Alone, Dark

-How many tears must fall till i run out of hope-

"I have come to realize more and more that the greatest disease and the greatest suffering is to be unwanted, unloved, uncared for, to be shunned by everybody, to be just nobody [to no one]."

Alone in the dark dismal world, black tears fall from my eyes...every moment i breathe, drowning in my tears of sorrow, scared, hurt, hopeless, everything slipped away the minute. never thought it would happen so fast. never ending sadness, never ending pain. nothing but black dismal darkness...full of my feelings.... i weep and weep wondering, pondering, will i ever be saved, or is my heart to lost to be found. who would have thought the darkness screams' so loud...i'm constantly trying to cast out, my hopeless cries for help. my screams of sadness, and the voice of my tears. i can see nothing but darkness, all my memories are lost in the black sea of tears.

here alone in this painful darkness i will embrace. no one can hurt me but myself, i wont be worrying others with my cuts & tears.. i wont be a trouble. let me be consumed.

Are You Listening

are you hearing a words i say can you hear me?
why are you walking away.

did you hear me say..

'i love you, i need you, i cant bear my wounds without you'

i'm seeing you walking away,
and not hearing my hearts words.
even though your walking away not even listing i won't let you go whats going on i thought you cared, whats going on i'm starting to think you never wanted to be here.

please listen to my voice hear my call for help...
i need you.

why cant you hear me,
why do you just walk away,

please listen to me..
please listen to me....
your silence kills me,
don't leave me,
emptiness, is filling in between the spaces where your hand used to be.

Child Of Mine

The days will come when you don't have the strength
When all you feel is your not worth anything Wondering if you ever could be loved
And if they truly saw your heart they'd see too much

Remember Your beautiful
You are made so much more than all this
You are his
You are more than what is hurting you tonight

You are a one Jesus madly loves
Enough to die
So dry your tears child of mine,
Let me warm your heart

I'll guide you through this dark
Take his hand
Come to me
You will see

The light meant to Keep you embraced for eternity

Do You

do you,

do you need me, will you hug me.

do you really want to see me...
because.....
i want you to....
hug me kiss me tell me that you love me, and promise me..
you'll always be there....
because you care..

so,

do you,
do you,
do you,
really want me...
if so will you,

because baby i love you

more than you can ever think....

so,
do you realize the way i love you isnt a lie.
do you realize your all i see.
do you?

Everything About You

Your lips,
Better than anything,
Your eyes,
Sparkle more than any star,
Your arms,
Always protecting,
Your heart,
Warmer than the sun,
Your love,
The best I've ever felt,
Your face,
So perfect,
You.

The one I need, the one whose arms hold me,
The one whose touch makes me skip a beat,
The one whose hugs make me smile,
The one.

Your eyes I trust,
Your lips are my candy,
Your heart my heart,
Your love my strength.
You.

My everything.

The one whose smile makes me see the world in color,
The one whose love makes me complete and alive.
I always want you by my side, forever.

You protect me,
You love me,
You care for me,
You hold me,
You make me smile,
My sun,
My warmth,
My lover,
My life.

you you you, are so important,
have you realized it?

Good Luck!

If your living out of habit. Good luck.

[what happens when you want to break that habit]

If your living for one person. Good luck.

[what happens when that person dies]

If your living for out of curiosity, or rage. Good luck.

[what happens when you loose interest]

If your living to find your purpose. Good luck.

[live a life of purpose, create your own.]

If your living. Good job.

[your one of the many who hasn't given up]

If your living your surviving.

If your living with angels. You don't need luck.

[Angels got all the luck they need to back you up].

live it up, laugh it up, go with the flow don't hold back, let go of regrets, life isn't based off luck but your will to stay strong, your will, your faith, yourself.
Now here is an idea base life off of that.

I Need You

i need you,

i need you to hold me tight,
i need you to tell me that you love me,
i need you with me,

all i need is you,
your my one my only,

your the one who makes me smile,
when i frown,
you turn my frown upside down,

your the sun in my sky,
your my twinkling light,

your the one i love,
your the only one i need.

so please always stay with me,
be the one too...
hold me tight and never let go,
be the one to tell me you love me so,
i need you to show me you care,

i always show you how much i care,
i always show you how much i love you,

but i'm always wondering if you love me too.

