003

It's life
My daily dose Day and night

Having to fight
To be able to live right But still it's all wrong

How easy it is To speak of death
But how hard it is to actually die

How hard it is To get a good life But how easy it is to dream of having one

I speak of ending it I hate it all
I wish I could just take the great fall

But I can't I live for some I live for her
I live for one

I speak of dying
As it was nothing But it's a big deal
But not to me

She doesn't wanna see Me leave her
But I still feel it all coming down And I'm growing unsure

Don't die baby
I hear her elegant voice say I tear up knowing she means it But I still fade away

Her soft hand on my face Her beautiful eyes locking with my own I love you she says Know you're not alone

I still feel alone
I still feel depressed
As if falling isn't a bad idea But I can't progress

If it wasn't for her I don't know where I'd be But then we're only friends That's all either of us see

She just wants to get over me I just wanna be with her We may be engaged But it's fake according to her

A formality
Even though my heart wishes it was real Love for her Is all I feel

Crying alone In the dark cuz she just wants it over with But I really want her I can't believe this

Tell her She won't believe Show her

We can never really get married And hearing her say that killed me It was bad
It left me empty

In love with you

You wanna be out of love with me Something wrong with this I can obviously see

Just get over me It's better for you
You deserve better
We all know it's true

I need to go away And escape to a place we can be A place made for us
Also known as my dreams

Eventually my mind will catch up to reality Change my lovely dreams Into nightmares
And literally kill me

But that's fine
It's meaningless anyway
It'll happen soon

004

a thought of love to one that I adore with my heart wishing that we could be more but I don't know what would happen or what you would think and if you decline then I'll just sink melt into a puddle of sadness and moan because without you I feel so alone found your love, for your type I fell knowing true that your the one, I can tell

I can see it i can feel it when I'm with you I'm at my best nobody can bring me down or put these feelings to rest thinking about you is nice looking at you is great when we cuddle and stare I feel as though it is fate an idea that only you can truly bring me joy while I get partially content with other things they're merely just toys

you truly know how to make me happy and truly know how to make me smile i just need you in my life please stick around for a while but I need to help you make sure you feel loved I need to show you that I deeply want to be with you like how you make me feel loved

I keep denying my feelings as I have before only to try and forget this pain of not being with you but still my heart remained sore couldn't bare this sorrow because I know tomorrow you wont be mine and I'll be sad while I stare at my ceiling and just keep feeling bad nighttime blues times without you writing about you thinking about you tragic I know I feel like I wanna cry telling myself it'll never be and I let out a big sigh its just terrible look it's 11: 11 make a wish to see you soon even though that path is just a dead end dreams telling me truths impulses raging on up all night cant sleep till the sun comes up at dawn one day I hope soon that we realize what we truly mean to each other the day we can stare deeply into each others eyes and know we're meant to be lovers as we go well together we make a whole each of us being half of one big soul

as I write this I wait for that day waiting for the second that we could finally say that we are in love and that we could never be apart holding true to our minds and trusting our hearts its coming soon and I'm thrilled about it even though you'll just start to come to doubt it but it'll all work out in the end coming near can't wait for that day I can be with you dear

A Letter To The Past

&#65279; So you'll always love me We'll always be friends Where did that go When did that end

I feel so horrible Knowing we've become Like if we never knew each other But i'm not dumb

You think I died
I went away for good Without you in my life Maybe I should

But watever
You fake on me too
I just couldn't believe That someone like you Could just let it die

And never look back Never see our past Man that's just whack

Let it die
That's what you let me do Whatever u wanna believe But that's what's true

If u wanna be like that Then I'll let you be Let you think that We were never friendly

I'm dead to you Memories forsaken
The hurt is too much
And so my life was taken

Listen deary
I'll actually love you forever Even if you don't Even if ur deciding we can't be together

Not even friends Which hurts me even more Where it hurts the most Is the heart that you tore

Im falling again
I might actually die
I feel my mind rushing I just wanna break out and cry

I don't hold it against you
We had our great times
But now you say it's over It's not like we commuted any crimes

But just kno How much I love you Just kno I'll never stop being there Anytime you need me Just say 'Javier'

I'll always love you I'll always be your friend
No matter what happens

Another Day

schools a drag but it's okay

we all go through the same day to day agenda about as sweet as low cal splenda make it work make some jokes go to lunch have a toast with ur buds laugh it up have some fun we'll all be okay to me all this is just

go home lay in bed million things running through your head blasting your music rocking out i guess look up at the ceiling then you start to text homework here and there too lazy maybe later all this is just another day your bored and hanging on while your nearly all the way gone it's getting pretty late have to go to school at 8 your stuck thinking about someone you like em might love em as you start to fall asleep and here comes the new beginning

Another Life Poem

Wake up to another day filled with madness and disarray
created from this horrible mess dealing with the work dealing with the people

and her guilt trick that's so evil wishing I could just jump off the 3rd floor of the school I take it upon myself to just stay cool more trouble ensues with annoyance and rage horrible hour turns to horrible week with me stuck in a cage

ready to fall over oh hey look over there its the guy in the corner of the classroom anyway even though I'm pretty out there meeting the strangest characters with whom I tried to avoid a stare unlike that girl who I happen to be crushing on but like most of these stories its obvious she doesn't feel the same lower and lower it goes friends acting nuts around me I don't blame them

I'm pretty annoying and sadly

I would rather be here at home but then my family is killing me too
and bipolar father who just happens to get mad at me a lot for things that are minor but he sees them as a lot I get a glare and a talk every now and then as well as a messed up room

sleep can't help me my fiancée has issues my friend wants to hit me and I still got so much schoolwork to do insane is it not but it gets so much worse not to exaggerate my condition which isn't a first

promised her I wouldn't die but I'm still pretty unsure *Sigh*

lend some sympathy or don't care at all to this boy who writes out his feelings and isn't very tall

but is very truthful to these words that he writes with the impulses

in this crazy world and his crazy life

but hopefully things will look up and his fiancée will actually act as a wife but what can I do not really much just lay back till I get some help or at least some lunch

