A Mind Made Up

Choice so strong not yielding,
So stringent, too unbending, and my flesh so unwilling.
Nothing else could break through it,
I've made a choice and nothing can distort it.

The next page is turned,
short tussle by the flesh in return, Faith driven, destiny driven and Love driven, Though it's audaciously stern,
I believe i can break through it,
Not by power, I tell myself not by might,
I've got nothing to fear for God is my strength.

Tenaciously moving,
Not strained nor agitated but still aiming,
It's a fight to the end for the prize of the upward calling,
Nothing moves me now for I know God is watching.

A Single Smile

A single smile can slain,
A single smile to lane,
A single smile can hide the pain.
A single smile can turn the tide,
A single smile can lead to your guild.
A single smile to rise your soul,
A single smile to widen d hole and Achieve ur goal.
You need a single smile to start a new life and end the strife,
Just a single smile can melt a heart and force a start.

Judah Daniel

A True Mother

Ever ready to lead when in need,
Ever willing to help indeed,
Always ready to be disturbed to see you unperturbed,
Ever willing to let go of all to see you glad.

What a woman,
Care less for herself,
Consistently in touch to see you untouched,
Always ready to be ruffled to see you remain unhurt.

Unreserved in deed,
The starting point that is exactly like the apogee, Embodiment of a rare woman,
Incomparable in attitude,
A light that sees your altitude,
And restructures you till it becomes a reality.
Long life to all mothers.

A Word

When you are close to tears
when life seems to be so unfair, when you are in despair and all you could ever think of is hope is gone.

But there's a word strong enough to put you right,
there's one word
powerful enough to make you smile and make you feel so alright.
Just a word i mean one word.
Just one word can strike out your fears just one word can wipe off your tears
just a word can put you on top and make you feel on top of the world,
just a word is enough to Change your world
and spin it round
just for your good.

Judah Daniel

All About You

All about you,
feel so insecure without you,
I've searched everywhere for what could make me as happy as you.
All I know is that you are close, that's why I'm never worried or anxious of what tomorrow holds.
With you in me, i feel so high,
with you in me, i feel so alright,
with you beside me, i feel so secured.
And that's why I never wanted to let go of you when you came into my life.

Beautiful Love

When my heart was full of burden and heaviness,
My mind couldn't seem to comprehend,
All I could feel was emptiness,
But yet you showed up your greatness.

Your Love, mercy and forgiveness Brought me thus far and kept me so close to your embrace, What could I ever do to pay the debt for this great goodness.

I never knew the way,
Until I saw myself heading straight away, Heading towards the light,
Yet darkness still couldn't fade away.
Watching and waiting closely, till I break away
And darkness has no choice than to stay away.

Caught by grace mercy and love,
Nothing else could do it Cos I was head on and falling all along.
Oh! Your grace has helped me, kept me and held me right on..

Dreams

Dreams come true
If truly you want it,
Dreams become a reality
If only you put your heart to it, Dreams are like parables
And at the same time like pointers.

They are like candles
That when not wisely used may fade out without any tangible impact.
It could look as if its fake and unreal, Sometimes it might look so hard to hold on to,
Dreams are not like fireflies,
Though when not pursued it could rise and fly, Nothing destroys it like low moral.

Dreams are coded vision,
Looking for a key called explanation
In order to see the fulfillment.
It could be hard to decode sometimes,
But the effect when decoded is massively positive most times.
Don't toil with dreams
For now they may look unreal
But at the end it has a vivid effect on the lives that decoded the key.

Fire Of Love

Burning in my heart there's an hunger, in my heart there's a fire, deep down in me is a burning desire,
it is you i want to know, it is you i want to see come walk and talk with me.
There's an unquencheable fire, there's an unexplainable desire,
its burning so high in my heart,
each day it draws you closer to my heart, and i keep praying in my heart never to lose you.

Judah Daniel

Glory To God

Who am i not to join the host of heaven to sing,
To say worthy to the ever living King.
Who am i not to fall on my kneels
And bow to you who is above all kings.

Worthy is the lamb that was slain,
Praise and bless His Holy name For He's risen and forever remain He for eternity is sited enthroned
And can never be dethroned.
Glory! Glory! ! to Him who lives and abides forever and ever and ever..

