Broken

you don't know my name but you saw my pain and now Im so ashamed of what I've done If I could turn back time I would have In a heart beat I don't want to move forwards so then I wouldn't have a pass

Why love, care, or feel why trying you don't love, care, feel for me you don't give anything in return for all that I have given you in the time we were one no one knows how I feel. I put a smile on so no one knows how I really feel it's like I wear a mask to keep the hurt away from the pain you caused

Where is the hope and love now If there was any at all but Im afraid the pain I feel is just to real which I can no longer bear your playing with the most frail part of me my heart which you broke into two long ago

Now I have to finsh the jounrey alone even though my heart is still broken even though I still love you but I don't need you

Don'T Quit

When you feel all alone and down don't give up keep on moving.
When you feel like the world has given up on you don't look down keep your head up.
Don't quit your strong

You just don't know it yet.
When you feel like there nothing you can do and you feel like your out of options that's not true only if you think you are.
Don't quit, don't look back

Keep your head up high.
The tears you cry can only make you stronger.
Theres always another way to get though the pain that you feel inside. You have your friends and family to turn to there your shining star never forget that don't give up, Don't quit.

Freedom

Let freedom ring let freedom ring for all to hear let freedom ring let freedom ring for all the slaves to be free let freedom ring let freedom ring all over the world

Let freedom ring let freedom ring for all of are rights people try to take away let freedom ring let freedom ring because without freedom we wouldn't be free

I Never Thought

Sunny days seem to hurt me the most I wear the pain Like a heavy coat I never thought it would come down to this I never thought it would end like this I didn't know how much I would really miss not having you around any more When you were gone it torn all the pages away like there was never a you And me and deep down I don't like how that's feels I thought I wouldn't need you But I was dead wrong but the tears I cry are not the tears from my eyes but Tears from deep within my heart time can't change what has been or what was but time can change the broken heart that once beated just for you but in time my wounds will heal and maybe the pain will disappear into thin air

And I know we can't be like we were before but if you stay just a little That would be enough we never talk any more cause talking just turns into Screaming Im yelling at him as his yelling over me and all that means is Neither one of us are listening to what we have to one another but sorry seems to be The hardest word to say But Im not going to sit here and point out who was wrong and who was right because both of us made mistakes we said something we should of never said did some things that were wrong because the truth is Im tired of being mad at you and at myself for what happened between us

Were fighting this war when both of us are losing so what's the point it's not going to change what happened between us but the tears in my eyes will dry and the pain will soon be history and a new page in my life will being but if your in my life or not I'll always hold a small place in my heart for you no matter what happens from now on

I Wonder Why

Im still just a teen full of wonder are the stars and planets there for a reason? What is a human life worth? Why is there so many wars is the war were fighting even worth Millions of died lives? Oh yes, logic and science have stories to tell and most of my questions they answer quite well but I can't help but wonder why are some souls lost and others found? Why do all living things die? What make people hate? What makes people rich or poor? Why do clouds float in the sky? Why can't people see though hate? These questions I ask as I sigh, and can't help but wonder why? What makes any one more important then another? Why do people some people laugh and others cry? Why do people fight over the smallest thing? I wonder why there is a night and day? Why do people kill? Why do so many people die from cancer? As I ask these questions I can't help but wonder Why? Aren't we all a child of god no matter if were white, black or no matter how different we are aren't we all the same and equal as one? Yet I wonder why I have so many unanswered questions; Im still young I have time but maybe time will answer them all but for now I still wonder why?

Incapable

Baby we need to talk I'm incapable and you know I'll just brake your heart I'm letting go I don't want to but I need to
To let you grow

You'll go on and i'll be strong I'll walk the lines on the road
I know you'll go far I'll live my dreams on my own you gotta let go you gotta let go of all of me

I'll just brake your heart
So you can live out your dreams
It's not something I want to do It'll brake my heart but I want you to succeed Baby I'm Incapable I can't go on any more I'll Just brake your heart I know were better off without me I don't want to hold you back any more the tears I cry are not tears for my eyes but from my heart and Im just doing what feels right Im so sorry and I know that you may heat me in the end and I don't blame you Im just letting you free

Inivisible

Some times she feels invisible
Some times she don't She says that she didn't fit in at school and that she wasn't welcomed there.
No one would give her the time of day or talk to just pushed her away but Im not Invisible any more my life was stole now everyone knows my name.

It Use To Be Just You And Me

She says wake up there is no use in pretending cause there is a hole in my heart were you use to lay.
But now what's the point in going on.
You said it was over that i was no good you were gone before I said good-bye.
So im just going to set myself free.

I needed to hear this from you that I choose you and that are love was true.
I feel so small against the world cause darling it use to be just you and me. But now Im all alone in this. Just give it to me quick cause I know I can't stand alone. I choose you along time ago but don't think I won't move on.

Im not blind to what you're doing here now making me feel like I'm special, but my dear I have seen through a weakness in your eyes and realizing a lack in your will to fight as you fall uneasily to your knees. You don't know it but you're telling me lies you will soon wake there is no heart in anything you say to me.

You can't keep doing what you do If it's time to let you go.
You once whispered words in my hear we use to have a love that was strong enough to stand but darling Im starting to wear thin and find it harder to forgive everytime you let us slip.
I needed to hear this from you that I choose you and that are love was true.

You did some things you should of never done said some things that were wrong boy. I know you were just to scared to fall in love.
You hurt me cause your complications wore out all my patience boy so don't blame me for being fed up with all your lies. Then it must have hit you all at once when you left. Just like a hundred thousand tons in your chest.

