No matter who I am, will you still enjoy my works?

Am I Crazy?

Am I crazy?
Yes, i'm crazy
The craziness flow in my heart
Through the darkness in your eyes I'm crazy in you

Hana 1225

Am I Unseen For You/

I'm unseen
For those who can dream no more
For those who aren't a child anymore

I'm completely transparant, Oh, how fun!
All the joy makes me flow!

Me? Alone?
No I'm not
This place is crowded
With those who cant be seen
Not bad, for now, I'm fine.

Let me tell you,
I'm unseen
For those whose souls aren't free.

Am i unseen for you?

As The Time Passed Bye

In this place
It's empty
It's boring
I could do nothing
Just as the time passed bye

I sit down
Lay on the floor Close my eyes
As the second ticked bye

Straightened my back Change my position Open my eyes
Breathing slowly
As the time passed bye

No sun
No wind
No clouds
No one
I'm alone

As the second ticked bye
As the time passed bye
And I believe that It's the time to say
"Good bye"

Hana 1225

Before The Death Come

You have realized it, haven't you?
You know about it, don't you?
Your time's running out
Don't you want to try your best?
Start from now on, quick.
Before the death come to you.

This is a race
Between you and the deadness
I place my bet on you
That you'll reach your dreams
Before the time already out Go on, make me win.

Hana 1225

Big Hole

After a long time
I'm just realized it
I'm sick

There's a big hole in my heart
That no one could fulfill The only one could
Is the loneliness i always feel
And the dancing pain
That flows in the darkness

Hana 1225

Boom Riing Yuck Pam

Boom

Boom

Boom

Tell me how to burn the boredom

Riing

Thanks to it I could no longer laughing

Yuck

Yuck

Yuck

I feel my life sucks

Pam

Pam

Pam

Just waiting, wasting my life spam

Hana 1225

Bubbles

Popping bubbles
muffling their rumbles

Blow a bubble
It's not against any rules

Floating bubbles accompany me do the dances

Lovely bubbles awakening my senses take me fly away to the wide skies please, make these dreams endless

Hana 1225

Connection

everyone is connected one another people called that connection 'bond' we make bond with others i called them 'partners' the better your partner the stronger the bond is i called it 'friendship' friendships are made with the most trusted partners i called them 'friends'

Counting Down Until The Time For It To Come

Counting down Until the time it comes ten..nine...eight...

Waiting to lit the fireworks Waiting to blow the trumpets seven...six...five...

Let your sadness become the past Let your hope become the motivation four...three...

Get a hold on your hopes climbing, step by step on your dreams to reach the destination called future two...one...

Go! Let your feelings explode!

...zero.... just like those fireworks that decorating the sky tonight

Dear My Self

Dear myself...
when you're forced it's hurt, isn't it?
so, why don't you release it?
cry! Scream it out! ! !
You're so stupid!
Don't pretend to be calm!

Dear myself...
Hey, spill it out...
it hurts you, right?
Your feeling is hurt, isn't it?

Dear myself...
why? why?
Don't act so stupid!
It wouldn't hurt your pride,
would it?

I've said it many times
Throw those fake smiles!

Hana 1225

Deathness Love

Dare to say, it's absolut Earthquake mean nothing to compare with
And no one able to ruin it Then, one minute feels like forever Hope always in their hearts:
'Nothing will able to separate us;
Even the death will lose against us;
Someone else will die instead of us;
Somewhere will destroyed instead here'

'Lie is forbidden
On the name of love
Velvet blue, the color of our world Ever and never change'

Hana 1225

Distance

North and south
Sky and earth
As far as I and them

Hell and heaven
Just two words
To tell the differences about us

That's all I can say About myself,
About themselves
About our relationship

Hana 1225

Dont Be Shy, Let's Cry!

Dont be shy
let's cry enjoy the pains that'll wash away your sins

Crying, screaming, trying to forget the pain that's stinging Dont be shy, stop cry, let's play
Try to go to the other way

Dont be shy, stop cry, just say what makes you act that way Dont listen to what they say
They said you're weak, so why?

