James Davis(12/26/1990)

I'm a young writer writing in secluedness of my mind. I write when I'm inspired to or if it is asked of me. I write my own poems both from experience and from my mind. I write about loves and shattered loves. I have written many poems and there will be more.

I don't sleep i toss and turn while my body mourns unconscious obnoxious grief as i wake up saying i only got 10 hrs of sleep. As far as when it come to love it like the season and its for the birds no1 has a true love.

I've been heartless my hole life

Make me see what your eyes see because now your about as blind as me.

I don't know how to love or how to pick the right one.

all but two told me this one 'your great for sex and i love you because you make me cum"

Young confused and abused was always looking at what i could loose you but i never treated you like a hostess for my emotionless

Just think about it and plan this out you love just bounced had that rock hard security but your loved slipped in but so did the fear and it reminded me of the last two who were here.

So now i fight love because it has always hurt me

Don't get me wrong your still in my heart but because you'll never leave my heart I have to live life like a pop tart

Dead Flowers

They say that she loves me and flowers will bloom but no one knows the pain that this love consumes Loving her is easy she's beautiful and not fast and easy Loving me is like planting flowers hard and tiresome but in the end flowers will bloom
I can put all my love into her and be there to comfort
She cant put all of her love in me because i cannot speak
I think she grows tired of waiting to love me so she goes and play in the streets
She can never tell me why but i see it in her eyes but now it seems weak I wounder if her love is beginning to beseech for someone else in need or does she still want me i guess im a fool for being used like a tool but thats how it began and in the end the flowers will be dead
This sudden change will leave my world baron ed and deranged
Like a dead man i will rise again but the flowers will be dead Lilly s, roses dandelions and my allergenic painful crying but there will be no denying when she flies me and the flowers will die

Easter Is Here

Easter is here lent is over. I wonder if my love will transfer over Will my love come in the form of chocolate, jelly beans or an egg Will it be soft delicate and delicious or hard sealed and hidden Will she have to break in just to get a glimpse Or will she just have to dive in Will she relate my love to something sweet or bitter like weak tea Can i love her like she a delicate sweet or a 5 cent candy can i love her like she deserves or will i just use her and observe will i savor the taste or let such a sweet thing go to waste Will i bite with all of my might just to stay in the fight Or will i let her melt like an expensive chocolate delight
Will she be my source of energy or my sweet tooth's enemy Will she love what i can give or will she cherish what i did.
Will she take the time to crack the egg or just hack and pull away
Easter is here and I'm alive I'll love you until i run out of time

Fading Love

Why do I feel all the love leaving me you used to make me feel different but its just a reminiscence
I don't know why but now I just make you cry Praying for better days but it always seem to rain we talk about nothing we hardly talk now and then we go for a walk I feel my love slipping away you can't see but thats hard to believe talking is like pulling teeth but kissing is twenty times as easy My love for you is true but now it feels like it disappeared out into the blue Why don't i fear loosing you.... we were inseparable like super crazy glue
I try so hard to get you to show me how but now it's just a waste of time
You'll never know how much i've changed just being with you

James Davis

Falling Summer Love

Your love is more than enough to die protecting Your smile is more than enough to fight for Your kiss is more than enough to keep me
But why does your love leave me Your tears are too much for me to bare My love is too much that you begin to fear
My kiss is too soft so you smile from ear to ear
My smile is almost hidden it seems like your forbidden
My tears were so far gone until you left my loving arms
Your emotions my love donations My eyes Your lies Your shallow feelings thin as paint peelings
Our change on the inside one dead one alive
You were saved by my eyes and i was denied As you can see I set you free and you managed to tame my beast but it'll be free to roam the streets when you have given up on loving me Best of Best worst of worst we have been through it all just so you could give up and let us fall