Argue Or Apologize

&#65279; I can't stop being egotistic
I can't just be realistic
I want attention, nobody else in mind At least that's what I've soon came to find

Why should I care
Why should I try Other people aren't the nicest set They make me wanna cry

But I actually do that to them And now i see
In this scene

I already loathe myself
And I care more about others But most people never thought so You showed me that and another

To you I ask a question Are u okay?
Is anything wrong
How was your day

I really want to kno Because i care to hear you I care about you
And I want to be near you

Can you believe me Maybe I'm just reprimanding Lying and caniving
To just keep me standing

No I'm not lying But I do hate myself Everyone knows why I'm serious about myself

But I care less Why should I even try I'll just leave everybody alone
And just walk off and die

But you wouldn't like that I know it's true Killing myself Would displease you

I'm sorry
I can't stress that enough But when we fought I couldn't stop crying I couldn't stay tough

I hate it when we argue Because it hurts me to know That I hurt you
It makes me feel so low

I'm such a jerk A bad person to all Yet you don't seem to mind Which I applause with awe

Don't worry about me
I won't even worry Only about other people My lifes jury

What to say, if I could
A few simple words
I care about most everything Including all the birds

All my friends, My family
All the trees and the sky
But you seem to top the list Which is why I try

Not to get you mad

And brighten your day But I couldn't do so So I'll just fade away

No I won't leave you here I can't go on without you It would probably hurt you also That's why I have to be around you

I can't look at myself
The mirror shatters easily Why the freak am I complaining I don't know it's just me

Look understand
Even though it may not look it I care
But I'm just crooked

Judge me as you wish But I know who I am
And I don't like myself
And all I can say is damn

I'm just an egotistic Annoying little brat
Who is so selfish And wants attention like that I'm surprised even after all that You're still my friend

You must be tolerant And I won't let it end

Just don't leave Don't go away
I wouldn't do that to you Any day

I can't change your thoughts But just know I do really care I'm your best friend

If you still think we're there

If not I understand But I'll still be there I'll still be your best friend I'll always care

Sigh...
As I'm here in my room alone 12 Am
Typing this on my phone

All I can think about is how sorry I am How I would never want to argue with you I'm so sorry

I don't ever want to hurt you Or to make you mad Cuz I kno afterwards
I made you sad

I made you wanna cry
I feel like a freaking jerk I'm just horrible I know I'm sorry you had to deal with all this work

Having to see me each day And deal with me Wow I can't believe How tolerant you must be

You feel bad
I want to know What's causing your pain
I need to know

It's not about me Or I or myself
It's about other people Especially you too well

Let's just stop talking about me
For a good long time Because I think now It'd be considered a crime

I love you so much
I'm suprised you hang with me
But I won't talk of myself Just all others around and you not me

Can we never fight again I can't bear the thought of hurting you And I kno that I did
When I talked about me not you

When you were feeling blue I didn't talk about you Now I see it's true
I have to stop being about just me and be about you

Sigh...
I'm sorry
I wrote this for you I couldn't sleep
I couldn't stop thinking about you Don't be sorry
You did nothing wrong
You were right
And I was wrong
Can we please never argue It tears us apart
It makes us cry
And hurts our hearts
I can never not care about you Even if I am egotistic But Its amazing how you manage To deal with me being self sufficent Just kno I love you so much You could be mad
You have all the reason to be I didn't consider you Because all I considered was me

I'm so sorry: '(
Let's just move on please I don't want this to affect us I don't ever want to make you mad Or sad or cry or feel bad
I want to make you happy
But i need to be more considerate Thanks for teaching me that And I'll be a lot more into it Let me end this now I kno it's a lot to read But if we could just please Let this pass Cuz I kno I hurt you
I cry thinking about what I did I don't deserve someone like you But you picked me
And it made me happy I need to try To make things better For us being together Im sorry love Just forgive me please And let's move past this So I could work towards making you happy
I love you
I always will I'll be there And still and still

Change

It's Been really tough lately I've been down and all alone
I always go to my private spot Just me, depressing solo

While things look bleak
As this melancholy comes back While I feel so terrible And think my lifes whack

Everythings always so serious with me And I react to much Makes people stray from me And such and such

Begin to think, living is horrible
As I go to my room to cry Thinking of all the stressing problems Feeling like I should just die

Hurting my loved ones everday They all think I should change While I think I can I know I'm afraid

It may just be me Motions of life building stress Causing my mind to go whack
And make this a big mess

This can't be who I really am I'm not this bad
I'm a smileyface and always happy
And I can't be sad

It's not me, I know Save me from myself But you've tried, it hasn't worked I have to help myself

I gotta get up when i'm down Don't want you to cry anymore I'll get the upper hand
And even out this score

Pain will not be the control
I will not back down
I will reform my ways
And take away this frown

I know there's some part of me Looking to come out But I feel frightened
And I have some doubt

But I need to get better Ameliorate on this Can't let this pass me by Won't let this be a miss

It'll take time
But I can't give up I have to try hard Keep going even if I get stuck

No holding back Not this time
I won't let this guy die
And commit the terrible crime

I'll fix this life Problems no more
I can make this so much better There's so much in store

Reborn
Not Torn Strong
Last Long Happy
Not Sappy

Crushing

Falling in love
More than enough times already Seemingly the best thing ever But leaves you feeling empty

I love her
I want her Can't have her Got sadder

Another
Don't really know her Beautiful and interesting I'm crushing I'm sure just looking at her gets me interested simple attraction as well as a distraction

but either way I know that it will probably never be who could love a weirdo jerk

been down this path too many times before kill myself if I gotta go through more seems unfair such is this game that brings unbridled joy and brings shame but I really like her she garners my attention there's just something about her I can't really describe or mention whether its her looks or her brains not knowing her fills me with a little pain wondering if she feels the same or even knows I exist if I am anybody she would ever kiss with her pouty lips I just tend to adore calling out to me making me want more

