jacqueline munson()

Alone

you know you're alone
you cry in the middle of the night tears fill your eyes you scream and no one hears you you are alone but guess what I'm alone with you

Dead And Gone

i am drowning in your blood that you poured over my soul forgotten memories fade never again to uncover the mysteries behind them again in this fire that surrounds us now lost forever in your sea of shadows cant breath your suffocating me cause without you i'll die laying here in a bed of roses in a box never meant to be opened again your lost in what you couldnt find butt when you accualy start to listen you find that i loved you i never ment to hurt you never ment to let you go so i watch you grieve in the sadness you left me in casue thats what i am

Friends Tell

Live not to tell
but
live to tell the story of your life cause your great the way you are special by your laugh
your smile
which sends sparks threw my soul your my best friend i never meant for it to end so i plan to tell our story of friendship cause what we had was the best ever thats why
friends tell

Nightmare

i was in my own little world a light breeze goes through my window ruffling the flames of the candles swirling the fragrances around the room. its almost midnight as i finally fall asleep with dancing flames behind my eyes with the darkness that follows your face fills my mind now the words spill over my dream turning it into a nightmare you said you hate me never wanted to see me again feeling like i have been slapped i wake up crying
the phone rings
i picked it up
you say
i love you never meant to hurt you im sorry for everything please forgive me
then i say never but i do love you let me think this nightmare threw

Scared

i am scared
scared of getting hurt
hurt by you
you killed my soul
this soul is forever crushed never to be fixed again im sorry for causing you pain to make me suffer im am scared

Shattered

why?
why did you do this to me?
im hurt, my heart broke my world is shattered
you said you loved me
but you lied
you love her, you always have im sorry we fight, thats life you got to understand were ment to be, i know we are soon you'll see that i love you

Why?

Why did you do this?
hiding all your secrets you pushed me in the water drowning my words as i say i love you
so why are you doing this?
