below the great sea.

I'm following the celestial path in this holy road,
This will be my last walk before meet God.

No fear ahead, only peace in my heart, Justice has been done for what is worth.

White is the colour surround me at last,
My feelings are great, no need walk too fast.

I starting to see a light in front of me,
I'm going right where everything is a dream.

Finally the last step is done and I've been guided, I'm so relaxed and happy, here everything seems quite.

Above this cloud I can see horizon, stars and so much space ahead, I'm in peace with myself and for certain there is calm and I just lay in bed.

Gianni Pintus

Heaven, Hell And.....What Else

What kind of dream I had,
Not nice, not even sad,
I wish to see the happy angels,
No sorry I wish to dance with devils.
But what I really want is to be in heaven.
There is a celestial atmosphere in this clouds,
But I also I want see the might evil flames around us.
Ho wow all this wings around me, Ho is hot down here, I feel the grip.
Lovely music and the bells sound is good,
The beast Eternal flames is so rude.
Above or below I cannot decide,
But I wish to be somewhere else,
I wish to be far away, to the far side

Gianni Pintus

Heavens

At last this dark sky is free from clouds,
On this late cold evening without any crowd..

We are sitting hugging our knees,
In this cool and wet winter breeze.

We are walking beating against the rocks below,
We are fighting on this cliff standing tall.

The wind bells ring around our ears,
As the day dreams bring us to tears.

Wondering if anything was wrong.
A distant smile is all we could do, While from my mouth it come out 'I love you'

Deep into our eyes we stared,
I told you many times how much I cared.

All what can I see is a Heaven in your eyes,
So we are dancing away along the butterflies.

So we are relaxed now and looking at the Heavens above,
As we kisses for all day long in this tale of true love

Gianni Pintus

Hollow

Cold breath air,
Years of loves in despair.

Recall in this breeze air,
Years of loves unfair.

touch me, Caress me,
Love me,
Talk to me.

Rip the wild wind,
Following the fatal sin.
Attracted from the past,
This mutual feeling will never last.

Talk to me,
Make me alive,
hold me,
hold me now,
hold me tight.

Warm heart inside me, Years of great loves could be.
Recall the eternal flame,
All this loves are the same.

Hate me, leave me,
But talk to me,
And love me.

Fly with me in the sky,
Tears in my eyes will never dry.
Don't waste a chance,
No time for the last dance,

Sorrow, will follow,

in this night hollow.

Gianni Pintus

Holy War

Andromeda is ready to battle, Scorpios is looking for peace, Vega want all this to settle, Cassiopeia is showing her face.

Delta is our great mother,
Aquarius is awake and want all this end,
Taurus is our great father, Perseus will never surrender.

Phoenix is proud and everlasting, Sagittarius is in love with heaven and more,
The Auras are flapping their wings, Antares is hurt and ever so sore.

Centaurus are calling the war, Capricorn is showing her beauty, Caphorla loves the core, Sirius completed their duties.

Wars, lost love and lost feelings, Earth, wind, fire,

The holy moon wounds, slowly healing.

The constellations soldiers, are looking the sun.

this surreal battle, is ready to run

Gianni Pintus

And I'm so glad that you are only mine! !

Gianni Pintus

I Love You

Think of you all night long,
Think of you all day strong.

Just loving you with all my words
It is good but don't seem enough.
Loving you when smiling, Still brightens my day while Im sailing.

I hope you know what's in my heart.
Because loving you means will be no hurt.
Think of you all night long,
Think of you all day strong.

Just loving you with all my words

Because loving you means there will be no hurt

Gianni Pintus

I Will Find The Way

To find your way,
You need to pray

Look at me if you dare,
And you know I will be there.

We really need to talk,
We need this matter to sort.

You need look into my heart,
You need try because I'm worth.

Say no more, say no less,
Say I love you, say go bless.

We need patch this awkward feeling,
We need peace around us and mean it.

Look at me one more time,
Look at me with no shame.

I want talk and tell you who I'm, Because I'm a man who love the sun.

If heaven will roars and bouncing,
It means the stars are dancing.

My hands are cold and need to be hold,
I will find my way in this love unfold.

Gianni Pintus

If I Could

If I could look into your eyes,
It would take me above the skies.

Just to see the sunrise on your face,
It would take me to a forgotten place.

If I could run through the open air,
It would take me where only lovers dare.

If I could be with you tonight,
I would hold you till the morning light.

If I could kiss your beautiful red lips,
My throat will be dry as you would take a sip.

If I could feel your breath in my whole body,
The love for you will be always ready.

But for now I'm waiting the day finally come,
To be with you my love and I let my dreams run.

Gianni Pintus

If I Could Touch That Star.

IF I COULD TOUCH THAT STAR.

I do feel the same,
Hope to see you again.

If could touch that star,
If could touch it all night.

I don't know where are you,
And every second is not good

I do feel the same,
Hope to see you again.

If could touch that star,
If could touch it all night.

Heaven and hell are here now,
The tempest of love is taking a bow.

I do feel the same,
Hope to see you again.

If could touch that star,
If could touch it all night.

Gianni Pintus

I'M Becoming

Cold, what I felt for years, I felt no feelings, nothing to healing, nothing for real.

There was a man in me, but there wasn't,
no heart to feel,
it was all cold around, no sensation, no wounds.

Then a light appear, something never felt,
came near,
and felt so real.

My dignity,
my aspiration, my true feeling and my emotions, suddenly,
grows all over me,
and I started to becoming,
a better man.

Start to feel love, feel the mean of life, feel what is wrong and what is right.

Feel the sun, feel the warm on me, feel the snow,
feel the cold on me, feel the rain,
feel divine, feel so loved and feel so inspired.

See the light and walk it through, see the night,
and dream of it, see the truth and not escape, I feel I'm becoming,
a better man,
and it's never so late.

Gianni Pintus

I'M Coming Back

I still see the train going and you drying that tear I promise I will be back I love you my darling, my dear.

One year its not one century
I know its difficult to stay without you.
You are the memory our love which is still inside me but in the outside there is nothing to prove.

The rose you gave me will dried when I comeback and I still hold it in my book which I keep reading everyday wait for me baby I will come to stay.

I want hold you with my arms, always think of you you are my love life
One year its not one century
I know its difficult to stay without you.
You are the memory our love
but in the outside
there is nothing to prove

In Love With An Angel

I saw an angel lay on the floor,
I heard his voice once,
He really care for you,
He brought peace, he always do.

Then he stood up, and flaps his angel's wings, Standing tall, and fate he will brings.
He whisper so gentle, in your ear,
He touch you,
Then you feel real.
Looking trough your eyes,
without fear,
Smiling at you,
and feel you so near.

He will show how to love Fill you with his presence, Bringing magic in your life,
Show you what is wrong,
And what is right.

Always stand beside you,
And make you always worth,
Help in what you need to do.

Fill you always with his love Then flying with you, above anything, and everywhere,
with his might wings.
And he will show, everything in this universe,
He will take you where is best,

Fly, fly my beautiful angel,
I want be with you, because with you,

I ain't feel in danger,
I will love you for the eternity, I will love you always,
I will love you forever,
And will forget you never.

Gianni Pintus

In The Sky

Fast as you can,
Whenever you want,
Up there is the fun,
Hey you are my top gun.

Wherever you going, whatever you saying,
I see you in the sky,
Dangerous playing.

Air smoking in circle, without any fake,
Bringing joy in the sky.
With sensible pace.

Jets and plane in the light, Clouds and stars on my sight.
Wind and storm in the night, Pilots in uniform are bright.

Fast as you can,
Whenever you want,
Up there is the fun,
Hey you are my top gun.

Gianni Pintus

In The Universe

We stare the stars, sit together,
Hand in hand,

then looking into, each other's eyes and I wonder, if you are,

here with me, till the eternity.

I am not thinking, about tomorrow
I don't want.
get there,
or will be sorrow.
That gentle whisper, that surreal kiss,
A magic moment, in a perfect day.

This untouched feeling, took us when we first met, our bodies so trapped, till we felt the heat.
Then suddenly,
I felt your heartbeat, felt it so much,
through the night,

loving so much,
in each other's arms, then wake up,
with the shade, of the morning light.

Lost here,

we are,
in this universe of fate,
lost here,
we are,
in this love embrace.

Gianni Pintus

In Time For Christmas (Xmas Eve)

The motorways so busy, the shops still opens, it's so hard to go back at home,
I'm here in the sky doing the job all alone.

Kids in the world are awaiting for me, I'm in demand, this is the night to be, there will be things to everybody, children's and adults too, this is my job it is what I do.

The snow will not slow me down, the clouds will not play me around, the rain will not be my enemy, not evil ghosts, no hollow jealousy, will ever stop me,
No waste of time, no out of direction, no false emotions will ever stop me, children's are waiting for this night, I'm coming down your chimney, make sure you are ready,
make sure you are free, and make ready your Christmas tree.

Of course mince pie and glass of sherry, will be a bonus, for me, but nevermind about it, I will do my job as always, making sure everybody are happy, and get what they want, in this holy Christmas eve.

Infinite Angels Space

Celestial music, white clouds,
sound calm, nothing loud,
Angel with a blue eyes, angels playing harps, God is listening it, every night.
Who plays the piano, who plays the violin, who only sing,
the might hymns.
Angels are so kind, angels are so bright, they are so cute,
they are so good.
they always show, good will they always got.
This immense thick cloud.
is like an infinite garden, you can see angels play, you can se they are happy, every day.

Gianni Pintus

Inhabitants

The evolution of the earth around the sun
A tireless endless battle start to run.

It brings on me stories of the stolen seasons, Rain, snow, mild and warm weather lay here for a reason.

All the earth's holy inhabitants are in debate,
So we all know when it come the time to celebrate.

The radiant warriors are walk alongside the white witches,
And when to bare theirselves out in the hot sand beaches.

Into the heavens I weep,
For a pain that is so deep.
Within. not even the soul can see it, Nor can it hear or feel it.
Only through the eyes can it be seen,
It cannot be helped. if I feel it.

So we know what to eat and what to wear,
So we know when the season's greetings are to share.
Flowers bud, blossom, are in motion, Lakes frozen, Iceberg melt, and humans hibernate,
I wonder when we all adapt the unsparing sun to transformate.

Well, when the earth itself is so reliant,
Will the inhabitants be so valiant?

Gianni Pintus

Last Promise

Dreaming underneath the stars, dancing under the moonlight, this warm feelings thought the night.

Your soft kiss was gently and slow, our blood got warm and our desire flow, then we kissed lips to lips, closer and closer, until the sunset faded.

This passionate embrace, will be here with me, my willing we keep me strong,
to keep her with me, to keep her safe.

Whispering with no fear, my words are so near, saying to her 'I love you, I love you ', and again as the time seems stop never,
I said 'I love you, forever and ever'.

That was my last promise, my desire to be together, to be together in this universe, hands in hands,
in this romance unwritten, felling forever our heartbeat.

Gianni Pintus

Legend

Mighty, eternal ancient,
through magical skies, merge into legend.