I don't even know her name but she caught my eye but I doubt she would even consider being with this guy

would it make her happy
I know it would make me but its all just a strange thing a feeling clouding my thoughts she wouldn't ever think about me she probably knew me for a sec and then forgot but maybe I can get her

get her to say
"i like you too"

it would be great hooked together by fate while we plan to meet for our very first date but until then I can wait try my best to at least get to know her first don't wanna come on too strong that's the worst soon enough hopefully she'll look at me and realize how happy she could be if she was with me only the future will tell gotta shape it for the better so we could maybe just maybe be together

Dem J

You take my breath away you're fine your eyes always shine everytime

I look into them

Lovin your smile

But I know
It'll Never work out

We're from two different worlds two different levels no doubt and when she's there i don't know what to say i try to go up to her I meant to do it today but then i got nervous as she was walking away i felt my heart beating faster and breaking in disarray couldnt come up the words to tell her how i feel that face that intimidates showing so much appeal

but either way she's fine i'd take her anyday this one's to you lovely Dem-J

Maybe someday (maybe...)
I can take you away

Come to my world

Always...
Always...
Dem J....

I Can'T Read You

I'm not mad
I'm not upset
I'm venting my emotions Step by step

I'm bridging my wires
As they continue to tear While we spend more time
I feel as though I'm the only one who cares

Been a while Oh hey...
Nice to see you again

Of course i get it Avoid me for a reason Cuz you don't wanna see me You only wanna see him

Or him or her Just never come together Even though I got your back When things get worse or better

I'm not hating I'm only expressing What I was repressing While we were together

Let my little one Roam and Play
Little does she know I'm fading away

While you go enjoy I'm silent and moody Trying to make sense of things Things we've already been through

Can't read you
The book is closed Sweet as a rose That's thorns give blows

To more than just my body I see you scaring yours
Holding your hand
To keep you from doing more

I don't feel right being angry
I can't get mad at you I'm just feeling down My heart is torn in two

Before the Midnight blues Because all you do Is send me mixed signals That are confusing me

Refusing me or Wanting me I don't know what you want Lord knows whats on your mind

But I can't judge you and yet I still love you I can quit you I just wanna hug you

I just wanna hold you Never have to say goodbye We couldn't say the words Got home I began to cry

It's never an easy thing
To leave your side Leave those eyes
And that lovely smile

I doubt we'll be together again for a while

Miss you i will Admit it barely
And wish it fairly

So it may come true So one day we can finally be

But at this rate
I'm just gonna lay here in bed

I'll Try For Friendship

I still wonder How that could all be a lie
The feelings were there, the love was real It's not like it was another guy

I made some bad choices That weren't well thought out Which led to the dissolving of our friendship And a sea of doubt

I still held you at night
But only in my dreams
I snuggled with the pillow Since I can't sleep without it, as it seems

I still love you How could I not Even through the problems
Even though we fought

Come on I'm still your friend
I wanna make you happy Till the very end

Nothing like that could change
If we truly had something before Than this should pass and go But there was still a need for more

Love, I know I messed up
I know I messed up your life I know I should be the one to fix this And I'll be the one to make things right

I will try for us
For past and future friendship Because I won't leave you hanging this time I won't try to end this

Just hold on I'll make it up to you
A step at a time
This will be true

I won't let you cry
I won't ruin your day
I won't let our friendship die
I won't push you away

Go with me on this
And I won't disappoint
I will be better
And that's the point

You're my bestest friend Who's love I'll cherish forever To make this time last And make this weather

The harshest of times
And enjoy the good ones With which we'll share smiles and loving words And have lots of fun

Kinda doubtful I bet Maybe you shouldn't go But hey, could this be the rite time Only I would know

Let me tell you That I wanna be your friend That I wanna have you in my life
To the very end

That I can't stand hurting you No longer will I Ignore you any longer
And make you cry

Let's just forget all that

Even though it'll still be in the back of our minds Let's just do what we did back then In the the good old times

Where we made each others' day Where we lived and loved We were free and open to the world Like a million white doves

I will I'll try
I don't You'll cry

You'll smile
I will too
I'll try
It's true
For you and only you

In My Time In Middle School

Started out curious On the first day Time went on It's almost my last day

Meeting new friends While hanging with the old Some stayed with me While others went cold

Reading and Writing Algebraic Expressions Scientific Properties
And lots of new lessons

Running a course Growing up From the child I was To the grown up I will become

Day by Day
I go to school
Even though it's boring
It's actually cool

But it's more than just education
In a simple manner
Not realizing that matters

I learned a lot During these two years Faced up so much Conquered so many fears

Did things
I'd never thought I'd do Be real
And always spoke the truth

Hang with friends
But lost the time Knowing I didn't do my work Was my crime

Meaningful Friendships Lost and Found Brought me up And shot me down

Love came in this time But clouded my mind
But I would soon find That I can't deal with that now Growing more famous By word of mouth Known by peers and teachers Hear them shout

I grew famous
As time went passed
I became renown
People calling me out as I moved to class

Getting top awards
Being a president Liked by nearly all Although I never meant to be

Days and weeks go by It's coming close My last day of middle school These two years I've made the most of Sharing Peace and Love

To one and all Even though many things during these two years Caused me to fall

Conflict everywhere

Problems driving me crazy
But I got up and fixed them And stopped being lazy

I changed,
No longer was I that little boy
From two years ago
Who was shy and scared
And so alone

I became A better version of me Smarter and Greater
And way more friendly

On top of the world
And it's coming to a close Middle School nearly over But something newer is coming I know I found myself during these years I learned so much it's cool
All of these things happened

