My name is jenn..I live in greenville with my sisters and mom.I have had a hard past my dad has does things that shame my family and my mom is sick..She is bipolar she will never get better... I thought that i was the only one out there and then a friend told me that i should start write in.In the end many people nejoyed read in them so i did... These things i write are painful to me and most kept thoughts. After live in my life ashamed for a long time now i am ready to come out and tell the world what i have been through. Then maybe i wont be misunderstood anymore..For the people out there that think they are alone your not..

Love no named

A Moment

For many a year
I have gazed into his eyes only to see the twin to my soul to sit a while and watch his smile to catch a glimmer of the warmth with in his eyes as he leaves me breathless by his side kindered spirits are now on the run taking hold of our destinies in this world of chances missed does forever still exist... will he ever know how much i love him and that he is still the one that sparks the fire that burns deep with in my heart desire to hold him in my arms beneath out shimmering souls for in his presence, i have some undone for he is the light in my darkest world will he ever truely know the soul that he has created...

Abuse

Tell me when in going to know that someone is there by my side...
That in the end i dont have to hide
That in the night i dont have to cry My parents blackened my eyes and then apologized as love and pain became one in the same in the eyes of a wounded child I just thought that hell was for children
But as i grew up i started to find out that i shouldnt of had to pay for there love with my bones and flesh So ya i thought hell was for children
I still have never understood why Or how a mother could do that to their child
But when you have a mother that lacks all love
Then in the end a child just dies inside
As i did that day
That they took my sisters and me away
You hurt me alot and that is true
But i still loved you...

All Hollows Eve

She was lost on all hallowa eve no one knew why or what happened to her Her body was found
She was cold and dead blood splashed on the ground...
Is no place for a grave who or what killed her is unknown But not to me i know what happened on all hollows eve
He came for her with no mercy to spair
It was the night of the devil her life was not spaired
He came with out a warning and he will come again
On all hollows eve is his night to make one dead
He watches you as you die.
His cold fears show through his eyes So dont think you wont be next cus in the end your'll be with out a thought Dead is gone lost on all hallows eve...! ! ? ?

Answer

The Answer

The lightning flashed as angels Rode fiery chargers through the clouds That answer scared me into tears
And all the grownups laughed out loud

Now the years roll on, tired voices have all gone
Now they ride their thunder through the heavens

There's a word in every dropp of rain Embracing oceans sweep us home again
Come along with me, come along with me
Seek the truth, you shall not find another lie

They say that for every living thing There's a guide up in the sky
That helps you pass from world to world
So you really never die

So with scythe and cloak Death come waltzing to your side
As the visions pass you ask If there was meaning to your life,
As you strain to hear the answer, spirits sing, and devils fiddle
As he bends to whisper in your ear, he leaves you one more riddle

Oh, the answer lies beyond the pain
All the questions in our minds, we surly ask in vain

And now my life is like a storm Growing stronger every day
Like the unrelenting wind That comes to blow our life away

So I live each day like I know it's my last If there is no future there must be no past

Now I know the answers never meant a thing
And with each instant I breath

I feel the joy that life can bring
Seek the truth, and you will find another life..

As A Day Goes By Now I Understand

General With a Little Hope Often, it is through the most difficult days of our lives that we come to know ourselves and what is truly important to us. No matter how sad you may feel at times, be confident that hope will awaken with you tomorrow. Faith and courage reach out to you; take hold of them, and you will find that you will be able to smile again and truly be happy once more. How we deal with life is really a matter of personal choice, so choose to be happy. Find joy in the simplest things, and see beauty in each person you meet. When times are difficult, remind yourself that no pain comes to you without a purpose. Above all, trust in God's handcrafted plan that He has made just for you. Let Him love you through life's joyous and painful aspects; if you do, you will find inner peace and unending joy.

As I Lie Here

as i lay here,
I close my eyes, only hours have past I still feel your breath on my cheek your smell seems to linger in my mind for you are gone from my side,

as I lay here
visably shakin waiting to touch u again.
Its a feeling I can not explain

Jennifer Panner

Can I

As time slips by I sit here and wonder where my heart and soul could be Why I cant think or hardly even breath
My sense of comfort shatters as shadows seem to move My trust and passion combine as one
What can i do to keep my self free from this pain
From the future that soon will be true
As my life will forever change Is it for the better or for the worse for that i do not know now will i ever know Will the sense of betrayal become real and true
With a hint of passion between us two Can the love over come the pain?
Hidden pasts can not be earsed
I lean my head overwhelmed in shame
How can I know he feels the same I Look into the eyes of the one I love Tell me what do you see?
A hint of wonder, the feeling of peace, and the need to be loved
The need to be close to the one that holds my Heart
If one has to question love will they ever find the truth?

