Kailey Marie Abbott(8/14/1997)

ever since i was in 3rd grade i've been writing poems, songs, and music. i got one of my first inspirations to write during this grade also. i met a boy whom i write most of my poems about. I love to write about love because, even though i am young, I have experienced it and love the feeling of love. I loved to write because it helps me escape from everything.

You're drawing a heart?
What could that mean?
What does it mean?
Could it be a note?
Could it be a doodle for fun?
Or could it be a doodle for someone?
Could it be for her?
Or could it be for me?
I don't know
I'm not sure
But I sure hope it's only for me
Will you give the heart to me?
Or someone else?
It's too much thinking
Too much worrying
That it won't be for me
Shouldn't get my hopes up Cuz if it's not I'll be too sad
But I really wonder....
Is it?
I'm really anxious
Really wondering
Who it's for
What it's for
Could it be for me?
It just might be!
Why is my friend next to him smiling?
Wait!
Are they passing something down? !
Yay!
Hopes high
Note from my friend
Never mind...
But wait, the picture is being folded,
Who's it for! I want to know!
Is it for him or is it for me
Or someone else in between
I want to know
Will my wishes come true?
My stomach is fluttering

My heart is racing
My hands are shaking
The paper is put away
Who knows, maybe after all it will be for me.
I don't think it is My hopes are gone
I knew it
He'd never fall for a girl like me
No matter how much I wish and plead It'll never happen
Never mind it's not for me
My name ain't kira!
I was right all along
When I said nothing will ever happen
My dreams will never come true

5 Steps

5 steps to the door
5 steps to you
5 steps seem so small
But its not far from 5,000 miles
Those 5 steps taunting me
I know they lead to you
But my heart is too fragile
If you don't take my heart, I'm not sure i could go on 5 steps to happiness
5 step to joy
5 steps seem so little
But its not far from 5,000 miles
Because those 5 steps are the hardest i'll ever take 5 steps to love

A Bully

What could a bully do in just one day?
Make you cry all the time
What could a bully do in just one hour?
Make you want to run and hide
What could a bully do in just one minute?
Make you feel horrible in such a way
What could a bully do in just one second?
Make you wish it would all go away

Kailey Marie Abbott

A Friend

Anywhere you are there will always be a friend Someone to laugh with Someone to smile with A friend that cares
A friend that loves you like a brother or sister
A friend that doesn't care about the clothes you wear or how you look
A true friend will help you when you need it A true friend will never give up on you but if you have a friend and you don't know if she's a true friend tell her to answer these questions if i fall will you be there to pick me back up if i cry will you be there to cry with me if i laugh will you laugh with me and will you be there when i need you even if you're not if you ever need me i will always be there right beside you

Dedicated to Celeste, Mackenzie, Elizabeth, Alison, and all my other friends. Also to Ashley, even though you weren't there for me i will always be there for you.

A Million

There's always a million of everything you see
A million stars in the sky
A million words in a picture
A million smiles in a day
A million people everyday
A million voices you hear everyday a million lives begin and a million end
there is a million steps to the finish line and only you can decide to take them

Kailey Marie Abbott

A Thousand Feet

If you dropped me from a thousand feet
I wouldn't do anything but fall
Trying to enjoy the ride
If you dropped me from a thousand feet
I would see all of the people I meet
I would see my friends
But the ride goes to fast
And I fall further
My friends that I have become strangers, faded memories
As I see them disappear above me
If you dropped me from a thousand feet
I would see all the good times that I had
But the ride goes to fast
And I fall further
Events that I held dear to my heart
Get lost in the clouds
As the disappear above me
If you dropped me from a thousand feet
I'd try to enjoy the ride
But it goes to fast
And I forget about all the things above me
And worry about the things below me
If you dropped me from a thousand feet
I'd try to enjoy the ride
And try to stop and look around the next time it goes to fast
If you dropped me from a thousand feet
I wouldn't do anything but fall

Alone

Alone without you
Alone with you
Alone in this world
Sometimes its just me
Sometimes its just us
Talking together alone
And the next day
I wait by the phone
Cuz i expected you to call Guess I shouldn't of fell back in love with you cause the fall is just to hard

Kailey Marie Abbott

Always

Whatever happened to that day that I know in my heart I'll treasure always?
Even though it's long gone
I'll never forget our same old song
Just another moment
Just another day
I'll cherish to spend it with you always
When I'm feeling down, I try to think of you
But it's getting hard to picture what I'll always forget
But even when I know it's time to say goodbye
I will keep you in my heart
To love from a distance
And hope you do too
Always
Together
Forever