I greatly loved my time And I'm sure there's more to come I'll miss this school that taught me so much It was actually pretty fun

It's Gone

This late night thought process Which makes me remember
Way past December

The times twisted me up But I never felt so alive So strung into it all Huge rollercoaster ride

Of friendship and love
I couldn't tell the difference Lost one got one Taken by the distance

As such I try To forget times before Tried to learn from my mistakes But it leaves me asking more

It leaves me wondering what if What should have I done Maybe we could've had A little more than just one

More than a single summer More than one fling
But it doesn't matter now We're onto different things

We're on separate plains Talk once in a while Things won't be the same I won't make you smile

The world we try to live in I can't find my one I want things to be right But I won't see her tonight

I have no clue
And neither do you And we're just not meant to be Enter pure apathy

Those memories are gone Those moments in the past They still burn in my head Comes closer to the last i can't sleep at night I dont know what to do Accept that it's over And move on too

A tear for the past An eye to the future
That if we get a shot again It'll be fate lending a hand

Loving it so much
It is no more Let me open this one And close out that door

Just You And Me

Both of us are the same Totally different from anyone We're our own people Considered weird cuz we have the most fun

But inside we're hurt We're scarred and dead
We only have each other
To survive and get ahead

A hand and a heart
We'll never be apart
Bonded for life
As we see it so

We hate it here
We both wanna go We're off together
To where who knows

We just need to get out And never return
To take all this memories
In the fire to burn

We'll runaway just the two of us
And find what we need To be happy forever And we'll finally be free

But you'll go alone
And I'll go to get her We might meet again Fate will bring us together

If it doesn't I'll be torn Missing my best friend Never forgetting what we had

Every night I'd wish that'd I see you again That you would live a better life With or without me

Either way you'd still be my best friend Connected eternally
We'll go against the world

Let You Go

&#65279; I could never love someone As much as I love you
The great times we had The way you cheered me up when I was sad You always made me happy No matter how badly I felt What you have shown me I couldn't get from anyone else You showed me the feeling To love someone and be loved back To share romance and things like that You're beauty captivated me Because you had it set Both inside and out You try to hide
All the time
Don't hide yourself Either way you were still beautiful You had great qualites
Caring and Embrasiveness
It seems to me there was that and so much more You showed me what it's like To have a romance that was amazing
We were on fire we were ablazing With love and passion My eyes filled with delight Becuase I was with you That made my day and night
We have so much in common We are so great for each other But I can't be with you now Because your with my brother I can't hurt him
But that's what we're doing I'm cheating with you and it's killing him You were my unoffical love but your his real one I can't let him suffer

While I steal his chance To have someone as great as you As his love and romance interest I'll never stop loving you But we have to stop being this way I can't control how my love for you is strong Which is why I can not trying to be with you But I can't romance
My brothers lover It'll hurt me for a while But for now i'll find another I can't steal you away
I can't break his heart
I can't romance you I can't tear him apart
I wouldn't do that to someone Who's dear to me like he is So I'll lay off and not interfere I know one day that you will split
But I won't be the cause of it But for now I'll let him have his time To be with someone who's just great I'll wait until you become untaken So our love won't be forsaken And we may start the romance That we so greatly desired
But until that day we will remain friends We stop playing romance and just do other things I'll hug you still, ill continue to talk I'll listen to you and I'll still be around you But we have to let it die for now until I can revive it again Trust me this is hard for me to comprehend But it's the right thing to do For my dear brothers sake For our own and the risks we take But ill soon be with you my love
And we won't stop romancing
We won't stop being this way But we will be together some day They say if you love something Let it go
If it comes back to you

It is yours
I have to let you go I never wanted that to have to happen
But I can't let this cheating persist
So we will lay off being unofficial lovers Until you and my brother finish your time Then when you're done You'll be mine I hope I love you with all my heart Even tho slowly it will tear apart
But I need to accept this inevidable truth I will wait for you until we can be together
I will wait for you so we can be forever

Life 3

I see it all now the world's twisted ways I remain caught in the middle of bad nights and awful days

My heart in pain
My body sore
My mind numb and there's more

Friends lost Love confuses Emotions bring pain I'll soon be the one who loses

All he has All he knows I've reached an all time high on an all time low try to cope with the pain try to deal with the struggle Rather have a nice time with her and a snuggle

But even that I can't obtain even that is hard to get It feels like I'm more caged than a pet

I can't tell if okay
I can't say I'm alright I could stay up crying the rest of the night but nobody hears my cries nobody even cares

You could say this is a cry for help that I felt I needed to share

She's in his arms now I'm lost and stuck Feeling like a hopeless schmuck

What am I too her a friend or a lover Confuses me so I guess I'll never know I feel pretty low Sick and Blue couldn't foresee anything like this happening to any of you

Let me speak Profound in all Life will bring you lots of hardships and you are gonna fall but you can't stay down you can't make that mistake you gotta get back up and wipe the mud off your face you have to try to live strong you have to try to live well or you'll live life like me where everyday you're in hell where everyday you think you're happy then you depress all over the floor exhausted and ready to break See what else is in store for this poor little boy who's soul is aged but body is young who's able to say that he'd love to be hung but don't be like him be happy be light

live to the fullest and give the good fight

For what I can't do and probably never will it's best to listen to my advice a moment left still