I Will Stand Up

if you make me stumble and fall,
i will stand back up,

if you make me lose it all,
i will still stand back up,

when you turn all my dreams into nightmares,
i will still stand,

i will stand up for what i believe in even if i am alone.

i will stand tall,
i will stand with pride,
i will stand with confidence,
i will stand.

i will not fall.
i will not give up.
i will not let it go.

im not leaving your heart so easily and your not leaving mine so easily either.

i still believe we have a chance.

you me theres no other way.

i will stand.
if you push me down,
i'll just stand back up.

i'll wait for you to realize its only you and me.

[eh this poem is kinda bad]

Light In The Road

there is a light at the end of this road
though i do not see it i know
there is a light at the end of this road doesn't matter how i get there doesn't matter if i have to crawl all i need to know is that there is a light at the end of this road
i've worked my life away and now it is time for me to say
there is a light at the end of this road
i'll reach it than i'll go...
go into a distant land
where light lives and shadows die where wings and feathers are raised high where love is everlasting and smile always shines glitter and gold mean nothing fame and fortune do not matter all i need to no is there is a light at the end of this road and thats where i'll go

Look Into Her Eyes

look into her eyes,
can you see what i see.
i see the pain, she's felt.
her eyes are tired.
why?
because the hope she once had is gone.
only lies keep her beliefs together.
only lies are binding her happiness.
false happiness, filled with false hopes.
why?
she is the one who lost everyone dear to her,
and here you stand looking at her as if you are staring into a mirror.
her eyes cast down.
can you feel what i feel just looking into her eyes.
you where what was her everything, now explain to me why you aren't with her, when you feel the same.
ah you had no choice, Wrong answer.
look into her eyes, do you feel how much she misses you.
look into her eyes, you'll find a place where words cannot reach.
look into her eyes, see they are full with sorrow.

look into her eyes, and show her yours.
show her your back, prove to her you feelings haven't changed.
let her see your eyes,
when eyes meet, words cannot speak,
when eyes meet, you'll feel the hearts beat as one,
that is when love comes.

look into her eyes and see the sparkle you bring step back look into her eyes and see that sparkle once was is and is now faded

bring her back to common ground bring her into the love you found

let her know
look into her eyes and let her know

Looking

there is this little angel who is flying high, and flying low,

he is looking for something....

what are you looking for little angel boy?

and he said ' you see i fly high into the sky looking for a heart like mine'

and then he flew off

everyday i watch him....

he looks in the morning and continues at night.

constantly looking,

without stopping.

always searching for that heart

looking looking with all his might he finally finds the heart

that is right

the angel walks up to me and says

'its you,

your the one i've been looking for,

our hearts are very much alike.'

i stare deeply into his brown eyes and i see us hold hands in the starry night sky

'will you take a chance and fly away with me, ' he says so proudly

i noded my head then grabbed his hand.....

we fly off into the sky,

both feeling so very right,

holding hands as we fly,

so very very high in the sky,

i have a feeling that were going to be together forever and ever

Memories

flashbacks,

memories,

of that touch, of that feel, of that kiss, of that first phone call.

enter my mind.....

that kiss gave me more than life,

that feel gave me more than love,

the first phone call gave me more strength.

that touch was so soft,

you are my everything, without you i have nothing.

if you leave, i'll come running off to find you, are eyes full of depression, but are hearts filled with the love for one another, no longer is my heart hollow, no longer do i dream of suicide.

because of you, thank you for making me who i am today,

thank you for all the kind words you always gave me.

we always cried together

we always screamed till we ran out of words to say together.

we always had amazing fun adventures together.

we always kissed and held eachother,

we always stood by one another.

the flashbacks, the memories will always be in my heart,

my every breath every step binds us together.

so i hear your name is
Mr. Playboi,

'oh its true, its true, ' you say what games to do you play...