Dont be shy, stop cry let's play
I'd like to see your smile today

Hana 1225

Dont Moan, Dont Whine

Not all the pearls shine

Keep smiling, stay innocent Thought it's fake, the light is still radiant

Don't scream, don't weep Jump high and leap

Just smile, don't weep Seems small, but it's a big step

Don't hung your head, look up Those people would eventually shut up

Hana 1225

Dont Say Good Bye

Don't look at me
As if you wouldn't see me for a long time
Don't shake my hand
As if you'll go far far away
Don't hug me
As if we're going to separated
Don't give me anything
As if you wouldn't give me anything forever
Don't say good bye
As if we wouldn't talk again

Down, Left, Right, Up, Step, See, Lie, Truth, Hate, Love, Happy

Down down down
Let's go down through the ground

Right right right
Everything will be alright

Up up up
Keep your head up and smile

Step step step
Step forward and look around

See see see
Can you see the miracle called love?

Lie lie lie
People had been a liar sometimes Yeah, so do i

Truth truth truth
But I'll try to say the truth
In case if I'm not forget yet

Hate hate hate Never hate yourself even if you've made mistakes

Love love love
Love your life, your existence
And those around you

Happy happy happy
After all
I'm sure we'll be happy

Dunia Abu-Abu (Gray-Colored World) -Bilingual-

Mari tengok ke masa lalu (Let's look back at the past)
Saat hitam dan putih belum bersatu (When black and white havent united)

Bagai potret yang masih baru (Just like a new photograph) Jelas dan memperlihatkan batas (Clear and showing it's lines)

Tapi itu sudah berlalu (But it's all over) Kebenaran hanya satu
(The truth is only one)

Dunia ini berwarna abu-abu (This world is gray-colored) Hitam-putihnya tiada yang tahu (Black or white, no one knows which is which)

Hana 1225

Even Thought The Fate Is So Cruel

Even thought the fate is so cruel
We couldn't resist or fool
As if we are too proud To still alive
But who knows
We'll lose our live?

Even thought we're separated
And it'll makes us bored
As if we're certain We'll still alive for a long time
But who knows
When will we die?

Even thought the time already passed Sometime's we just couldn't stop To wonder what if the time come back
As if we're sure
That the earth is square

Fate

Fate is something we cant rule Fate is something we cant fool
No matter how much we hate it
No matter how much we love it Still, we couldn't change it

As the second ticked by As minutes passed by
As hour go wasted
Will come the time to say Good bye

Hana 1225

For You

I want to scream
So everyone could hear

I want to whisper
So you could understand

I want to laugh
So the sadness will go away

But I want to cry
To help you forget the pain

But, hey
Please cry
It wouldn't hurt your pride
Would it?

Gifts For My Friends

When I walk around the store
I can't stop to wonder About my friends, and gifts to share

A jar of sweet, colorfull candies
For my cherish, girly friend
For her happiness
So she won't be sad

A bar of bitter-sweet chocolate
For my cherish, genius friend
For her brain's healthy
So she won't be stress

A pack of white, sweet marshmallows
For my cherish, innocent friend
For her purity
So she won't be dirty

A pack of double-mints bubble gums
For my cherish, diligent friend
For her success
So she won't be lazy

I looked in my pocket
And search for my wallet
Then I realized
That I don't bring enough money

But I have decided I'll buy for them some other time
Maybe....who knows?

Give Me Back My Dreams

Give me back my dreams
And you could have these nightmares, these dreamless sleeps

Where I was floating around

Give me back my dreams
Lord of the bubble land I became

Let me have my dreams
I think it ain't a shame

Let me have my dreams
Where in the night I was welcome

Hana 1225

God's Punishment, God's Plan

God will punish People who have done sins
That just like me

Sometimes I want something
But things just didn't turn out like I want

When I thought
That I could reach it

Then it'll vanished soon Leaving nothing behind

I want to believe I'll try to believe

That that's God's plans for me

Greets And Good-Bye

Good morning my friends

Good evening my love

Good night my family

Good bye my dreams

Farewell my life

And hello my new world

Happiness

Greet all people in the world, look!
Rainbow above us looks so happy
And the kids scream happily Young girls giggled each other

Can't you see the miracle around us?
Love's light shine for all of us
Of course, for all people in the world too
Under the blue-high sky Death seems nothing to worry at

Hey, Do You Know?