Now I wake up but this isn't a dream a nightmare maybe?
No its real to me

it's life coming at me

Life Sorrows And More

confused about life this stuff drives me insane killing me slowly its is my bane are you actually mine? or maybe you belong to another i'll have meant to be alone something i've always known my emotions spiraling my thoughts grow dire they spark in the air like a blazing fire day to day never good for me night by night i try to stay alive theres always a problem its so complicated remembering too many things it seems overrated she's moody she's in pain she's bugging im going insane

i feel heart sinking i feel my mood dropping wishing it would all end maybe with my heart stopping but i still wake up unfulfilled i go to sleep scarred we stop talking and i miss her are we truly together? , I'm unsure something grows within a nice bit of darkness that covers all of me then im left completely empty im just sad about this idea that my life isnt so great its just something i want to take she might be his she might be pretending the love she had for me just might be ending they don't like me i don't care but if she doesn't like me thats something i can't bare i lay here writing my sorrows on this page my eye sheds a tear that runs down my face my heart is in pain from all the mess running through my head causing more stress as i lead on to believe that i might never find what i need that i'll be alone and regretful and i'll die unhappy maybe i'm just crazy i don't know anymore what should i call this

Loneliness

its what we get once in a while never like the feeling when you see em all around and they tell you keep dreaming in your dreams everything's great but the world ain't so kind but you can make it work it just takes time i walk around everywhere searching for something I'll never find hours turn into months and years may take a whole lifetime waiting won't help ya go out and get your own or you'll be sitting down in your room alone

feeling that breaks loneliness
feeling that makes you'll always wanna come down go through the day head spinning round while you look around hundreds upon thousands are there any for you well worth finding that person wont be the only while you try to rid yourself from being lonely tell me how long it'll take i only wish i knew i'm about as confused about this as you so many people to have to look for one feels impossible but don't jump the gun it could happen with the moment set right it could happen anywhere any day or night you feel it coming maybe they're the one look into their eyes you're journey is done

it's never that easy many could tell could make you feel like a interminable hell going from one to another always ends the same played your heart straight thats why loves a game to escape that feeling we all try to win with all the trouble that it eventually brings loneliness

it'll put you low
make you wanna go right down to the floor never try and get up cuz it seems too hard but you gotta keep trying don't give up now who knows they could be eyeing you now but either way all it shows me is what people have to do to not be lonely then you find a glympse of hope with eyes that shine they lock with yours you know its time you know its there the beautiful meeting the horrible feeling finally gone you've found what you need and you got what you wanted under the moonlit sky with stars and comets but i doubt i'll get that anytime soon.

Love You

Waking up each day Excited that I get to see you Still looking a bit sad Still feeling a bit blue

Then we meet up Then my smile is there
As you hold me in your arms Tells me that you care

Even though it seems weird Cuz I'm involved with someone else I still enjoy our friendliness It really helps

The days wind down
Time to leave for summer Never thought not being able to see you Would be such a bummer

Looking back at our history
One hell of a ride
A long story
We both cried

Although it seems to be over We know it's effects last I can't hold a grudge
I dislike looking at my past

But I think more on the good parts
It was great
But I made mistakes
And I was just too late

Still those feelings poked Inside of me Confused me so much It surprises me

We played it for a day Felt so right
Like a moment meant to happen
And you were a pretty sight

I couldn't help myself
But I controlled my emotions
If I would've done something there It would've caused a commotion

But I think of you dear
All the time
I miss you
It makes me *Sigh*

It makes me wonder What I really want What I should do My mind it haunts

To want you But keep you as my friend To wanna love you But not go through all that again

Looking back at that Makes me wanna drop Makes me wanna do everyone a favor
And just stop

But seeing the now
The relationship we have is great Is it just a coincidence that we go so well together Or is it fate

I don't know
My mind is giving me a headache Conflicting emotions again
I just wanna break

Laying here alone in bed It's sooo early Feels like 3 o'clock
It's actually 1:30

Time hurts
The more minutes pass that I'm away from you I wish I was okay
But I feel so screwed

I truly care for you I'ma definitely stay alive Just so I can see you

Just so I can hold you Help you in life
To keep you eternal I won't ever pick up that knife

Something about you Makes me love you so much Whether it's your loving actions Or your gentle touch

Said I didn't feel this way But I never stopped loving you I know it ended so abruptly But I still held feelings for you

I just buried them Hoped they would never come back But I couldn't hold them forever That'd just be whack

Can I ask you something?
Would you ever think about?
Maybe sometime later Wanting to go out?

I know it's a lot to ask
And no I haven't stopped loving her I just love you too

And it makes my mind hurt

I mean it
I love you You're beautiful
It's all true

But I wanna make sure You understand Although I may feel this I wouldn't act on that command

It's cuz I do love her She really great She's the one that I want to date

But i don't know Which confuses me so I love you both so much I don't know where to go

I needed to tell you this To be honest and truthful I hope it won't make things different But I bet it will

I'm caught between the crossroads In my mind, in my heart Because I wanna love you both
And I don't wanna break your hearts

Let me tell you though You're the awesomest friend i have Always makes me happy Never makes me sad

I love you to death and beyond
I see you do as well
I wanna see you in heaven And hopefully not in hell

I wanna see you everyday I wanna feel you every night No that wasn't sexual Not at the slight

It was meaningful As you rest in my heart I hope you stay there forever
We'll never be apart

I can't tell if I'm tearing up or not Writing you this It's probably cuz you're so far away
And you I miss

Just know what I feel Just understand what I think Just realize my thoughts
It all makes me wanna sink

My best friend
Of whom I love immensely
Of whom I miss Intensely

I don't remember what I was gonna say next I don't remember this line
It was something else meaningful Followed by a rhyme

Let me finish here
We'll speak of this later dear Hope to the lord you'll be here
So I may hold you again dear

Maybe Someday

With all there is There's so little to gain Whats the difference
Besides the fame

You and I
We're exactly the sane
Two people on the world Playing this game

This game called life Embody our souls
We live our lives
And reach our goals

I guess i don't know why I'm so taken by you Why i wake up at 5am
To write poems about you

Listening to love songs Laying and dreaming Where we aren't separated I'm just over here feening

For your beautiful face Your radiant smile
We can lay for a while

Thinking about what we could be Knowing that it'll probably never happen Continue my dreaming all through the day and night Because at least I'll have you