'i play the game of love baby, ' you said

Never Ending Sorrow

crying, crying, crying,
tears full of sorrow,
tears full of pain,
tears never ending.
[all alone]

why do i live in such suffering,
why do i live in such pain,
why?
[lost in this horrible nightmare]

some one hear my screams,
some one end my nightmare,
please!
[still alone no one comes]

forget it,
i give up,
my love is gone, my hope is lost, my life is nothing,
i am nothing.
[grabs gun]

if there is nothing to live for what do you live for?
everything is a lie,
everything is black and grey, [points at head]

no one cares,
if i die no one would notice.....
i guess in this dark corner in this dark room is were i will leave.
goodbye.
[shoots]

No One

No one loves him, the way i do nobody loves as much as me.

nobody can love him more than me.

nobody can touch his heart,
because he is mine.

no one and i mean no one can understand...him
the way i understand him...

i love him
i love him

and he is all mine.
so dont try or waste your time.

i love him
and he loves me too.

our hearts to together are one,
so dont you try to hurt us,
because one of us will pull out a gun.

No Title

i got a heart full of pain

a head full of stress

a handful of anger

held in my chest

this tears wont end this pain is just to real

i scream and no one comes, whats the big deal

all i can do is smile and pretend everything is okay.

deep inside my head i wish i was dead

so the memories of you would fade away,

i want to turn out the light say goodbye and goodnight,

i'm cutting my wrists along with my throat

its all cuz of this

this hurt you gave me just wont leave me [take it back please]

that heartfelt kiss god i wish i could forget.

take back our memories, cuz i cant get them out of my mind.

night by night you're the reason i cant sleep.

you're the reason my thoughts are corrupted,

you're the cause

the love of my life and my death

farewell, farewell.

Not Giving Up

i will not,
i will not,
i will not,

Give up.

i will stand high,

i'm not going to give up,

i will win,
i will win,
i will win,

i live to succeed,

i will never, never,
ever, ever,

Give up.

even life's hardest time i will push through,

i will never give up...

i will live my life to the fullest,

if i fall all stand right back up,

And i will say 'i will win.'

i will not,
i will not,
i will not,

lose.

Because i will not Give up.

never will i give up.

i will win.

even if it gets hard, or painful,
i will win.

nothing, and i mean nothing,
will stop me.

i will win.
i will win.

i made a promise to myself saying
'i will not give up.'

i will NOT
Give up.

no matter what i'll never give up...
no matter what i will win...

i will Win! ! !

Rose Am I In Pain Till I Die

a rose am i,
touch me and i'll make you cry
or even worse i'll watch you die, right before my very eyes.

a rose am i,
so evil, so dark, and
no love from the start.

here in my bed of roses i lay in pain,
there is never any joy in my day,
so alone and afraid,

my life is a nightmare,
and my pain is hard to bare.

if i where you i would back away, because i dont think you could handle watching and looking at my pain.

a rose am i,
so empty and so lost...
am i.
with no one by my side...

i am alone,
i stand alone,
i breathe and live
alone...

a rose am i,
so sad, so down,
and always wondering if there's anyone else around.

a rose,
a rose,
am i.
with beauty no one can define.

i'll forever be this way,

my life will never change,
and neither will all this pain
this is the way its will probably be for all eternity, till the day i die,
i guess this will always be my life.... =[

Shattered

Broken heart, broken dreams,
there is no more hope for me.

shattered memories,
painful days.
tears fall everyday,
i'm shattered into over a million pieces.

how many times must i shatter?
when will it just be over.

my life cant go on this way, everything has been taken away.

i'm left alone, in pain.
well it always be this way?

Suicide Note

Dear friends, and family,

ask much as i love you this is goodbye.

Dont blame it on yourself.

Its personal. i cant take it anymore.

i give up. i'm tired. its so hard to stay so strong.

to fake a smile everyday because you dont want people to worry.

its hard when all you do is make everyone elses life happy, but you dont make your own life happy.

so many unanswered questions. what is the meaning of happiness?

who am i really? ect. i hope i will always be in your heart.

the suffering is too much.

the pain is to real.

my heart crys,

death is the only answer.

life is a nightmare. so maybe death is a dream.

when you see and deal with nothing but pain,

when you feel completely worthless,

when your to lost to be found.

when you are suffering,

when you cry,

when your sad,

NEVER do what i did.

i have done what i have done because of all that and more.

words cant describe the pain the horrible life i had.

sorry.

remember i will always be in your heart,

that is if you want me there,

love,

your worthless good for nothing...gone person...

Living is having the power not to give up.