Your dominion is unto the end
My God who has no beginning and the end
You rule and controls the heavens and the earth.
And i bow to you the master of the universe
And glorify you whose kingdom is above all else..
Glory to God forever more..

God Is Great

It is all about the mighty works of God.
He has done great and mighty things,
he has done so much marvelous things,
if you look around your life, am sure you will see everything.
You are still breathing,
that is also one great thing.
He has done it for me already,
christ in me the hope of
glory,
he has blessed me in the presence of my enemies and that is why i give him all the
glory,
and i also say my God is great.

Judah Daniel

Grace

Connected to great dimension of grace,
Can't be nothing less and make all amaze, Though I'm still in the race,
Got so much to gain if I don't stand in awe and gaze.

Not in a haste, Though I'm giving all it takes,
To end well in the race,
before I'm aged,
And depart from here to hear ' well done for faithfully running the race'.
Receiving my crown and looking back with joy to say I've done what I know to do, I've done what I think I should do and I've done all the creator wants me to do.

Judah Daniel

He's Still Knocking

Open up and let him in, let him have a place to dwell in you.

At the door of your
heart,
he wants to take the pain away,
he wants to change the order of your day,
its been bad before,
but it can be good again.
Just open up your
heart,
let him come in and orientate you from the life of abject and hopelessness,
he wants to make you competent,
he wants to shatter and destroy all the bad plans the devil has for you,
open your heart and just give him a place in you,
he loves you and he's knocking at the door of your heart.
Will you open up?

Home Sweet Home

One love binds us
together.
A happy place to be with lovely faces to see.
Home sweet home,
no other place can be compared with home,
a place where sharing
never ends,
a place where love and joy never cease,
a beautiful place where hope is felt,
and where gladness is evidently seen.
A place filled with melody and love,
a place concentrated with happiness and peace of mind.
It is truly a home.

Judah Daniel

I Have Got Love

Just thinking all alone with my thoughts
running swiftly down
my spine.
Just a song at twilight when the lights are low,
and the flickering shadows
softly comes and go.
Now am sitting on a chair
with no one there
and i'm feeling all alone, thinking and saying to myself, damn i've got something in me.
There's an old mill by the stream,
where we use to sit,
lay down and dream,
And also watch as the waters flow,
it seems to murmur
sweet and low,
you are my heart
desire,
you are the one on my
mind,
i still have you on my
mind,
i still need you right here with me
and i don't want my efforts on you to be in vain,
because i've got Love flowing in my veins.

Judah Daniel

I Still Need You

How can I be smiling
when you're gone,
will i be strong enough
to carry on,
miles and miles to go before i can say,
before I can lay my love for you to sleep
I got miles and miles to go,
before anyone will ever hear me laugh again,
still needed you here,
but you're gone,
hoping i'll still get you,
but time is moving so fast, that i can't just watch you live just like that,
praying hard i could find you,
and when i get you i won't let you go again.

Incomplete

Sometimes you feel incomplete and sometimes you feel so complete, we never want to let go of what make us complete.
It's like gold and diamond,
we keep them in our heart with pride.
We never want them to go,
because when they go we lose the strength to glow, just like the snow causes cold and there won't be cold without rain or snow, so without them
we feel lost
and without our true love, we are incomplete.

Judah Daniel

Is Your Name In That Book?

And the Heavens were opened O! so bright was the scene
Too beautiful to behold,
My saviour coming down
As it was in the cloud.
O come Lord.

And I looked before me,
And on the throne was seated He who lives forever more,
And the books were opened together with the book of life Before Him who sits upon the throne.
It is Jesus who was nailed on the cross for all our sins.
And I saw the great and small, the poor and rich, everyone stood before the Lord
For it is He who judges the faith of all.

Anyone whose name is not found written in that book was cast into the lake of fire,
It's not just about what you desire,
It is all about what was written in that book before you appear before the judgement throne.

Is your name written in that book?
O! is your name written in that book?

O how strange that moment would be when Mercy ends
How terrible it will look..when the grace ceases Hmm.... What else?
When your eternal destination is being declared
By the things written in that book.