Full moon rises high, hear the soft whispering sigh, lightening the forest deep, this night beautiful asleep, to all those souls dreaming, there is so much gentle streaming, then giving way to the almighty day, chases the mother moon away, daydream believer will come,
And finally I will dreaming on my own.

Sweet night sleeps, Awaiting the first kiss, from your self you will be aware Legend faded away in despair,

Back to the begin, before time began,
Across the moon, heaven, stars and lands, There's noises in this evenly tides,
When the northern light fades away?
Running fast in the right way,
From light till dawn the next day.

The mother moon is pale as she sways, Taking her breath and her spirit away.

Gianni Pintus

Life Is A Masterpiece

I've been in there, do that but still feel apart, there is a man in me but there still uncertain fear, Its a beautiful world out there,
I must see everything and embrace the fact.

I've been here for a while now, and I felt peace, I felt love and felt wonderful, I breath air, feed my vanity and experience the oddity,
I talked with angels and battle against devils, I dance with the queens and in war with the witches, run against the shadows and in love with moon, hunt vampires and werewolf's and talk with sirens.

I have been close to the sun once, then faded away with the night, I've been involved in so many war and I have opened so many doors, I killed Aliens, dismantles the Terminator, and hunt forever the predator, I run away once after been asked to marry her, and escape so far away where the Hurricane roar, I've been hiding in hell and been involved in the World war 2, and I felt in my blood Dart Vader voice too.

Watched 'Gone with the wind' so many times, and pretty woman with me will still remain, I slept where only the eagles dare,
I've seen so many domestic abuse ended unfair, Certainly children's are my best recall,
I fail once in deep feeling with the Niagara falls, Jack the ripper it was an evil man but I caught him once, the stars are always my favourite why I feel them in my room.

I've been chatting with the universe itself, and kissing the fairies and the beautiful Marylyn herself,

I remember once I've been invited in heaven to seem HIM,
I played music with Louis Armstrong and it was a win, I've been chatting with God about all the possibility, and he told me once 'great power are coming with great responsibility', but now I'm here reflecting all my past, sitting in this clouds with you, and I know this will last.

Gianni Pintus

Little Angel (Baby P)

Bye, bye little angel, so bright and so sweet, you had been here with us, with your heart of love and joy,

You are our little angel,
You are our pride and joy, and our favorite boy.

Now you will rest in peace, no one now will treat you bad.
we watch you grow and change, we will remember you always, with every smile on your tiny face.
you are so special in every way and we will love you every day.

Gianni Pintus

Live Or Die Forever

Building castles in the clouds Loving the sliding moon for now.

Fading away with the breeze,
So will you be pure with no disease.

The world will melt at once,
All sounds will stop since.

But the chosen one will breath, .
In darkest time you will leave.

The gothic church is empty in this town, Werewolf's are coming in this empty ground.

Lord of darkness will be a universe born,
The damned will travel away with storm.

Where the vampires are gone?
Daylight is the enemies for some!

Gunfire's what I heard up that hill, Shot them up I said, fire at will.

Don' t look back in fear to the malevolent night, Live or die forever in this surreal fight.

Gianni Pintus

Long Life To The King

The royal phoenix just flew above this world,
The white wizard appeared with his magical sword.
The last winter season was melting away,
The sun was so strong lighten our day.

The king decided to make his people happy and delight,
He kept all of them busy as well through the fiery night.
But the morning after the crucial moment was real,
The war was imminent and then surreal.

All the villages welcomed him with incredible love, Till one day he woke up and declared this war must be solved.
He declared peace and on his throne he intend to stay,
In meantime the powerful evil sorcerer vanished away.

But the next winter was fatal and the king's people barely survived,
Then just when they couldn't have taken any more, the spring just arrived,
The bravest fairy cured all the people which most of them were ill, Meanwhile the mighty knights sharpened the swords with their skills.

The warriors worked hard and then go to sleep in the stall,
They never were afraid of dark and always ready for the call.
The king was aware the enemies were coming fast and he start to worry,
But with furious approach he made a strong defence around the castle with no hurry.

He did make all he can to clear his name,
He did beg everybody without any shame.
Remembering what he built and always thinking clever.
But through his powers the kingdom was greater than ever.

Gianni Pintus

Lost In Space

The metallic rain upon my face,
With my tired body I woke up from grace.

In this night of falling stars I made my bed,
But I'm still lay alone with noises in my head.

This voyage is making surely ill, Nightmares are coming, I know they will.

I'm not living with remorse after left mother land,
But this empty space ahead will never give me strength.

But the spaceship is still going straight with right pace,
I know I'm the last man standing but I'm still lost in space.

Gianni Pintus

Lost In The Night

We run back on our time with love and desire.
We are still running in circle with our hearth on fire.

Darkest night we did have,
Hopes and loves never failed.

Lost feelings dancing in the coolest night, we never said why we are sore and dry.

We are lost in the night since our young age,
we are trying to put it right since we left that cage.

Ghosts are still dancing around our spirits, the shadows of god is playing on our feelings.

I loved once for my hero,
I hated once for my own ego.

Dreams and hopes are welcome again,
Loving everyday is the right thing to said.

We are lost in the night since our young age,
we are trying to put it right since we left that cage.

But our sentiments and our legacy of love is always right,
We are now happy as we are not anymore lost in the night

Gianni Pintus

Love Is.....

Love is desire,
Love is on fire,
Love is my word,
Love is to hold,
Love is my sin,
Love is my dream.
Love is lust,
Love is my truth,
Love is my journey,
Love makes me horny,
Love is on me,
Love is what you see,
Love teach me how,
Love takes a bow,
Love never dies,
Love is a surprise,
Love take care of you,
Love is true,
Love is my faith, Love is great,
Love is so real,
Love is dear,
Love is you,
I love you, always do

Gianni Pintus

Love Poem 2

This sky is perfect, even when I sleep,
It is a wonderful sensation hear you speak.

We are tired up and I say to you sweet dreams,
I want kiss your lips if you know what I mean!

And this waiting make me empty through the day,
I rather spend it together but you're always away.

I think of you always, wishing for a caress or a touch,
I Think always of you, I love you so much.

When we are apart, I wish so much to be rather near,
I want always remember you, I wish you always here.

From the deepest of my heart, you are the only one I can see,
You will be with me forever, and for sure together we always be.

Gianni Pintus

Love Story

Young at heart, love will tear us apart?
our heartbeat pulse,
hold my hand,
as we indulge.

I see the sparkle, shining through your face, beneath the universe,
I feel the love we embrace.

No matter how much I try, no matter how much we try, this is our destiny, the pathfinder of our light.

I do think of you,
every moment,
i shall wait for you,
every day,
I will look for you,
in every place,
I want you,
more than I always said.

first kiss, first date,
smell your skin, remembering dreams,
lost in translation, nights full of passion.

Happy as ever,
we follow.
the yellow brick road, in search of our glory, this is a our journey, our love story.

Gianni Pintos

Loving Every Minute

Wake in the morning and feel the shading sun, restless day ahead, magic moments to share.

Feeling the gentle breeze, holding each others hand, kissing gently our lips, touching you skin,
making feeling warm,
our love is so cute,
loving every minute.

Standing on the beach, feel the tides on our feet, look at the mighty horizon, sailing over the sky, touching clouds, the love is feeling alright.

Close eyes and dreaming stars, open eyes and see how bright they are, losing ourselves away where only true love dare, kissing you in front of mother moon, holding you till the sunset where only passion lair.

Gianni Pintus

Loving Everyday

Your lips are so soft Your touch is so cool
I am lost in your arms
My heart beat within you

I'm thinking of you every morning And dreaming of you every night I love to see you around And I'm so delight in what I found

Never have I fallen in love that quick But I am strong and I'm not weak, My heart is in your hands
Let's us have a chance.

I wish we can fly in the sky,
Where the wind will blow us away.
I hold your heart in my hands, but the stars stolen it away.
I hold your love in my heart, and forever it will stay.

I want touch the ocean
I want it so deep My love is so strong and I want to keep.

My feelings are full like a river and will never end My love is destiny,
Your kindness is meant

My love is like a rose That will last forever
My love is the age of reason and will get better every season.

Our love is something special we will always fight for it through the years sharing laughter and tears and as a lovers will be it

Gianni Pintus

Lullaby

I can handle this last song,
I'm sure she will be asleep soon.
It's so calm here,
I do feel all set,
I do feel all clear.
There so much warm, inside this room,
she is not missing much,
her beloved dummy.

I can see her holding, her little teddy bear,
I can feel so much joy, around the air,
her chin are so soft,
and her lips are so wet, her fingers are so small, and her eyes are full.

I can sing to her all night long,
I can vigil to her till she want,
she remind me everything, she is for sure the sweetest thing.

Ok time is come to you to sleep,
I can wait the morning light, to see you awake,
and when the night,
will come again,
I will said to you bye bye, singing to you the nicest lullaby

Gianni Pintus

Magic

I had a vision last night I was flying someplace far beyond the stars right through the grey clouds under the moonlight, where I can feel my own cold breath and flying in a place where everything it seems surreal, like an untaught dream and lay where my own fire warms me

Nothing can ever slow me down from the dark space to the heavenly place across the sky
Living as lost soul Breaking apart in the solar system,
And, when I'm coming to light Bringing life in the warmest night

The shooting stars are out to play then I would touch your face kiss your soft lips forever, hold your hand for the eternity, lift you up the blue sky, dance with you around the magic stars, wrapping you with the eternal flame, feeling your warm body and feel your veins, lay with you in a bed of roses, sing along in a place where only angels dare, walking on the clouds with you, where the magical and fantasy never be aware

Gianni Pintus

Magical

I wish, to see a shooting star one day falling above me, falling on my way
And beautiful star, will bright my face. then I will make my wish I waited so long, to see happens,
and now is coming true.
As I look at the night sky,
And I wonder if this is true, but this dream.
is so close to me.,
The Moon is looking down on me, there isn't no beginning or end.
but only love in this land, I wish to see you again, in this wonderful night untold, I wish all those stars, will bring all the magical, in my world,
I shall dance or I shall no move?
it doesn't matter,
what you do,
this night will survive, and if you can feel,
the warmest feeling, all around you, it means you are ready, for another dream.

Gianni Pintus

Master Of The Universe

If I could get away from this life,
For a few days or even for one night..
I'd fly so far, to a world of unicorns and faeries too,

Hunting centaurs, dragons and maybe even you.
Hundreds of rainbows I would touch,
But you are the only one who really match.

I'd run away and go alone.
I'll remember everything when I'm gone.
I don't feel sad and I have no fear, Because the life I live is just too real.

I'll say goodbye for just a while,
And leave you remembering my smile.
I'll be back soon if I can bear,
To come back to you for real.

Of waking and living and again soon,
Falling asleep by the light of the moon.
How I feel is a secret I keep,
This desperate need leave me in sleep.

I'd run away above the galaxy ever,
I'll be remember in this constellation forever Bad sin are still live here in this horrid space station,
But we are happy and stay put in this new dimension.

We lost so many spacecraft in the black hole, Victory over the space worms will make us whole.

Promethium and Edurium soldiers are walking free,
The dark orbit will lead us to a great win.
Master of the universe tell me what can I do?
Master of the holy battle why I'm cannot move?