Blind

Blind

Blind to everything in the world

Blind to everyone in the world

When i see you i am blindto everything but you

Deaf to everything but your voice

Blind to the world

Deaf to all noise

When your the only thing on my mind

the world stops

i can't focus

You sitting there with your green sweatshirt and blank stare

And i see that you are bored because you shake your knee, just like me when i am bored,

sometimes laughing at a joke breifly

then going back to staring off into space

When i'm not near you and i hear your name

The walls dissappear

And slowly everything fades away and i only see you but then i see you walk down the hall and you are with someone and i see that you love her and still blind to everything and you slowly fade away as i slip into the dark, quiet, comfort that is Blindness

Do You Remember?

Do you remember?
Last summer?
When you were mine and i was yours
Do you remember when we met?
And you wouldn't stop staring into my eyes
You were perfect for me
I was perfect for you
You were everything i have always wanted
Do you remember our first dance?
Do you remember when you held my hands?
Do you remember when you told me you loved me?
I hope you do
Cause i know you rememeber when you told me goodbye
Last summer, I was with you
Afternoons by the pool
Nights in the feild looking up at the stars and one night we fell asleep in the hammock under the trees back then it was just you and me
But i knew it was to good to last
Do you remember our first dance?
Do you remember when you held my hands?
Do you remember when you told me you loved me?
I hope you do
Cause i know you rememeber when you told me goodbye
Our first dance
Our first date
Right when we met i knew it was fate
Our first kiss
Its what i wish
I got to close to you and didn't see the bad in this
To hard to let you go again
So i ask
Do you remember our first dance?
Do you remember when you held my hands?
Do you remember when you told me you loved me?
I hope you do
Cause i know you rememeber when you told me goodbye

Don'T Go

Please don't leave
Please don't go
I wish for you and my love i wish to show
Please don't leave
Please don't go
I can't live without you
And with you here, with me my heart is complete your hands in mine
it's perfect
Please don't leave
Please don't go
I need you here with me forever
Please don't go
Please don't leave
i need you now
and I'll miss you
Forever

Kailey Marie Abbott

Emptiness

Blank walls
Empty drawers
Photos ripped to shreds lying in a pile
Memories thrown away
My heart broken on the floor
I'll never forget the emptiness in my life when you left
You took the color away
You took the love away
Now all I see is black and white
All I see is emptiness
It's gone
The light
The color
The emotion
It's all empty and I need you to bring it back
I need you with me
And without you all I feel is emptiness

Kailey Marie Abbott

Feelings

You bring too many feelings to me when I see your face or hear your name

I feel anger

Anger for what you did to me

I feel unimportant

Unimportant because you left me

I feel remorse and regret

For not saying how I felt about you

I feel sadness

Because I know I'll never get those days back

Then I feel joy

Joy because I remember the great times

I feel happy

Happy because I know you'll always still be with me

I feel love

Because I know I love you

And I know deep down inside of you

You still love me too

Kailey Marie Abbott

Forever

I thought we'd be forever
I thought we'd be together
Forever cradled in your arms
Where I was safe from any harm
Forever in a soulful trance
From the sweet aroma of romance
Forever in your lovely heart
Where nothing in the world would tear us apart
Forever sealed within a kiss
That brings me joy and eternal bliss
I thought we'd be forever
I thought we'd be together
I just didn't expect for you to say never

Kailey Marie Abbott

Gone

When I see your face my heart just flies
And when you leave my heart just dies
When I see you there I try to smile
But the happiness only stays for a little while
Our hands intertwined
And your eyes on mine
As you brush my hair out of my face
And we run off to the old maple tree
Our favorite place
Your nervous smile
Your big brown eyes
I never noticed but now I realize
It was always you who was looking my way
It was always you that, with me, you loved to spend the whole day
It was always you that made me feel wanted
But I never came to see what flaunted
I never came to see that you were perfect for me
I never told you that I felt the same for you as you did for me
And now you're gone
Yeah, I missed you
But when I told you
You left me all alone
You're gone
I'm gone
And we both will never return to each other's arms
But still I wish...