Is your name written in that book?

Judah Daniel

It's Not Over Yet

Sometimes we feel so dejected and underated, what life brings could be so devastating,
we never wanted some things,
but they happen in such a way that we seems not to have control over them,
what life bring tends to overwhelm us,
most a times we smile
at them,
many a times we cry
over them,
we hope to see them over as soon as possible,
so that we could stop thinking and dreaming
about them,
but the truth is,
no matter how long a journey takes,
we will get to our destination,
so it is not over yet.

Just Imagine

Just imagine you saw a man involved in an accident and you jumped out of your car, held him and took him to the hospital, he was about to open his mouth to speak when he died, just imagine the doctor telling the police that you killed the man, just imagine the police handcuffed you and took you to their station, just imagine what life could be without seeing your loved ones for a year, just imagine what will become of you behind the bars,
just imagine the tears,
just imagine the pain,
just imagine the agony,
just imagine what you will do if you were to be that fellow.

Judah Daniel

Not All

Not all feelings are true,
Not all sensations are genuine,
Not all smiles are from within,
Not everybody that comes around you will tell you the truth,
Not everybody will encourage you when you tell them your dreams.
Not everyone will believe you no matter how true what you say is.
Many will come around you when you are wealthy,
But only few are willing to come around when you are in little distress.
Many can boldly talk straight at you and say they Love you,
But only few can go behind you and say they can't do without you.
You can never be sure of those who love you until you are in a little distress.

Judah Daniel

Not Clear Enough

Looking at a clear Christmas light,
Not turning around to see what the future holds,
Holding down all thoughts, but still seems like all is well.
Working with a conscience as clear as the moon light in a blue dark sky, still hoping to see it clearer than it seems to appear.

Nothing but a blur vision, without a scope but all like a new blue ribbon, faking all day as if it were newly born, thinking you could see it all from a closer stone throw, but all to no avail for it became a less clearer glow.

Staunch

The turning of the tide
Can force a fresh start,
The rising of the sun
Separates the day from the night.
A gullible heart
Easily swept off by a single smile.

Judah Daniel

The Big Question

Life itself is a question.
In life
It's always easier to walk away,
but are you strong enough to turn a page?
Will you be the one
others can count on?
Will you be the one others will want to look like as a role model?
Will you live your life
as if know one cares?
Will you continue to live your life in fears?
The choice is yours and the answer lies within your heart.

The End Is Near

Luke 9: 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: Revelation 22: 6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

I was meditating on the man who had multiple encounters with JESUS When i suddenly fell asleep.

I saw myself coming back from somewhere and suddenly there were multiple eruptions, accidents, houses fell on each other, cars on each other. And i saw fire falling down from heaven. It was like a rain of fire instead of water. I was frightened but immediately i knew it was the end and i did not make it. I tried hiding from the accident and i cried out for mercy but the era of mercy and grace was over. I saw great destruction.

Secondly, i saw myself and my family member in a house. We were in the house and we all ran outside. People were already raptured and we were left behind. No hope, no future, no life because the Antichrist were fully in charge. I tried to warn people not to receive the mark of the beast but many had already received it. I wept bitterly. But it was too late. The spirit of the Lord was no more on the earth to keep us in safety, no more grace and no more mercy. The eye of the Lord was no more upon the face of the earth for safety..

It is not enough to give your life to Christ, you must live a holy life because Christ is coming at a time we least expect. If you don't repent and make up your mind to live a holy life now, I'm sure you will live to regret what comes after rapture..

Once again 'Let these sayings sink down into your ears.

Judah Daniel

The Great Truth

He created the world
with the word,
he's the word contained in the kjv word,
he's the word that was in the world from the beginning of the world.

Judah Daniel

The Home

A place where Giants becomes like kids
As drizzles of rain laughter flows Running slow like tears down it flows.
Down the line,
In the night time
Solitary and calm, waiting for you to turn around.

This is where love and joy abounds, Looking at each other eyeball to eyeball seems like you're spellbound.
O what a home where love flows,
And it causes an unending Joy as it glows.