I can only imagine Maybe someday we'll meet Go out for a while Two lovers on the street

But to me its all the same Because love is universal It knows no age or class
We all share this feeling

We all take this time To try and find The one we need For the rest of our lives

And we hope and pray That at the end of the day
We still have that one person That we love

But You and I
Are separate for now With life's cruel ways Maybe we'll be together

My Day With You

I finally see you I feel so happy even though lying to my parents made me feel crappy

we hung out we chilled we talked I was thrilled time went so fast 12 to 2 in a second but its only because I was with you it was great

we cuddled
we stared we looked deeply into each others eyes showing that we cared emotions blazing how I felt was amazing tantalizing and captivating you had me waiting worries aside love in the air with your body on me the sun in your hair being with you we got closer feeling you right there didn't want it to be over knowing that I wouldn't see you for an entire month I was overflowing with sadness a few days was enough you felt that way too we missed each other so much once we we're together we never wanted it to end we kept close holding each other alone by ourselves kinda undercover as we kept on going knowing how passionate our love was it led to something else right in each others faces nose to nose

tightly close eye to eye then we moved in slowly our lips touched what a sensation

we held tighter and tighter our hearts beating faster a perfect moment nothing else mattered as though it were a dream a beautiful fantasy of romancing you in a way that was classy our lips held together for so long everything was right nothing seemed wrong nearly got caught by your mother thank goodness we had time to end our smother of each other

as we continued our intimacy as I got a call on the phone again we remembered the sadness we felt that we would miss each other so much it would feel like heck we came together once more till we heard the sound that came from the door nearly caught again but we were quick my wet lips I had licked

it was nearly time for me to go and you wanted me to stay to hold you more for the rest of the day but time grew scarce I just had to leave but instead we kissed again something I couldn't believe held me up a minute but it was great loving your taste this was fate

we didn't let go of that one we wanted it to last forever to hold till the end of time that would've been better so I had to leave I had to go the goodbye was sad and I felt low but i'll never forget that fateful kiss those great hugs but that i'll miss when you'll be gone and i'll be alone wishing you were with me texting over the phone but i'll see you again and we'll play some more

and then some more

Never Love A Dem

Face of an angel Looks so divine Looks may deceive Cuz she ain't so kind

Break you in two Don't go for something serious Leave you in a minute You'll swear you've gone delirious

Maybe she'll cry Forget about you later
Try to get her in bed Only reason you'll date her

Try and go for one Wish you the best
Try and get Da Bait

Tell you the truth
I know you can take em Stay on the ball
but Never Love a Dem

Look at her Looks tantalize Give your eyes lies That you can only try

To erase to the full Dem is her name
Crushing hearts is her game

Try me then I wont fall
I'll win this fight From barbie to rag doll

So much beauty
The word misused Pretty on the outside Inside been abused

Try and go for one
Ask her out on a date

Tell you what's up Just do whatever But i'll say it again

All but a rouse
A ploy for my bud Keep his head together While she gives him a hug

Go back to her ways Hoping to change
But we all know She'll never get there

Look upon those lips Look upon those eyes Look pass the plastic Unlike most guys

Makeup extremist Try to be cool Knowing her boy She'll make you look like a fool i can see her through her act fake and done try and it call it hot that's lame and dumb

But she's just another one in my lyrical muse Gorgeous and tempting With personality issues

All but nice and all but sweet Pack all the evil Nice and neat

I got no beef
No hate towards them Love everyone

Play Our Hearts

It's been a while Since you've been on my mind
I look at your picture Memories not too kind

I can recall back then When we were tight
When we hugged and smiled Called each other every night

I couldn't say i don't miss it But i know it's for the best Bury it all deep and put it to rest

Never easy to let go but i had to do it don't misconstrue this I'm past all that

But I can't ever forget What we had was magic How it ended so abruptly Seemed so tragic

Although I've moved on I still hold a little
In my head
And in my heart

Life was different then Days were always sunny Jokes were always funny and we were in love

We held on tight Separation was painful Came together again We'd never wanna leave each other

And I can't ever forget
Seems so tragic

Although I've moved on

Snap to the present Like it never happened You're about as down as me Depressed and cutting deep

More than skin deep Reaches your soul Taking chances till you reach your goal

Don't know what it could be I could only imagine Looking back at it all You wonder how it happened and you think you know it all But you just need a hand dreams real simple we fly off to neverland but it's only a dream never real as it could be never talk to me masking the unhappy that you hide from the world beautiful but darkened girl

with ties cut entirely and eye contact hard day in and day out we play this card play ourselves and play our hearts

Re: Life

Life is like a lotus Double sided blade Keeps you on the edge Day after day

Night after night Resolve to fight Reality's hold Before you grow old

To live long as possible Downright unstoppable In the face of many Come out with plenty

But that's usually not the case Get dropped on their face Many don't make it Sad and mistaken

Down spiral
This things going viral No remakes
No second takes

This is the truth
The world battles you Like Scott with his bass Soon you'll kno ur place

Leading or following Shouting or hollering What's ur game
Try and make ur name

Never easy Never sly Try as you may You'll start to cry

From all the stress and the mess That life will bring But you always got a shot
To do anything

Maybe one day
We can all come together Ameliorate
It means to get better

A message out there Letting you know I care Life maybe hard But we can make it

Red

Red

You were my love my passion my soul

Red

You were my obsession my dreams
The other half of my whole

You made me happy
All the time
You held me close You were so kind

Red

You were my life my thoughts my inspiration

Red

You were my best friend
My great friend
But now I feel such indignation

You've gone away You'll never come back I blame myself Cuz I drove you away like that Regret and remorse

All I feel
But I think of you fondly
To me you had such great appeal

Red

I love you
I miss you
I'll never forget you

To my dearest Red
You were the sunshine of my life I'll always remember you well Farewell