Gianni Pintus

Memories Of A Vampire

Fly my beloved prince,
Through the night,
Bringing fear and fright Flying with your strength and pride Controlling the clouds you ride Immortality is not a dream blood will rest in an endless wind This bites will be over when I'm done.

But I'll never rest till you're gone.

Bite me drink my blood.
it tastes good.
I want drink it too,

Lust and love through the night,
Will be blood till the morning light.
At daytime I'll lay And sleep all day, just you and me,
will sleep deep,

loving the feeling that darkness brings

Living the night!
dreaming the bite what you wish for.
is what you are becoming

Gianni Pintus

Missing You

Meeting you was very cool,
And now I know how much I do.

Greeting you was very good,
And now I know how much I do.

Talk to you is quite fantastic,
And now I know will everlasting.

Thinking about you make feel great,
And now I know this can be made.

Feeling you is the greatest things.
Loving you let me fly with my wings.

Stay near you it is like a summer dream,
Missing you is a nightmare full of means.

Sitting here far away it is getting worse everyday, Look at window everynight is getting bad for my sight.

Greeting you was very good,
And now I know how much I do.

Thinking about you make feel great,
And now I know this can be made.

Looking through the years of this love.
Looking through the heart were we belong.

Trying hard while we keeping apart, Telling to each others how much is hard.

We've been through religion dispute, war, lost love and heartquake, We've been through everything but we are strong and we can take it.

Thinking about you make feel great,
And now I know this can be made.

Feeling you is the greatest things.
Loving you let me fly with my wings.

Stay near you it is like a summer dream,
Missing you is a nightmare full of means.

Gianni Pintus

More

A night to remember feelings are getting warm here discovering again lost passion feeling so divine well tempted emotions we are ever so fine.

Hands in hands kiss to kiss lips sealed caressing each others no time to be bother.

Touching the ceiling up above the sky dreaming stars making in love from the start.

Feeling the heat compassion hearts on fire the flames are high night of desire.

Make me alive
give more I'm starving this whole night its calling my fate take me to another level I want find a new dimension where can touch your passion where I can feel your emotions.

Give me that moment make whole and even more I want be yours forever I want be yours like no one ever be I want feel you inner self and feel you body heat.

Take me with you wherever you going I will make you mine
I will make you full
I will let you feel my spine.

I want you in my whole dreams
I want you forever more I want you in my life I'm happy now as I got what I came for.

Gianni Pintus

My Heart

When you came to my heaven tonight,
From the horizon within I saw the light.

The world around me will only stop,
Just for few seconds I felt the hope.

You looked at me with your sweet smile,
Your face and your soul were so fine.

When you were looking into my eyes,
So I hear the waves and felt desire.

My heart opens to you my love,
My all dreams will now be so close.

Never knew this could ever exist,
So powerful and so true at least.

My heart no longer have a meaning This love is true and keep coming.

I can see the love you feel for me,
I can see the sun shining and like it.

Wonderful is to think about you,
The way you make me feel, is so true

Gianni Pintus

My Love

My love is without prejudice,
My love is an act of justice.

My love is cristal clear,
My love don't know fear.

My love is like the path of an angel,
My love is equal, fair and with no danger.

My love is what we fight everyday,
My love is a choice to find a way.

My love is not just a words came from my mouth,
My love is a warm feeling inside me and make me proud.

My love is like the great wise spirits,
My love is spread out with great lyrics.

My love will never end and never bend,
My love is the bless and pure and with happy end

Gianni Pintus

Never Been Kissed

A kiss is what I want,
Holding you all night,
Is what is dreaming?
A kiss will seal our soul,
A kiss will make us whole,
Holding you all night,
Is what I'm dreaming?
A kiss will make one,
A kiss is what we want.

Gianni Pintus

Not Every Pain Hurts

Every little kiss and smile you gave, You're always open up to just be used.

From the sky, that fell down to the ground,
These experiences made me far too strong.

When you really have the willpower to forget,
You will learn to forgive and ready to collect.

We're dripping of sweat, and feeling alright,
We were the last thing touched in this evil night.

I'm waiting for this nonsense night to deceive,
When the morning comes there will be no surprise.

How did we let this cold breathless love get inside?
Why we were sitting by this grey cold cloud in this endless night?

Make a promise and stand up from the place where you hide, Make yourself a better person following your heart to the light

Let's take seconds because it's now an envy fire out our control,
And when our words get out it, we will not get ourselves in sorrow.

In every little thing that will unfold, we will make this love works,
And every day we'll try to live our life knowing not every pain hurts.

Gianni Pintus

Ocean In The Sky

Blue is the colour of the ocean,
I can see ourselves moving in slow motion.

Since the stars are shining through, since the wind is blowing rough.

History of loves lost in the darkest night, fatal compassion beneath in the first love site.

Who you are? Who are you?
Remember the ocean in the sky is blue.

Horrid telling story are bringing chaos, Magicians and Dragons deserved this war.

Since the shadows are riding through, since our love is immense in this sky blue.

Never underestimated the power of love, never take for granted your partner beloved.

Who you are? Who are you?
Remember the ocean in the sky is blue.

Gianni Pintus

One Love

One love,
Just one,
Two lovers,
Just one love.
One feeling,
Just one love,
Below, above,
No matter where,
No matter when,
One love,
Just one,
Two lovers

Gianni Pintus

Only True Love Will Be Believe

True love is our beloved flame,
That will burn in our time.
And none can make it special as we do,
It is our destiny to make this true.

True love will shine in this days,
And a true love will go all the ways.
With open heart we are going to,
Hand to hand we always do,

True love is the key of our relationship, Making sure this feeling will workshop.
Loving, respecting are what we want,
We love each others because we are bound.

I want hold below and above,
I want kiss you with all my love.
I want here with me forever,
I love you because you are sweeter.

Ture love is with us in this great night,
True love is with us like an eternal flame inside.
I really love you and I don't want you to leave, Because only true love will be believe.

Gianni Pintus

Only You

I remember since we first met After looking into each other's eyes
Our first laugh our first smile our first kiss Your arms embraced me then softly I held you That first kisses wow... I felt my heart bouncing You make me feel special, make me feel new Make me feel loved with everything you do I'm totally yours when we are together Even when I'm feel bad, you always make feel better And I love the way you make me laugh
I love you because you have the power To make me whole and I know our will be there To catch me when I fall
I just want you to know How much I love you No matter days or nights Winds or tempests Sun or dark Snow or warm Winter or summer
It matter how much you mean for me
And how much this will work
As there only one in my heart And wherever I go or whatever I do Its you the one I think of, it's only you.

Gianni Pintus

Our City Is Sleeping Away Tonight

Since you spell my heart,
Since you are always tell me all sorts.
Since we are going under the light,
Can you see our city is sleeping away tonight!

There is a line now between us,
There is a star who never goes.
There was a inner monster in,
There was also a passion between.

What does it matter? What does it mean?
What it does it matter? Tell what it does it mean?
Can you see the different lies near and between.
But to be honest I could run away with you.
And I could love you for the rest on my life too.

If I could touch the sky,
If I could kiss you all night.
Let me love you again.
Let me be someone.

If I could run anyone car,
If I could touch the evening star.
Let me see you within,
Let me be someone.

What does it matter? What does it mean?
What it does it matter? Tell what it does it mean?
Can you see the different lies near and between.
But to be honest I could run away with you.
And I could love you for the rest on my life too.

Since your are spell my heart,
Since you are always tell me all sorts.
Since we are going under the light.
Can you see our city is sleeping away tonight!

Gianni Pintus

Passion Never End

Lay next to you,
My dream comes true,
In the bed all night we stay,
We are making love everyday,
I kissing you all day long,
I'm holding you so strong,
I'm touching you my love,
I'm so in love with you,
My beloved

Pathfinder

Destiny is making, you awaiting,
for something, worthwhile,
could be a friend,
could a star,
could be a lover, but you could be,
awaiting it, for a while.

You start to search, but nothing is worth,
so don't look and chase,
every dreams,
don't be so frantic, spotting perfect sins.

Take your time,
and be spontaneous, do make things, just not only,
for you ego sake,
make it worth,
for what you wait,
and make it worth, for what you are.

Mother moon, sister sky and heaven sake, will look after you, addressing you,
to the right path, then you need,
just follow, your heart.

Time is precious,

in this big world,
but what make,
you whole,
is that feeling,
untamed inside you,
you drive you,
where only horizon,
can be seen,
then only true love,
will win.

Gianni Pintus

Perfect Night

When we met that day in the ballroom,
It was a real blast, but sadly ended soon.

You were in rush and left after a bit, Left me shaking with a heartbeat,

But I still remember you,
And I still think if we could.

We just had one dance,
We just hold tight for once.

I still feel you breath on me,
I still think what will be.

Your beauty and grace was immense,
Your style and peace undress my sense.

We chatted few minutes,
We smiled each others since.

But we never said see you soon,
We just look at each others under the moon.

I still thinking about that night,
Still wait for you with all my faith.

Whatever you are I will find you,
I hope I will find you soon.

Gianni Pintus

Planets

THE GREAT FIRE CAME FROM DOWN BELOW, DARK RED SKIES FROM THE RIFT APPEAR SO SLOW.

THE LORD OF MARS DROPS THE WEAPONS IN FRONT OF ME, DUNE, SAND HILLS AND MOON ROCKS ARE SHINING ABOVE THE SEA.

MARS AND URANUS HATES EACH OTHERS FROM LONG TIME, THE MOON NEVER LIE TO NOBODY AND NEVER MADE ANY CRIME.

PROTEUS WAKE UP FROM THE EARLY HOURS IN THIS SOLAR SYSTEM, EROS IS READY TO BATTLE THE METEORS BUT THE HISTORY WAS ALREADY WRITTEN.

SPACESHIPS, SPACECRAFT AND BLACK PLANETS TOWARDS THE MOTHER UNIVERSE ARE READY TO FIRE UP,

THE PLATOON IS READY TO HIT ONE MORE TIME, BUT WILL THE FEDERATIONS STOP THIS GALACTIC WAR IN TIME, THE GORGONS ARE READY TO DANCE SHOWING THEIR VICTORY FLAGS,

Gianni Pintus

Promises

there is no justice, in this system,
it's radicate, nobody listen.

There is no one,
in this court,
it's a shame,
who is the fault?

Everybody, talking at once,
nobody stop,
there is no chance.

So many promises,
so many yes,
I will do later, and nobody win.

They just want,
your vote,
nothing else,
and when they get,
they said to you,
go somewhere else.

Why we should believe?
why we should be?
it 's our right, to be mad,
as so many promise, been said and nothing never happen.
They just want,
your vote,
nothing else,
and when they get,
they said to you,

go somewhere else

Gianni Pintus

Reap The Wild Wind

This love shadow,
It feel so romantic,
the wind is so wild, the mountains are magic, lakes are shining through, like mirrors should,

Im feeling on fire,
Im feeling desire,
I want you babe,
I want you all night,
There is a innocence on, but also there is wild.

Im feeling right for you,
Im going to love you tonight, Im here because this feeling is right,
I will caress you indeed,
I will reap the wild wind

Gianni Pintus

Replicants

Metalic rain, heart of vain,
Sounds in the night,
Aliens in the light.