Remember to stay strong, embrace,

but mostly do not give up

kanako izumkui

Take A Chance

come on, i know you have to want to come on, take a chance

come with me.

come on, be a little risky

please!

i would really like to show you the kind of person i really am but you have to give me a chance.

please!

lunch, tea, park, anything we can go anywhere, but you have to give me a chance take one.

boy come on,

your the type of guy that is....
over protective and i dont mind
please take a chance...

if you dont take a chance you'll never know if i was the right one....
and are you just gonna let the right girl walk away from your life...
i wouldnt...

so please take a chance.....

think about it please

[oh and if you choose lunch or a movie i just want you to know your paying]

The Couple

They never took their eyes off each other for they are what we would call good hearty lovers.

Her name was Rose, and his name was Nick and she and him sometimes made a fit.

of course they worked things out,
but they never got better.

for he loved some other
and she wasn't sure about forever...

so one day Nick and Rose broke up they took different paths not thinking about what's up or down or left or right, but then again they fell in love at first sight

The Door

the door is locked up tight

If someone opens it they must be ready to open the door with all there might.

this door can only be opened when you put all your love and hope in it.

i'll make a cake and i'll put on some tea...

so your the one who opened the door welcome,
welcome to my world.

The Guy

*all the good guys are gay*jk*

Boy your really one heck of a guy, with your cool hair and your sky blue eyes.

you have a smile that can brighten
the world.

Boys like you, well....
there arent any.

A boy with a kind heart like yours...
is what people and girls would kill for.

Boy your wonderful in every way,
just seeing you would brighten everyones day.

Boy i bet you mean alot to the world,
i know no one is perfect,
but your pretty close.
everyone must love you the most.

The Knock

when i was broken inside my heart led me to u

i'm broken inside.

i just dont know what to do.

i tried to buy some super glue,

[i want to fix what is broken.]

the super glue didnt work...

so i bought some band-aids,

they wouldnt stay.

[what will work?]

so then i tried some hot pink duck tape.

and it worked for awhile but then the duck type just faded away.

[i guess only love can fix love]

i threw my heart away,

and the next day..

i heard a knocking at my door,

and he said 'is this yours'

then i saw something i thought i would never see,

i saw my heart healed and loved as can be.

and well the day after the knock at my door i felt,

something i never felt before.

i let him in and i made some tea, then i realized

he was in love with me.

after that i realized i loved him too. and so a few years later well...

ask my husband.

The Moment

Laying here,
feeling, worried, stressed, sad, broken, and hurt....
theres no point of thinking of the past,
and yet i find myself flashing back to that day.
the sadening words you said, the tears you cried,
what an unforgettable memory,
how can i make her happy?
repeatingly the question echoed through my mind..
happy?
what is happyness
how can i make someone happy,
if i cant even understand the meaning myself.. i tried and tried and tried again but yet the tears still fell from your eyes what can i do?
suddenly you saw his face in the pain you felt went away, thats when i walked...alone

They Lay

They lay hand in hand
under the willow tree

there hearts are one and there as happy as can be.....

as they lay under the tree,

they look at the stars then slowly they drift into a sleep

she dreams about him and he dreams about her fore only together will there love be forever sure

This Is The Day!

This is it this is the day

the day i lost,
the first day where i have been truly sad.
this is the day i will always remember.
this is the day i will never forget.

this is the day,
i finally woke up.

i woke up this day,
and i saw the world around me.

So much color,
so much joy,
and yet i see so much pain.

i understand now.
i mean its all clear.

life is how you see it.

This is the day,
when i finally realized that....
life is what you see and believe, and hear, and everything.
life is everything...
life is full of good.
life is full of evil.

life is life....

life can be a lie.
and life can be the truth..
it all depends on you.
and how you think about it..

So wake up.
start anew.

and think about what you could...
do and should do....

life is what you make...
so make it like you...

Unknown

I know I should be happy,
Without you being with me.
But baby that's not true sorry.

Even though your with him,
And probably as happy as can be.
I'm so I'm so lonely.

I'm happy for you I guess its true,
But I truly, honestly, miss you,

Darling dear I know you love him,
More than me, but I want you to know,
I'll always think of you and me.

I wish you a good life without me,
I hope your happy as can be with him,
And not me.

Darling dear if your worrying about me,
Don't worry please....because
I'll make it through because of how much I love you...
Seeing you smile and seeing you laugh,
Now that's all I care about,
So I promise I wont pout, or cry, or let out a painful sigh

so why do you just date him,
and not me.

you tell me you love him and you need him,
so go ahead fine be with him.

but girl you love him so...

