Cut Again

Sitting alone in my room once again
Thinking of how terrible this day has been Looking around, about to go insane
I see something that will ease the pain
Sitting there so shiny and bright
I couldn't resist so I reached for th knife
What came over me? This is the worst one yet
Hey who knows maybe it'll help me forget
All this pain I'm going through
And every bit of it is thanks to you!
I look at the cuts and begin to cry
Why did I do this? Why God, why?
What came over me,
How can this be?
How can I cover this up
When covering my pain is hard enough
I don't know but I have to try
Say so long to these tears in my eye
No more pain, I'm done
I'm better than this! Life has just begun!

Departure Of A Loved One

Grief, a pain deep inside
No where to run, no where to hide
You've gone away
And left the Earth on that horrid day
I cried for a while
Then I looked back at times we had and began to smile
I look back at the way things used to be Why did God have to take you from me?
All the good times we'd been through,
Then unexpectedly I lose you
You left without warning, no time to prepare
Your soul rose above into thin air
Now these tears that run down my face
Are just a sign of your love and embrace
Have fun with God and all his might I'll see you in my dreams each and every night

Forgive And Forget

They say forgive and forget

It will get better if you let it,

I forgave but I can't forget

Because i thought you were the best one yet

Times have changed and we've moved on the love we shared now is gone.

they think everything is ok but i lost my friend on that day i lost my cool and said everything wrong and its all different with you gone but now i have to let go and the love we shared can never show goodbye and so long

i can't believe i was so wrong

Grief

Grief, I've felt since you left
A pain deep in my chest
You left without a sound
Noone saw, nobody was around
Lying there all alone
Taken off the earth without a groan
Everytime I drive by,
It's so hard not to break down and cry
Gone without a trace
Living in a better place
Back with the one you love,
Him and God above
Now I'm left asking why,
I didn't even get to say goodbye

Have You Ever

Have you ever wondererd why we're here
Why this century, why this year
Was I put here to help the poor
Or was I put here to do even more?
Save a life, Save the planet
Maybe find the cure for cancer in a piece of granite
A different time, a different season
We were sent here for a reason
Every person can help in their own special way
Working to change the world everyday
Whether it be something huge or something small
It still has a way to affect us all
Stop the violence, end the wars
Isn't that what peacemakers are for?
They can't do it all alone
Someone must help, someone enter that forsaken zone
Try to help in any way
You'll see this world will be better someday

I Lost You

He may be your man and may treat you right
But if only you knew how I felt on this lonely night
I check on you every once in a while
To see if you still have that same beautiful smile
Now everything is said and done.
I'm sorry I wasn't the right one.
Its time for me to go
But I'll let you know
I love you
I truly do

Long Distance

All I can do

Is sit here thinking of you

It kills me that I can't see

Face to face your external beauty

So sweet, so caring

Your love I don't feel like sharing

It's a prized possession I hold near to me

Nobody can touch and nobody can see

I tell my friends and they just laugh

But they don't realize the love we have

We've only known each other for a short time

But all along I've been trying to make you mine

Has it worked? I think so

And now that I have you I don't want to let go

I hate that you live so far away

But we'll be together someday

Jeffrey Taylor

Memories

Memories that haunt me in my dreams
Memories of the way things used to be
I think about you, but it's killing me to

Your love has gone away
Mine is your's to stay
Without your love
I don't know what I'm thinking of Such beauty, such grace

All seen in your face
Without you I'd die
Please don't say goodbye

Sweet Surprise

What a sweet surprise
When I first looked into your eyes
I see your smiling face
And I know without a doubt you fell from grace
Your love is like a trophy I want to show the world
And make them jealous that I have this beautiful girl
I have only known you a short time
But I hope this love last my life line
I'm hanging on to you forever
Because when we're together everything is better
A true friend, a best friend
A friend I hope to have until the end
Such a woman, you've stole my heart
I'd try to explain but I don't know where to start
Oh I look into your eyes
And recieve such a sweet surprise

Unknown

I can't believe I met someone like you
Someone so sweet and true
You're amazing, that's all I can say
I thank God for that glorious day,
The day he brought you into my life
And steered me away from the knife.
I never expected someone like you,
But you are every dream coming true.
I guess what I'm trying to say
Is I love you more and more each and every day

What Is Love?

Love is long walks at night because u can't stand not seeing her. Love is calling her after a fight to apologize and tell her how much u is sending flowers for no reason to is sticking up for her no matter how bad u may be treated after is being there for her when she is is understanding why she cares so much for this other guy. Love is never losing feelings for her. Love is telling her that she is beautiful. Love is holding her hand and sticking by her side when she is hurt. Love is caring for her right up to the is giving your heart and soul to is love.

You And Me

I love the way you look at me,
Your eyes so bright and blue.
I love the way you kiss me,
Your lips so soft and smooth.

I love the way you make me so happy,
And the ways you show you care.
I love the way you say, 'I Love You, '
And the way you're always there.

I love the way you touch me,
Always sending chills down my spine.
I love that you are with me,
And glad that you are mine.