Happy Valentines Day

Happy valentines day
For you i love
For you i hate
Happy valentines day
I can't believe you
we had a date but you were two hours late
Happy valentines day when you never called i thought you got a new number no, you were just ignoring me
Happy valentines day
i think about every night in my slumber
i wish we would fall in love, its true
Happy valentines day
i love you
i hate you
Happy valentines day
i called you
you never pick up
Happy valentines day
Will you ever talk to me again
Will i be able to live without you
Happy valentines day
No, you won't
No, i can't
Happy valentines day
Will I ever forgive you
Will you ever wish we fall in love
Happy valentines day
No, no, no
I won't
You won't
Happy valentines day
so no matter what i will always love you even if you don't want me to
Happy valentines day
I hate you
But
I love you
Happy Valentines Day

Hold My Hand

Hold my hand, never let it go you call me at night its 2 a.m here and 2 in the afternoon there you say that your apartment has a real nice view of the city and you say things where just fine and that you miss me i hear the phone hang up on the other side
and i wish i woulda said
Baby, i miss you more than the world
and i don't think i could live without you and i wish you were here with me
cause i really want you to hold my hand again you're not here right now and since its 4 p.m here, you're asleep over there i look at the braclet that you gave me and i still feel your hands in mine and when you call me up you say There's really alot to do here but none of its fun cause you're not here i miss you so much i could die.
and the phone hung up on the other side
and i wish i woulda said
Baby, i miss you more than the world
and i don't think i could live without you
and i wish you were here with me
cause i really want you to hold my hand again
Even though i wish you were here with me i know it won't happen so i'll just have to wish i was there with you you called me up late at night knowing i'd still be awake and he said
I feel so lost without you you're the only one i can really talk to and before he hung up i said
Baby, i miss you more than the world
and i don't think i could live without you and i really wish i was there with you the next day

I bought a plane ticket and a passport too and i flew all the way from wisconsin to California I went to your apartment and when you answered i said Baby, i've missed you more than the world and i couldn't live without you and now i'm here with you again and i really like you to hold my hand again.

I Must Be Dreaming

I say i miss you
But you don't say i miss you too
Our initials carved into an old tree
It shows me that you'll be in my heart forever
And i dream that were together

Cuz in the middle of the night
I see us standing side by side
Then were driving down the road in the car
And your telling me 'you're beautiful you really are'
When i see your face looking at me
And i know its to good to be true
Cause it can't be you
I must be dreaming

I said 'I love you' yesterday
You say 'I haven't seen you in 3 years, i've moved on and so should you'
But he doesn't get that I don't need to see you, I just know that your the one for me
And thats what i tried to show

Cuz in the middle of the night
I see us standing side by side
Then were driving down the road in the car
And your telling me 'you're beautiful you really are'
When i see your face looking at me
And i know its to good to be true
Cause it can't be you
I must be dreaming

Intoxicating

You're intoxicating
Your eyes
Your smile
I'm intoxicated with the way you make me feel
When I look at you
I'm intoxicated with the feeling of love
You're intoxicating
I can't even mask the way I feel
You make feel things I've never felt before I'm intoxicated with you
Everything about you
You're intoxicating

For, Brett (; you make me feel alive :) ♥

Just The One

This is actually a song not a poem so yeah....

I hear your voice on the radio
I see your face in the magazines
On all the TV screens
And I know those girls
They go crazy every time they hear your name
And you probably think they're all the same
But they're not, oh they're not Those other girls ain't like me
Do you hear what I'm saying?
When all those other girls are screaming your name
Are you listening to what I am telling?
When you're all caught up in your fame
You say that you're looking for that perfect girl
One that you can let inside your world
And I know that I'm just the one
Everybody knows that your smile is like sunshine
And everybody knows your voice is like an angels
But do they really know you like I do?
I know that we never really met before
But I feel so close to you
Like you're a part of my heart
And I hope you notice me on twitter Sending all those tweets to you
Hope you notice all my comment on facebook
Do you hear what I'm saying?
When all those other girls are screaming your name
Are you listening to what I am telling?
When you're all caught up in your fame
You say that you're looking for that perfect girl
One that you can let inside your world
And I know that I'm just the one
I need you to figure out
I'm the one you dream about
I need you to hear what I'm saying
You can't treat us all the same
Do you hear what I'm saying?