Above they came in this night insane,
below they gone in this night alone.

The machines start the war on Mars, Replicants drive they own cars.

Above they came in this night insane,
below they gone in this night alone.

A Gothic church appear in the sky,
The veil of venus fall in the night.

In the hoirizon you will see the clouds above,
In time to time you will learn how the replicants will love.

Gianni Pintus

Run

Feeling oblivion, life inside a television, walk in slow motion, feel trapped in lost emotions.

Grab the holy sword, make this journey awake, state of lost mind, fire at will lost in my fate.

My name is destiny, my soul is hollow, no heart, no sorrow, only an engine running wild, push me over the wall, feel my skin as I'm soft like a child.

Grab the mother moon, then illuminate my path, guide me above the black skies, deep inside the turmoil horizon, where only lovers dare, where angels play with you, where no tick tock time ever touch you, where your face is caressed from the shading sun, and you never been left alone and ready to RUN.

Gianni Pintus

Save This Love Passion

Dance mon amour,
Please dance for me.

Make me alive, make me lured.

Dance my perfect love,
Please dance for me.
Show me what you can do, Make me sweat, Make me full.

Dance my truly queen,
Please dance for me.
Show me you are the one,
Make me real, make me whole.

Dance you beauty soul,
Please dance for me.
Show me you only for me,
Make happy, make me feel.

Please dance for me.
Show me you are chosen one,

Please dance for me,
Make me true, make my session.
Make me save this love passion.

Gianni Pintus

Sea Of Love

Sea of love,
weaves against me,
wind of desire,
sands will caress me.

Snow all over my body, the ice is melting already, Fire against my will, eternal flames ready to fill.

Autumn leaf are falling down, Love is my name in this town, the ocean is high but steady, lighting are make me whole already.

The storm is inside me, the bolt is waking up my sins, the tempest is make me insane, rain on me in this night divine.

Please bring the stars to me,
I just want dance with them,
I want all this shine,
I want make this so special.

The fog bring no fear, the mist play near,
the light will give me strength,
I'm not broken, I'm not bent.

Sea of love,
weaves against me,
wind of desire,
sands will caress me.

Gianni Pintus

Seasons

Why always rain on me, as I'm not in a fantasy world, not even in a world of reality.

Why I feel everything sometime stop, why the weather is change always on me, because maybe I'm out dream anything.

Why people cannot see me, but I can see myself, why I'm fast as the wind, and I have a courage like the rain, but why the sun is play always games.

I'm so strong like the hurricane, but I can be so fragile like any human,
I can be artful like any artists, but I can be so lonely lost in the mist, and when the winter fall on my head, I'm so lost and so scared, but springtime help me for sure, and when summer coming I'm so pure.

And If I feel snow falling on me, I will make sure feel it for real, and the sunshine will be on my head, for sure I will wear my hat instead, when I'm playing with the autumn leaves, and I'm swimming fast in the march rains, I'm so happy to lose myself in the Christmas feast.

But what really interest me, after all is the weather change, in fact is change so fast, in this earth insane.

Gianni Pintus

Set Me Free

Sadness heart that go away,
Some might will be lost in this decay.
Sadness cold inside their heart,
That would rip them apart.
The cry of pain will kill them all,
They deserve it, they deserve to fall.

And when the true they will see They knows nothing ever will set them free.
Heartless is empty space around me, Cut me loose or set me free

Don't leave me here in this humid wall.
I'm mortal and I'm a fool.
Restless days are coming ahead,
Let me breathe and don't leave me here dead.

Sadness heart that go away,
some might will be lost in this decay.
Sadness cold inside their heart,
That would rip them apart.
The cry of pain will kill them all,
They deserve it, they deserve to fall

Gianni Pintus

Shooting Star

I watched a shooting stars, falling down into this world, remind me a stardust, it was so great and so fast.
My heart felt and my legs shake, my face incredible straight, never moved or stretched, my soul rise above the sky, my hands were firmly and felt so tight.

I felt sensation, it was so emotional and myself content remain never felt like this anyway!

Then I searched for the hole, which landed no far from me, I searched and searched, following the bright light, in front of me.

Then suddenly,
a real star appear,
in front me,
her hair were white, like snowflakes,
her eyes were blue,
and her lips were,
deep red.

Without saying a word, we hold each other hand,
and we dance all night long, then I felt everything above me, felt the sky caress me, felt moon talking to me, the stars lighting the floor, fire inside me and flames, all around my body.

It was amazing night, dancing with her and with the butterflies, the crickets plays the music and birds where playing around with us.

Flowers were so happy, and I can hear the fairies, messaging about, then everything suddenly stop, there was silence around us, I look into her eyes, felt desire, felt fire and sealed her with a kiss.

Gianni Pintus

Silent Duel

The sun is so hot Please be gentle
I'm still burning
It's in your heart
I saw you standing at the beach
With your heart running With something on your face This sunset it seems wasted
When I look through your eyes.

The wind blow you hair away Ripped and torn against my faith But suddenly the sea grows
As storms play against my soul Still I hope there is something left
To show that I was here Before sinking into the ocean
In this forgotten years

My heart is in denial Hiding in shadows
With my eyes flying My future now is burn
And suddenly
I ask myself what I've learned.

My temptations are breaking hard Flowing with fire in my veins This awaiting is laughable Eyes in tears, holding my soul
The fallen love promise to hunt me Then what will be, will be.

We stand face to face in this promontory
It's a silent duel Eyes in eyes
No words coming out I'm running low

My legs are gone
A gentle blow
I'm there! almost Feeling pale
I'm still here with you Looking at the horizon fear to lose you is scaled Staring at the sky
And I see the heaven blue tell me I'm still in love with you.

Gianni Pintus

Sins

A gentle kiss
Last one A true faith
A dream of you
A love is waiting I'm out of blue

Togheter again
A Fatal crush
A real blast
A faithful song Nothing wrong Lay here
The time is near

Bodies in motion Rough devotion
Age of innocence
My heart is broken
And my mind went My bones are aching My spine is bent

Soft skins
Sweating again
Feeling the passion Easy temptations
My body is drain
In hopes I remain

Chasing you Making fools
Feeling great
This love waits Total lust Desire at last Feel the power Fainting fast

Grab me Make me sweat Caress my body Feel my best Don' stop it now don't make it worse

Finishing touch Fallen memories Met my match
Feeling oblivion
A true devotion
No one wins
In this night of sins

Gianni Pintus

Sixth Sense

Alone in the dark, cold rooms,
silence around me,
I do feel something, so close to me.

Whispers names, breathe and caresses, empty spaces,
fear of fall,
hold me now,
gone in a seconds, with no recall.

Ghosts? or just pursuit?
see reflexes,
in the little dark corners, see faces creeping and creeping, mmmm at last we are feeling warmer.

Believer we are,
flushed away,
wrapped in our sixth sense, we care in what we feel, we deal with it when will appear, evil or heavenly creatures, we will wait without fear.

Gianni Pintus

Sky Soldier

Tears in my eyes every night,
A star fall from heaven,
Brightening the holy light, Grey clouds here for a reason.

Wondering if you will be alright,
Looking the promontory away,
So strong and ready to fight,
With all my heart I have things to say.

There is so many hopes in my mind,
Wind on me, stars on you, here in the sky, Wishing that I could always rewind, Wishing the polar star will be bright.

I know love makes me blind,
A star fall from heaven,
I will not leave you behind, Grey clouds are here for a reason.

I will make everything right,
Looking the promontory away,
Wishing I could hold you tight,
With all my heart I have things to say.

Please do remember me, Because with you I want to be,
I want more time to see,
I want you to love me.

Looking back to the times we had,
Even when thing are gone bad.
ust sitting here all alone Yes my time is finish, all done.

Back to home where I belong For sure it will be not for long.
I will fly again where is colder, Because I'm the sky soldier.

Gianni Pintos

So Cold

This cold room it took me over,
Windows are close but dark on me forever.

Who could do this to me?
Who imprisoned me?

Alone in this empty corner,
When this room will be warmer?

Crying since you left last time, Hoping this will not make insane.

I want this pain heal soon,
I need leave this scaring room.

Why you choose to hurt me?
Why you mean to be so deep?

Memories are so overwhelmed, Deception and lust is now charmed.

Why me? Why you? Why us?
Why you choose this case?

Evil sins all around me,
Leave this room now please.

This cold room it took me over,
Windows are close but dark on me forever.

Gianni Pintus

Something

That would be something,
To meet you without my wings

Meet you in the summer rain,
That would be insane.

That would be something,
To meet you while I'm awake,

Meet you in the winter cold,
It would be bold.

That would be something,
To meet you when I grow up.

Meet you in a perfect place.
That would be amaze.

That would be something,
To meet you down under,

Meet you over the white moon,
I hope that would be very soon

Gianni Pintus

Sometimes

Sometimes,
I'm feel lonely,
sometimes,
I'm feel fulfil,
Sometimes,
I'm feel gratified,
and Sometimes,
I'm feel so satisfied.

But Sometimes,
I feel so empty,
and Sometimes,
I feel so preoccupied,
and Sometimes,
I feel so curios, well Sometimes,
I'm feel a bit nervous.

I tell you what?
Sometimes,
I feel wonderful,
and most the times,
I feel sensible,
then Sometimes,
I feel so cute,
then sometimes,
when I'm in silly mood, I would love,
to dive with my parachute!

But also sometimes,
I felt ignored,
and Sometimes,
I felt used,
but after know it,
I felt so much better,
and if most of the time, I'm what I'm,
and do not worry, about me, because in time to time, I will always, have a plan.

Then if you sometimes,
feel the same,
as I do, don't worry too much, because I'm sure,
you have got, a plan too

Gianni Pintus

Sophie (To My Daughter)

Dear beloved daughter, you are my light,
you are so bright.

You are my strength and the force, you are so pretty and so adorable, every moment with you is so joyful.

Dear Sophie I thinking about you everyday, I'm thinking about you getting stronger, there is nothing bad, make me wonder,
you are growing,
so pretty and strong,
I do love you all day long.

When you at school or away from me, I'm sad and with you always I want to be.
Your smile is so sweet, and you are happy as always, you are a great little girl, you are my little princess.

I'm so proud you are my daughter, .
I cannot wait to spend time with you,
I cannot wait to see you, and hopefully this will be very soon

Gianni Pintus

Soulmates

Staring up at the sky, looking into the clouds,
My mind is clear,
Getting lost in the shining stars,
I feel deep the love and passion,
I'm so happy to be with you tonight.
Tonight, for the first time, I have to be honest, you're the only one,
I've ever wanted.
The gentle warm wind, caresses our skin,
I can feel the air, inside our love,
that makes our feelings surreal, All in one moment in time, this deep emotion,
warm embrace,
in all the right places, our hearts are still warm, But fearing nothing at all,
We are here nude in this room,
No need speaks ourselves, is our night dream, showing all the sins,
I looked into your eyes,
I thought that's is a wonderful view,
My heart started to beat, you just swept me off my feet,
There is no other thing in my life,
And I look at your smile,
You made me great and sweet, so we ended the night, with a wonderful unforgettable kiss.