Jennifer Panner

Cant Belive Its Gone

You say your hurting is over.
It feels like you're back from the dead.
But still I can't believe it's over,
And I can't get your sight, your scent from my head.
It seems like these moments are lasting forever,
The times when we felt alive.
You carried my heart in the midst of this battle
In your hands.
This time I won't try to reach you.
You're already too far gone.
Slipped past and I didn't notice, Did we ever sing the same song?
Two lives, two books of illusion,
A chapter in the essence of time.
The story we wrote in one season,
Came to an end in one night.
Remember the times when we started believing,
That everything would be alright?
You carried my heart in the midst of this battle...
In your hands.
And I'll wait for you. I'll become something new.
And I'll sing for you until this dream comes true.

Jennifer Panner

Change

chance is sometimes something that you just cant avoid and when it happens one is never prone to like it the way things used to be will and can nevr be the same agian even if you try people only have the samething happen one it cant be exchanged or moved or removed anything and somwtime it just over welms you to know that you cant change something when you so badly want to and need too
what happens when you forget to say something tha so badly needz to be said should you tell then or hope that they will understand why you never told them i just want a few answers to the many thigns that i wonder about each and everyday of my life... now can anyone tell me for the people that i have interacted with cant come up with an answer...

Jennifer Panner

Dark Room

In a darkened room
Beyond the reach of God's faith Lies the wounded, the shattered remains of love betrayed
The rage of the angels left silent and cold Forgive me please for I know not what I do How can I keep inside the hurt I know is true Tell me when the kiss of love becomes a lie That bears the scar of sin too deep To hide behind this fear of running unto you Please let there be light
In my darkened room
All the Precious times are now a distant memory
And the smile of the dawn Brings tainted lust singing my souls requiem Can I face the day when I'm tortured in my trust And watch it crystalize While my salvation it crumbles to dust Why can't I steer the ship before it hits the storm only to have fallen to the sea... but still I swim for shore

Day Dreaming

MY Life thoughts

A day without sunshine is like, night

On the other hand, you have different fingers.

I just got lost in thought, it was unfamiliar territory

I feel like im diagonally parked in a parallel universe

Honk if you love peace and quiet

Remember, half the people you know are below average

He who laughs last, thinks slowest

Depression is merely anger without enthusiasm

The early bird may get the worm, but the second mouse gets the cheese.

Support bacteria. They're the only culture some people have

Monday is a awful way to spend 1/7 of your life

A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory Change is inevitable, except from vending machines.

Plan to be spontaneous..... tomorrow

If you think nobody cares, try missing a couple of payments

Ok, so whats the speed of dark?

How do you tell when you, re out of invisible ink?

If everything is coming your way, you have obviously overlooked something

When everything is coming your way, your in the wrong lane

Hard work pays off in the future, Laziness pays off now

Everything has a photographic memory, some just don't have film.

If Barbie is so popular, why do you have to be her friends

What happens if you get scared half to death twice?

Why do psychics have to ask you for your name?

AND THE ONE I RELATED TO THE MOST THESE DAYS.....

Inside every older person id a younger person wondering.. What happened? !

Jennifer Panner

Done Writing

As the days go on I notice that I can no longer write that need and want has deseased.

As if my heart is lieing in a million little pieces on the floor

I used to write about love and the hurt the emotions that I had been feeling when I was with him

But now I don't have those emotions so over all it seems that I should stop And so with that's for all that has been

I will put away this old worn out and used key board for a while

If there is no joy there is no peace

If there no pain one can not show the hurt

And if there is no you I have nothing to say

My life has fallen apart infront of me and I tried to hid it

The signs were all there..

But I know now that it is my time to walk away.....

