Life! ! Wats It

i read poem written by a girl who is in her own alone world like a pearl a girl of nineteen so sad, alone, and dependent ive never seen life is game

u need not need a stick of others name life is a little lad who is always happy but never sad life is not a concert it is a music concert

life keeps on running, it is like a stream so do only good and live your dream life has limited time so dont waste it and make a crime

Me! ! ? ?

abt me i dont know much iam not a gr8 man as such;

my parents mean a lot to me to my life they are the key;

i just luv being wth my friends i hope this party never ends;

i luv and respect a girl who is my life's costliest pearl;

i want to be free like a bird and my aims undeterred;
