Beauty

when i look out the window all i see is beauty the grass is green the sun is shiny kids playing, laughing, jumping and shouting

I just miss those days, but.....

Bullied

I've been pushed around like im some kind of animal hearing names that arnt mine, wonderind if I should answer or just leave it alone coming home with black eyes ripped cloths with non thing to say just tears strolling down my cheek every day I ask God why, why me wondering if I should commit suicide, or should I cut just to make the pain go away

life is not so easy for people.

Cuts

One cut thats all so many thoughts going threw my head I've already thought about suicide should I do it or should I not. I have done so many bad things in my life that I really regret doing I try my best to avoid cutting myself, but the thoughts come back to my head

'how good it feel to cut just watching the blood flow down my wrist taking all the bad thoughts and memories away, oh how good it feels to cut' just thinking about the first time I've ever cut myself is when I was in the 5th grade but I am willing to stop in the 8th grade, but what they say once u start u get addicted.

Dear...

dear special spirit I just wanted to thank you for bringing me into this world, giving me a happy healthy family

I might have some ups and downs, but you still forgive me of my sins.

your the only one that know all about me, the one that know about my future, the one that keep me alive, and the one that always answer my prayers.

love.....

Dreams Do Come True

Everything we achieve was once a dream Aim for success, not perfection
Remember that fear always lurks behind perfectionism Make yourself happier and a more productive person

People are just about as happy As they make up their minds to be Don't let today's disappointment cast a shadow
On tomorrow's dreams

Never laugh at anyone's dreams
People who don't have dreams don't have much Dreams may come true one way or another All it takes is faith, hope and trust

It doesn't matter what position you're in But it matters what direction you're moving Never be afraid to try something new Life is what you make it, always has been always will be

You make a living by what you get You make a life by what you give You make a dream come true
By living it out to the fullest

Many of us are more capable than others
But none of us are as capable as all of us Ability is what you're capable of doing Motivation determines what you do Attitude determines how well you do it

Don't be afraid of the chances you take
They will take you as far as you dare to go Have no regrets, just keep going With your head held high, and strive for the best

Life may not be that easy
But if you hold on to your dreams
You will be able to achieve your goals

Don't let anyone tell you what you can't accomplish

Remember the dream we had

When there was nothing else

Remember the dream is yours

So let it guide you, hold on tight and don't let go

To succeed find something to hold on to Something to motivate you

Something to inspire you

Dreams Do Come True!

Help

every night I scream for help wondering if help will ever come my way

I wait every day hoping for my prayer to be answered so many seconds, minutes, hours, days, months, and years have passed me by

I walk around every day with a fake smile on my face just hoping that one day the truth will come out sitting and wishing that help will come my way.

Hope

I dont let words bring me down I stand my ground for what I am

I'm what I am not what people say I am I'm a brave young christian girl and I'm proud of that I try to live my dreams the best I can if I fall down i'll get back up with a smile on my face I never give up on my dreams, I accomplish them

I Understand And I Just Don'T Understand

i know that i have lied to you sooo many times, but i really wouldn't have thought that you would remember how many.
every lie i have told you you forgave me and i appreciate that sooooo much coming from deep down in my heart because for one you didn't have to sit down and listen to me or even give me help which i really didn't need that much and from all of those lies i have told you you still love me you shouldn't have to love me because of what i put you threw

i know that you love me and i understand that you don't won't to be involved with things that i am doing now, but there is just one thing that i don't understand is but all i wonted you to know is that i love you soooooooooo much like your apart of my family like a close family member and i i appreciate the things that you have done

I Wish

All my life ived wished i had some one to tell me that it's going to be ok, or some one that can hold me like they love me telling me it's over a new start has begun for you this is the present not the past keep your head held high have Faith in yourself that things will change

Life

life, you just cant really explain it once it'll feel good then it'll feel bad, you really wouldn't no what to do with your life should u just give up or try to accomplish your dreams

(choose wisely) i have always noticed that life isn't going to be always fear you just have to know that your always gonna go threw some ups and downs no matter what but what you really would want to do is accomplish your dreams thats the best you can do.

Mistakes

mistakes i've made those all my life, but there's one I regret doing, the bad part about it, I cant go and change it, life isn't just that easy at all punishment, I believe I deserve one or even two

I just wish it wouldn't have never happened, it started in the 5th grade now it's gonna end in the 8th grade

I bet my life is going to get easy than it is right now no more mistakes meaning in lies

Never Had

sister's are someone you can talk to hang out with not fight or argue with, but guess what me and my sister's do but it feel like things are changing around now my sister's are coming to gather slowly i've been asked by my second oldest sis to write a letter and be honest I had non thing to say i was wondering why did you tell me to do this but i don't get it they still all ways argue a lot and guess what they argue about 'not being so close like we should be' usually I just want to yell and say shut the heck up do yall understand what yall are talking about we have tried to bond plenty of times, but it never work yall just always talk about each other behind backs and crap yall should be showing me a good example help me become something good in my life one day I might need yall, but then i'll think about it 'why should i go to them they never tried to talk to me about anything they've never showed me sisterly love so why? ' but I just wish we become closer then what we are right now.

The Ones I Love

the ones i love is my family, but the one i love the most is God because he's the one that brought me into this world, he's the one that wakes me up every morning, he's the one that keeps me safe, and he's the one that always answer my prayers.

I just don't love my family I love every one like my best / friends, best / teachers, and people that I don't know and wait I cant forget about animals: +) , but I just wonted every one to know that i just don't love my family

Tomboy

Tomboy, ha, I've been that all my life. Loose clothes, just how i like it. No dresses, no sandels just pure shoes.

I've been called a tomboy all my life, but people say I'm gonna change, but I dont think so.

I love to play sports with the boys, but they think I cant take it, but guess what I can.

I'm a tomboy that try to live her dreams.

When I Feel Lonely And Down

when i feel lonely and down i usually talk to God about things that have happened in my life and about my future.
will i become something good in my life but i know one thing I am going to have some ups and downs I know that in the bible it says no one is perfect every one make mistakes in there lives but all you have to do is ask God for forgiveness and he will forgive you of your sins