Jennifer Panner

Found

Last night i found this man
I can say his name but in my heart i know That i want to be with him forever
He just has these eyes
They are so sly
but then they are true
From the day that i ment him i knew that it was true That throught his eyes is another world
One beyond all words to say His smile is ever lasting
But his love is what no words can say...
There is no language of love
That words can say
But my heart and the way that i smile shows That no matter how much we fight the love we have is real
When you hold me tight i know that everything is goign to be all right
From this day until the end
I am happy that we can be more than freinds
And i hope that our love with grow With out haveing to say a word

Jennifer Panner

Freind

If one day u feel like crying.... call me. I don't promise that I will make u laugh, but I can cry with u. If one day u want to run away- don't be afraid to call me. I don't promise to ask u to stop.....but I can run with u. If one day u don't want to listen to anyone.....call me. I promise to be there for u but also promise to remain quiet. But one day if u call.....and there is no answer.....come fast to see me. Perhaps I need you.

What would you do if every time you wanted someone they would never be there? What would you do if for every moment you were truly happy there would be 10 moments of sadness? What would you do if your best friend died tomorrow and you never got to tell them how you felt? So, I just wanted to say, even if I never talk to you again in my life, I look up to you, respect you, and truly cherish you. You are special to me and you have made a difference in my life.

Jennifer Panner

God Are You There?

God i have so many questions to ask you sometime i have to think if you even care I believe but sometimes it just so hard I want to know and i want to understand, but sometime its hard Im not really sure even where to begin
There is so many that will follow you and have the faith
Do they ever fade away
Is all the life that i live a test
When if you loose and cant make it until the end
Do we get punished for not following you?
Left here to burn really does any soul deserve that pain dont we knock our self and destroy our selfs enough We need someone to stand by us and love us no matter what That what i thought you were for I am a believer and i have put all my faith forward
But there are just something that i think i will never understand
I fel like we are in a maze that never ends I know that after this life it will be forever and then we dont feel the pain
But the ones that do follow you why cant you stop the hurt and wonder Thats what leads people astray I dont like have in to look my little neice in the face and say i dont understand and that i have no answer cus there is not one I want to feel comeplete God i know that you are present at this moment i can feel your pressence.
But will that begin to fade
I follow the path but it doesnt seem to be enough Show me the way so i wont lead astray
I need you in my lif egod i need to feel complete And with you and my heart and soul is the only way
Can you show me the way to stand tall and not fall I wonder i will for ever wonder the possabilitys are there and the rumers cant be true your there your here right forever until you come again Please i need you and i know that others do too.
My teacher tought me so much in just one day
And it makes me know that you have touched so may lives
I can told my head high and smile cus i know that i am a child that belong to you

Thank you god for all that you have done...! ! !

Jennifer Panner

Good Bye My Love

In my mind there are things that no one will ever get to see The things that have been done
The hidden past that was never shown I am not the one that you think I am I don't know if I can even be your friend
There is so much that I need to say and there is so little time
I feel that I need to tell you cus my heart is entwined
I was a player a dealer and a killer too
For the last 3 years I have had to lie to you About who I am and where I'm from I don't know how to say this but the deal will never be done
I am an agreement before I was born Sworn to a covenant that is not my own
The war of the century happens everyday It passes you on the street as the children play
I am torn in two and not sure what to do I am not supposed to love you but I do Our families are torn apart Because of the past that we are part
You know what can happen if they ever find me I will be killed and forever diseased To the blind eyes I am just I
But for the knowing no one will ever know me So all I can say is that you need to stay away to save your self
I will have to hurt my self But don't cry a tear for me I will get to see you on the other side Where the coveted can stop me from being in with you My heart will long for that day to come
So for now until the end of time I love you with all my heart and soul
Please never let me go
You will always be with me and a part of me will for ever be with you Until the end of for ever good bye my one and only good-bye

Hidden With In

everyone has a good and a bad The potential to justify and demonstrate the characteristics with in the some come to find the peace and love hidden with in And some just settle for what's given to never strive for what's more Tempted to know the possibilities one enters the demotion of the beloved soul and then lost without a single person by your side to hold you up You begin to fall Then what's the one thing you have left the person with in Can you master the powers that are needed to find the one within Or will you forever fall into the demotion of darkness Time used to be on your side
And now it mocks you as you run for the light And then is once again stripped away from You but still you run for shore.....!!!!

RRRRUUUNNNN....rrrruunnnn... rruunn...run...ru.....

