Crazy About You

If iI kept in me all the wounds of the past it is to remind me of all what you did for me if in my secret garden all the bad flowers have faded
my love just a word i love you i love you i am crazy about you every thing goes time goes but not the love i have for you

If i always smile at you while in pains it is to remind me what you did for me when i was with you i had the most fabulous moments it is because you were always there for me my angel just a word i love you i love you i am crazy about you every thing goes time goes but not what i feel for you. I LOVE YOU

Dreams

yesterday was the past so we call it history tomorrow is the future so we call it misery today is the present so it is a gift from God i say to my self i am only a dreamer i am waiting for my dreams to come true when you pray to God you always say; please let me see the day of tomorrow when you go to bed the next day you say; thank you LORD for this day but one thing you forget is that your dream has come true and it always does dreaming is not al about closing your eyes and seeing images you also dream by thoughts and words

Dreams Nightmare Fantasy And Reality on my little sweet bed i had a dream it was all about you and i drinking drinking at the celebration of our marriage on that same little sweet bed i had a nightmare it was you telling me marriage between us was zero on my little bed i was there fantasizing fantasizing on a perfect marriage with you fantasizing life with you at every second just in a second something clicked in my head just to remind me to come back to reality realizing the time i was up i had a dream nightmare fantasy and i am back in reality

Facebook

Oh facebook what are you? a monster or an angel?
facebook what can i say? that i am proud of you or mad at you? facebook what are my feelings for you? love or hatred?

can you please tell me? you made me find a beloved person should i say thanks or what the hell you made me lose the best of relationships should i let it go or kill you you brought my friend and i in to communication should i be grateful or just let it go you ruined several lives should i say you are a freak you made people happy though some sad you destroy peoples marriages and relationships but still you react as if all is perfect ohohoh facebook i've got no words to describe you you are just so complicated but trust me you shall be judge by your victims

Gift Of A Friend

It pains to be all alone by your self but still you think it is the best it is in your mind that you don't need friends but it is hard to work on your own without friends you think and decide because you trust no one

It all changes when you find someone you can call a friend someone who knows when you are lost and scared someone who understands you better and try not to hurt you someone who consults you before any decisions someone who makes you happy and is always willing to help you

Hope Love And Trust

when you set your eyes on someone you hope to be friend with the person you hope the will like you when you are close to them you hope you will have the best of friendship after a while you fall deeply in love with them you can't hurt them because of the love you share you can't betray them because of how close you are you tell them every thing because you trust them these three words are best friends never separated if one is missing then you don't have a true relationship HOPE-LOVE-TRUST

I Don'T Like

help me lord hold my heart and make me strong

there are words i don't like to use but i find my self using them [goodbye, i hate you]

there are things i don't like to do but i find my self doing them [steeling, lying] jesus help me you died for me on the cross so my sins can be gone but i find my self sinning how i wish i could stop doing the things i don't like

Lost Memories

I turn to my past i see all my happy moments i see all the boys saying i love you i see all those that say i will never let you down i see all these people saying you are mine all these moments made me very happy and smile i turn to my past again an i see the revers i see all the boys saying they hate me i see them all walking away and laughing i hear my self saying please come back i see all these people saying i don't want you again disapear but then i still hear my self yelling please please please these moments hurt me and made me hate the world i come back to my present i see someone smiling at me showing me a tiny key i walked up to him and he said it is the key to your heart have it and decide i took it and handed it to him saying now it is yours decide he opened my heart and sees all my sadness and try all his possible best to make me happy again now he put the key in a golden case saying i am a gold and pressious i felt alive again and put his own key in the same case saying now we are one

Again i turned to my past but this time it was different because there was no one there just as if no one has ever been there smiling i put a sign saying LOST MEMORIES heading for my present i decided never to return in my past again

Sunshine

When i look in to the sky i see your face when i look in to your eyes i see my face when i turn our future i see us sharing love sticked together for ever you are my sunshine

Our love is a wild fire which never fades down you are a wonderful person and never let me down you always sacrifice to be with me till dawn you are my sunshine but you always say i am your sunshine

You lit up my life and i can't realise darkness has come when you are away from me i think sunshine has gone when i see your face i say my past has gone you brighten my life, you are my sunshine

Sweet Mother

You brought me on earth you brought me up when i am hurt, you are hurt when you heat me you cry you do every thing to take care of me your love is so strong and pure but still i am unable to tell you how much i love you who are you and who am i? you are the sweetest mother on earth the best woman among all women the only woman that will not want to see her child hurt i am the child who is scared of saying i love you who keeps my feelings to my self but who gives you a big and hug and huge hug when you take me into your arms i manage to whisper 'you are the sweetest mum one can ever dream of'

The Best Of Friends

A friend mustn't be with you for you to know she is the best of friends a friend mustn't flatter you to hear you say you are the best a friend mustn't say you are the sister i never had for you to know she is the sister you never had.

The best of friend is the one you know is always by your side no matter the distance the best of friends is the one who shows how much she loves you by her actions the best of friends supports you, advise you, console you and always think about you.

They accepts your behaviors and personality and try to make it perfect they make you feel at home where ever you go they always give you a hug at every time they can.

Treasure

My love and angel I am here for you my heart beats only for you my eyes lies just on your face my lips long to meet yours my one and only you make me cry when you say you are going i cry when you leave me alone i wish i could hold you close once again in my arms you are the treasure that i seek you were close to me but i did not know the love that i seek for many years was right beside me yet i could not feel it when i close my eyes i see you coming to me my love then i say to my self this is my treasure