Do you know how much I hate you?
Do you even know What hate is?

Of course you don't
You don't know about pain
You don't know about "my" pain
You don't know about hate
You don't know about feeling
You don't know anything Anything but love

You don't even look at me Never.
You don't know about me
Do you?

It takes you long enough
Just to realizes
That I hate you From now on And for ever

Hana 1225

Hey, There!

Hey there!
What's with that expression?

May i guess?
Sadness? Fear? No, anger?

Come on,
those kind of emotions,
Just bury them deep under the ground

It's alright if you don't shine even a shine-less pebble could crave a deep wound

Hana 1225

Hey, You There

Hey, you there
What are you looking for?
If you keep saying `no more`
Why don't you just die, you eye sore?
Hey, please don't get mad, keep your anger, Because it's just a letter
From me, for the "other"

Hiding The Disgusting Thing

It hurts hurts so much that you couldn't expect me to shut up broken skin accompanied with a silent scream with my teeth with my fingernails biting, clawing trying to keep the scream that threaten to come splattered blood gathering underneath like a flood piercing pain is it to remind me of my sins?

Dry cheeks
a sign that on tears escaped yet hiding not wanting anyone to see a single thing disgusting who wants to see such a thing?

Honestly, Mrs And Mr

Honestly, Mrs and Mr
What do you think we are?
A humanoid or a real human?
You'd say we're human But you dont look at us like ones

We are liars
Since we gave you
Our best, fakest smile
We're actors
Since we gave you our false obidience

Honestly, Mrs and Mr
We're warriors
Who hide our swords Behind our small bodies
Who hide our cries Behind ous smiles

How Dare You

How dare you
Make fun of me
How dare you
Break my patience

How dare you
Took my breath away
How dare you
Steal my attention

How dare you
Look at me
How dare you Speak to me
How dare you Smile to me

How dare you
Stole my heart
And then go Without even look back

How dare you
Signing your own death proposal
Now, please Go away
Or simply, just die

How It Feels For Me

It feels so empty
I thought my brain's going to die
But sometimes it looks so funny
And that time,
I could always smile happy

Although everyone seems angry
But at last we'll all scream happily
Although the lessons drive us crazy
At the end, we'll just think about it dreamily

Remember our past,
Keep our priceless memories
And meet once again before we die, Shall we?

Hana 1225

I Am Peter Pan

Happy and joy,
the future would never come let's play again, my friends even until then i would never grow prepare to leave everything behind listen to the ringing bell let's run, hurry!

let's prepare our selves to being scolded until the bell is heard again and all would scream happily

the future would never come let's always dreaming, friends even until the end i would never grow prepare to leave everything behind

I Dont Want To Cry

I don't want to cry
For that just give my strength away
I don't want to cry
I don't want to know what they say That I'm weak because I cry

It's all my fault,
I accept.
There's nothing I could reject
I could only sit
And take a deep breath

Somehow, inside me Something say:
"you're a liar 'cause you don't cry"
I, also accept that.

I Know, You Know

Just cry
Please dont say Those lies.
Those fake smileys,
Just throw them away

I know,
You're full of sorrows.
I know you know,
our happiness would hardly flow.
Let's wait 'til the wind blows.

Hey, friends.
Just let the winds take us to the end of lines

I Want To Forget

I want to forget
About all our promises
Still the part in my heart
Will never forget
The pain I ever feel

I want to forget
About our friendship
Still the part in my heart
Will never forget
The happiness I ever felt

Hana 1225

I, My, Me: Shadow

I am clumsy
I am not clever
I am a cry-baby

My parents worried
My teachers don't care
My friends far away

They worry about me
They confused about me Sometimes, they torture me

Because I'm nothing Because I'm a shadow

Hana 1225

If I Were Unseen, Then It's Fine

If those who I can see
Can see me no more
It will be OK, I hope

I have a friend
Who also can't be seen It's not real but that doesn't matter at all

If those who I can see can't see me anymore Now it's fine, see?