Hurt

i wanna live my life the way that i should The things that people say and do Change the things that i do The hurt inside is like not in else
The things in side i have reasons to hide
The pain that people dont get to see
There are reasons behind it Do you want to knwo when some one is hurt in And then your not sure on how you can chane it Then something happens ' Your going to feel that inside no matter what or anything But then do you know me if you think that hurt it not a thing
I feel it everyday

Jennifer Panner

Hurt And Destruction Of An Angel

An angel in disguise hidden behind broken pride of all these human lies an angel without wings long ago cut off fallen from heaven never to go back

an angel far from home made to walk this world alone an angel consumed by fears as tears roll down her face she feels like a disgrace an angel wanting to go home but caught in this hell can only ask one thing

'God what did i do to deserve this, why and i being punished all i did was love'

an angel lying dead blood covers her pure white dress god must have seen what he did for it rained non stop an angel gone to hell never to be scene again her creator lost what he loved cause he did not let her love

Jennifer Panner

Ill Wait

I used to search for things that were wrong
And over looked what you wanted to show me I went against what my heart was telling me because my mind was telling me something different.
You waited for so long
Just like you said
The things that i never understood now seem so clear
There is someone in everyones life that your ment to love and i found that someone because that someone was you Till is none of my dream have ever come ture for the first time your arms feel like home when im with you no one else is around everything begins to become a blur one day i will get to marry you and we will start a life of our own and ill wait.. till you come home.

Jennifer Panner

Im Nothing With Out You

Do you know the moment that everything isn't important
When you look for a reason to deserve to live
And if that reason is out of your power?
But the worst thing that its impossible That all my life looking for you in a place
All my life hiding the truth
That the only moment that is important is When I tell you "I Love You"...in my dreams
Now I'm not afraid to tell that I'm in Love
That you have stolen my heart
You have taken my reasons
Now I don't think of anything else
That in you eyes
Every night never finishes
When I don't hear your voice
In any moment your in my mind
I'm not asking for you something special
But please listen
Bring me back my life
Every time I see you in pictures I suffer Thousands of tears cover me in my sadness don't you see that I'm nothing without you?
That every word, every try doesn't matter without you here?
All my life looking for you in a place
All my life hiding the truth
That the only moment that is important When I tell you I love you Today I got to the reason of one thing But nobody understands me This lonely night doesn't seem to end...
'Ill wait for you till the end of my days'

Jennifer Panner

Kill Me Inside

Time has a beginning and a end
A bad and a good
A left and a right
My home is just a prisens with out the fences
My life has no end no good and I cant go left or right
And it has no hope People don't change things do Or should it go the other way
My mind, heart and soul doesn't know What way I should go Does anyone know
Does anyone care Shhhh do you hear that O never mind that's just the sould of my killer coming Shattered past, Broken glass Shimmering on the floor
Memories are spilling out as they have never done befor
A scream of sorrow for the present I took for granted
But as I lie deadless on the floor My heart stops but I will live on for more Now he regrents the path that he took When he looks in the mirror he remembers the live that he took The sounds of darkness are as loud as they can get My voice and face linger around So when he goes to sleep at night Remerber my sound
A lash is left on the side of his face Another on the side of his waste My soul o here to slumber
I search for blood is what I hunger
I walk in the night and run from they day
The `murthers' soul will end this day.
So the pain that I felt lifeless and alone Will be passed on to you and yourself alone.

Jennifer Panner

My Soldiers Leaving

American soldiers come and they go...
But to get to stand by and have the chance to hear their story Is a memory that I will never get to forget..
I never understood what it felt like to be an American until I talked with my friend Jade..
He is leaving to go across seas Tuesday and it hurts me so to know he is going in I'm not sure what I'm going to do if anything happens to him
The few times that I have got to be with him have brought me to know who I am and that the freedom that I have doesn't come free to have to kill or wound a soldier that's not your own when he is only 18 years old and you know that your the reason that he won't make it longer in life is an everlasting memory for my friend..
I want him to know that everyday he will be in my heart That no matter what soldier dies a part of my heart dies with them to know that they are doing it so that me and so many others can be free But in my case I don't want to fight in a war
And I don't want to lose anyone from the war...
Everyday after he goes I don't want to get the letter that says he will never again come home again
What can I do to make him see how much he means to me
When he will board that plane if I like it or not...