Gianni Pintus

Souls

kiss me.
kiss me dear,
hold me.
hold me tight,

Smile. smile at me,
look at me,
look deeply.

Hand to hand,
walk together,
breathe,
breathe together,

Love, love my soul,
cast,
cast my spell,

I want this, sure I want,
take me,
to the sky,
and hold me, so tight

I want see, the world, below me,
I feel,
the stars, playing with me.

Sitting there.
till the night, then look,
at the moon, and face, the light.

Dance, with you,
around,
the universe, kissing you,
and never,
expecting, the worse.

Then.
fading away,
in wonderland, between,
fantasy and surreal, still dancing, through,
the green forest,
with no fear, then ready,
to run in the shade, of the mighty sun.

Losing ourselves, where the snow,
is thick, comeback,
to the ground,
hand to hand,
and feeling ever so sweet

Gianni Pintus

Spirits

The sky are darkens and in total mud, Lightning brightens between this flood.

Thunder rolls across the marsh,
Stars fall down until they crash.

I sit alone by the window open,
Losing myself totally after spoken.

That is when the spirits appear to haunting me,
They are came to play a little game and that's will be.

They will never leave and I cannot rest,
What can I do? if they are put me to the test?

When the spirits had enough and they will be gone,
I will sit down again by the open window all alone

Gianni Pintus

Stargate

Magical worlds open at once, Beasts of eternal flame ready to run.

Teal'C and John Sheppard said to all ' No shit',
The debris is alive and ready to be lift.

The Daedalus are calling the abnormal subspace, Atlantis itself is now under the other race.

The fleet withdraw from the evil fortress,
The magical pipeline are open below the sunset.

The shrine has broken the divine peace,
The alliance is ready to battle with fearce.

No one is whispering, no one is keeping the fate,
No one is coming through the beloved stargate.

Gianni Pintus

Stars

End of the day

Miles away

So lonely inside

I am trying to hide

Try to go to sleep

Inside I begin to weep

I remember now

Just me in the stars

Distance keeps us apart

You still in my heart

Meet me in the stars

I'll be waiting there for you

You know I will do

Now I can see you here

And I begin to smile

And gently close my eyes

With sparkles in my heart

Nothing will keep us apart

Suddenly in the distance

The evening star appears

And my eyes blink in an instance

And my mind is clear

Because it is you what I see

Please my beloved promise me

To love me and love me again

Then with all my heart in the sky I will remain.

Gianni Pintus

Stars Of Fate

Stars on the night,
Our love is right.

Stars in the light, you always on my sight.

Bright and shining are for you,
you are always in my heart and in my mind too.

Stars are true and always beloved I'm thinking of you with all my love.

Stars are becoming part of you,
you are always in my heart and in my mind too.

Stars now are bringing love and desire, you always the one I admire.

Stars are the beauty of our love, you are the one I always want spouse.

They always shine early or late,
Why they are called stars of fate.

Bright and shining are for you,
you are always in my heart and in my mind too.

Gianni Pintus

Talking To You

Talking to you made me stronger, Make me realise you are all I want.

Talking to you made so happy,
Make me realise you are my hope.

Talking to you is great and fair,
Make realise you are my girl.

Talking you it was such a gift, Make me realise you are in my dreams.

Talking to you it is what I want,
Make me realise you are too important.

Talking to you will make me smile,
Make me realise you are in my life.

Gianni Pintus

Thank You Santa

I can feel it,
I can smell,
of hot chestnuts, and I can smell, the hot sausage,
in the air,
I can see the festive stall, and all kids playing it all.

Wow...I can see,
the lights and trees,
I can feel Christmas, in my street.

Nevermind if it will rain,
I can feel all this coming,
and on the horizon, I saw the reindeers, flying near the chimney top, throwing presents, in the neighbourhood plots.

It's so good to feel all this snow, make me happy and wonder, to see all this white flakes, it's so good to feel it, and i'm so happy stay awake.

I already wrote my note,
I left it on top my chimney sill,
I hope he will read it, then I will wait till,
the morning come,
with impatience,
to see if he brought it, then I will say thank you, to him even I know, he already gone.

Gianni Pintus

The Calling

Winter is coming fast, Autumn never last.

Green leaves over the grass,
But the tempest is already past.

Looking forward to better time.
Waiting a while for the perfect rain.

Mountains and lakes are falling dawn,
Fire and wind are spitting out from ground.

Why we should care? ,
Why the rain always dare?

Torments, tempests and hurricanes in this year insane, Witches, warlords and demons are making this world in pain!

So I opened the rift once again,
But cold weather brought here the rain.

What wonder me is the winter pulling,
I'm here still awaiting for the true calling.

Gianni Pintus

The Centre Of Universe

I Served you for all my live,
I always great you under my fate.
Ho master you are full of trick.
Ho you are the one I always pick.

I always loved with great respect,
I loved everything without reject.
If I could once again touch the sky,
If I can dance with you above the light.

Things are coming within us, I always said you are the one.
Loving everyday make me stronger, Think of you every time keep me longer.

I would dance with you since our last encounter,
You are the one who always make me wonder.
Right here I will try to make this work,
There is no love without any talk.

Moonlight I see in this night of joy, Sunshine is coming in this day of noise.

If we stick to each others can rule the world, and our love for once can be reverse.
I'm sure for the time forgotten, we could be in the centre of universe

Gianni Pintus

The Chosen One

I am the eternal king,
Of this tyrannical rule,

As I stand on my throne
And watching all of you burns whole.

Infinity will never come between your species
You are a slave that survives and will be misses.
The vortex is open to us all the time,
We will all follow through with lots of pain.

I'm the emperor, the king and master of all,
I'm the chosen one who doomed to fall.

The blood will rise killing in the night,
The rules I chosen will never be right.

She is the witch who saw me first Her voice cried out after see me last.

We are the defenders of this wall,
We are the power who never fall.

And struck at last the mortal blow,
At the core of the Rift for the last call.

The portal was sealed and our brothers died not in vain
And when the ghosts run against us, then we'll return the pain

Gianni Pintus

The Darkside

Trapped and unwrapped, in a state of confusion, freedom is a option, I'm running in a slow motion.

Dark age is where I belong, emotions are running strong, untamed love is what I know, my skin is thick, is ever grow.

Transformation is start to come, my insanity is come and undone, circle of life is ripping the wild wind, lust and what else is in my mind..

Fiction above this dark continent, sleeping with your monsters in a fragment, beasts and vampires are landing here, take me above the fire where I can heal.

What does it matter?
What does it mean?
there isn't not feeling here, there isn't no line in between.

There isn't no fear at all.
there is only pleasure to get, there is a hole where to fall, there is a game trap to set.

Since the darkness are making dreams, we felt free from this pleasure dome, we didn't felt unsettle, but we felt full of means.

It took us floating inside the wormhole, screaming furious and making us whole, but this sensation it's unreal and wild, welcome to the pleasure dome, welcome to the darkside

Gianni Pintus

The Evening Star

This strange feeling, never leave me.
like a shining star, who live inside me.

I just rewind my history, but I don't know,
which doubts,
are still inside me,
and the reasons why.

But maybe is time, for a change,
brake at once,
this solitude,
this strange insanity, let it out, in this world of vanity.

But if you believe,
if you really believe,
in yourself,
all this could be, a great outcome,
the best as it gets.

And the passengers, little clouds,
will appear on the horizon, and in a world not to far,
you will see a shine light, then you realise,
you are touching,
the evening star.

I do love,
sit on my window, feeling the warmest summer night, and I'm just looking over there, looking so deep above in the sky, looking for a dream, feel the shine on me,

loving so much,
the evening star

The Fluids Of Energy

Strange sounds starting in this narrow lane, the rain is running wild in this heart insane.

Beware of the thunders in this endless night,

The shadows are creeping in this holy site.

The metals are making noise everywhere,

Wind, Hurricane and Fire are coming from nowhere.

Bolts are vibrating through the radioactive decay,

Finally all this energy start to fluid away.

Seconds, minutes and hours are running to fast,

Einstein was the first to called it mass!

The Hunting

The beloved princess, run away in the storm, no way the soldiers, can reach her in this cold.
White thick snow, the trees are tall.
but the tempest, is coming on.
She left the castle in hurry, with maids and few beloved, it's too dark now, tomorrow will be sorted.
Run, run princess,
but run fast,
as darkness is coming.
to catch you surely.
There is still much road, before she reach,
St Petersburg,
so in the early morning,
the hunting will start,
we are going to get you,
and when we do, prepare yourself to the doom

Gianni Pintus

The Journey

It was so cold in Novorsibirsk, snowing all day long,
The trans Russian express, made the last stop, before Siberia,
I just I wish I could stay more, but already told you before.
I must carry on to Vladykvadz,
Is still long journey ahead, But It break my heart, leave you here,
I'm totally in tears,
I will thinking of you every moment,
But I will be back soon,
I will think of you, when I'm looking the moon, will be a journey of hope, I'm sure I will cope, farewell for now, my sweet beloved.
I will see you soon, and then will again enjoyed.

Gianni Pintus

The Journey Ahead

The cold ocean waves whistle in the night,
Your heart beat in my ears like a fire in the light.

Water all around me in this furious tides,
We prayed the gods to show us how to ride.

The tempest still among us will stop one day,
The road ahead is dangerous but safe we play.

Higher are the waves coming to us with furious intent,
We pray the might God then safe towards our way we went.

Heavy rain is now coming quick all above the darkest sky,
We need find a repair a fast as we can before the night.

The journey is keep going in the right way ahead,
Will need all the lucky we get to find a fine bed.

Race against time in this horrible weather, Will see if will win this battle or lose rather?

Gianni Pintus

The Kiss

A real kiss is what i'm waiting for, Kiss at last is what I'm dreaming for,
You lips can seal this moment,
You lips can make me yours forever, Kiss me now,
Kiss me tenderly,
Kiss me please,
Kiss me forever,
Kiss me with your eyes close,
Kiss me day and night,
Kiss me and make me right

The Lagoon

The water was warm, been in the lagoon,
with you was amazing.

I still remember, the green emerald water, and the unreal surround, in the near forest,
The waterfall splashed, on our face, in the distant,
you could see,
the birds race.

Our bodies, were wet and shine, our feeling,
were getting,
so fine.

The coconut trees, were so beautiful,
the frogs were singing, so rightful.

Then suddenly,
I cannot forgot, that kiss,
then lively,
we laugh, and persist.

We laid, on the white sands, around the lagoon,
we were constantly,
look at eachothers, and wait the night,
to see the full moon.

Then we made love, god knows for a long,
our steam bodies, were far too strong.

Farewell,
my dear lagoon,
we are comeback,
to reality now, but it was,
great loving fun,
and we hope,
to comeback here,
so soon.

The Last Unicorn

The last Unicorn took out his feet from the sky.
Looking down from the mother moon so high.

Riding on the highway, below the stars.
Being fast above the clouds, chasing Mars.

Running his beloved heart away.
Racing the planets, begging to stay.

Rocking himself envely in a furious embrace.
With a celestial smile upon his face.