I'm not completely alone
If I were unseen, then it would be fine

Hana 1225

Illutions

Stories that end
The wasted times
The passed days

People i met People I knew People I forgot

The blowing wind
The falling leaves

The old classrooms
The place I sat on The times I fell asleep upon the desk

Old jokes Old days Childhood

Those seem like illutions However, they were Beautiful illutions

To people i knew, to those that I have forgot, to those that i would know in the future

I'M Going To Win

Nothing I have won Nothing I have gained
I'm not letting myself down
I tried not to be drown But seems like I'm being pulled More.....
More.....
Deeper.....
I'm going to win
This one
If nothing else,
I'm going to win
I'm pretty sure it wouldn't be fun
But they wont care as long as I win

I'M Mortal Oh....

I have realized it
My time is running out
My soul is going to fly away Obsequies of mine is going to prepared Rain will stopped and sun will shine
The world will be happy to lost me
All people will pretend to be sad Lie will showering my corpse
One day that'll happen to me
Hail storm in my heart getting bigger and bigger...

In This Cruel World

Never lost your hopes
Never lost your dreams

No matter how much
You tried and fail Dont forget
That you're not the only one

Wipe away your tears
And make up your opinion
Never lose against this world
Never lost your hopes

Never give up upon your dreams
No matter how much
You cry and hurt

It's only the beginning
Let's get up and try again

Reach out your hand Someone will hold you this time
And lead you to your dreams

Hana 1225

Is It Really Good Bye?

Human changed
Along with the seasons that passed by

Just like my mates
Right after the lessons
They say it's good bye

Is it really good bye?
Do they really mean it?

So that's the meaning of our friendship

Just like the blowing wind
Just like time passed
Just like nothing

Hana 1225

It'D Be Lying

Maybe this's some kind of depression
I feel something's coming Maybe it's the caffeine effect
I feel something's wrong

All time, all time
The death scares me
All night and day Everything reminds me of the death even the assignments That I got from the teacher even the story that I write

It'd be lying
If I say death is nothing Because everytime I feel it's coming I'd curled upon my bed, crying

Because as the time's flowing
I feel myself dying

Hana 1225

I've Had Enough

I don't like it
If they put too much faith,
Or put me in a rush
Because they think it would be better for me
For me?
Or for them?
Or is it 'us'?
I could no longer believe Or have faith
In my self Pulling me deeper into another failure
Please stop
Please
They think of me
I'm glad of it
But I hate
Their way to show it Don't push, don't rush
I've had enough

Justice Is Broken

Justice is broken.
There's nothing forbidden.
The honestes become burdens.

The honestes are crying.
Saying the truth is nothing.
The humans sure are rotting.

The next time if suddenly.
You discover that the peace is a lie.
Dont be shy and just cry.
Sometimes,
the death just seems so heavenly

Let's Go Under The Shade

Let's get under the shade
Remove that heavenly mask
And slip out of that earthly skin

Let's get under that shade
With ripped belief
And broken moral

Let's get under that shade
And rip each other's heart
Feeling the beats Tasting the emotions buried inside

With cursed words, let go
The sadness
The anger
The sorrow
The loneliness

With shattered bones, hold tighter
The love
The happiness

With broken voices, scream
The ideas
The frustration

Let's get under that shade
And let our feelings laid bare Letting out everything that could be shared

Please slip back into that earthly skin
And put on that heavenly mask
Let us walk out from this shade

There's no more shades to protect us
The rays of light may hurt
But let's step out of this shade
And show to the world this sugar coated lies

Hana 1225

Look At Me, Love Me

Why dont you speak?

Why dont you laugh?

Why dont you smile?

Why dont you cry?

Emotionless as always

Why dont you look at me?

Why dont you love me?

Youre so perfect outside

But blank inside

Smooth, pale skin

Dark, black eyes

Just like a porcelain doll

Someday I'll break you

And force you out of that world of yours

Someday I'll make you

look at me

and love me

Love Life

I love my life,
no matter how much the pain i ever felt

I love my friendss,
no matter how much
I cry because of them

I love my school
no matter how often the annoying-bell ring into my ears

I love everyone who have step in my live
they left me behind

I love everything that happen in my life
No matter how often
I feel so lifeless

I love my life
no matter how much
I long for the deathness

Loveless

Light in my heart now shutting off
On the earth I lie down Violet that already fall over the ground
Ends up dances with the wind Let the door of my heart locked Ever and never unlocked again Sadness flows in my heart, then...
Slowly sink in the darkness