Start

I'm sure you wouldn't understand I say that a lot when you're around To think that you could truly feel sympathy That idea isn't sound

I act on impulse
My mind filled with thoughts As I ponder about the world I think I know but I do not

You and I are rather strange I'd hate to speak ill of you I'd sooner renounce pacifism And go after those who do

You, my prized possession That I cannot say We both already know That I don't own you in anyway

Not your heart, nor your soul Belong to this old man Who fights to keep you by me While I still thinks I can

I haven't a clue what to do
As I can sense your depression Although my actions weren't tantamount To those at your discretion

I over feel and I dislike it I wish it'd leave me for good At least if I couldn't love you I'd stop hurting you as I could

To me you are the angel Which continues to bring the light That while it plagues gloomy disposition Cheers me up inside

You are who you are I could never change that I'd never want to change you You're amazing just as you are

I couldn't never tell you exactly how I feel But let this be a start

The Guy In The Corner

I can bet you never knew that I had such strong feelings for you maybe you caught on just a bit but never heard a word or sight of it

I look at you I try not to stare I'm sure if you saw me you wouldn't even care but to catch your eyes never an easy thing to handle bluer than the ocean and brighter than a candle

I can't say this has just happened maybe I never realized it but I could be like him I just don't get the benefit of having you by my side pressing my lips to yours falling for all that that tempting allure emanating from you each and every day I try to stay away but lord knows it ain't easy but this isn't love I feel just some sort of affection purely aesthetic going in a strange direction if I can feel all this just cuz of your pretty face than having you with me it'd make my heart start to race writing all these poems looking at you in class gotta love that puppy love from crush to crash and it knocks you down I just get up takes me a second but I never give up move forward with life the same playing the worldly game love the word of shame tainted with volumes of pain who knows what can happen maybe we'll get together in the future but for now I'm just the guy in the corner

The Right Choice

why does it seem like our love is bipolar one minute its on fire then the next its over ever since october that one day soon lead how i counted as you my friend and that day that i said would you be my wife i want to be with you forever through hardships in our life that we would always whether being 400 miles apart and a year difference of age we would make it work till we get to the day where we're legal and old enough to go see each other the passion burning like a fire in the summer but i feel like its just me i honestly dont know i cant figure you out all the way i dont want to though i wanna see all ur surprises hidden deep within ur heart that i hope to unlock so we may never grow apart so i may always have you mine wake up to my sunshine but i cant ever say you belong to me because one day i might have to set you free watch you leave, watch you go taking my heart with you knowing my love wont die these insane truths

i wish would be lies because if you go away youll see other guys and ill be left in a corner alone to sigh and groan crying till my tears fill up enough around me soon i can drink them out of a cup only to cry them out again with the thought that we're through with the idea that some other dude

but i pray that never comes might as well go right now

but im strong enough to bare it all even though itll never repair a permanent scar my heart to tear for now we're together

cuz ur mine and im urs
little pet names each other to which we gave in loving thought and deep emotion i really hope you get that notion i may be crazy and strange but i made the right choice at least i feel as tho i did at least i really hope i did

This Situation

It's just a shame. Tried to avoid a situation. Something goes wrong and it's heard throughout the nation. She's the girl who wanted me, but she knew from another. That I had feelings for someone else and I didn't love her. 2nd time, I had to see her cry and I was the reason. Wanting to die, just to forget this terrible season. It isn't right, having to be threatened if I do something wrong. Even though I never did anything it still ends up being my fault. I hate it, why the hell am I being blamed. Why are others ashamed, this is all really lame. It's no fault of my own, either way I still end up alone. Why do I have to die because she started to cry. I'm not even the worth the tears, I'm only one guy. I'm not worth any of this stress or drama, someone more important is like President Obama. Why does she do this almost all the time. With her not being at fault for the larger crime. Knowing so well that she should've backed off, but instead she continued to get on me a whole lot. Tried to play, I said it was fine just to keep her happy even though inside I was feeling pretty crappy. Somehow this will all go bad and somehow I'll just end up sad. I'll have to fix it even though it keeps getting worse, she's a wonderful blessing and a really bad curse. I feel as though I should just say goodbye, let her cry and just go off and die. Make her eternally happy to never know me and let her live while recovering slowly. I'll fade away with a single tear in my eye. Wishing things were so much better for this one lonely guy. Goodbye.

Till Death To Us Part

I'll be reading over the events
As well as the single note Left by a boy we found That was.... well anyway this is what he wrote

Note from a Lost boy.

It's a terrible pain Striking into my heart It's killing me inside
It's tearing me apart

I can't explain how bad this feels I wish it would go away There's no telling how much more I could take Until I decide to call it a day

As any feeling like this would With no explanation for it But I thought I could

She was beauty
I wanted her to be mine
Each day I felt melancholy But around her I felt fine

She had a deadly secret
She had some issues you see If I could have helped her with them
She would be with me

She was troubled by her life
As I also was with mine But she thought of something drastic All she did was whine

To end her misery by means of death

I thought I heard wrong
I couldn't believe my ears

I told her not to do it Think of all you'd leave behind The sunny days and all her friends All of which acted very kind

She didn't listen to me Not a single word
I couldn't believe her now She's being absurd

Later I'm alone in my room Hoping she doesn't go through with it It will leave me empty
It will cause me to have a fit

I call to see if she's okay
No answer from her phone I'm running to her house Hearing only a dial tone

I come to her house to see she's not there I figure the worse possible and flood with despair
I sat there in her quiet, dark and empty room
I start pulling my hair

She did it She's gone and I was sure I only regretted never getting to tell her I loved her

So back to how I started this With pain and sadness
I felt like I couldn't live without her I may have been falling into madness

It was like a hole in my heart And slowly I pondered
As I felt such a hurt While I simply wandered

Night came it was pitch black and cold
I was thinking of horrible actions To the lost of that person
I had a horrid reaction

So I knew i couldn't handle this pain any longer
If I did I was going to become insane This was a tough decision to make But I felt it wasn't in vain

I write this note to whomever cares to read it Recapping what has happened
I simply stated all my reasons
As I was saddened

So these last few words won't tell a lot
But I will simply say of what I thought that dreadful day That due to the pain I feel and sadness clouding my mind That night I was gonna take a trip far away I won't be coming back.