James Davis

Fear

She told me I was special that I had a flicker of a brighter light. She saw things in me that I could have never seen. She did something I couldn't believe. She made the pain cease. She helped me fall in love she helped me show my emotions but now things are out of proportion she left me, because the deep darkness kept consuming me. She think its anger but its really fear, the fear of waking up and not having her there. The one thing that I am afraid of and now its here. The day she didnt return the day she had enough i cant believe fear broke us up. We had a bond unbreakable to many but fear set in and now i'm mickey without minnie. My fear has lead to my own demise. It has led to lonely nights where all i do is hurt and cry. Now that fear is a reality something that crawled out of an alley way and sucked me in...I cant defend myself so it consumes me.. while in its grasp it ruins me... turning me into monster with no regrets... Im sorry i ripped you heart from your chest.. but it wasnt me and thats all i want you to see... I want you to be with me but i want you to accepts my hearts apology before it dies disappears to never be seen. Will you accept my apology for letting the fear consume me and return to where we were to marry me? ? ?

Final Good Bye's

I'm alive.....

but I'm not living a life that's worth living. I keep sinning because my heart is spinning and I have to start over from the begening.

I wish you were the one that was sad but for it to end this way i'm glad. You are happy you are full of joy this is all I can ask for.

You are no longer my wife you are slowly slipping out my life.
My mind body and soul doesn't have the will to fight.

I can't believe you were trifiling cheating lying and fake crying.
While I was dedicated to trying you were senseless I never knew you to be so heartless but what I knew was a false pretense.
Love made me blind
but I thought it was you beautiful shine.
But all along I was your part-time.
I was there for full-time but you showed me I was wasting my time.
You told me I was pitiful before I was all you were in too.
This is my hearts words portrayed through my brain you lied cheated and played a good game. Good bye

James Davis

Give Me Your All

Give me your heart you mind your body and soul

Give me your all or lose my love.

Is this too much to ask for?

I gave you my all once before but now your all is the key to my door.

You sealed yourself out and your all will bring you back in.

You're my true love but i will not let you loath your way back in.

I will not let you ruin my life because your uncertain of what you like

Give me your all and the rain will cease to fall.

Love me like i love you

Give me what i give you

Kiss me like i kiss you hold me when you need too

Say you love me when you want to See me when you need too

Most of all give me your all so our love stays forever sacred and never falls

James Davis

Good And Bad

I feel good and bad
Happy and sad
Close to becoming a man but further from becoming a dad
I had everything drawn in the sand it was the perfect plan and all I asked for was you're hand but here I stand plan ruined in the sand
Now I have to go back to where I began.

This is good and this is bad
My grades are up but my spirit is down
There is a light at the end tunnel but Im still underground Busy but bored
Alive but dead
Removing every memory we once shared Writing these words to release the pain trying not to be the cold heartless man

But maybe that's the only way I can set myself free Free to roam free to love free to undo what you've done Maybe I should run run from it all climb up high and not be afraid to fall.
I hate you but I love me and that can't be because you are the main artery Things are good but things are bad

James Davis

Guess Im Not Perfect

I can't feel my heart
It's tearing me apart
I can't suffer much longer
Can't get any stronger
Not sure how long i'll last Crying love that shattered like glass
Why wont you end this pain
You'll break me and i wont be the same
When you leave i will die
And you wont even cry
You have forgotten about me
Only have you in my dreams Don't know What I have become You made the feeling inside become so warm
I can't take it anymore you leave me no choice
You just ignore my wanting voice
This is my last resort love isn't a sport
This life has been too short we didn't even have our choice
This is my final goodbye
Sorry If I wasn't your perfect guy

James Davis

Ha Ha Almost Broke It

abnormal beat weary eyes sore feet these things u left me itchy burning eyes as i watch time pass me by i lay back facing the sky wondering what I could've saw in your eyes slowly as i watch what i held so close die but still u remain the apple of my eyes hoping wishing praying maybe these things will do wonders for me but now i feel obsolete like a robot trying to simulate emotion but things with u wont compute i rest my case because u have won this dispute i cannot feel what is real or fake so as i bow on my knees and pray i hope that I'll be normal again some day. All along i knew this was coming but look at what has become of me i don't blame you or anyone else because in the end ill always be by myself no one who can truly love me is what is normal to me plus it was once told to me but now it was showed to me but i wont have anymore sleepless nights because the pain is only like Novocaine don't be sorry don't be upset there was a lesson to be learned and something you showed that would stick to me with an obscurity that would always keep my heart on overtime security

James Davis

I Am Ready But Are You?