Through the mighty blue skies he dream flying.
Now the last unicorn behind the stars is hiding.

The Love Letter

Dear beloved I'm here, Just writing to you truly, Writing for the first time, Expressing my feeling surely.

Dear beloved the first time ever I saw you,
My whole inside turned madly too soon,
It was turmoil of deep emotions,
It seems the world got me in motions.

Dear beloved I know we just talked once,
And I know it wasn't what we planned,
But for sure your eyes capture my attentions,
You deep blue eyes where a great sensation.

Dear beloved there a grow genuine intention in me,
There is a warm flame in my inner self,
I do hope you can see,

Dear beautiful angel, take me on consideration, Because it isn't only attraction,
There is more in me,
There is an heart ready to feel.

Dear beloved please I want see you again, I want see you, please let me know when?
I want tell you everything about myself,
I want show you I'm a man with much to tell.

Dear wonderful lover I just want hold your hand,
I want be close to you till day will end,
I don't care about anything else.
I want be with you in this immense universe.

Dear beloved I cannot wait, to meet you for the second time,

I cannot wait to see you again, and I hope you feel the same, I'm waiting this encounter, with great happiness and suspense, I'm so happy to see you again, and I'm so happy, if you will accept,
the second dance.

Gianni Pintus

The Love Odissey

I look up the stars, and you are,
upon the horizon.
You are smiling, to my face,
and my heart,
is beating,
with grace.
Hold to each, others hand,
is a true dream,
kiss to each others,
lips,
is a like a full blue sky, I want kiss you again, as my lips are dry,
I want hold you so tight.
I thinking of you,
and my legs,
start shivering, only if I could, reach that star,
and give it to you, if only I can reach,
the moon,
then back,
to you soon.
I want laugh with you,
I want talk to you,
I want be close to you,
I want love you.
I want just spend my time,
with you,
look into you eyes,
I know they are blue,
going deep,
inside your heart,
swiiming into you blood, whispering in the cold, singing into your ears, look at you with no fear, saving the last dance,

running wild,
get our chance.
Fly with birds, dance with angels, flirt with devils,
look after butterflies, waiting for the sunrise.
Thunder and bolt, are around us,
rain and wind,
is chasing us, full snow ahead,
we driving low instead.
Dance with me,
dance in this wind, the hurricane is behind, the north sea is feeling kind, but the sandstorm is stopping us, the universe is what we have.
I love you,
and for me,
it's enough,
I believe in you,
and for me,
it's all good.
We could be here, could be stay here,
forever and ever,
in this planet, feeling safe,
in this virgin land,
feeling great,
but we most,
comeback,
to heart again, we most follow,
the holy path,
we are coming back,
were we belong,

and our love,
will be ever, so strong

Gianni Pintus

The Love Poem

How blessed I am that you are in my life,
Not a day goes by without be brave.
You make everything alright,
To you I do not have to prove it right.

For you know me,
and you know I love you

How blessed I am that you are in my life too, How honoured I am to be a part of you.
Memories made and shared,
You are the one I always wanted.

My friend, my lover, my queen,
I wish you are with me in every dream.

Gianni Pintus

The Northern Star

I saw silver robots burning,
I saw metal machine that were turning.
I saw androids on fire,
On a generator that never get tired.

I heard about the omega fleet being murdered,
I witnessed the blind pains of all the passengers.
But when the choosen people finally get back,
The nothern star fleet will follow the right path.

I saw galatic soldiers in the shape of disease,
And while a few could do just as they pleased.
I saw vipers whose skins were all on fire,
With the evils had to quench they dirty desire.

When all are dead and war is over,
When hollow victory has never been that closer.
We will joining in the throne,
But the evil that just can't be undone.

I heard about the omega fleet being murdered,
I witnessed the blind pains of all the passengers.
But when the choosen people finally get back,
The nothern star fleet will follow the right path.

I used to dream about destruction,
I used spend my time watching corruption.
But now that I feel it getting near, the waves in the ocean are all I want to hear.

I wish I was a believer,
I wish I was a bit more clever.
But this entire world are gone mad,
And I don't know anymore what's good or what's bad.

I heard about the omega fleet being murdered,
I witnessed the blind pains of all the passengers.
But when the chosen people finally get back,
The nothern star fleet will follow the right path

The Only War I Know

Genius of love where are you?
Make my day better, make it true.

Wonderland is pretty gone,
New fair tales are now alone.

Dear father God lead us in the right way,
Thank you dear all friends to make my day.

If all the good people in this world make I wish,
One by one will said thanks to this new great relish.

Thank you wonderful countries to make this world better,
I know will take time to work proper but in the end will be settle.

All the war I see weren't worth a penny but all the hopes I have are still with me,

And this years of disappointment through my head are gone away in this weird dream.

People are sad and have enough, people want a better life in this world unfair, Feeds the poor with your heart, feeds them all the time in this world which nobody cares.

Gianni Pintus

The Perfect Girlfriend (In A Imaginary World)

Sometime I wonder, sometime I feel it, but most of the time I just dream it.

This warm magnificent beat, who make me so inspire, who make me whole and feel divine.

I want find you and together,
feel the heat,
feel your body,
run inside, your inner self,
just to hear the heartbeat.

So much to give away, so much to love,
day by day.

Where have you been, all this time?
I can feel your beauty, inside me
and this crazy idea, make me better, every time.

Your eyes did spells my soul, like lovers do,
meanwhile your true spirit, just made me whole.
The rain is above me, the wind is pushing so fast, behind my back,
ho my love will this, powerful crazy feeling ever last?

Gianni Pintus

The Return

With the horizon on my sight
I'm breaking the clouds like silk I'm dreaming where there is no paradise.

As the dark events has shaded the sun the Evilsnake soldiers are so well beating and turn to run.

This travelling battle has been for so long I have been in there seeking the bloodline song.

The sunshine come alive over the moon and the evil eyes adjust their sight then suddenly the mountains sleeps and waterfalls bringing me back to live.

Heaven is making a requiem for a dreams my wishes are with proud and honesty my loyalty to hearth and the shire has been paid with eyes delight, glory for me and holy faith.

I'm ready to finally get back home with no worries there or noise of hassles no hell that speak aloud, no grey highways to guide

Will be heaven for me, wait for hope eventually I'll get there, abide my life's to cope

For what is worth, nothing will stop me, no evil spirits, demons, even fogs I will breaks then finally I'll find my piece on earth.

Gianni Pintus

The Season Still Go On

What wonderful day we had,
It was great and not sad.

The grass it was so green, it was so great, it was a dream.

The sky was full of rainbows,
The morning sun was so grateful.

Flowers were magnificent and growing so fast,
The trees were happy having last laugh.

Poppies seeds just blowing away in the wind,
The angels were dancing in the sky with their wings.

Butterflies are making the way here in this might season,
Fly birds fly, you will be remember always for the right reason.

Gianni Pintus

The Spear Of Destiny

Anger, what I seen is just anger, Wonder, all this just make me wonder.
War, betrayal, lost love and destruction,
No peace, no love here, no resolution.

Sadness, what I seen is just sadness, Loneliness, I can feel just loneliness, Cold, rain, and the eclipse I just felt,
The sun is so strong the day fast melt.

Grey and dust lay here in this world lost, It's suddenly coming all so clear, Nether less we are trying to hide it,
Is coming fast towards us and I do fear it.

Live or die forever,
but don't give up never,
Love or be alone forever, But don't cry never

Gianni Pintus

The Train

The semi-empty wagon, was cold and dust,
But I remember you, Sitting just opposite, after left the rush hour, in the city.
I still remember your smile, the blue eyes, you dark long hair.
I still remember you ask,
'what time is'
Then silence around us, But your angel face, is still on my mind, still alive in me,
I still feel you breathe,
I still remember you said
'goodbye', then you faded away, in the frosty morning, and disappear in the thick fog, I still see the shadow lay in the path, but this station is empty now, and today I'm awaiting, the train with impatient, hoping to see you again, in the same wagon.

Gianni Pintus

The Unicorn

Star wars begin in this cold dark light, Centurions start to throw arrows in the night.

Machines shadows under the rain,
The holy war begins in this earth insane.

Constellation in peril between the uranium walls, Metallic rain around the Cyclops lost souls.

The Aliens are fury and attacking with screams,
The witches begin the coldest night of mean.

The horizon is lost in middle of nowhere,
The people of Mars are starting to beware.

Orion's and fairy helping the cause,
Light sabres are dying in their own house.

Galactic soldiers ready in the rows,
The celestial princess is calling her show.

A glimpse of light through the crystal maze,
The sun fallen but the mountains raises.

The horrid ghosts are gracing the night,
Venus is waiting the arrival of the first knight.

The rift is now open over snow,
The grizzlier is angry and starting to show.

Soldiers in the sun with their shining uniforms,
So it begin the painful lament of the first unicorn

Gianni Pintus

The Willow

The prairie was ever so green, the sun was shining through, the hills ever so high,
a wonderful shadow, in the blue sky.

The daises were growing, tall and ever so loving, dandelion and rose,
smiling so bright.
and ready to pick.

Then you appear,
like a dream, come from,
far way, appear in this,
meadow,
like gold shadow,
in the great warm, horizon.

Your shining hair, kept me still.
you tall figure,
kept me real,
suddenly,
the trees,
started to talk,
suddenly,
we started,
to walk.

The lake, shines, towards us, like a,
magic mirror,
you pale skin,

smell so good, it was,
a dream come true,
to sit down,
with you,
hand to hand,
under the might,
old willow.

Gianni Pintus

There Is A Dragon In You

Ferocious and devilish with flame, With my claws I can write my name.
With my unquenchable fire,
I can flame your deepest desire.
I love you and I should do,
I guess there is a bit of dragon in you

Flying in this untouchable flames,
I have been chosen,
To blame your fates.
Let me dance with you far beyond, Flapping wings high above.
Deep in the through of night, Illuminated by the moon light,

With grey smoke exposed I fly,
So freedom no need to cry.

We are flying high my love,
The world look small from above,
We will disappear in this thick clouds,
I will show you what our love is about.

This dragon heart, shall never tear apart, forever together,
With our passions for each other.

We are flying high my love,
From high above,
with all my heart I know it's true,
I guess there is a bit of dragon in you

Gianni Pintus

This Love

Feel my heart before my journey start Lift me up the sky hold my hand and give me way You always been true forever I'll love you that always be then our spirits will be free with my love I'll warm your soul with my kindness will love you forever dreaming together and never fall apart You are in my soul love you tenderly endless caresses touching you with passionate kisses your hand I can feel and all your untamed love as well My heart is shouting so loud I can feel it with proud and to everybody I can tell I am loved and in love with you only I want you, I want you fully.

Gianni Pintus

This Love Is Right

I heartfelt,
For you in a instant,
You love is so dominant,
I felt the trees, winds on me,
I felt joy of love, felt loved.
Felt shine on me,
Felt so warmed.
These feelings,
Is so real,
Felt so magic,
No felt fear,
Loving you, Because I do

Gianni Pintus

This Lovely Wonderful Feeling

Green patch, narrow road,
tall trees, apples seeds.

