A Dream Gone Horribly Wrong

Surrounded by toys
A puppy, a doll
Life's little joys
Too big for them all.
Today is the day
I got what I wanted
I finally got my way
With toys that I flaunted.
The sadness was gone
But I know I was bought
I was just a pawn
In an elaborate plot.
He used me for his gain
Without thinking of the cost
How much it's caused me pain
Or how much I have lost.
I know that he played me
Just like his favorite song
Again I was betrayed, see
Like in a dream gone horribly wrong.

Another Chance?

So many things happened before
Hurt, lies, and betrayal
When you walked out of my life through that door
I thought, 'How can I prevail? '.
I spent so many nights all alone
Crying and wondering what to do
I knew my shot at love was blown
But I still loved you.
After a while, the pain went away
And I didn't hurt so bad
My skies came out of the dreary gray
And for once I wasn't so sad.
I still missed you quite a lot
And some nights I was still depressed
But I'd gotten over you, or so I thought
I could see you without being stressed.
But when you walked back through that door today
I felt the sad spark of a dead romance
One that made me want to say
'Should I give you another chance? '.

I Couldn'T Be Happier

I know we've had rough spots in the past
But you've come back to me again
This time I know our love will last
Because you're still my best friend.

When you came back into my life
You filled my heart with joy
I was no longer filled with strife
Because I had my special boy.

I feel freer than I have in a long time
Because you're with me now
I'm no longer losing my mind
I'm no longer wondering, 'How? '

You've found your way back to my heart
And taken away my sorrow
Never again will we be apart
That's a promise for every tomorrow.

Once again you're part of my family
My heart has found it's cure
Because you're back here with me
And I couldn't be happier.

I'LI Always Be There

I know that you are hurting
And things are hard for you now
But just know you're not alone
I'm here to help you out.

You can always count on me
Because I love you a lot
I'm willing to do anything
Just give me a shot.

I'll stick by your side
No matter what
I'll be here for you
Because I love your goofy butt.

No matter what you need
Or how bad things get
You'll always have me
To help you through it.

I know you're really struggling
Because this life's not fair
But just know through everything
I'll always be there.

I'LI Always Love You

It seems that no one wants us together...
Everyone wants us apart.
But that could never happen my love...
It would just brake my heart.
Without you...
My life would end.
I would die...
Without my special friend.
Things aren't working...
Exactly right.
But I go on...
To see the sight.
Of a smile...
On your face...
And to feel...
Your warm embrace.
I'm still not sure...
What I should do...
But at least I know...
I'll always love you.

My Apology

Baby I'm so sorry
For everything I've done
I know I screwed up badly
But you're still my #1.

I love you more than life itself
And you know I always will
Without you my life is hell
I need you so much still.

You are the best thing
In my entire life
You make me wanna sing
I can't wait to be your wife.

You are my only love
But I know I messed up bad
You were sent to me from heaven above
To hurt you made me sad.

I will never do that again
Now I know what to do
Because you are my best friend
And I'm sorry that I hurt you.

My Full Heart

My mind keeps going back
To the day we met
And how I just knew
You'd be someone I'd never forget.

At first I was upset
Cause I was missing something cool
But now matter how awesome it was
I knew I was a lovesick fool.

I loved you from the first day
And you know I always will
You were so sweet and cute
I'd never get my fill.

It's been almost three years
And I've loved you every day
I missed you so much
The times I was away.

I know times are hard for us
And we have to be apart
But just know no matter what
You have my full heart.

The Greatest Poet

The greatest poet in my life
Is very special to me
She's always helped me with my strife
And tried hard to make me happy.
She is an angel in my eyes
Always with a definite style
The one who makes me apple pies
Just to see me smile.
She's the one who taught me how
To read and write and inspire
With her poems that I read now
I write my own, using hers as fuel for fire.
I care for her very much
Because she's always by my side
She always has a loving touch
And she helps me with my pride.
Looking at her, you might not know it
But her poems are the bomb
In my opinion the greatest poet
Will always be my mom.

The Lament Of A Broken Girl

You said you loved me
But did you mean it
You made promises
That you never kept
You lied to my face
You broke me down
You took my heart
And stomped on it
You filled my head
With dreams
Of a happy life
Dreams that would
Never come true
You promised
That we would make it
That no one
Would be happier
I had a life
Before I met you
You took that from me
Beat me down
Made me a shell
I'll never get that back
Never be what I once was
You used me
Abused me
Confused me
So I left
I do love you
And I always will
But now I must go
I wont be hurt anymore
I can't do it
I wont stand by
And let you ruin my life
I am done
But I wonder
All the times you
Betrayed me

All the times you
Lied to me
All the times you
Accused me of things I didn't do
All the times you
Broke me down
All the times you
Hurt me
All the times you
Hit me
All the times you
Treated me like I was nothing
Did you love me anyway?

You Make My Life Wonderful

I'm sitting here thinking about
How you changed my life
Without your wonderful love
I'd still be caught in strife.

You take my cloudy days
And make them bright
You take me out of the darkness
And bring me into the light.

You make everything worth while
You make everything great
Even if I don't have
All the good things on my plate.

You make me glad to be alive
You make me able to deal with the pain
If you weren't in my life
I would go insane.

What I'm really trying to say
And oh how I know it's true
Lord, I'd be lost in the dark
If I did not have you.

You'Re Always In My Heart

As I sit and think
About what I'm gonna do
I can't help but smile
When I think of you.
You got me all messed up
You know I feel so lost
I just wanna talk to you
No matter what the cost.
I keep thinking about you
I don't want you to go
I think I'm going crazy
I thought you should know.
I haven't known you very long
But you're stuck in my head
I'm so very confused
I can't forget what you said.
You mean a lot to me
And this is just a start
When you feel like no one cares
You're always in my heart.