Later this boy's dead body was found at the bottom of a very high cliff.
We suspect he willingly jumped off and never looked back on it.
According to this note he was very troubled and kinda mad.
He must've had some kinda fit.

But I suppose what's done is done.
Well I guess now we know how badly stuff like death can affect someone Just right to the point of madness and point of no return But as I said before what's done is done.

Walt For You

I'll just go Leave you be Won't hear me coming Won't catch sight of me

If thats what you want Then I'll go along Won't say anything more Because I'm wrong

Or maybe you are But you'll never admit it I won't care to say so And just this dimwitted

Downtrodden and another
I love you too
But youre not having it

You're about a second from the bucket Through only fault of your own
So that you may learn a lesson That you can always call me on the phone

When you're troubled or otherwise But it matters not Problematic situation Tomorrow I'll say I forgot

It's nothing to me
But I care for you
All you do is push away
And misconstrue

Messing around with your life Cutting urself with an already bloody knife so that you can feel relief Instead of resolving with me

I try to bring you up You only bring us down
But we'll all be okay

But we can do it if we try We can live and not die
So I may hold you again
And our fun would never end

But you don't know what you're doing
Filled with hopes and dreams
But not being able to reach any goals

You and me can make it Just take my hand Fill the spaces right between We'll fly off to neverland

And never again Deal with the world's problems Live each other's desires Our connection stay solemn

Our bond never broken Our paths intertwined Our thoughts shared And never undermined

I don't care if we argue May it all be damned As long as I have Your hand in my hand

As long as I can still Come and give you a hug Tell you I love you Take my only drug

Maybe someday we'll be together again

Maybe find the best in each other Have a life and get married Be eternal lovers

But who knows what you want I wish I knew My angel I know you are I know it's you

Gone from me now But we'll meet once more Share an intimate moment

And we won't need anything else
But for now I'll just wait Wait for you

Javi Lopez

What Is It About....?

What it is about life That makes it so important
The people
The experiences
The emotions
What is it about love That drives us so wild The feelings
The intimacy
The compassion
What is it about the world That brings us to our knees That will throw us around Till we can't even breath
What is it about life
That would give you a reason to keep it Well that's for you to find out

Javi Lopez

Where Did It All Go?

Got too excited For something that I knew was through To come and see if there's a flame Between me and you

After your leave For a month or so I was glad you were back Without you I felt low

My intent was to see you My mission to find your love But that must have passed me Or gone above

It seems your feelings were gone
And that our time was short That's what I get for falling in love Now I feel like a dork

I feel like a moron I should've known you moved on I should've just thought differently Everything's wrong

Dolo Lonely and sad Used to it of course

Walking away from your house Not in anger but in remorse For not realizing sooner
You were never in love with me of course

Foolish the idea Stupid the thought I knew I wasn't your type Just something I never got

I never made it there I won't ever Nothing
Will ever make that better

Putting on my shades Cover up my tears
My dreams being so right While confirming my fears

Walk to remember I can't forget
The love we shared graciously All those times we met

Our eyes and our lips With passion ablaze
But I guess for you
That was just a phase

It was minor, unimportant Just a game Never really meant a thing What a shame

It's a tragedy
It's Depressing
With the feeling growing In my mind it's progressing

But I knew it wasn't meant to be I'm just glad you're fine
I knew for a fact
You would never be mine

But it matters little I'll never mention it again Just let it drift away
Our love has reached it's end

Another night alone Just gonna spend this night wondering Where did it all go?

You And Only You

You mean so much to me Always making me smile
The only person I ever want to see

You make me feel great When I'm down you cheer me up With a hug that's pleasurable long Now that's wassup

Can I say words to describe you Nice, Sweet, Creative and Neat Just being with you Is such a treat

You're great how you are Please don't look down Let me tell you more
And take away that frown

You're pretty You're funny Sensitive and amiable
The one I would make mine if you weren't labeled

Why do you hide
I love seeing you Don't turn away
I love the view

We could be more
If I had realized sooner
The opportunity I missed out on But I'm not gonna ruin your Current relation For my personal gain Even though not being with you Drives me insane

In my dreams we are together
Your radiant face with a big smile Something I'd be attempting

To do in the future
When we can be more But for now we friends But I'll even out the score

Let's go away
To our own neverland
You can be Peter Pan

And I'll be you're Wendy Flying away with me forever
The worries gone
Nothing would be better

The life we live is crazy
But when I lose it you're there To pick me up To show me you care

And I smile
Then get a thought What would life be like if I never met you Something I ought

To just never consider Cuz you're here now I'm glad to have met you To my mind your just wow

Let me finish up Cuz I can't say much else There's more but it's indescribable

I love you I always will

That will always be true
You and only you

Youth

We all grow Expecting to change for the better We just never know Or expect what comes later

Our lives afflicted
By the tiniest bit of influence That reaches deep within our minds And takes away our youthfulness

Not innocence or morality Those are locked with you
The values that we held so dear Can't hold candles to the truth

These kids play and have fun They'll never understand at their age Because by the time they do understand It'll already be too late

They'd have lost what made them kids They'll never be the same again People will walk out of their lives And they'll make or lose friends

I'm sure with what's left They'll give little regard to the notion Time will continue to pass slowly Exposing them to more commotion

I speak only from experience And observations of many others
As I start to see rapid growth It's what they'll soon discover Regret will fill a melancholy man Or a woman of despondency