When all those other girls are screaming your name
Are you listening to what I am telling?
When you're all caught up in your fame
You say that you're looking for that perfect girl
One that you can let inside your world
And I know that I'm just the one
Do you hear what I'm saying?
When all those other girls are screaming your name
Are you listening to what I am telling?
When you're all caught up in your fame
You say that you're looking for that perfect girl
One that you can let inside your world
And I know that I'm just the one
I hear your voice on the radio
I see your face in the magazines
On all the TV screens
But I wonder what it's like to hear your voice in my ear
To see your face through my eyes

Kailey Marie Abbott

Justin

We all know your name
But I know it better, Justin Justin, your eyes like chocolate
Sweet and rich
Justin, your smile like the sun
Bright and warm
Justin, your lips like candy
Your kiss is addicting
Justin, your voice like honey
Smooth and soothing
Justin, your love is consuming and makes me go crazy
Justin, we all know your name
But I know it better
I want it the most, Justin

Little Blue Paper Heart

A small faded blue paper heart
Torn and rigid with marks of black pen
I made it just for you
But i haven't seen you in three years, but to me it feels like ten
I still see you in my mind
Smiling at me with your crooked smile
But i know that for me its all behind
I don't know how you would look now, but i can guess
Your tall have brown hair and eyes and you'll never tell me any lies you'll still have your voice, different but still the same Calming and always sounding unsure you'll still always be funny you'll still always have that doughnut shaped head i always loved your nickname for me was 'woman' when ever i made you angry i loved that too and one thing that will always stay the same is our little paper heart thats blue so everytime i look at that little blue paper heart you know i'll always be thinking of you

For, Mitchell

Looking

I'm looking for someone that makes me laugh and smile
I'm looking for someone that will stay with me for a long while I'm looking for someone that loves winter but hates the cold
I'm looking for someone to love and to hold
Someone who thinks hanging out in the park is really a date
Someone who will never be late
Someone who is always so sweet
Someone who makes me feel complete
I'm looking for someone that likes long walks at midnight Someone who can sing to me
Even if they are off key
I'm looking for someone that loves me for me
I'm looking for someone who thinks I'm the most beautiful girl in all the land
And definitely someone that likes to hold hands

Kailey Marie Abbott

Love Is

Love is just a dream

A dream you can never hold in your hands

A dream that never stays for long

A dream that fades away

Love is a kiss

Love is a fire burning bright

Love is a dream

Love just is

Love is just a dream

A dream you can never hold in your hands but feel in your heart

A dream that never stays for long but stays forever deep inside

A dream that may fade away in your mind but stays forever

Love is a kiss

Love is a fire burning bright

Love is a dream

Love Just Is

Silent Heart

Please promise to listen to the beat of my silent heart
Even though i know for you thats the hardest part Please promise to hold my hand
And promise to take me away from reality and bring me to your dreamland
Please promise caress me in your love
And I'll be your angel sent from above
For my heart is silent
And does not show that i love you so
Please promise to keep my heart close to yours
For my heart is silent
I cant show that you are the one I adore
Please, I ask you to be my friend
I ask you to be my lover
For my heart is silent And i cannot tell you that i belive love is true Please hold me tight and promise to be my one shining light in the dark, dark night
Please kiss me gently
And promise to be careful
For you have my heart's key
This love is reckless
But i don't care
For my heart is silent
And only speaks to he who loves me.

The Girl That No One Can See

When I walk by I don't see you looking I don't see you noticing.
When you walk by I look, I stop, I smile to myself.
I feel like I don't exist around you and yet I feel like I'm the center of attention.
I wish to you I wasn't the girl that no one can see.
To see true love on one side and haze on the other.
I wish I was more to you than the girl that no one can see the one that trips in class and everyone laughs.
the one that no one talks to at lunch.
The girl that just sits there and daydreams not realizing she's looking at you. ☐
Being invisible.
Wish they could see, wish you could see
I am the girl that no one can see the one that is looked over, forgotten.
Around her a thick layer of haze ☐
I guess to everyone i'll always be the girl that no one can see.
The girl that has her name forgotten
Around her a thick layer of haze hiding her true self
The girl that tries to find a shimmering light in the dark
But they don't know the girl that no one can see she is kind, warm, and funny she is down to earth and accepting she needs love like she needs air
I am the girl that no one can see
and i wish i wasn't

Time Flies

It's late at night
And I'm lying in bed
Trying to sleep
But then my mind wanders into the past
And I think to myself
It all went to fast
I think back to the times that matter most to me
I try to remember what I was thinking during that time
Or what I was feeling
Then I think
When this all happened I had no idea what was going to happen after
And now it's after
I guess I'll never know what's going to happen next
But after this happens I'll still be looking at before And wish I had that time back
I'll always miss the past
Cuz it always goes by to fast

Kailey Marie Abbott

U And I

Have you ever noticed how the U and I are always together on a keyboard?
Do you ever wonder why that is?
Maybe because they were meant to be together
Maybe because they fall together perfectly
Have you ever noticed how the words loathe and love sound almost the same?
Do you ever wonder why that is?
Maybe because there is such a thin line between love and hate
Have you ever noticed how the U and I are always together on a keyboard?
I wonder why that is because it never seems to turn out that way

Unfinished Poem

A pain, deep inside my chest, thats tugging on the raw edges of the wound you've created.

even though you and the burning effection i felt for you is gone, i still feel a very close bond to you, you are my best friend.