I am ready to be loved by you
I have already chosen you
To give my heart and never spend a day apart
I don't want this sensation of love to stop.
I am yours but are you mine
Will you break it like last time
Will you help me live or will you let me die
Or will I end up confused like last time Will I lose my soul this time or will it be my mind
Will you leave me or will you love me?
You can just adore me.
Do you know what I have in store for thee?
I plan to set us free,
I am ready but are you?
Will you accept God's gift for us two.
I am ready but what about you?

James Davis

I Will

I'll love you till I forget you I'll forget you when god remakes you I'll fall in love with the reborn you I'll learn how to really treat you I'll keep myself true to you so your heart wont be black n blue I'll learn from the pain i know love isn't a game I'll kiss you when you're sad mad or just when im acting bad I'll be there for you so you can see my love is true
I'll always be the one that restored you heart I'll never let us part or let my eyes wounder again in the dark I'll hold hand and walk through the park light or dark I'll light your heart and implant me in your heart I'll breath eat sleep and drink you I'll show you the side that you invested your life
I'll never leave you alone I promise

James Davis

I'Ve Met You

Roses are red violets are and this 1 is for you I've loved no other girl like i love You You drive me crazy and Your on my mind constantly
I could even see u if i went blind
I'd remember you love
I'd remember your touch
I'd remember every part Just like lyrics You flown to ma heart something I'd die for Before I'd let it fall apart
I'd loose my limbs I'd loose some organs I'd quit it all before i let us fall You and me forever we will be I'm just a love sick puppy just hard as the streets your the reason my heart started to beat you gave me life u showed me love u undid what god should forbid u mended my broken heart and thats how i know how to breathe u shown me the light u showed me how to live a better life but as long as I'm alive I am going to survive and as long as your at my side my heart wont die your my better half and everybody knows it Lets shine like stars glow like the moon and go as high as a hot air balloon

James Davis

La Vida

quieres pasar tu vida conmigo?

Yo quieres ese tanto?

Si esta verdad te quiero mucho no hay nada que yo no haría para te

Cuando estamos juntos mi corazon sonrisas

Nos podemos escuchar la idoma de nuestros corazons

Como ellos sientan y como ellos cantan

Cosas hagamos uno al otro son de la corazon podria pasar mi vida contigo pero esta la misma contigo? ? ?

James Davis

Leave Me Be

wanna kno sum n you'll never appertiate me until i leave You'll never want me more that when that time comes.
You'll actually see how much you meant to me but there will be nothing left to keep me you'll always think of me you'd feel all the pain you give me Why cant you see that this isnt meant to be How come you lie to me
How come you treat me like a ragged street
You just will never know until its to late Here's the cake that you you want to keep and eat with me
But that cant be because it's him or me
But I already see that you lied to me Go be with him Go love him Go leave me so i can be free
There is no more love to give within me
I'll come and go like a summer breeze You'll be happy with out me And i won't feel a thing because I felt every last pain this world has gave I lost you once i can loose you again
I don't care because it can't break again
Hope you can see all the pain you cost me or even half will do Hope you know that i'll always love you but hatred will bloom if we continue I don't want to end things like this but its how it always begins to end but some how you'll pull me in
And the pain would start again because behind your lies is my broken heart and silent cries of love
The ones you ignore because you adore him more so lets close this door

James Davis

Life Is _____ Love Is _____

Life is Gran Life is Great Life is something that i hate.
Love is fun life is fun but i can do without either one.
Love and life are intertwined unless your life is as bad as mine.
Life and pain there is no love
There is no happiness there is no liberty
There will never be a you and a me.
I tried so hard not to give in But like last time the sensation of the temptation beckoned you in.
You want to leave but for me to keep you in But last time was the last time i hold you in
If you leave so will i i hope you never have to cry.
I hope you live your life like i did Happy alive and far from dead Ill just start were i began.
Life is great life is gran but this time i wont let you in Life is fun love is fun we will never get those happy rays of sun
Love and life are intertwined that's why I was yours and you were mines
That's why life without your love is pain I'm tired of falling for the same tricks and the shallow game.
Life is _____ Love is _____