Loveless Warrior

You lay there
On the battlefield
Under the moonlight

Eyes that see nothing Soulless, lifeless

You said, 'the earth, is our battle field,
Love is our weapon;
And hatred is our shield'

'I have no doubt That i'll lose Because I have no weapon Because I'm loveless'

Hana 1225

Meaningless Mean

Float's mean is going to fly
Fly's mean is going to fall Fall's mean is going to stand Stand's mean is going to move Move's mean is going to walk Walk's mean is alive
Life's mean is going to die Die's mean is....
I don't know yet
I've never die: p

My Life

My life's sucks
Under people's shadow Always failed in everything Know nothing but to keep alive Become useless everytime Always try my best

Not knowing what is waiting there Glad if everything is fine
End up with think about the deathness Then, started doubting about my self-existence

Hana 1225

My Own Happiness

When I realize it
I'm always alone
I don't really mind it Boredom? There is no more

Sitting on the fences Swaying my legs
There is fear
But also something dear

Singing carelessly
No one mind
Enjoying the wind
Caressing my skin

Looking at the flowers bellow
Dancing, accompanying my head bobbing Watching the skies and the clouds traveling I'd sing with no one scolding

Not Genius, But Clever Enough

I'm not a genius
Whose IQ as high as sky
But i'm clever enough
To stop my self from cry

I'm not a genius
Who reach the highest mark Still, I'm not that stupid
To not know that everyone bark Right behind my back

Nothingness

Nothing to do Nowhere to go Noone to hold onto Nothingness
Sleepless Liveless
Loveless Meaningless

Hana 1225

On My Own World

i live alone on my own world i stand the world full of fantasy surrounded by imaginary nothing to cry about until the last time my eyes shut laughing with the blowing wind i dont even want to care if it's the end looking for the star to follow and in the end, I would never grow watching the geoses fly, fly away until then, until i finally die

Our Journey

When the birds chirps
And the wind blows
Our journey is begin

We have our own favourite taste Milk, chocolate, strawberry
Just choose which you want Just like that
We choose our own path

We are different
Not just I, you, he and she
We are all different
We have our own taste

I choose milk
You want chocolate
He wants strawberry
She wants all
We walk on our own path

But that's not the reason Fir us to separate Promise...promise...
That we'll support each other

Peace Piece Pie

Run! run! run
This world is so cruel
It makes me want to run

Die! die! die!
Sometimes i really want to die
But think about it's scary

I want to break everything Sadly, i have nothing

Kill! Kill! Kill!
I feel wanna kill someone
But too weak to carry some more sin

Peace? Piece? Pie?
Just like a piece of pie
My heart broke into two piece

The half longing for peace
The other half mad and sad
Just like a piece of burning pie

Shadow

I'm standing alone
Alone in the darkness
I shut my eyes tightly
So I cant see the light

I stand in the darkness
So the light wont reach me
I'm still in the darkness
Keep the distance from the others

I'm standing alone
In the tight embrace of the darkness
If I keep my mouth shut
No one will notice ny presence Because I'm just a shadow

Hana 1225

Someday, I'll Tell You

I won't speak nonsense
I won't laugh loudly
I won't smile sheepishly Because I want you to look at me, proud of me

I don't really understand But I believe what I feel inside, whenever you're in my vision, is love

I'm not perfect
That's why
I hide my weakness

Someday, I'll tell you
I love you

Spell

The magic has been cast
When the dirt was blown past Hurry, for the rhythm changes fast

Release the forbidden spell Because we know all too well
The moment we both fell

Our chants
Begs the world to keep us bound Changing the fate to meet our want

What is it that we long for?
For the hearts it roars

Then let us be bound
By the spell that we found
As we gather licking our wounds

And wind carries with it
The forgotten promises
The fading memories
The vanishing touch
The binding spell

And it'll all be well

Starry Night, Starry Skies

Staring at the starry skies Let those logic fly
Let your mind wanders

Looking at the blinking stars
Let's forget those lies
The lie people called peaces

When I let my eyes shut
I hope someone would tell the truth
Know nothing sometimes hurt

Shooting stars, why do you fall?
Is it to grant me with a lullaby?
So that I could escape
From the insomniac
That consumes me terribly?