Jennifer Panner

My World

A poets heart is filled with so many untold memorys that i dont know where to even start

My mind and heart races as i know that my story begins from a abused child, to a brand new kind of friend fend for ones self for i know that this is true one cant hide from what belongs to you no one is able to run from the past the futrue is comeing near dont close your eyes if you know that you have fears when can a poets heart be empty adn anlone when their story is over and they need a place to call home my story takes me to a place that is not my own even the life that i have is borrowed cus on not promies tomorrow odd but in the end it is true one starts to die the day that they are born and thats the day that i have to wonder can i ever be free from this world until the end i am controled bound by god power to with hold the things thta i need the most only he can give and somedays in my poem world they seem inpossible questions thta i need answered felling that i want to go away i place in my heart that i know is safe that no one can take but even in my poem world i can go insane...! !

Jennifer Panner

Restless Soul

The restless soul will embark into the realm of the untold dangers.
Leaving behind the stranger who he brought to life.
Fear over flows through out her entire body.
The future is but a mere line in the palm of his hand.
When she lies her self to sleep at night images overwhelm her every thought.
What's happening to her on the inside no one can see or understand.
When she looks through her own eyes, images of the desolate land appear.
But nothing can be done.
The dark star has chosen the path.
Every emotion is on the brink of destruction.

Jennifer Panner

Stangers Among Us

we all walk through life searching for something that can never be found we look into the faces of others and fear them its because we fear the unknown i have come to a time in my life that i have found that the people that wont hurt you are the people that you dont know take a look at the world around you tell me what you see in a store you see someone who smiles in a passing car you see someone wave at work you see the people that you dont know their names those are the people who wont hurt you the ones that no matter what you do they will still wave and smile but without knowing their names and without knowing them you can never find the true thing that will make you happy you have to find the people where you do learn there names for within a name and within a past you can find love and without love whats the point in living?

Jennifer Panner

Stranger

A long day alone Emptiness is so real Never having peace of mind Running from what I can't say
And there is nowhere left to hide Turn and face these empty lies
All alone, heart unturned Trying to find...
Break me down replace this fear inside
Take this nothingness from me
I want to fight
I want to shine
I want to rise
Break me down
I try to find myself
I find the stranger trapped inside
As I take one more step away From the face I used to recognize Familiar shadows closing in Suffocating fear descends undiscovered eyes Only to find a stranger girl- i just wanted 2 c if u felt bout me as the same i felt bout u.

boy-?

girl- i love u more than anything, i would give u the world in a heartbeat. i would die for you and take a bullet for you.

boy-.....

girl- dont be sad, i love u n ill always be here w/u

boy- then y'd u break up w/me?

nurse- young man, visiting hours are over.

BOY LEAVES, GIRL IS TAKEN OFF LIFE SUPPORT, AND DIES.

but wht the boy didn't kno is that the girl only asked him those questions so she could hear him say it one last time, and she only broke up w/him because she knew she only had 3 more weeks to live, and thought it would cause him less pain and give him time to get over her before she died.

NEXT DAY

the boy is found dead with a gun in his hand..with a note in the other...

THE NOTE SAID: i told her i would take a bullet for her....just like she said she would die for me...

The Stranger Night Five

The moon comforts the stranger as he lies beneath the stars tonight.
Knowing that the dark star sleeps under the same bright sky.
There is nothing that says they are apart, only the distance,
But they are so much more closer by the heart.
As he drift to sleep he feels a present, but he is not afraid Her scent fills the room and his mind is at ease Then something brushes up against his skin, yet again he doesn't fear for the gentle touch is one he knows so well Restlessly awaking only to find himself yet alone Drifting back to sleep hoping she will be there once again

The Stranger Night One

Sorrow fills her every bone.
Knowing that there is so much time that remains.
But there is nothing more than happiness that follows the future thoughts.
A spark stays burning deep with in.
Knowing that the stranger and dark star connect as one.
What will these next days bring.
Unknowng, stange things are brought to the table.
What do the chances show?
Not anything more than what the already know
The risks are endless, but still they play the game od untolf danger.

The Stranger Night Two

A smile shows on the strangers face, one that can not seem to be peeled off.
A letter from the dark star had been recieved.
Few words are spoken between the two, but her heart, soul, and mind will beable to lay at rest tonight.
Theres a feeling with in her heart that on one can take its place.
She is willing to wait for the end for the dark star to return
Not an ounce of fear can be instilled in her at this moment.
So she will lie to rest awaiting the next letter from the dark star.