Judah Daniel

The Kind Of World I Dream

I dream of a world without pain,
A world without sorrows and shame,
A world I will see all my good dreams come true.
I dream of a world where only God will be in charge,
A world of absolute peace and justice discharge,
I dream of a world true enough to be called a world.

Judah Daniel

The Living Word

You cannot survive in life without me,
You cannot make it to the top without me,
Even if you mingle your way to the top,
You can't remain on top without me.
I'm life to them that find me,
I'm joy to the eyes that see me,
I'm hope to the heart that receive me,
I'm peace to them that love me.
I helped you when you are weak and not strong enough to carry on,
I lifted your spirit when it seems to be in the moulds,
I lighted you up and gave you a remodeled,
I stirred you up and gave you encouragement,
I made sure you never live a day without me being there,
You can't touch me but I can,
You can't deny my presence because it's stronger than a falling hard can, Though many a times you can't even feel me but still i can.
Now what am I that seems to be so relevant to you more than the air that you breathe?
I am the living word of God called Bible.

Judah Daniel

The Power Of Purpose

The only way to be stagnant is to be purposeless, Once you are purposeful no matter how slow you move in life,

You will get to your destination.

Purpose does not think or say its too late no matter how late the matter may look like at first.

The True Love

Well i thought i had seen it all,
from beginning to the end,
and now i know i have waited all my life to see what am feeling today is actually the true Love.

It's filled with enough courage and passion, and i have seen it all from inception that there won't be any dissolution i will try and make it an addiction because this is really the true Love that i've found.

Judah Daniel

The Word

Every words carries a particular authority you believe it or not does not change the authority the word carries Any hopeless step you take against the word makes you increasingly helpless, thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.
Whatever you do to stop the truth of the word does not make the word void.
Nothing is more powerful than the word, there's nothing and there will be absolutely nothing.

Judah Daniel

There Is Still Hope

A moment of hope and truth, a moment when you think you are just there and you are not just anywhere near.

A moment when you imagine a lot of positivity about what tomorrow holds and you wake up still struggling, people keep on hating but you never stop pressing on and going.

A moment when you have bright dreams and all that happens around is total obscurity and it seems as if no more hope.

A moment when you have a perfect desire, but you turn all around and it seems as if the whole world around you is crumbling,

a moment when no one seems to care,

a moment when even your best friends call you different names, a moment when tears drop from your eyes and all you could do is sleep with it and wake up shedding more tears of shame.

Every moment has a hope in it if only you can hold on, every moment has an unending joy in it if only you can wait a little while, every moment has a positive answer to offer you at the end of it all.

If you know you are at the right path please don't give up,

Because the answer is just there hoping and expecting you to wait a little while so you can get it.

Think About It

We live for God,
We pant for more but only few will ever get more because of persistence.

We strive hard to please God
We looked and feel so bad when we fall, but we forgot that no man can please God without grace.

Everything about God is what dying for Everything about Him is what hoping for but until we play our part, God is not committed to do His part.

He called Abraham and told him he would be father of many nations
Abraham held on to God's promise.
How many of us today can hold on to God's word?
How many can see hope in hopelessness?
How many can truly see help in dark challenges?
We are all called to the race of faith but only few will be chosen.
Are you striving to be among the few chosen ones or you just want to live the way you want?
Think about it.....

Judah Daniel

Try Again

You can walk through the darkest path,
You can go through the toughest moments,
You can breakthrough the hardest mountain,
You can scale through all odds and still emerge unhurt.

There is no such challenges that is too hard,
You've got to know this and stop all that secret Cry's,
You can live above that fear,
You can dare all you once dread,
You can become who the creator has ordained you to become no matter how long you've shed secret
tears.

It's never over till you decide to drop the baton and say it's over,
It's never the end until you choose to end where you think its the end, It's never too late to turn around and try again even no matter how many times you've failed again and again.

Failure is not an excuse, It's not written on any man's forehead so get this as a simple clue,
Anyone who has never failed before never tried anything new,
This is all true,
Don't get it all spurned,
And watch what happens when you step out to get it all done again...

Try To Remember

It's all about the moments we shared
together,
life can get better and you can be more glad remembering those precious moments.