Live To Die

I live my life to die but i will not stand by as you lie
If you cannot believe in me then i'll standby and watch you leave
This isn't like a fight something that will pass over night
For today i will stop my heart's decay something u had to play Life is to be lived but my heart is soft and gentle like a kid
I can't believe you've ever loved me after seen what I've have seen I'd go back to the time where we first met just to stop this neglect Never again will you have me in you hands shifting and molding like wet sand I have given enough love to know none will return just like a moth to a light i was burned
I just had a talk with nature and it hasn't answer me back
But i think it's going to say live to die another day
Maybe I will live maybe I'll die but now i know i never saw love in your eyes

James Davis

Love & Respect

why do u tease
whY are u a true beauty whY does ur eyes stare into the soul why does your body speak your words why does your lips remain silent cant u speak or should i listen to your beauty

Hey shawty they say you blink your eyes and play whats good ma a piercing stare u gave I'm a beauty not just some shawty i know i'm priceless and i leave you speechless but you'll never touch this in your dreams leaving that skeet in your jeans poor little boy you think my heart is a toy your just as young as my unborn son and twice as senile why you living in denile i wouldn't waste my time on some foolish child aw why you mad i should be the one sad abusing my beauty with all that ugly Sorry I'm in love with some one who sees me as a beautiful young lady Men should be all the same appreciate the women who will bare you children

James Davis

Minutes From My Soul (Requested Poem)

I'm sorry but I think it's time to say goodbye I bought you these mins not to text me but for your birthday I had no clue of what to get you.

I know that I'm no longer in your thoughts because I'm not worth the price to be bought I should be free and from now on I will be I will cry after every time I arise to see your eyes but I will rub away the tears and just know on the inside this is how I will die

I don't blame you so don't include you lies of sympathy don't apologize for something as low in value as me

I'm not talking crazy I know you could never love me so with these dying words crying eyes and the numbness on the inside I say goodbye personally I wish that I wouldn't have to live in darkness especially after getting a taste of what true love could be

why oh why me why couldn't you just stop

It's because I'm a fool and was created just to be used as a tool if you loved me then this wouldn't exist goodbye love and I hope you realize this

I LOVED YOU MORE THAN ANY GIRL BEFORE

James Davis

My Wife Cried In My Arms & Everything Went Cold

My wife stood in my sight red eyed and dreary.
I stood and thought is this any of my doing.
I determined that it was all the pressure from our latest quarrels.
I'm too straight forward while she's too elusive Why dont we have those couple moments like we used to?
Why dont i finish your sentences why dont you read my mind?
why are we fallin into this deep dark demise?
How come I'm making such a ruckus about all this nonsense?
Can you help me get back to who i used to be?
Can you set me free from this misleading grieving.
I want you to be happy and you want the same for me but trust is the key.
Help me trust you like you did before help me unlock the doors.
I cannot bare for us to part my love, my life, my everything stay with me
live with me love me.

She Loves Me

Abnormal heart beat and the emptiness inside me disintegrating

What could this be? What is this warmth inside me?

Why do i feel as if I can't die when your with me?

Why do i feel sick and cold when I'm alone?

How could this girl make such a ruckus inside me?

How can she make me feel alive after I've already died?

Why does my veins show a pulse when she is close?

Why is the air so sweet when we walk on the same street?

Why can I breath? It's clear as day but I don't know how I'm feeling this way

It's because of her the girl that walked up to the prison cell door.

Can she see what awaits her inside or did she just clumsily stumble inside?

She sees it but how? she adores it but why? she loves me but is it in my mind?