After having fun with stars
And when it's almost dawn
I close my eyes with a yawn

Good night, good night
Thanks for the beautiful night

Shooting stars, why do you fall?
Is it to grant me with a lullaby?
So that I could escape
From the insomniac
That consumes me terribly?

That's Why This's Good Bye

Along with the second that ticked bye
That's why this's good bye

Although we're laugh
That'll never enough

Although we've promised Something i'll never missed Sometimes it's wise
To pick which one's lie

No matter how bad
My will to meet them Sometimes i should Just forget about them

Hana 1225

The Coffee That Just Like You

The bitter smell of coffee Flows through the air
And the sweetness
Runs down my throat
And the warmth of it Filled my stomach
And those all will disappear
But just like you
The memory of it
Will still deep in my heart

The Forgotten

I forgot

Ah? What is it that I forgot?

I forgot

It's just that

Simple, aint it?

Who was I?

Before I forgot?

How was I?

Before I forgot?

Ah, right

I forgot

What was it that I need to remember?

Yes, yes, dears

About that, too

It seems like I have forgotten about it Should I try to remember?

What was it about?

Whose smile was it that made

This heart beats like a young bride's?

Whose laugh was it that made me though

This world is worth to be journeyed through?

So I'll leave the forgotten things,

And prepare to spread my wings

May all the forgotten sins

be washed by this rain

The Mask Of Innocence

Smiling is quite useful
It makes everyone easy to fool

Even my wounded heart Doesnt need to hide that hard

Even my breaking soul
Will drive into peace with lull

Smile is not that hard
You could do it with wounded heart

Sometimes I try to believe There'll be someone that if

That if try to fool
He'll healing my soul

And surely that time
My mask of innocence
Will gone
Aling with the time
That passed bye

The Only Thing I Can Do

I have realized it
I know about it
I'm short of time

I can do only one thing
That is waiting Untill the time's coming
And i'll be dying

Hana 1225

The Reason To Be Stronger

The only one i could believe in is my self That's why i want to be stronger More, more stronger than my current self

So that I wouldnt afraid
With the thunder
And wouldn't feel sad
Even if I fall nor failed

So that i wouldn't afraid
To protect everyone i love
To smile when they're happy

That's why I want to be like a boy Who could run fast without even breaks a sweat

I want to be stronger
Just like a boy
So i wouldnt cry easily
When I feel something wrong
And wouldnt surrender
When I face something difficult

Hana 1225

Things Reminds Me Of My Family

The big, pale moon Reminds me of the white, hot milk
That I shared with you...
Mother....

The cloudy, night sky
Reminds me of a cup of coffee
I used to drink with you...
Father....

The brown, dead grasses Reminds me of a bowl of noddle
That I have ate with you...
Sister....

The white, puffy clouds
Reminds me of the marshmallows
That we burn together over the flat-pan....
Brother....

And the brown, falling leaves Reminds me of a glass of tea
We all drink almost at every evening...
My beloved family....

Hana 1225

Thinking About...

Think about the death makes me afraid

Think about the past makes me sad

Think about now makes me confused

Think about future make me hurt

Think about you make me annoyed

Hana 1225

This Is Not Good Bye

Surely, my friends
We'll meet again
Surely, my friends
We'll able to hold each other
Surely, my friends
We'll change
Surely, my friends
We'll forget
But really, my friends
I'll try to remember
That's why
This isn't good bye

Hana 1225

Time

I want the time to move faster
so i could see you earlier

I want the time
to move slower so I could hold you longer

I want the time
to stop moving

Back to when we're child so I could hug you without any hesitation

Still, all I got is the time for us to say good bye

Hana 1225

To Our Own Path

Our journey has begin
We walk on our own path
One by one

It felt strange
But we'll get used soon

And fate making fun with us
We meet again on that corner Again, it feel strange

Chocolate, strawberry, milk and sugar
Those all mixed together Doubt, nervous, happy, and joy
All makes us confused

We call back everything
That happen in the past Again, again, and again

Untill we get bored
And separated

After all we gone
To our own path

Hana 1225

To The Blooming You

Bloom, my dear
Beautifully, like a flower at the beginning of spring
May the harsh wind blow away
May the bitter cold went away

Bloom, my dear
Prettily, like a flower in the midst of grass
May the loneliness be swept along with your tears
May a comrade visit you from afar
And then you'd bloom happily together, wouldn't you?