Going down the memory lane, there are things yet undone and they need to be done.
Those times when we use to share our dreams together, those times when all we could ever think of is being together, how i wish those moments we shared
together,
will actually last forever,
but now we have gone
our separate ways, i still find it hard to forget about those days, when we use to lay down together outside watching the blue moon
and making wishes of the things yet come in the latter days,
how could you forget that so easily, i never got trapped in my thoughts so quickly, just look back and see where we started from,
just think back and see how far we have come.
Think back, think it through and you will see reasons for us to be together once again.

Judah Daniel

What A Love

I know of a love that knows no bound,
The love that has no limit,
Unfailing love,
Undiluted love,
Dependable love.
No one ever knows how to express the experience of true love,
The love of Christ made us all complete,
No addition can be made to this unconditional love,
No subtraction can be made to this uncontrollable love,
It is a love that flows like a river,
It is a love that gives it all before you ever thought of asking.
How much of that love do you have?

Judah Daniel

When You Come Around

The day I was leaving
I was feeling insecure
I thought that I'd thrown away
All of those days
And what we had before
And now I believe it After what you had to say
I thought about every day
In every way
And this is what I'll say now baby

You don't have to worry
Cause everything's all right
I know that you'll get me
That you'll get me through the night

When you come around
You know you pick me up when I'm feeling down
And I want you to know
Baby how can I show
Do I have to scream and shout
When you come around
You only have to smile and you knock me out
But I'm here on the floor
And I'm begging for more
Baby that's what love's about

There's so many reasons Why our love is guaranteed
So many reasons why I can't hide
Just what you mean to me
So say what you're thinking While you're sitting next to me
Let all your feelings show Just let me know Just how it's meant to be now baby

You don't have to worry

Cause everything's all right
I know that you'll get me
That you'll get me through the night

When you come around
You know you pick me up when I'm feeling down
And I want you to know
Baby how can I show
Do I have to scream and shout
When you come around
You only have to smile and you knock me out
But I'm here on the floor
And I'm begging for more

Judah Daniel

Why?

I moved back, they ask me why?
I stand still, they want to know why?
So many people are loaded with why that's why when they have the opportunity, they tend to ask me why?
You say No to their questions, the next thing you hear is why?
I don't really know why many are always asking why?
I say am so coded, what my dude ask was why?
I'm just tired and fed up with all this why?
so please just tell me why?

Judah Daniel

Without You

The all in all made everything,
Who am i without you?
What can i do without you?
Where will i go without you?

If i should go deep down in the ocean
Though art there,
If i should run far abroad even to a place where no man ever tread
You will still be there.
Where can i hide that you won't find me,
Where can i stay that won't make you see me?

Thy power is upon the face of the earth Thy presence covers the whole earth,
You are the Lord of all,
Your grace sustains them all
And your power holds them all.
Who can live without the Lord of host?
Who then can run from him and not be lost?

Thy grace shields all,
Your spirit made them one in all,
Be cast off for once and see what you are left with,
Be far for once and see how terrible the devil is ready to handle you.

Your Embrace

Where feet may fail,
When faith seems pale,
Where tides can't fall,
When ocean drives
My soul will be still and rest in your embrace, even in this stormy rage..

Judah Daniel

You're Never Alone Even If You Feel Alone

When you feel like giving up, when you feel like you're alone, when it seems like there's no more strength to carry on,
and it seems like you're walking alone on a lonely road..

Sometimes the journey may be gentle,
And other times there may be snow breeze like rough unclear puzzle.
At the moment you may not understand what's wrong, But keep moving on Bcos every bend on a road does not signify the end of the road.
Always know this,
You're never alone even if you feel alone.

You've Done All You Can But Still Do What He Says You Should:

You stand and move all around,
you hoped for but it isn't just coming,
you look around thinking,
you stayed outdoor searching,
you strayed away while hoping,
all you ever wanted was peace of mind, but the more you think or see is the less you always understand.
The grip is much,
the pain is grievous,
can't just say it all,
cos all hope seems to fail,
standing but couldn't stand tall, reaching out but it isn't just enough, you've tried all you could, you've done all you can with no proof to show for it.
If you have done what you think you need to do, now look up to God and ask him what he wants you to do knowing fully well that he can do the impossible.