Romance in the flowers, this waterfall is my shower, dance away with dolphins, It's so calm here is what I feel, meanwhile the butterflies, are colouring the sea.

Flying above the mighty peaks, then touching the evening star, get down to the desert, fly above again to see the horizon, ho my god this is a dream come true, feeling numb, rain on me, kissing you.

The mighty dragon is here, we are flying away, through centuries,
through different worlds, in search of that wonderful bliss, in search of something always miss.

This is a dream that never end, love, caring, respect it's here, in this unforgettable vision, I'm lay here so happy dreaming,
this lovely wonderful feeling.

Gianni Pintus

This Winter Calling

Tell me more than what can you say,
Then heaven knows it's hard enough to pray.

Let me tell you something there's a change in me.
Even I know you're gone but you will be always with me.

Spring, summer, or winter ever fall,
I will do anything to not let you go.
I could love you as you dare,
If I wanted to, but I wonder, is it fair?

Now you're on your own when things go wrong,
But you are the only one to turn me on.
I never promised you a warm winter,
You never said to me to I'm what you want.

But snowing outside will keep us cold,
I will forgive you for what you hold.
Everytime I tried to talk to you,
I made myself such a fool.

I felt so small cos I didn't reach the winter cold,
And everytime I see you in my dreams,
I see the seasons are haunting me.

Was it something I said to make you turn away,
To make you walk out and leave without any says.

Gianni Pintus

This World

This world full of strangers,
Can we make it with no danger?

This world full of wisdom,
Can we hate it with no reason?

This world full of shadows,
Can we make it less crowed?
This world full of confidence,
Can we make it with more sense?
This world full of power,
Can we make less bother?
This world belong to me,
Can we make clean and free?
This world want dance,
Can we make love instance?
This world plenty of charms,
I want to be in your arms.

Gianni Pintus

Time.....

Time to love you with all my heart,
Time to hold you with all my part.

Time to tell you all my sins,
Time to love you in my dreams.

Time to pray for our endless love,
Time to see how will fly the white dove.

And it is time to look at you into your eyes,
I will never say I love you and then goodbye.

Time to walk hand to hand,
Time to kiss you with a big sound.

Time to tell you how much I love you.
Time to to say I really like you, yes I do.

Time sit in the park and contemplate,
Time to go out all togheter with our mates.

And it is time to look at you into your eyes,
I will never say I love you and then goodbye.

Gianni Pintus

Trapped Love

Are you real? or just in my dreams?
Are you in my world? or just the way it seems?
You already have my heart, now take my soul,
This night of love obsession is what makes me whole.

I can't believe this happening to me,
It is a love nightmare that I've never seen.
You are stading next to me and never touch,
I only feel the love in me, I feel it so much.

I want you now I want you forever,
In this endless room we can be together.
I know this is a surreal place, that plays with our mind,
But we are strong together, we are two of a kind.

Only you is what I can see deep inside,
No matter what we do, we can't seem to hide.
Our bodies are so hot and awaiting the rush,
When I feel you near, I will stop this crush.

You are my everything my greatest desire
You are the spark who lights this dear great fire.
All I can ear is you whispering my name,
This room is controlling us like a wicked game.

This trapped love keep me still awake,
This trapped love is crontrolling my escape.
The time to get out has come and I can feel it in my spine, I'm look toward the keyhole and I can see you on the other side.

Gianni Pintus

True Faith

I've been through so much,
I've been fighting wars for decade,
I felt snow falling on me every winter,
I've been in love few times,
I've been so fast make judgement like a splinter.

I've been in romantic mood, tried to explain the awkward moments but always misunderstood.
I've been through desolation and felt new sensation.
I've felt unwanted few times,
I've felt happy as ever times to times.
I've been right and wrong but always felt strong.

I've loved once till heaven can't wait, I felt the vibe for her but then under some circumstance it was too late.
I've been skint so many times, but always proud about myself, my kids are in my heart every moment, my moments are what I became,
and my soul is still awaiting the eternal flame.

I've been dreaming so many things, dragons, fairies, stars, magic places and a soul-mate too and still waiting for that somerthing special to come true.

I've been weak few times, but thanks the lord I always beat temptations with proud and determination.
But most of all I'm what I'm and for nothing in this world I will change or compromise as I always been honest with myself and never been a fake and I still believe strongly in true faith.

Gianni Pintos

True Love

Still I hope there is something left,
To show that we was here, Before sinking into oceans,
In this forgotten years.

Now the decades still remain, Sometimes she talks to angels,
But devils made her insane.

Her lips are cold like death, and she steals away my last breath.

Everything I've ever done,
Everything I ever do,
Every place I've ever been,
Everywhere I'm going to.

The damage plagued upon my love, Driven by this selfish move.
To separate yourself from me,
But not the way you never been.

Bringing back memories which I can't explain,
The waves of neptune swept me away in pain.
Then hate, will escape your task, True feelings will let me pass.

Sadly I cannot control this final flame,
The fire that once consumed my heart is the one to blame.

Everything I've ever done,
Everything I ever do,
Every place I've ever been,
Everywhere I'm going to.

But I must have some kind of desire,
And every chance must keep alive this fire.
She'll write a kiss upon and much closer,
So we started the quest for the mean of true love.

Gianni Pintos

True Love During Wartime (The Longest Poem Ever)

What you feel it is a love enduring,
What you see it is an heart luring.

During wartime I was lost in the battle.
But my love was strong and far from little.

It was a difficult time around all my family.
But my love for them was strong and never lonely.

The invader came at once on our land,
I was looking after you with my both hands.

See all that fire sparkle in the night made me sad,
But the love for you was strong enough and the best I had.

Will my sentiments still feel for you in this madness time?
I know they will because you are the one I love in this world insane.

Touch you hands it is what I always wanted, Feelings are right because you are the one I always loved.

Green skies I see above this great summer day, Don't run away from this beautiful relaxing sunny bay.

Left yourself go for once, let me dance with you till the morning light,
I just want be with you till the fire on my heart will sparkle you in the night.

Hold me babe, hold me tight, hold me strong, hold now and hold till the dawn, Don't le me go now, don't let me go never, don't let me go forever, don't let feel the clouds.

Kiss me babe, kiss me now, kiss me till I'm with you, kiss me strong, kiss me loud, kiss me till I hear you in my soul, Love me babe, love me now, love me forever, love me till the tides wrapped me on, love me for what I'm and love me loud.

If this love mean something, I will love till I hear you voice in this wonderful dreams,
And I will be with you till the strongest wind will tear us apart in this summer night full of sweet means.

Well the war ended and the enemy flew away in the opposite direction, But the love for you stay strong and we always stay together with the same attraction.

Strange voices in my mind tell me we will never see each others again,
But I know I will do everything I can to make this love work in this years of pain.

Babe you are what I want, babe you are what I dream of, babe you are all my faith, babe you are the only one, babe you are the right for me, babe you are the one I love and is never too late.

Gianni Pintus

Two Of Kind

If we look past behind,
Yes we are two of kind.

If you look down and above,
Yes we are two in love.

If you look right on my face,
Yes we are love and in pace.

If you look what we got,
Yes we are in love and not forgot.

If you look the way we act,
Yes we are in love and it's a fact.

If you look our companioship, Yes we are in love if we meet.

If you look how we spoke,
Yes we are still in love when we wake up.

If we look past behind,
Yes we are two of kind.

Gianni Pintus

Underworld

Deep inside the wormhole, down the eternal flame, in the ruins detached houses, no close doors, s o many cracks through the walls.

Vampires and hungry beast, lycans with Vengeance and infernal werewolves.

Close your eyes grabs your gun, fire at will girl then ready to run.
No wings, no string, thick blood lay on the floor, the fun start already,
here in this unreal battle, between evil and what else more.

This is the only way, to settle things, once for all,
fury it's a spiral, in this rein of fire,
close your eye at once, I'm coming,
and bringing hellfire with me, desolation, destruction, darkness, and thirsty blood desire.

Gianni Pintus

Unforgettable Fire

Sit on this cold breeze wind, Look up for the brightest star, Waiting impatiently for something,
It could be you, my sweetest dream?

Your face it remind me the summer,
Your hands are so soft and warmer.
The tides were so high and up against the wind,
But your shadow on the sand keep you in my mind.

Will This weird feelings get through the divine light?
It was wonderful lose myself with you last night.
Please do comeback, I will wait for you at the beach,
My legs are shaking just to think about you this much.

Time goes by and at last you appear at once,
We are look at each others with smile upfront.
The tides are still alive and real in this great desire, Moon and stars above us in this unforgettable fire.

Gianni Pintus

Untamed Hearts

I never felt that much,
I never felt this, I swear, I always wanted, but I never felt it.

It's feel like:

Fly above constellation, feel no shame inside me, feel loved and feel the same.
Feel I can touch anything, feel I can see everything, everyone and fly everywhere, feel the fire inside me, the feel I can go where,
no one dare.

I feel the night is with me, I feel the day is inside me, feel the wind in my spine, feel the fire and feel so divine.
I feel I want be lift up the sky,
I feel I want be kiss everyday.
This feeling is so much awaited, it feel like the world stop at once, under me feet and I shall to dance, then all my emotions,
feel the same,
and my heart,
beat without shame.

I feel the flowers falling on me, I feel no fear where I want to be,
and when I look all around,
I feel so soft without any wounds,

I shall dance in this heaven alone, I'm here walking on the clouds, and feeling so warm and done, but at last you make,

your appearance, and the magical orchestral,
it's what I can hear,

Wow....at last,
you here, now for sure,
we can dance,
now is the time,
to let ourselves,
fly away,
in this dream, for instance.

Gianni Pintus

Until The Sunrise

I looked into your eyes and I saw you, My breath was so strong and so true.

My heart worked so fast and I felt the beat,
I dreamed of you and I fell down on my feet.

My love is so deep as it is my soul,
But your love made me again stand tall.

Our moment of passion began to rise,
The world is above us and above the skies.

Winter days are hollow, dark, cold and grey,
But our happiness for sure will wipe them away.

The blue summer sky is filled with lovebird cries, every time I looked at you I see you wonderful eyes.

And in a instant I felt for you, I was amazed the way your love showed,
All the universe I had never known it seems superb because you are loved.

It is great to know you it seems like I'm going my way to the paradise,
I truly felt for you straight away and I dream to stay with you until the sunrise.

Gianni Pintus

Wake Up The White Queen

Freezing cold like iceberg between silent oceans,
Who will be the chosen immortal god of passion?

The castle under the water is in peril one more time, Darkness is coming to hunting us committing one more crime.

The mighty dragons are spitting fire all the way, Why our beloved gods are still sleeping everyday?

Hundreds of warriors are ready to battle and line up in the field,
The great odyssey has started her journey under siege.

The forest is whispering thousand of names,
The ancients are screaming to the enemies with pain.

The witches are trying to hit the mighty first knight without sorrow, Demons are walking without fear in this night full of horrors.

But when everything stops and seems all quite in the line between,
The beloved sorcerer will make sure to wake up the white queen.

Gianni Pintus

War Around Me

As you dying in this madness war, I lie next to you, Starring up at you and I wonder if I ever could.
Everything is cold here, but everything is going to be okay,
And maybe what we fear most soon will be out of our way.

