Ida Werrett()

I live in So. El Monte Ca. I am 63 years old and have been writing poetry for a few years. I am retired from the local District after 29 years.

I am a grandmother and great grandmother. Most of my poems have appeared in the local newspaper and some have appeared in other publications.

The Seasoned Traveler

I love a gentle breeze
that playfully skips around,
shuffling the leaves
and ringing the wind chimes
as it dances around my head
and whispers in my ear,
secrets of exciting adventures
and faraway places.
After all, the wind has been
...everywhere.

Watch Out!

There are those questions
that just hang in the air
like broken spider webs,
wispy and transparent.
Some times you don't see them
and walk right into them.