When ever i hear your name, Mitchell, my whole body tenses up and the pain aches throughout my body.

I see your face every night in my dreams.

I know that your biggest dream in life was to become a pilot in the military but i dont want it to be, because you could, i could lose you, forever.

when i think of this the pain comes back.

There is no hiding this, I've been trying for 3 months, but it caught up with me.

You used to be the only one i ever truly loved and now i think your the only one i could love

Whenever i think of you i feel like crying, screaming and smiling all at the same time.

Its not easy letting go of someone you love, and i can't hide the pain and suffering anymore.

Writing this makes my heart hurt and i dig my fingernails into my palms from the pain, wincing ever so often.

I don't even think i have the will to finish this.

So i wont, i promise it will be an unfinished poem forever.

So i will never have to feel this pain again.

When I Look At You

Theres something different about you, something i can't explain.
And when i look at you i hear a song in my head
When i look at you i can't feel anything
When i look at you my heart beats faster than its ever.
When you smile i can't breathe and your eyes shine
When i see you i cant even control my mind.
You are funny and have that look of boyish charm.
But then i see you with someone else,
Then i wish that instead of her it was me there by your side
Then i see you hold her hand and my heart sinks.
No one ever said love was easy but they never said it would be this hard.
But when i look at you i still hear a song in my head
And when you smile your eyes still shine.
When i look at you
I wish you would look too.

Dedicated to Alex, the one who made me belive in love.

Kailey Marie Abbott

Who Will?

Who will polish the stars when they get dull at night?

Who will warm the sun in the day so it can bring light?

Who will find a cold heart love?

Who will follow their dream they have every night?

Who will understand a poem with the truth about life?

Well, guess you'll have to give up on that because no one cares about a dream

Kailey Marie Abbott

With You By My Side

With you by my side I could do anything
I could be invincible
With you by my side I could climb the highest mountains
And we could look down at the world below us
With you by my side I could cross the deepest oceans
And we could look back the world behind us
With you by my side I could do anything
With you by my side I am not afraid
We could be untouchable
With you by my side I could face the biggest risks
With you by my side I could run a million miles
With you by my side I could do anything
With you by my side I am complete
With you by my side I would laugh
I would cry
I would smile
I would love
With you by my side I would die
Die for you
As long as I'm with you
And you're by my side

Kailey Marie Abbott

Words

I, m sitting here trying to write a poem about you when the truth is,
words can't describe how i feel about you.

Kailey Marie Abbott

You, Me, And Us

You, Me, and Us

You have no reason to fuss

I have no reason to wish it any other way

We have no reason doubt it

You, Me, and Us

I tell you everything

You give me everything

We have everything we need, and all we need is each other

You, Me, and Us

I love you

You love me

We love us

You, Me, and Us

It's just you and me in the world

And the greatest thig about that place is us

Kailey Marie Abbott

You'LI Never Know

Oh, you'll never know how much i've always loved you I cared for you, I talked to you everyday and still you'll never know how much i cared I smiled at you, I accepted you and still you'll never know how much i've thought about you I laughed with you, I cried with you
And still you'll never know how much i loved you.

For, Mitchell

Your My Everything

You say that you love my eyes
You say that i'm so easy to talk to You say you'll never break my heart
But you did
Hand in hand
Side by side
You make me feel like i belong here
You say i'm your best friend
But i don't hear you saying

Your my everything
Shes my everthing
I want you to say you want me
Cause your my everthing so say I'm your everything

I say that i love your smile
I say that your voice just makes me fall for you
I say that i will always love you, and i kept that promise
You and me
Me and him
You make me feel like i truely love you
I say i want to be more that friends
But i want you to say

Your my everything
She's my everyting
I want you to say you want me
Cause your my everything
So tell me i'm your everything

Your my everything
Say she's my everything
I wanna be your everything
Be your everything
Be your everything
So tell me i'm your everything