Us

You know you gotta feel something when all you can think about is that person and you can't stand to be away from him for more than one second. You love him but you can look at him because he's not yours. You fall asleep thinking about him and dreaming everynight about him.

You may want whats best, but you want his best to be with you. Do you feel sad, do you feel love. Do you feel.

I fell hard the first time I saw you, your dam death stare, your damn personality, I was falling deep the day we spent time together. I promise this is going to be the last. Your hers not mine. Goodbye.

If we were meant to be together. Don't you think we would already be together.

One day you'll come to me and ask me what's more important your life or mine. I'll take a breath knowing what I say next will be my last words to you..i'll say my life and your going to walk away never knowing that you are my life.

When my world crashes who do I turn to when the only person that destroyed my world can fix it.

Crushes only crush you,

Words out of his lips will tare you apart.

Falling only hurts you,

Hearts will only break you,

If there is no love to save you, might as well give up and say goodbye.

It takes only a minute 2 get a crush on someone an hour 2 like someone and a day 2 love someone but it takes a lifetime 2 forget someone.

Bided by pain

Bided by suffering

Never thinking about are selfs

The word together enters are mind as we hold hands.

We share our sorrow,

We share our love, with no one but each other.

We gave each other are abused hearts the day we met.

What Am I To You [this Poem Needs Work]

when i watched my everything slip away, hopes lost, dreams broken, everything taken away,
what a nightmare you put in,
pain, sadness, anger, madness, and suffering became...
Never Ending,
the one who brought me to life destroyed me,
your lies i believed,
how blind was i?
apparently i was...far enough to think that you were different from the rest you were at fist different you, i thought actually cared... but in the end i was just a mire toy who is now been put into the dark room inside your mansion classified as a toy,
is this what i really am to
just a toy,
i thought we were...in love, ... why.
why did your lies, pull me in,
why did your lies, ...
draw me closer, make me want.. to have you..
you locked me in your closet will you come back to me how long do i have to wait this pain is just unbarring if i'm a toy will i get played with again should i be satisfied and wait or should i find away out of this closet...

What Is What?

what is good
what is evil
what is wrong
what is right

what...do you not ask these questions yourself..

i know that you have all once said a question.
with the word what.

what its self is a question....

a what is what you ponder...
while trying to find your answer.

and let me tell you there is a answer to that...
what.

let me tell you this...

the answers to your whats
come from in your heart... because all answers lie within you...

you have the answers to your whats and hows and everything else..
just look deep and hard and you will find it.

When Will

situation complication
all these problems running through my mind oh oh how will i survive...

when will this sorrow end when will my day begin when will i finally find the real me [who am i]

maybe one day i'll be able to see the color that lies beneath my feet.
oh....
till then i'll wait for the day hoping one day to fade away...

i'll wait for the the day....
i will find the answers to my meaningless questions

With Me

be with me when i'm down
don't be the one to turn my world upside down

be there when i cry or...
when i need you to tell me it will be alright be with me i need you

be here with me also because i love you

be here when i smile
be here when i laugh
be here when i need you the most

i'll always be there for you.
but will you be there for me.

Wondering

how come, how come
i wonder why

some of the simplest things in life are hard to understand why oh why we all wonder

it really makes me ponder

You Must Be A Magician

you must be a magician,

every time i run into your arms, my heart warms.
every time we talk, i am at ease.
every time you speak, i always listen.
every time we argue, we always make up.
every time you make me smile.

you must be a magician,

where does your magic come from.
how can you always make my heart beat faster than lightning hits the ground.
how do you know what to do at the right time.
how come every time we fight we end up smiling it off.
how did you come to be so wonderful.
nothing is ever boring with you around how come.

why do you always stare at me, making my face redder than a rose.
why do you always surprise me with just one kiss.
why is your smile the sun, that dries my tears.
why are you always taking care of me.
why is it?

you must be a magician.

'My love, i am not a magician, but if i was here is my answer to your questions.
My magic is my affection for you, therefore as long as your by my side. i can do whatever you like. why? how? i do not know, but i do know i have fallen for you.
Now my dear let me ask you this. Are you a magician? All your questions are exactly the ones i have asked myself.'

As the two magicians walked away holding hands, let love be the magic, and your heart be the magician.