James Davis

She Want To Love Me, But She Cant

I'm still here You're still trying You're living while im dying Your crying while im denying I denounce your love i denounce your feeling why are you here with me?
I push and push and push but your persistant Cant you see i want you at a distance?
Why dont you just go home i just want to be alone
Why are you trying so hard? When my feeling have gone abroad
I wanted you awhile ago but now your just causing me trouble.
Your making me love you again and i have a paranoia that you'll leave again
It seems to me that your playing with me Giving and taking emotions from me I give and give and give and all you do is take.
Don't you know my life is at stake you took my heart with you devious smile
You dangled my brain by my spine you tricked me to think you were mine.
I try so hard not to let you in but like the air you seeped in.
I have cracks i have scars but your pain is the worst of all.
The thought of us being distant really kills you inside but in reality it's all in your mind.
You can want me you can hug me but do you really love me

James Davis

That Heart That Wants A Savior

I'm the heart that she refuses the one she keeps and bruises
The love it has is going towards nothing it is wishing and hoping in lights that don't exist still remembering our passionate kiss so sad how could we live as friends and forget all we planned Guess once again you will leave me but this time you won't keep me
All the love would be deep within me and I'll be emotionless and never free
It hurts just waiting for you to leave me I wish you can see inside me Your the only one that could set me free.

Free me from my pain once again or ill be the same as the tin man cold heartless and semi functioning
The sight of you would stop my blood from rushing if you crush me
Why can't you love me like you loved him
Why is it always me who feels sad and lonely
Is it because love is not for me I just wish someone would save me savior

James Davis

The Only One

Your the only one that broke my heart you made the essence feel pain you achieved to be the only one to make me cry. I don't know how i saw love in your eyes
If you don't see all my pain insides then I know why.
Since your return I have felt pain
I really thought i found the only one that made me happy
But all you succeeded in doing was giving me hope and tearing it apart
You shown me that the love we shared was an illusion in my heart I would've forgot but i didn't want you to hurt even after we closed that door you were still number one in my heart

I tried to prohibit acknowledging that you loved him more when I couldn't bare it no more I sealed away my heart inside the dark So no one could see not even me
If you could only see inside me you'd find a prison with no light or windows deep inside is where my heart will be

James Davis

The Pain Inside

There's a gnawing feeling in my gut....its like the butterflies have turned into moths...There is no light inside I've become completely dark....I feel this pain because of my broken heart... or could there be more..... is it your love that they are gnawing for? Is this apart of my punishment or is it Karmas own amusement? ... Am i to blame for my current pain.....or is it something more....? Could it be the fear that set in...The fear you cause from treating me like i was only a friend...was it from my imagination... or the fact of your other infatuation...The infatuation that led to the big crush...the crush that pushed our love apart... the crush that i felt deep inside but were to blinded to realize... You have caused this pain inside of me because you were secretly crushing without mentioning a word to me... You just pushed my buttons and waited for the anger to consume then you killed me... You took my life for a crush... I hope he doesn't do the same someone life is not a game... So here i sit with my sharpened blade ready to end the pain... but i cannot take what isnt mine.... I cannot end the one thing that made you shine... but the pain is swelling inside... Still till this day i want to die but all i ever do is cry from the pain inside

James Davis

True Love

A time will come when 2 people become one Just like air he/she will be a necessity Sometime you cannot choose whether you win or loose some1 close to you Many loves are lost both minor and strong weirdly shaped like the oblongs You'll know when you find that true love when it comes you will die but be reborn in your own eyes You'll live and know that your satisfied No fence is too high no valley is too low wind rain sleet or snow you'll be happy to know that your in love

James Davis

Truly Ignored

I am truly ignored by her, the one i'd die for.
I am the one that is truly ignored.
She hates me she loves me she wants me she ignores me.
She breaks my heart she stops the bleeding is this the love that i, ve been seeking.
Why is my heart so misleading.
Is this what my life will turn out to be.
Me giving giving and giving while you keep leaving.
Your a fool but so am i. I cannot hold this any longer.
You will be my hearts destroyer.
My heart is bleeding my ignored soul is dying.
My eyes are red and dry from crying.
My heart is angry my soul is cold
My life is ending and my soul is soon to be gone.
I'm becoming myself more and more each day.
I'm getting the urge to be alone
I will be the one in a big home ignore not loved and alone.
This is the fate of those who love like me.
Maybe I'm alone in this world because i'm trying to hard
This is the reason i feel truly ignored