Is just a war of imperfection behind those wall,
But deep down inside we know it can be won.
You're the only one I want bring back safe to my castle,
And I'm the one who will make this sacrifice without hassle.

So I close my eyes and as we begin to drift off,
I wonder how we got so deep and never had enough.
But you are the only reason to rescue you, Keep breathing my beloved and we will get this through.

As I'm riding fast, furious and straight, taking all of your pain away,
But the wind is still following us, so let turn to the bridge down that way.
And if one day I woke up alone I won't stop till I find you again, Neither the black army and the devil itself, will stop me and my pain.

We are still heading straight surrounded from our mother death who want win, Desolation is coming towards us and what I can see, it is only the war around me.

Gianni Pintus

What Dream May Come

In my dearest dreams, flying way up high, through the land of clouds, and the barrier of sound.

flying the cloudy mountains, climbing the rough peaks, fighting devils with lightning where the angels dare I seek, but best of all, I see the night fall, it thrills me, see my angel call it turning me on, deep inside me, but the last dragon now may leave, and when I come back down to earth, I never say a thing, I just make it worth,

What really puzzle me is this desolation, What give me strenght is all our emotions

Gianni Pintus

Where We Belong

We met just by accident, in that little bridge, down the east coast,
In the middle of nowhere.

It was a furtive encounter,
But was gentle and brighter.
we talked for all day long,
Then we realise where we came from.

We managed to escape the boring on us, We where fine chatting about all those.
I know for sure who you was,
It came on my mind so close.

time goes by and I remembered you, and I remembered your sweet angel face,
I remembered you and your beautiful grace.

Yes of course I got you know.
I know who you are,
I know for sure who you are,
I realise after talking to you for all day long,
I finally realise where we belong, and where we came from,
I realise we are here.
two little bright star, in this, this big world.

Gianni Pintus

Where.....

Spent the night outside my door, looking for something down the floor, the light shade over my face, then from the sky, or from the outer space, something was coming.

I turn my back and I see sky again,
I started to cry,
and see what really meant to be here.
yes here in this special place, where the stars are warm, where the sun is nice, warm and gentle, where the winter fall caress you, where the immense constellations are blue, where only humans dare to touch, where the wars battle are only a dream, where the poor are the kings, where the night never end, where the light will dare to surrender, where my heart go with flow, where the baddies are punish with law, where the winner is a winner, where the dawn could be screamer.
where the immense prairies are free, where the children are meant to be.

So I wake up suddenly in the night, and I know this dream was right, So I walked down my street, and holy snow fall on me, then I realise nothing like this could be so right, and started to sing a song, to believe there is nothing wrong, to dream and believe in all this, then I sit down and smile and laugh.
and my heart felt the peace.

Then the wind took over me, then night walk through me.

the evening star dance with me and the sunshine took me.
in a special place, where I can see my fate, where I can sleep in my dreams, where I can see the light, where the devil play all night long, where my fate belong, where after all my heart is feeling strong.

Gianni Pintus

Will Be Peace

The clouds gentle travel away, while the river run fast in this wonderful day.

Tears are dropping fast from the sky, Rainbows are gone mad in this eternal light.

The alive forest is making a fine sounds,
The trees are staying put to the ground.

The wind blows over the moon his cold breathe,
The sacred land is empty in this day of mist.

Horses are running wild in this desolate fields,
The hunters are ready hiding behind their shields.

Months, years, century are lost in this land of memories,
The tribe of redskins is recalling the wild reminisce.

Blackfoot's, Navaho and Mohicans are ready to battle, Cheyenne, Comanche and Cherokee are ready to settle.

he white man Calvary is riding above the cold winter lake, Will be peace at last in this sacred land, which is still awake.

Gianni Pintus

Winter Cold On Me

The children's are playing out in snow, Throwing snowball over the roof downfall.

Little flakes are fallen from the mighty sky Father Christmas is coming in this winter pale.

The cold above us is bringing romance with sunlight,
I will hold you in my arms my dear love in this cold night.

When the morning coming we will be ready to run.
I will still hold you in my arms my dear love in the hot sun.

I don't care about this cold winter.
Because I love you and you know I mean it! ! !

I think of you every minute in this cold wind,

I want you even when there is the winter cold on me.

Gianni Pintus

With My Love, My Soul And My Heart I Want Be With You

I want to be loved when I need to be loved,
I want to be with you when rains down on me,
I want you comfort me when I feel the pain, I want feel your blood into my own vein.
I want be close to you when I'm feel awkward and I will be closer with you when I feel insane.

I want you hear me when no one will listen,
I want you hear my voice for hours till the sunset,
I want you to be my shelter when I need rest, I want you to be my shield when I need defence, I want you to be my sunshine when darkness falls,
I want you to be my guardian when the devil call.

I want you to hold your hand when I'm frightened,
I want you consider me when no one is bothered,
I want you tell me you love me, because is true,
I want you to be with me in everything I do.
I want to be with you till death tear us apart
I want you with my love, my soul, my heart

Gianni Pintus

With You

Holding you hand, till the morning light, Kissing you,
from daylight.
to night.
Holding the angels wings forever, Thinking of you,
forever and ever.

Why we should stop this weird feelings?
Time will heal us,
and wounds will be sewing.
You really are the sweetest things, You really are a great soul within.

Look up the universe, and see you only,
Whispers in her ears, when she feel lonely.

We're now here, in this solemn light, holding each other close, holding each other tight
You touch my face
Then my love embrace

We are together it seems like forever
this love is right
I want hold you till midnight

No need to leave
From this love tonight
I will be with you my love For the rest of my life

Gianni Pintus

With You Or Without You

If you think you are the one, Then stay here for a while.
so many things to talk about I find you very alike.
And I will be more natural, to fulfil all your deepest desires, making you feel like an unforgettable fire.

Take my hand and show me the way,
There is much I want to say.
Whisper gently without fear so many things I want to hear.
Kiss me softly and touch my skin Take the moon and sun within.
Hold me strong and hold me near;
I just want you, I want you here.

Feel my heart, but please do not fall, it's time for me to make you whole I really feel for you, can't you see?
I'm your man, you know it's me.

Therefore do I knowing the joy, the warmth, feeling of this place, the fire on us will love this embrace, But this unknown kiss will never face, the flames will never burn your thirst, only quench will be the very last.

There is happy time in this whole world,
There is an heart, but it is a bit cold,
I love you, you know I do,
But I will go ahead with you.
or without you.

Gianni Pintus

Without Wings

I can see lands below,
I can see trees and lakes too,
I can feel the sun on my way,
I can see the mighty bright day.

I can feel the clouds touching me, I feel the horizon around me, flying above the mountains, then reach the northern star, then drink from the holy fountain.

The moon is my friend, and all planets are my faith, the rivers are inside me, all gods are blowing winds.

Dance with the sandstorm,
And touch the peaks tops, Sail the ocean, and kiss the day warm Then again up to the stars,
And reach for the heaven gate, Through the mighty celestial path, where only love is the purest faith.

Flight where the weather is so warm, then search for the unsettle storm, leave the earth and learn to fly, in this forbidden immense sky, Then back to earth at the end of a day, and feel again the love who swept me away.

Gianni Pintus

Wondering

Sunny day, Warm night, looking for the brightest star, looking trough the sky, I'm a lonely soul, chasing the moon, wishing,
everybody goodnight, to soon.

with a kiss.
I can breeze with a look,
I can freeze.

I'm standing still and feel free, I'm feel so young I'm feel so insane
I'm wondering,
If she feel the same.

I'm lying down, upon the light dream of flying up so high reaching the stars, sit on the moon dancing with the clouds, then comeback,
to my room

Gianni Pintus

Wrap Your Trouble Into Your Dreams

Sweating night, feeling alright,
night full of sin,
place your dreams,
where no one dare, no one win.

Stories full of regrets, temptation's lay here, but my heart don't lie, my soul don't feel fear.

Sure I'm about myself, no attempt of make it bad, no feel mad and no feel sad.

This dreams are full of mean, but no one will take my soul, no one will spell my heart,
I'm sure of myself,
I'm a man full of respects.

Gianni Pintus

Wrong Turn

Death took me unfairly. Gone soon, Soon my eyes where all over the moon.

There is so little I can do for now,
The funeral will be the last bow.

Gone in the mist, with flashes on my mind, Gone too fast from a past behind.
I touch them in my dreams all those bodies,
No so much, as you never noticed.

Black sky in the front door,
The ghost blade is so sore.
I felted the sudden storms,
I felt black circles around my room,

Distant voice is what only can hear,
Deep inside me there is only uncertain fear.
Open this coffin now, as I need leave, Open it now for f..k sake as I can't breath.

Gianni Pintus

You Are All I Need

You are in all that I do,
And everything I say,
And make me feel so good,
You're the smile on my face,
The sparkle in my eye.
The eternal flame
Inside my heart,
A desire well worth.

You are all I've wanted,
You are all I need.
You are all I've dreamed of,
You are all of this to me.
Over and over again

You are in love baby,
And I know so,
I'm in love baby and you know so You are back into life my baby
To stay this time baby, Forever and ever baby,
I need your love
I want your love
Over and over again.

As I wake up by your side,
My feelings for you I can not hide,
I touch your face in the morning light, Before I left and I just felt so right You make me feel so sweet, Like being inside an untold dream,
But this is real, that I know,
And will continues to grow
And as you lay in bed my dear, I'm just so glad you're mine,
And I'm still here.

Gianni Pintus

You Are The Sunshine Above Me

You are the I want dear Joanne,
No matter what you are the one.

You are the one make me happy and feel right,
No matter what I think about you days and nights.

I'm already in love with you because we are the same,
No matter what! I really love you because we are both insane.

You are the sunshine above me,
No matter what I love you and not just in my dream.

You are the one for rest on my life,
No matter what I love you everyday.

You are the one and I'm sure you are,
No matter what I love you and I care.

You are the I want dear Joanne,
No matter what you are the one.

I'm dreaming every moment about us,
No matter what I'm dreaming this.

I will let my heart go, cos I know I can trust you,
No matter what I know you will not hurt me.

You are the sunshine above me,
No matter what I love you and not just in my dream.

Gianni Pintus

Your Name Is Everywhere

Can you hear me calling your name?
You know I'm falling everyday the same.

As long as we're getting close,
I'd like to remind you always.

Your name is everywhere and I see your face,
Your name is everywhere and I see your grace.

Your name is everywhere and I feel you love me,
Your name is everywhere and I want you close to me.

Every time you are far away and I cannot see you.
But my love will break this Loneliness through.

Don't hang around, when you come down here in this empty room,
And it's on, with this madness whispering made me doomed.

Your name is everywhere and I see your face,
Your name is everywhere and I see your grace.

Your name is everywhere and I see you love me,
Your name is everywhere and I want you close to me.

But once you got onboard that unstoppable train Through the cold grey morning and this city of rain.

Thinking in what else I could run?
keep me a little more see this through.

Your name is everywhere and I see your face,
Your name is everywhere and I see your grace.

Your name is everywhere and I see you love me,
Your name is everywhere and I want you close to me