Time...

As time goes by I sit here and realize that it has a cruel and unexplained way of breaking my heart. It has taken love from me. People say that time heals all wounds...but I have to wonder do they know what love really is? To love someone and have that love taken from you is a wound that will never heal, it remains in a very dark place in your heart. You never forget that first kiss or what her touch felt like, the first time she looked in your eyes and said I Love You. No matter how hard you try no one will ever be able to replace that feeling. As I go through life I still look for her...around every corner, only to realize that she is not there. There are times when I feel like I have found true love, only to realize that time is again taking from me the girl that I love. Once again, it seems that I am retuning to the dark place in my heart. I am not sure I can go there again, I am so scared...I don't want to feel the pain it is going to bring. I wonder if she realizes what is happening or is she to searching for love ...only to realize that I am just a stepping stone in her heart. She no longer seems to look at me the same, I suddenly find myself missing the little things that she use to do to let me know that I am special to her...a touch of her hand when no one is looking, a kiss when you least expect it, when you begin to feel lonely, some how she would come looking for me.

Time

I thought that you were on my side, I thought that I could keep our love alive. Don't tell me that it's to late. Grant me just another day, help me find that right words to say. To make her want to stay.

Time

Only you can turn the page, and close the curtain on this empty stage. Only you can take this pain away....

Torched In My Own Trust

when you run from something for so long...
And you take the chance to breath i seem to have lost the reason and willingness to run i am afraid everyday that the way i feel may pass and the torchur that i was once provocted by to come back the tears of sorrow come so often that they are misunderstood And when i get close to some one they seem to walk away with out knowing the scar that remains So hear someones word that are so soft and in my ears seem so clear...
I have come to the place in my heart and time in life that i think that i am happy and the voice that makes me deseave the one i love come to me tells me have no fear i stand still without the willingness to let our love go But you seem to stand with out a movement like inside you really dont care that you no longer are in love with me Should i stay or should i go the answer should seem so clear But my tears bring me to the river and i dround in my mind and the water of not understanding and so where did love lleave me torched in my own trust and love from both the wrong and right...! !

Trust

Trust you say that in the end everything will be ok Well tell me what do you know I feel the hurt that people have every day
And it seems that no matter what it wont go away
You say that things will get better Well i dont see you up here on that stand Try in to give me a hand
The way that i feel you will never see You can close your eyes and go to sleep Nothing to keep you awake
Not the hurt or the frame
I dont have the time to make my heart rime Maybe we never sang the same tune
But in the i still love you No matter what or no matter who No one can replace the things that i feel for you remember that no matter what you do i will for ever love you

Turn Around

Is it me, or did we agree to love, somewhere I don't feel we got enough.
It's you, but what about me?
it seems like your living life without me Everything seems to have your time but my space in your heart is closing up And the place where pictures hanging, is the only time that you're with me.
Don't leave me here out all alone, oh no.
I'm still right here, where'd you go?

Look around, don't you feel something missing?
I'm the one you promised you would love, but you gotta act so far away.
While I'm holding on please turn around.
I see you but i don't feel you, can't get your attention to to save our love.
Look back and see me now.
Don't let me down,
please turn around.

i think I've must have get too much cause i felt the road was getting rough.
Suddenly i felt lonely out here
I looked beside me to find you not there.
Said you would love and protect me, all i have is the words you left me.
Here i stand with the plans in my head, its getting me the love that you said.

Don't leave me all alone
I'm still right here...
Where'd you go?

You wanna see the tears I cry on my pillow, that doesn't compare what your doing to my soul.
You don't even know I'm in need of love.
Calling you love but you don't seem to her it, and I'm losing you now.

Please just look around.

Walk.. Side By Side

My suffering begins when you had to walk away
For the reasons i cant bear to say
The gift of pain is what is left
The most wonderful thing lies inside
A gray long sleve shirt
The smell fills the room
As the memorys come rushing back im brought to my knees huddled in greef With a knife in my heart i begin to realize what you felt everyday when i had to walk away At this point i think that our future is unknowable and can not be destroyed from someone on the outside but can be shattered from someone on the inside..
So when is it that the point that you know just give in give up and just leave the rest of the world behinh so that we as one can walk side by side in this long uncontrolable moment in time I realize what people on the outside must think but the i stand frozen and place and turn around one more to smile and say i dont care in walk into the mist of time.
