[Edit]

Hi My name is Hannah and I write my own poems. My dream is to a writer and I'm only 13 so since poems are easy to publish this is a start for me. I love swimming, Reading, writing, and drawing.I play softball and soccer and am in 8th grade. I have many friends. So yeah... I'm going to write a bunch of poems so keep updated! :) Peace out

Destiney

This is a stage of life
This will lead me to a new path
A new life
A new destiney
You can change the world
But you can't change your destiney You can out run a runner in a race But you can't out run your destiney Its chosen for you from the moment you where born Each moment that happened for a reason Bad or good it happens So live with it

Halloween

Halloween when all the ghouls come out

All the people better watch out

Lights go on they hide

Lights go out "come on out! "

OH! Look little children

Who scream with fright

Erie screams split the night

EEEH! Evil laughter fills the sky

Neat how they scare? Well, wait till next year when Dracula arrives

Happy Halloween

Hope

Hope

a powerful word

gives you the strength to keep fighting for whats right

Wether where rich or poor staving or not homeless or orphaned if you keep thinking hope you will survive

I Love U

you are my love I will always love you even if you don't love me back Everything about you I love it all your personality your attitude
We have so much in common we are close friends and i don't want to ruin or forget it you are my love
i love you But maybe it isn't ok to tell you well not yet anyway

I Promise

♥ I promise you my heart♥ ♥ I promise you my life♥ ♥ I promise we'll never be apart♥ ♥ I promise not to hurt you♥ ♥ I promise to never make you cry♥ ♥ I promise to always trust you♥ ♥ I promise not to lie♥ ♥ I promise you forever♥ ♥ I promise you tonight♥ ♥ I promise you my respect♥ ♥ I promise to do things right♥ ♥ I promise to always be there♥ ♥ I promise until the end♥ ♥ I promise to always love you♥ ♥ I promise to be your best friend♥

I Wrote Your Name

I wrote your name in the sand but the water washed it away, I wrote your name in the sky but the wind blew it away,
I wrote your name in my heart, Forever it will stay. :)

If The World

If the world were an galaxy we'd be miles apart
If the world is a street we'd be closer together
If the world were nothing we would be nothing If the world cared we would care for it What has this world become?

If...

if kisses were water ill give u the sea if hug were leaves ill give u a tree if life was a planet ill give you the galaxy if friendship was life ill give you mine

Light Fades

The light is fading over the horizon going... going...
gone

My Friend

My friend is Strong

Nice

Caring

Talented

Lovable

Sweet

Do you know who it is?

You

My Meaning Of Christmas

Christmas
the toys and food that is all fun But is this the meaning of christmas no it is not My meaning of christmas is to... give and recive Have... friendship family celebration that is my meaning of christmas

Nutshell

It is time my friend
It is time to speak out Time to shine
Your always shy To timid to speak Beautiful Smart
Open Friendly Lovable
Thats you inside a nut shell

Sky Lovers

If I fell from the sky Would you catch me?
If we could soar up to the clouds would you join me?
If i said 'I love you'
Would you love me back?

~Deticated to my awesome Boy Friend Ryan! ~

The Gift Of Life

friends are special and one of a kind There always there for you when you fall So always keep your friend close there a blessing

The Jungle

Middle school
Its like the jungle Theres prey and theres hunters The Lioness/ lion carefully chooses there prey then... pounces
The baby zebera is helpless Has no of defence from the attacker and is to weak to fight back from the moment the lion pounces it has won

The Phone Call

*ring*ring*

The phone made to wake me from a peaceful dream i pick it up

Hello i say nothing just a deep breathing sound then...

BEEEEEEEEEEEEEP*

The phone hung up

I looked on the caller ID

A private caller

I called back

Not a real number

Then who was that on the phone

I guess I will never find out...

The Tunnel

Ever since I was a little girl i have a dream About a tunnel that never ends at the end was a door but i never get to the door I have heard voices behind the door But voices i have never heard before Maybe some day I will get to the door Just not today

Tribute To My Bffl Jess!

The first day i met you, i had no idea who you where But there was something in your voice that caught my attention Was it your tone?
Was it your voice?
Or was it just that you seemed different?
You have a bright light shinning from your soul So caring, so brave and still so young The more you tell me it will be ok the more you care for me and try to cheer me up when i am down Always reminds me that you are 1 in a million a true friend strait from heven Shes the greatest friend i've ever had And the one that i will cherrish forever!

Tribute To Zachary P. Macdonald

Zach

Your where loved by many
And will be loved by many for many years to come Even though your life was short you will keep on living in tha hearts of the ppl who love you From your magic tricks to your love of dirt biking and snowboarding I hope your famly can cope with tha difficult loss But they kno your in a better place So I dont kno who will look at this but who ever does I hope they can look past tha words and see that you where a great person May you rest in peace...

Your Eyes

Tha way you look at me its so addicting Tha way you hold me it calms me the way you love me dont stop

Your stare your heart your luv no matter what i do i keep on lookin into your eyes