Im wishing this pain that you caused would just go away and leave me.
But it gets worse everyday just knowing what we had was all just one big lie.
Cause baby I can't let you go I keep trying but I can't boy. It's impossible I miss you to bad.

I can't wish away the pain that I can not do boy, And all I can say is I miss you.

Trying to tell myself to move on to own up to the truth and be strong boy. I keep thinking about those better days.

So many things I wanted to tell you like how much I loved you.

But boy and I know you can't believe that you really gone. Then it hits you all at once when you left just like a hunderd thousand tons in your chest.

Damn baby boy you know I miss you so mush. You know I wanna hear your voice, wanna feel your heart beating next to mine. But you know you can't just press rewind If you could then you would in an instant.

Promise me things would be so damn different promise me that you wouldn't be so distant. You can't belive your best freinds gone.

Without me it just feels so wrong. What you would give to sing a different song. But then I tell you that your chance is blown now all you can do is just sit and dream reminiscing on what could have been wishing I would come back to you. Im just going to let you free.

Let's Not Stay Mad

Baby I know sometimes it's gonna rain over are heads. And as Im staring at him I wondering what his thinking but I should already know.
But we haven't talked in weeks and weeks cause talking just turns into screaming.

But now Im yelling over him his yelling over me
And all that means is neither of us are listening.
And what really kills me is that we don't even bear-lee remember why were fighting.

Nothing fighting for Nothing crying for Nothing at all
But we wouldn't let it go for nothing.

And it gets me upset boy when you're constantly in my ear accusing me of things that I never did asking me questions like you should already known.
We're fighting this war, baby when both of us are losing.
This is not the way that love is supposed to be.

What ever happened to working things out like we use to.
because now we've fallen into this place where your not backing down and Im not backing down.
So now what do we do now.

But Im not going to let it end like this.
I know are love is not going to be perfect at times.
And just how good it's going to be is how we make it. I know at times we may fuss and fight but as long as everything is alright between us.
I know we're gonna be happy.

Let's not make this War World II because there no point in it. I just want this pain to ended and you to be happy in the end.

Lies Lies

Lies lies that's all I hear from you you broke my heart more then once lies lies that's all I hear from you you didn't even say you was sorry But it's your turn now to feel the pain just knowing im not there

Looking For Answers

Now that you're gone I feel all alone I come to you with unanswered questions looking for an answer I cry to you in vain in my hour of pain and now the words we speak are few you really have no idea how much im missing you I never even had a chance to say good-bye death has taken you prisoner leaving your past behind

Now all I can muster is a sob I come to you with unanswered questions looking for an answer you came, you lived, you died It's finished was your cry and god took you in with opened arms but no matter what happens you will not be left behind nor forgotten.

jamf15 2011

Over

you say it is over but I don't beleive you how could you do this to me how did we go from happy to moving on didn't you promise me forever I know we both made mistakes But I'm willing to work this out if your willing to hear what I have to say you say it is over but somehow I know it's a lie you were gone before I had a chance to say good-bye

jamf15 2011

Strong

Behind every smile there a guy that put it there a smile, a laugh or the tears you cry he was the reason for it

It's never easy when a guy brakes your heart when you thought he was the one and when you put all your trust in him and he told you he loves you and he rips it all out from under you

But you are stronger then you think and you disever more then he can give to you every girl knows it's hard but your friends are always there for you to pick up the pieces and to help you get back on your feet you never know what life will give you or take away

When Will People Learn

People say not to drink and drive,
But, people still do it, but why?
Knowing it ruins peoples lives
I guess he did not know
While he was flying high that I would Have to die

Im laying here thinking About my life and what could have been
And what has been I wish that I saw this coming My breathing is getting short now It's getting harder to breathe

What is a human life worth to you?
It is funny how in a split second how How fast your life can change Someone should have told him that it's Wrong to drink and drive
Maybe if someone did that, maybe I would still be alive.

When will people learn?
How many souls do people have to ruin
Before they get the message though their heads that its wrong
To drink and drive
If you could do it, all over again would you drink and drive?
Think about it, knowing that you could kill someone next time and Think before you act.

People say not to drink and drive
But people still do it, but why?
Knowing it ruins peoples lives
I guess he did not know
While he was flying high, that I would

Have to die

Would You Stay Just A Little

I heard it in your voice when your love died
On a telephone connection that was miles and miles of wire
You said it was over and I cried and cried
You were gone before I said good-bye

I don't like to think it is true That the distance came between us like a knife and cut right though Where did we go wrong and let it all undo You were the only one I ever loved

Would you stay just a little my love Would you sway just a little my love
Because the hole in the middle of my heart needs filling up
If you stay just a little that would be enough

It kills me as I lay awake at night Remembering the last kiss that we had doesn't feel right It's impossible for me to win this fight
To keep you a little longer in my life

You Don'T Know Me

you don't know me you don't know the first thing about me.
You think you know me but you really don't. You think I have brown eyes but your dead wrong. Think again look deeper into my soul. You don't even know what I look like.
So how can you jogg me If you don't even know me. You really don't know me at all. You don't know where I'm even writing this poem from.

So how can you tell me that I did wrong. You don't even know my name. You don't know me at all. You said you understand what I'm feeling but you really don't know what Im feeling at all.
So don't sit there and act like you know me because you don't. So don't act like you do because you don't. You don't know the first thing about me. You think I'm short, you think I'm tall but your wrong. You don't know me so don't even try. And the one thing you don't know is that Im always there waiting for your call.
