Am I Over My Past? ? ?

idk... im sure i am but every time you look around im thinking of my past.. all the hurt.. all the beatings i got...

So mant people i trusted and they hurt me.. My mom and dad who wasnt there to here my cries...All the times i cried and no one heard me.. so many times i ran away or slept outside or had sex with men over my age.. all the hurt my heart felt.. lol its hard to let it go.. just want to go and kill every one... its not worth it.. is it? ?

No im older... move on...

His Eyes

His eyes i love.. so much.. before he speaks.. i no wat he is going to say.. i can see it in his eyes, , his eyes tell it all.. I no he loves me and will never leave me..When he sees me his eyes lights up his whole face.. they smile.. they glisten making me love him more and more..When his eyes wwonder over my body i can tell he likes wat he sees..His eyes tell it all But they never lie to me..His eyes are faithful..They see ang have a brain of there own..When somethings wrong his eyes look sad and he looks down..His eyes tell eveything deep down.. brown eye.. long lashes.. staring into mine.. looking deep within They no me very well.. His eyes I love.....

In Love

LOVE..in love is a happy feeling wen you experience laughs, huggs, and kisses with that person.. you kan go places with that personand have good and bad memories.

LOVE.. wen u argue with him & u dnt want to argue.. u just want to laugh talk and tell each other how much u love one another..

LOVE..makes you want to give up! ! makes u mad..makes u cry from being so u say things u dnt mean

LOVE.. is a good passionate feeling wen u have some one to love and explore things with.. and no matter wat they are always there 4 u...by urside to wipe ur tears and make u happy.. This is why i love him and this is why lou who are reading this is in love.....I will never let go or give up....I LOVE YOU

The Hurricane

Moving away.. so much tention...

it rains.. it storms..I love you gets shorter...In his heart and my heart it rains...

I cry...toss and turn every nite.. no kind of communication with him...The rain pours hard... We start to wonder is this ment to be? ? My life is shallow..The hurricane fills it with so much depression and stress.. so unhappy..

But only i see the hurricane...

I have to stop it before it overflows.....

You Set Me Free

Baby you set me free from all problems... of all bad choices i ever made..You make everything so right and so perfect...I will never leave you..You set me free of my fears, of my heart, of all the darkness, of the hurt and the liars
My future lies with you.. in your eyes i see nothing but love..You make the angels rise and the dead smile..You set me free the old me who had flaws and all...You make my blood boil and my body amile..You made me who i have become and God was my creator...You took me upon your heartand catered to my every need and want, , You made me survive everything..You opened my eyes to a brand new world.. a brand new life.. to brand new people and a brand new me..
You held my hand on a path with no ending...You made me realize life..I Thank You.. I Love You..You set me free. i can fly with you..
I love u