Don't wither, my dear
I pray, for your roots to stay strong
For your nutriments to always come along

Be brave, my dear
The changes may be painful
The loneliness may hurt

Slowly,
Open your eyes Carefully,
Take a step Gracefully, Live
May the sun shines on you May the butterflies dance for you May the bees protect you May happiness be yours

Slowly,
Open your eyes
Carefully,
Peek at the world outside Gracefully, Bloom

Hana 1225

Trouble Maker

I'm a trouble maker.
You knew it, for sure
I'm a trouble maker
I've never said I'm pure

I'm a trouble maker
I see nothing in my future
Nothing but a blur
I'm a trouble maker

I'm a trouble maker
I may not cause any fear
I dont purposely break anything either
I'm a trouble maker
that's for sure
Because I could make you burn with anger

Turn The Tragedy Into Comedy

I don't know how To love and be loved
I don't understand yet
But I think
That little fact doesn't matter

That's until then
I saw him from distance
Two years passed then I just notice

Panicked and frustrated
I tried to find out Am I in love? How could?
I'm nearly graduated
After those two years passed Only a few months, and My love-story will turned Into tragedy

I'll just wait Until a few more time passed
And that love story
Surely, will become a comedy

Hana 1225

Weird Feeling

It's weird
It's strange
I cant find out What exactly this feeling

Is it like?
Is it hate?
Or is it nothing?

Really, it's weird
I still cant figured it out

Really its confusing
I can tell nothing

Really, I'm confusing
What happen with me?

True, I did like him True, i did adore him True, I thought
I need some aspirin

Hana 1225

What I Want To Do With You

I want to hold you loosely Enough to give you a break

I want to hold you tightly Enough to keep you stay

I want to heal your wound
To see your smile again

I want to stab your body
To snatch your heart
To protect it
So that no one could have it
So that I could keep you with me

Hana 1225

When I Face Something Difficult

When I face something difficult
I won't step back and will look forward
I won't think that that's hard
As long as there's a reward

Hana 1225

When I Feel Want To Kill Someone

When I feel want to kill someone I'll curse that someone
And then think what I really want Hope that at least I can torture someone

Hana 1225

When You Grown

When you grown
You'd only be a boring person
Nothing exciting anymore
For you lost your wonderful imagination

When you grown
Everything become so scary Become dark and mysterious
For you lose your pure, innocent mind

When you grown
You forget things
Your childhood, Your dreams

When children grown They'd forget the times they play Their favorite toys

When you grown
You'd forget about me wont you?

I dont want to grow
Be a little innocent kid forever

Hana 1225

Why Do You Cry?

Why do you cry?
If only I know why
If you let me know why
Maybe I could take those away

When you think there's no one to witness
You freed your sadness
But, do you know that's madness?

By seeing your mask is broken
I dare to say your heart already torn

After taking some courages Helplessly you try to wake
From those nightmares
You gathered the mask's pieces
To make sure no one see your cries

Hana 1225

You And Me

I dont want to forget the story that i want to write with the sparkling silver tint so it'll shine incredibly bright even at the moonless night
I hope I might be there I hope we could even after we've separated that we could laugh together everynight
the story that I want to write is about you and me but, even every words in the world Would never enough...

You Might Think I'M Silly

you might think
i'm silly
but it's the reality living in the world full of fantasy befriend imaginary

you might think
i'm silly
drowning in stupidity for being crazy and always so happy but it's the reality

Hana 1225

You Want A Fight?

Come if you want to fight,
I'll welcome you with claws and teeth.

Come forward,
I'm sure you're not a coward.

No offense,
But I'm more into defense.

No matter how much you flame,
My fire wouldn't flare.

Don't glare,
It's not quite scary you see.

Your fiery rage,
Was it really for someone your age?

Your words hurt my ear,
Haven't you taught any manner?

Calm down,
I'm not looking down.

Who are you to be angry?
Wasn't I talking politely?

Your death threat, didn't even reach my heart.