James Davis

Two Faced People

People are two faced beings conformist cons everything people dislike People lie to keep their selves alive

Material is what become a necessity this gives people that two faced entity why must we conform to what people think let alone what they expect no one is perfect unless your me just joking its difference that makes us unique

People have two faced one of different traits one white one black or a latin hispanic You can be who you want if you 'front' and conform people forget who they how could people loose them selves in todays world deep in regret after every breath sucking air as if your souls a drifts

People true selfs hide friends die no one ever cries lovers, like never last for more than one night over the moon yesterdays faced flew.

James Davis

We Will See

We will see if you can handle me it's not that easy sweetie.
My heart is still bleeding my mind forever grieving
This is what my ex fiance left me
I want to love but I can't when she left my emotions became extinct
You think you're hard to handle well I can say your just a handful
In comparison to me and all my pain you're walking and I'm running I know what to do but it will be up to you to break through I have major trust issues but I refuse to be single.

I think I can definitely fix your heart but I don't think you can fix mines and I don't want to waste your time.
They remind me of your age and say you're too young to be mines
I must agree but I declined I'm intrigued by your mind not what you would give me if you were mine.
But how can we be if you cannot break through to me?
We will see

James Davis

Who Am I

On the outside I'm an ordinary teenager. Dark hair Dark eyes But on the inside who am I?
I'm bright but dimming hot but chilling alive but dying.
I was cold dark and dead but then i found that light ahead.
That light was my healing but now its killing Its killing me slowly. Pushing and pushing my life away.
I suffer this feeling day by day.
She breaks me down till i have no legs she folds me up and tosses me away.
She tells me she loves me but then she hurts me.
She tells me she needs me but then she leaves me.
She gives me that false hope of love then she tears it away.
Why does my heart want to stay
Why does it beat after she tears a part of it away
I'm a guy who wishes want and cries
I'm am a guy that deserves alot more but settles for alot less
I AM A FOOL

James Davis

Why Wont U Come Back

Why won't you come back to me?

You know my feeling 4 you are true and you know I'd do anything 4 you

You was the best thing I had going in this thing I call a life

We both know we will work but you won't come back 2 me I wish I hope I do things I never did b4 for anyone you got my heart and my head is spinning there isn't a second I don't think about you

I know I've been in your way and I'm sorry 4 that and I want u but I don't want to make you do something you don't want to do so if you're going to truly leave I'll have to learn to breathe. Its hard breathing w/o you and it's going to be even harder starting over if only you could see into my heart I'm sure you would stay I'm sure of it listen to your heart not what others say Ill

Be with no matter I will be in your heart and ma heart will be within you. For the 1st time I'm truly scared because if you truly leave I don't know if we will ever be if you come back 2 I might not be as I am now I'm scared my heart will not let you back in

Why You Left

Babi tell me why Did you want me to die or did u hate that you saw love in my eyes before my last breath before your last text I knew you'd be my best but worst ex
The one who would shatter what many have scarred

Yes it broke because you were happy when I left

To grow old was the plan but you left me for another man.
Even though I broke it off it hurt me that it was what you had planned all along Seemed to me that he was all you could see, i was the glimpse you never missed t i will not cry for someone that wanted to hurt me inside Tell me why? Why should I?
Ill set myself free

James Davis

With Out You

Sitting Listening Observing Laying Crying Wanting Mournings tossing and turning Sitting bleeding internally
Is what your doing to me
From head to toe even if I foreshadow I can not deny on never admit why that without you I would die Till sunset till death do us part we'll be on the atomic level hard to break part even up till my body lets out its last fart we will never part believe me your all I need i just wish you could see that without me the heart bleeds

James Davis
